AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Two Well Known Stock Stars with the Champlin Comedy Co.

It is said that never before has there been presented in this city with a popular price attraction, such high salaried stock stars as "The Champlin Comedy Co." will present all next week at the Barre opera house.

Besides one of the strongest supporting companies are the following fine selections of high-class royalty plays, which are the very latest Broadway successes. "The Road to Happiness," William Hodge's last season's big success; a delightful play, and a beautiful story of simplicity and honesty.

"Damaged Goods," the play that created more comment than any play ever produced. It is a sex problem play bearing on marriage. Should be seen by everyone unless it is the belief ignorance is a necessary condition of female virtue.

"The Girl He Couldn't Buy," a play that will please all those who cherish and respect womanhood.

"Capt. Alvarez," a romantic play, tells a story of mystery, war, politics and honor.

"The Natural Law," is the big play of love laughter, tears and honor, and tells a story of a boy and girl swept into the current of an adult passion.

Each play will be magnificently mounted to make each presentation perfect to the minutest detail.

The plays as they will be played will be announced in Monday's paper. Saturday matinee and popular prices will prevail. Evenings, 10, 20, 30 and 50c; matinee, adults 20c, children 10c.

The opening play will be "The Girl He Couldn't Buy." It is the story of "The Little Girl Next Door," of which the picture is now being shown to capacity audiences at Loew's theatre, Boston—adv.

PARK THEATRE Vermont's Best Photoplay House. Matinee, 2:15 and 3:30—Tel. 613-W—Evening, 7 and 8:30. TO-DAY World presents the Brady feature "MISS PETTICOATS" with Alice Brady in the title role—also Charlie Chaplin in "THE BAKK". PRICES: Adults—Balcony, 5c; Orchestra, 10c; Children Under 14 Years, 5c.

Park Theatre, Barre Three Days, Commencing Monday, October 2nd 4 TIMES DAILY At 2.15, 3.30, 7.00 and 8.30 P. M. WHERE ARE MY CHILDREN? This is the Photoplay now playing to the utmost capacity at Majestic Theatre, Boston. Now in its fourth month. This is the Photoplay that is turning thousands away from three theatres in New York City. Now in its fifth month. This is the Photoplay that broke all Records in Providence last three weeks. Thousands were turned away, unable to gain admission. So much stress, deservedly or undeservedly, has been laid upon the disagreeable or unpleasant features of this wonderful play that it is well to recall that, after all, its moral is THE TRIUMPH OF MOTHER LOVE. The District Attorney's Wife, after her persistent avoidance of the pains and responsibilities of maternity, comes at last to the realization of its great, its holy meaning. That she, on account of her foolish, aye, her criminal acts, was unable to wear the glorious diadem of motherhood simply emphasizes the worth of that diadem. The happy mother of the eugenic baby, the no less happy mother of the "olive branches three," with three more calculated upon, are object lessons that cannot be overlooked, and these mothers become the natural objects of envy of the poor rich woman to whom maternity is denied. Seats for all performances 25c and 50c. Reserve Seats sold in advance for the 2.15 and 7 o'clock performances. Beware of sidewalk ticket speculators. No Children Admitted And so, "motherhood triumphant" becomes the oriflame of "WHERE ARE MY CHILDREN?" SEAT SALE FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29
