Mrs. Sarah A. Sturtevant, Aged 87, Died of Neuralgia.

Mrs. Sarah A. Sturtevant died suddenly of neuralgia Saturday evening at her home here, aged 87 years. She had not been very strong since having a bronchial illness last winter, but was not considered ill until a day or two ago. Her death was a great shock to the community, of which she was one of the oldest and most respected residents, having spent the greater part of her life here, including the last 40 years. She was born in Hartland Oct. 24, 1828, and was the fifth of the 10 children of the late Samuel and Fanny (Pinney) Gilson and the last survivor. When she was 12 years of age she came here with her parents to live and later went with them to several places, including New York City, which was also her home during several years of her married life. She was an active Universalist and interested herself in community enterprises, including those now commonly assumed by women's clubs. Her brothers and sisters best remembered here were Hiram H. Gilson, Edward A. Gilson and Mrs. Maria Sylvester. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2:15 o'clock, with interment at Cherry Hill cemetery. Her husband, the late Edwin Sturtevant, was a prominent citizen and died 22 years ago.

Martin Esigman and Miss Sybil White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. White, were married Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Fisher by Rev. Robert W. McClure. Upon taking the New England States Limited, northbound, the young people were given a send-off by a group of friends. After a brief wedding journey, including Burlington and other places, Mr. and Mrs. Esigman will live in Bethel, where he has a responsible position at the tannery.

Mrs. Thomas Lee's illness proves to be appendicitis and an operation may be necessary.

RANDOLPH

Funerals of E. F. Emerson and Miss Theresa Moore Held.

The funeral of the late E. F. Emerson was held at the Bethany church on Saturday, Rev. Fraser Metzger officiating, and the Masonic lodge of which the deceased was a member, the Odd Fellow lodge, and the Eastern Star were also represented. The bearers were J. J. Stimets, E. H. Mason, John Sherburne and George Pinney. The body was taken to Campton, N. H., by his son, W. C. Emerson, the widow, Mrs. E. F. Emerson, and a daughter, Mrs. Knowles, of Lowell, Mass.

The funeral of the late Miss Theresa Moore was held at the Episcopal church this afternoon, Rev. Homer White officiating, and interment was in town. A sister, Mrs. G. L. Gattman of New Jersey, was here for the service and to look after business matters later. A brother living in Canada, also survives.

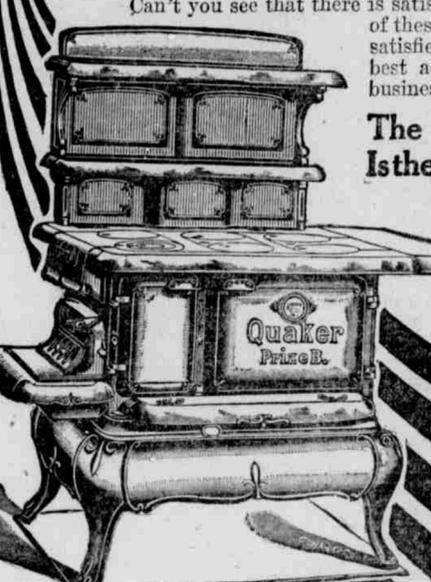

Easter day dawned with dark skies and with falling rain, and the attendance at the churches was not as large as was expected on this account. At the Bethany church there was a good audience, and the following program was observed: Organ prelude, by the organist, Miss Edith Marcott; "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name"; Lord's prayer; "Gloria Patri"; responsive service; anthems, "Awoke Thou That Sleepest"; first lesson; anthem, "The Strife is Over"; offertory; melody in F; second lesson; prayer; hymn; "A Song of the Lilies"; anthem, "The Day of the Resurrection"; sermon, "Jesus the Life"; hymn; benediction; organ postlude in A flat. The evening service was much after the same order, with anthems, "Thou Art My Sun," "Day of Wonder" and other appropriate music. At the Baptist church there were fine decorations, many of them coming from the Totman greenhouse, and the music was appropriate to the day, and the sermon by Rev. J. H. Thompson was also on an Easter topic. At the Methodist church, Rev. G. F. Crawford preached a sermon for the day, and the anthems were appropriate to Easter. In the evening pictures upon the screen, in the time of the death and resurrection, were given, and music from the choir and the children was also given.

W. M. Ordway of Boston was the guest of his son, Ray Ordway, over Friday night, and went on to his home Saturday.

About 35 of the parishioners of Rev. G. F. Crawford gave them a surprise on Thursday night, and on their departure they left pound packages of different groceries and articles of other kinds.

Miss Annie Wiley was in East Randolph to attend the funeral of the late Miss Hattie Waldo, who was a classmate of hers in the high school. Miss Waldo was sixteen years of age and the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Waldo. This is the second member of the class who has died during the year.

Quaker RANGES

This Store Sells Quaker Ranges with Greatest Satisfaction!

It doesn't take long to tell the reason why. We know for a certainty just what the new Quaker owner is going to tell us as soon as the first test comes. Day in and out, if you were to visit our Range Department, you would hear just such exclamations as these, "What a fine baker!"—"How long the fire lasts!"—"My, but the oven does wonders!"—"Mother had a Quaker and so did grandmother."

Can't you see that there is satisfaction written in every one of these expressions, and if a satisfied customer is not the best advertisement for any business, what is?

Waging the War on Dust.

When we consider the prevalence of dust, we realize the hopelessness of trying to banish it from our homes, with the micro-organisms it harbors, so we set about doing the next best thing; namely to eliminate as far as possible conditions which favor the growth of molds and microbes, and to keep them out of our food. The weapons required for this incessant warfare are neither elaborate nor costly. They are sunlight, fresh air, moisture and dryness, heat, cold, and a few simple chemical agents,

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars and a special large hospital size for $2.50. Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

"The Only Girl" Brings Many Girls Who Can Sing and Dance.

Young girls, pretty girls, girls who can sing and dance, are to play a big part in the production of the latest musical farcical comedy, "The Only Girl," which again comes to the Barre opera house Saturday, matinee and night, April 29.

The chorus has been chosen from more than three hundred applicants, a fact which disproves the oft repeated statement that there is a dearth of chorus girls. In "The Only Girl," the chorus will play an active part rather than a pictorial background against which is usually painted the action of a musical piece. An endeavor has been made to obtain young women with pretty faces, graceful figures, good voices and nimble limbs, and at the same time to select those who would best fit the types intended by the authors of the piece. The result is said to be satisfactory in the extreme and when the production comes here it will be found to contain brand new faces and a collection of youthful femininity which has not lost its playful enthusiasm. "The Only Girl" is the collaborative effort of Henry Blossom and Victor Herbert and is presented by Joe Weber, under whose direction it ran for nearly one year at the Lyric theatre, New York—adv.

HUNGARIANS WANT PEACE.

Papers Clamor for Settlement—German Yoke Feared.

London, April 24.—According to the Milan correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, there has been a marked outburst in the Hungarian newspapers in favor of peace. It is said that the recent speech of Premier Asquith in which he spoke of peace has been approved by the Hungarians, who fear Germany's intentions regarding small nations at the end of the war.

It is hinted that during the visit to Berlin of Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, Germany made the proposal that the Hapsburg monarchy be divided into small autonomous states, so that Germany might more easily assimilate them. Galicia, it is said, would receive autonomy also. According to the correspondent, the Hungarians regard the plan with the strongest disapproval, fearing that they in turn would be brought under the German yoke.
