

FRYATT WAS MURDERED

Premier Asquith Says Germans Have Resumed Their Terrorism

OFFENDERS WILL HAVE TO PAY

Sir Edward Carson Demands That Teutons Be Tabooed

London, Aug. 1.—It appears to be true that Captain Fryatt was murdered by the Germans," said Premier Asquith in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, in reply to a question by Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulster unionists.

"The British government," the premier added, "heard with deep indignation of this atrocious crime against the law of nations usage of war. Coming as it does contemporaneously with the lawless cruelties to the population of Lille and other occupied portions of France, it shows that the German high command under the stress of a military defeat, have renewed their policy of terrorism.

"It is impossible to conjecture to what further atrocities they may proceed, but the government desires to repeat most emphatically their resolve when the time comes that these crimes shall not go unpunished.

"When the time arrives they are determined to bring to justice the criminals, whoever they may be, and whatever they may be, and whatever their position. In a case such as this the man who authorized the system under which the crime was committed may well be the most guilty of all.

"The question of what immediate action should be taken is engaging the earnest attention of the government, and I hope to make announcement shortly."

Sir Edward Carson suggested that the Bad blood is responsible for more ailments than anything else. It causes catarrh, dyspepsia, rheumatism, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has been wonderfully successful in purifying and enriching the blood, removing scrofula and other humors, and building up the whole system. Take it—give it to all the family so as to avoid illness. Get it to-day.

House should pass a bill making it clear that Great Britain would refuse to admit the German people into the country of nations until "such crimes are expiated."

Premier Asquith said he would consider the matter.

BELLIGERENTS MAY EXCHANGE INTERNES OVER 45

Release of Civilians Contingent Upon Their Unfitness for Active Service, Says Berlin.

Berlin, via London, Aug. 1.—There is a strong possibility that the question of interned civilians will be partially settled shortly by a decision to exchange all those over 45 years old. It is thought that those between 45 and 50 will be released contingent upon their unfitness for active service.

COMMISSION SETS PRICE

Permits Lighting Merger in New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., Aug. 1.—In an order made public yesterday, the state public commission says that if the Grafton County Electric Light & Power company wishes to purchase the Mascoma and Lebanon Light & Power companies at $110,000 and $55,000 respectively, it may do so; but its petition for authority to purchase them for $300,000 and issue securities for that amount is denied for a second time. Following the first adverse report by the commission, the petitioners appealed to the state supreme court and secured a reference of their petition back to the commission for a finding as to the price at which the companies might be purchased and capitalized by the Grafton company.

NO BAN ON IRISH RELIEF

Great Britain May Grant Passports to America

WHY KELLEY WAS EXPELLED

One of Them Accused of Trading with the Enemy

London, Aug. 1.—In reply to a question in the House of Commons yesterday by Alfred Byrne, Nationalist member for the harbor division of Dublin, as to whether any difficulty would be placed in the way of Irish members desiring to go to America to collect funds for the relief of dependents of persons shot in North King street, Dublin, in the fighting during the rebellion there, Herbert L. Samuel, the home secretary, said he was not aware that any application had been made for a passport for such a purpose.

The home secretary said there was no desire to place any difficulty in the way of the collection of a fund for persons who had suffered through the Dublin rebellion, and any application for a passport would be considered on its merits.

Answering a further question by Mr. Byrne as to why Thomas Hughes Kelly of New York, treasurer of the Irish relief fund, and his assistant, Joseph Smith, were not allowed to land from the steamer Philadelphia, the home secretary said: "There is no objection to persons from America assisting in the administration of relief funds for Ireland, and two individuals were admitted for this purpose. In the case of one of the men mentioned in the question, whose ostensible object was as stated, permission was refused on the ground that he was engaged in business hostile to this country. The other man was so closely associated with him that he also was refused permission to land."

The American consul at Liverpool has reported to the embassy here that Messrs. Kelly and Smith, at the suggestion of the aliens officer, landed Sunday to attend mass in company with an official from the consulate.

The sailing of the Philadelphia was postponed until to-day.

GERMANY CLOSES ITS GATES UPON OUTSIDE WORLD

No One Can Leave or Enter Unless "Inevitably Necessary," Ambassador Gerard Cables.

Washington, Aug. 1.—All persons entering or leaving Germany after to-day must obtain special permission from the German government, according to a message received at the state department from Ambassador Gerard. Such permission will be granted, the ambassador said, "only in cases of inevitable necessity, in regard to which thorough explanation will be required."

In making public Mr. Gerard's despatch, the state department issued this statement: "It is hoped that American citizens who contemplate visiting Germany hereafter will consider the regulations mentioned above before applying for passports."

No reason was assigned by the ambassador for the tightening of the restrictions.

Henry E. Duke Is a Lawyer and Unionist Member of Parliament for Exeter.

London, Aug. 1.—Henry Edward Duke, a barrister and Unionist member of Parliament for Exeter, was yesterday appointed to be the new chief secretary for Ireland in succession to Augustus Birrell. He will be given a seat in the cabinet.

No new lord lieutenant of Ireland will be appointed to succeed Lord Wimborne, who resigned after the outbreak of the Dublin rebellion.

NEW YORK STRIKE SPREADS

Union Says That Nearly 5,000 Men Are Now Involved.

New York, Aug. 1.—The strike of street car men spread rapidly yesterday and, according to the union leaders, rapid progress is being made in their efforts to organize employees on all the city lines with a view to a city-wide tie-up.

Matthew J. Higgins, one of the general organizers of the union, said at noon yesterday that a thorough canvass of elevated and subway employees had shown that they were ready to "strike to a man." Nearly 5,000 men already are now actually involved in the strike, it was announced at the headquarters of the union.

Hot Rocks.

Erosion proceeds with considerable rapidity in the desert region of the southwest, notwithstanding the scarcity of continuously running water, for rock disintegration is accelerated by the great daily variations in temperature. The rocks are heated to 125 degrees or higher on the hot summer days and cool off rapidly at night to 70 degrees or less, a difference of 50 degrees or more in spring or autumn, when the sun's heat is less, the night temperatures are relatively lower.—U. CHICAGO'S HOT SPELL OVER.

City Rejoices Over 22-Degree Drop in Temperature.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—The end of one of the longest periods of hot weather Chicago ever experienced came yesterday in an eighteen-mile breeze from the north. A drop of twenty-two degrees in temperature from 102, the highest reached Sunday, was recorded at 9 o'clock yesterday. The wind sprang up at 4 o'clock and gradually increased in velocity.

The hot spell began July 11, since which time the temperature was constantly above normal. There is no indication of a return of the heat for several days, according to the weather bureau.

Latest figures show that 284 persons died in Chicago directly or indirectly from the effects of the heat.

The city, after Sunday's list of 115 deaths, attributed to the heat, and more than 400 prostrations, to a great extent slept outdoors again Sunday night. The numerous parks of the city were vast sleeping apartments, and Lake Michigan furnished comfort to thousands of bathers as late as midnight.

The high mortality among infants has been the most distressing phase of the situation. Upwards of fifty babies were reported to have succumbed to the heat yesterday.

Among animals the death rate has almost established a record. Dead horses were reported lying along streets in many sections of the city.

A LAWRENCE STRIKE

Allied Trades Council Ties Up Construction Work.

Lawrence, Mass., Aug. 1.—A strike of the Allied Trades Council was inaugurated here yesterday morning which may tie up all construction work in the city. The hod carriers have made demands for an increase of 25 cents per hour and the affiliated trades are backing them in their demands. Among the first places affected by the strike yesterday were the new mills under construction for G. E. Kunhardt, the new mill of the Whitman company and the Diamond Match company. Delegates of the different trades unions began the rounds yesterday morning calling the men from work. It is estimated that the strike will affect 2,000 skilled workers.

BASEBALL BRIEFS

Charley Weegman has secured Nick Carter to work on his Cub machine. Perhaps Nick can find the trouble with the Cubs.

Larry Gardner did some mighty nice work in Sunday's game, having three good healthy wallops to his credit, and only losing the fourth by a grandstand catch by Burns.

In Sunday's game the Red Sox showed some great headwork in the seventh inning when they made no attempt to pull off an easy force play on Cunningham, the Detroit pitcher, but threw the man out at first instead. The idea was to keep Cunningham on the sacks so that the heat would get him.

By winning from Detroit Sunday, 9 to 3, while New York lost two games to St. Louis, 2 to 1 and 2 to 0, the Red Sox took the lead in the American league. At the same time, the Chicago White Sox won two games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 10 to 1 and 7 to 0, jumping into second place while the Yankees' double defeat pushed them back into third. The Red Sox have got to fight harder than ever to hold first place as a result of their victory and the double killing of the Yanks by St. Louis for it is almost a surety that the White Sox will capture all the games played with Philadelphia. The Red Sox have two more games to play with the Tigers and in order to hold on to that top ladder, they will have to capture both of them.

Hughes of the Braves now has undisputed possession of first place among the National league pitchers, both Alexander and Manau having suffered defeats during the past week. In the American league, Faber's return to the slab for the White Sox has enabled him to strengthen his hold in the honored list of the Ben Johnson circuit. Boland of the Tigers advanced to third position and Shawkey of the Yankees has earned a place in the leading dozen.

Wedding Presents in the Orient.

With modern Arabians the bridegroom makes the bride presents, which are sent a day or two before the nuptials. As soon as the bride reaches the bridegroom's house she makes him presents of household furniture, a spear and a tent.

In Persia the bridegroom is obliged to give a certain sum of money in addition to other presents. If he is in moderate circumstances he gives his bride two complete dresses, a ring and a mirror. He also supplies the furniture, carpets, mats, culinary utensils and other necessities for their home.

With the celestials the family of the bridegroom make presents to the family of the bride of various articles a few days before the day fixed for the marriage. The presents generally consist of food, a cock and hen, the leg and foot of a pig, the leg of a goat, eight small cakes of bread, eight torches, three pairs of large red candles, a quantity of vermilion and several bunches of firecrackers.

Jupiter's Belts.

It has been suggested by Lau that the reason Jupiter has belts instead of zones of spots is to be found in its rapid rotation. The material forced upward from the lower strata of the planet, bringing with it a smaller linear velocity than that of the surface, streams eastward and assumes the appearance of elongated streaks. If the centers of eruption are sufficiently numerous belts are formed, and it is suggested that, were the sun's rotation much more rapid than it is, the solar surface at spot maximum would also present dark streaks or belts. In accordance with this theory of belt formation the Scientific American notes that the great revival of Jupiter's north equatorial belt in 1912-13 began with the outbreak of a few isolated dark spots, which quickly spread out around the planet.

Ghost of the Castle.

Hurstmonceux castle, about the "restoration" of which antiquaries appear to be perturbed, is strictly a fortified mansion—what Cromwell called "a strong house"—rather than a castle and probably the only English stronghold since Roman times that was built of brick. It once possessed the tallest and noblest ghost in Europe. He was nine feet high and used to stride along the battlements on stormy nights beating a big drum. Some kill joy skeptic seems to have discovered that this ghost was really a gardener signaling to Pevensey smugglers, with whom he was in league. Whoever he was, he achieved dramatic immortality through being introduced into a play by Addison.—Westminster Gazette.

More Effective Than Cursing.

Babylonian tablets, declared to be the oldest writings in existence, relate how farmers of 6,000 years ago fought locusts and caterpillars in their fields. The translator avers that they called in a necromancer, who thus brought his artillery in to play: "He broke a jar, cut open a sacrifice, a word of cursing he repeated, and the locusts and caterpillars fled."

It must have been a powerful "word of cursing" he repeated. Pity it is that it has been lost. These plagues have been "cussed out" good and plenty in all modern tongues, but they have calmly continued their work of crop devastation. Possibly through the centuries they gradually became hardened to such verbal warfare and declined to abdicate until the man came with the insecticide spray. Then is the time for disappearing certainly.—Breeder's Gazette.

Congratulations.

"What a beautiful woman!"
"I'm glad you think so. That is my wife."
"I congratulate you, old man. It must be a pleasure to lose every argument to a woman like that!"—Detroit Free Press.

"Oh, no; merely visiting his patients."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

"But how could he talk?"
"Oh, he spoke brokenly, to be sure."—Buffalo Express.

The Obvious Place.

What is known in a certain town as "A Shop Carnival" was being held, and little girls represented the various shops. One, dressed in a white muslin frock gaily strung with garlands of bonbons, advertised the local sweet shop.

When the festival began she fairly glistened with attractive confections, but as time wore on her decorations grew less. Finally, at the end of the last act, not a bonbon was to be seen.
"Why Dora," cried the stage manager, "where in the world are all your decorations? Have you lost them?"
"Oh, no," replied Dora; "they're perfectly safe. I'm wearing them inside."
