

Still Time to Make a Pretty Dress for Easter

But you haven't an hour to delay

There are some women who will not be content unless they make their own garments, and as usual a number of them will put off until the last minute the planning of their new frocks. So this is just merely to remind you that if you want to buy materials and make up a dress for Easter it is absolutely essential that you make your selection at once.

Let us call attention to the NEW SUITINGS IN SERGES, GABARDINES, POPLINS, and CHECKS.

These materials are very much used, are perfectly reliable in every way, and we are selling them at old prices. Whether you want Woolens, Silks, Linens, or Cotton Dress Fabrics, we are in a position to show you one of the best assortments in this section of the state, and always at reasonable prices.

18c --- Saturday Special --- 18c

We are fortunate to have a large quantity of HUCK TOWELS, valued at 25c, and for quick selling Saturday we will place these on sale at the unusually low price of 18c each, or 35c per pair. Don't miss this.

THE HOMER FITTS CO.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1916.

The Weather

Probably showers to-night and Friday; moderate variable winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Macabee bazaar, April 27, 28 and 29. Birthdays cards from 5c up, at Bell & Houston's.

Harold Edson was a business visitor in Vershire today.

New goods received all go in the great sale at Vaughan's.

Everything goes at the auction in Kenyon store to-night—adv.

Mrs. Ira N. Houston is visiting relatives in Waterbury for a few days.

Get your tickets for the MacQueen lecture at Drown's. Price, 25c—adv.

Truckmen of the Barre local will meet at their headquarters this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Presbyterian choir will meet to-night promptly at 8 o'clock. Let every member be present.

George Wilford, who formerly resided on River street, has moved his family back to his farm on the east hill.

Mrs. A. W. Eastman of Eastern avenue has gone to Nashua, N. H., where she is visiting relatives for a few days.

W. H. Bycraft of Graniteville has returned home, after passing a few days at his former home in East Fairfield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Papin of Summer street left yesterday on a week's visit to Burlington and northern New York.

Mrs. Fred Sargent, Mrs. Fred Garrett, Mrs. Harry McAllister and Mrs. Thompson of East Barre were visitors in the city yesterday.

All those who made contributions of jellies and preserves for the calling on big day can have their jars by deposit at the hospital.

James Frost and Luella M. Webber, both of Groton, were united in marriage at the Universalist parsonage Wednesday by Rev. J. B. Reardon.

C. F. Young, who was formerly engaged in the retail shoe business here, returned to Burlington yesterday, after passing a few days in Barre and Barre Town.

Warren Kerrigan in a two-act drama, "The Widow's Secret," another drama, "The Vacuum Test," also a comedy, at the Bijou—adv.

Vincita club and the Apollo club of Montpelier will meet at the capital on the evening of April 20 for the fourth and last of a series of tournaments in pool, billiards and whist.

Nelson Brown, James Langley, Alexander Brown and Gordon, and Victor Smith left yesterday for Hanover, N. H., where they will resume their studies at Dartmouth college, after spending their Easter vacation at their respective homes in this city.

Auction sale at Farnham's at Montpelier to-morrow, 30 to 40 fresh horses, 25 to 40 commission horses. Ten of these are consigned from the New Hampshire lumber camps. Lots of other property. This is expected to be a big sale. C. F. Smith, auctioneer—adv.

Ex-President William Howard Taft, who is to speak in the Montpelier city hall Sunday evening, April 16, under the auspices of the Montpelier Y. M. C. A., is expected to arrive in that city Sunday afternoon at 12:40 and will leave for his home in New Haven, Conn., Sunday evening. Tickets are on sale at Drown's drug store in Barre, and it is announced that there will be no tickets on sale at the hall on Sunday.

Nicholas Peters, better known as "Whistler," who has been passing the winter in Akron, O., and Syracuse, N. Y., returned to the city yesterday to establish himself once more in the popcorn business at the junction of North Main, Washington and Elm streets. For a number of years, "Whistler's" appearance in Barre soon after the widespread day in March has passed has been the one, irrefutable indication that spring has returned to the business section.

A carpenter, employed on the construction work which is being carried on at the Jackson block, fell through the third story skylight Wednesday afternoon and suffered a cut across the forehead. Apart from the jolting which he received and a slight laceration, he escaped without injury. People in the Royal billiard parlor on the first floor, hearing the noise above, thought that a more serious accident had occurred and the academy was quickly emptied after the noise of the man's falling reached them.

Funeral services for William Davidson, until recently a resident of Barre, whose death at his home in Northfield Falls Monday followed a long illness, were held in Northfield this afternoon. Interment was made in the village cemetery at Northfield. Relatives of the deceased who went from Barre to Northfield to attend the funeral this morning were: James Davidson, his father, Thomas Davidson, George Davidson and Edward Davidson, brothers of the deceased, and his sister, Miss Alice Davidson.

G. A. Burbank and C. A. Heyer, trustees of the village of St. Johnsbury, were in the city to-day in consultation with Chief C. B. Gladding of the fire department with the view of collecting data and general information in regard to the running of a fire department. The village of St. Johnsbury, of course, has a department now and two pieces of motor driven apparatus, but the present methods of conducting the department are said to be not entirely satisfactory and as a result, Mr. Burbank and Mr. Heyer were delegated to visit the stations in Burlington, Rutland, Montpelier and Barre for the purpose before mentioned. Samples of applications for positions on the force and sample examinations have been furnished them by the various chiefs as well as other information.

A regular meeting of Loyall's Green Mountain lodge, I. O. O. F., M. U., will be held in their hall this evening at 7 o'clock. Let all members of the degree team be present. Per order N. G.

Special convocations St. Aldemar commandery, No. 11, K. T., Thursday evening, April 13, at 7 o'clock. Work: K. T. Per order E. C.

Special communication of Granite lodge, No. 35, F. and A. M., Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Work, third degree. The D. D. M. will be present. Refreshments.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 1273, F. O. E., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Easter collars at Abbott's. Mrs. Katherine Jones of Williamstown was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Get your tickets for the MacQueen lecture at Drown's. Price, 25c—adv.

Mrs. Gertrude Watmore has returned to the city, after making an extended visit in Imperial, Cal.

We must vacate soon and goods must be sold. Everything goes at the Kenyon store. Auction to-night—adv.

Miss Mary Warren has resumed her studies at Goddard seminary, after spending several days at her home in Calais.

Mrs. Martha Calef-White, electric needle specialist, will be at Miss Canning's Toilet Parlor, Barre, Saturday, April 15—adv.

The Barre golf course was sufficiently dried off yesterday so that several people played around the course in the afternoon.

James A. Murray of Murray street left the city this forenoon for Boston, where he was summoned by the illness of his brother.

Mayo G. Russell of South Main street returned to the city last night from Claremont, N. H., where he has been passing a few days with his mother.

Ernest Letourneau of Merchant street returned last night from a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends in Manchester, N. H., and New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. R. A. Billou, who has been visiting relatives in Websterville for the past two weeks, was a visitor in the city this morning while on her way home to Ithaca, N. Y.

Antonio Corey of Prospect street received a telegram last night advising him of the death of his cousin, R. Corey, which occurred suddenly in Providence, R. I. Owing to a death in the Corey family here, Mr. Corey will be unable to go to Providence to attend the funeral.

The members of the ladies' auxiliary to the Ancient Order of Hibernians worked the first and second degrees on a class of 12 candidates last evening at a largely attended meeting in the division hall on North Main street. Numerically the class was one of the strongest to be initiated in several months. A social hour followed the ceremonial and before adjournment refreshments of warm sugar and doughnuts were served.

At the city council chamber last evening the board of license commissioners held a special meeting for the purpose of discussing some of the minor details that enter into the conduct of licensed liquor establishments. State's Attorney F. E. Gleason, who was in the city to-day, assured the commissioners that they are not violating any of the statutory provisions in publishing the list of applicants according to the plan adopted last week. The notices appear in the newspaper to-day and will be printed for the last time Monday afternoon. On the following afternoon at 2 o'clock the commission will sit at a hearing to be held in the council chamber.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect street early Wednesday morning followed a long illness, are to be held in St. Monica's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, according to arrangements completed this forenoon. Rev. P. M. McKenna, the pastor, will officiate and interment is to be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Locust of North Adams, Mass., who were summoned here yesterday by Mrs. Corey's death, were joined to-day by Mrs. Charles Tony of Littleton, N. H., a sister of the deceased.

Members of the Barre Golf club journeyed to the clubhouse on the Montpelier road last evening for their annual supper and awarding of prizes. New sugar and doughnuts formed the main part of the menu and, though the attendance was not large, a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the supper a fire in the fireplace was lighted and a social hour was enjoyed before the return trip, which was made on the last car. Duncan McMillan, president of the club, awarded the prizes to last season's players as follows: Winner of annual championship, George Fraser; runner-up for championship, William Johnston; winner of men's weekly tournament, class A, James Freeland; class B, George Murray; ladies' championship, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson; ladies' weekly tournament, Miss Gale; men's low gross, George Fraser; winner of second eight, A. W. Freeland; winner of third eight, H. G. Woodruff; winners of mixed foursome, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, D. J. McMillan; winner of annual handicap for ladies, Miss Averill; winner of Round Robin tournament, James Freeland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Corey, wife of Albert Corey, whose death at her home on Prospect