

BARRE DAILY TIMES

MONDAY, MARCH 5, 1917.

The Weather

Snow and colder to-night. Tuesday colder and probably fair; northeast to north gales.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Moneybag silk at Abbott's. Five-reel features begin at the Bijou to-day.—adv.

A regular meeting of the ladies of Clan Gordon will be held Tuesday, March 6, at 7:15 p. m.

Mrs. Stella Laviolette returned Saturday after visiting in Plymouth, N. H., Boston and New York.

Our exhibit of millinery gowns, blouses and corsets now awaiting your approval. The Mrs. W. F. Shepard Co., Inc.

Earle S. Drown returned this morning to his home in St. Johnsbury, after passing the week end with friends in Barre.

Leah Audet, who has been a patient at the City hospital for several weeks, was able to return to her home in Williamstown to-day.

Mrs. B. Lombardir of Williamstown was brought to the City hospital yesterday for an operation, which was performed this morning.

C. Fabricotti, a former resident of Barre, who has been employed in Pittsburgh, Pa., for some time, returned to Barre yesterday to remain.

Miss Doris Spargo of Beckley street was taken to the City hospital Saturday evening suffering with appendicitis. She was operated on Saturday night.

Miss Edna Kimball left last evening for Boston to attend the millinery openings and on her return will be employed as a trimmer for Mrs. Stella Laviolette.

George J. Seager, superintendent of the Barre Town schools, left to-day for Randolph, where this evening he is to be the speaker at the annual ladies' night of the Christian brotherhood.

Miss Mary McCarthy, who has been spending several days in Graniteville, returned to the city last evening, after a guest in the home of Dr. E. H. Bailey, passed through the city yesterday on her way to Burlington.

Upward of 150 people patronized the meat pie supper given in the vestry of the Presbyterian church Saturday evening. Men of the church had charge of the supper and realized well from their efforts.

Ninety-four tickets have been sold for the banquet to be given by the Merlo's academy club in Howland hall Friday evening. Mrs. Forbes has been engaged to cater for the affair and several out-of-town members will be present.

Before the members of the men's club at the First Presbyterian church this evening, Prin. Henry H. Jackson of Spaulding high school will give a talk on "Travels at Home," the gathering being one of a series of monthly meetings planned by the club. Refreshments will be served.

You cannot afford to be where you will not face "A Man's Voice," the following farce-comedy to be presented by the Odd Ladies in the Knights of Columbus hall Friday evening. Dancing will follow the entertainment, which begins promptly at 8 o'clock.

Sunday paper readers who stopped at the newstand last night to get their favorite New York edition learned that the price on New York newspapers of the Sunday issue has been increased from 6 to 8 cents. Retailers have been served with instructions not to return unsold copies and co-incident with the raise in the price of Sunday papers came the announcement, effective earlier in the week, that the daily morning editions would cost 3 cents outside of New York.

Floor space and facilities for displaying goods have been extended at the millinery store of the Mrs. Shepard Co., Inc. in the Howland building, the company having occupied for the first time to-day the splendidly appointed annex on Keith avenue, which connects with the Main street store. Provisions have been made in the new section of the store for a dress department, a corset department, a fitting room and a work room. The interior finish harmonizes neatly with that of the main store and customers have the advantage of using either the Main street or Keith avenue exit. There is a roomy display window in the new annex and the lighting facilities are excellent. Midway between the old and new sections, an office has been built, access being gained by a small staircase. The indirect lighting system has been introduced with gratifying results and patrons of the establishment who have yet to visit the store since the annex connection was made have an agreeable surprise in store for them.

Washington had his Benedict Arnold, the Master his Judas Iscariot, and Woodrow Wilson has his William Jennings Bryan" was one of the more remarkable remarks of Rev. Edgar Crossland, who preached on the First Presbyterian church last evening. "The American Crisis and Germany," was the subject of the pastor's address. It was the second fiery philippic uttered by the clergyman against the kaiser on succeeding Sundays and if, as it is presumed, there were pro-ally sympathizers in the congregation, the sermon met with general favor. Rev. Crossland reviewed at some length the circumstances which brought the United States to the brink of war and illustrated his claim that the cause against Germany is a righteous one by comparing the flags of the principal nations involved, concluding at the close that the black bar in the German banner was a stain. In the course of his remarks, he also repeated the charge that Germany furnished sinews of war for the Boers in their rebellion against British rule.

"Washington had his Benedict Arnold, the Master his Judas Iscariot, and Woodrow Wilson has his William Jennings Bryan" was one of the more remarkable remarks of Rev. Edgar Crossland, who preached on the First Presbyterian church last evening. "The American Crisis and Germany," was the subject of the pastor's address. It was the second fiery philippic uttered by the clergyman against the kaiser on succeeding Sundays and if, as it is presumed, there were pro-ally sympathizers in the congregation, the sermon met with general favor. Rev. Crossland reviewed at some length the circumstances which brought the United States to the brink of war and illustrated his claim that the cause against Germany is a righteous one by comparing the flags of the principal nations involved, concluding at the close that the black bar in the German banner was a stain. In the course of his remarks, he also repeated the charge that Germany furnished sinews of war for the Boers in their rebellion against British rule.

Washington had his Benedict Arnold, the Master his Judas Iscariot, and Woodrow Wilson has his William Jennings Bryan" was one of the more remarkable remarks of Rev. Edgar Crossland, who preached on the First Presbyterian church last evening. "The American Crisis and Germany," was the subject of the pastor's address. It was the second fiery philippic uttered by the clergyman against the kaiser on succeeding Sundays and if, as it is presumed, there were pro-ally sympathizers in the congregation, the sermon met with general favor. Rev. Crossland reviewed at some length the circumstances which brought the United States to the brink of war and illustrated his claim that the cause against Germany is a righteous one by comparing the flags of the principal nations involved, concluding at the close that the black bar in the German banner was a stain. In the course of his remarks, he also repeated the charge that Germany furnished sinews of war for the Boers in their rebellion against British rule.

If you don't want high taxes, Then vote them out of sight; And vote for Mr. Sutor. If you want to vote right.—adv.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

TEENEMENTS TO RENT—Steam heat; A. Tonnal, 12 Merchant street; tel. 177-W. 2395

FOR SALE—Chestnut mare, 7 years old, weighs 950; pacer, by Alden, 2:05 1/2, dam by Condy, 1:15 1/4; price, $250; Lowell M. 25613 Barre, Vt.

WANTED—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; must be desirable location and have all modern conveniences; address "X," care of Times office. 23967

WANTED—Young man would like position in granite office, offering opportunity of developing good knowledge of drawing; write box 251, Barre. 23968

TO RENT—Two furnished rooms for light housekeeping in Eastman block; inquire of G. L. Woodworth, tel. 424-L. 23969

WANTED—A man to drive delivery team; apply at The Kempton Mills. 23970

An Unusually Broad Selection of Fashionable Spring Suits

An early and careful selection accounts for the splendid display we are now able to make of the accepted styles in garments of outer apparel. We could devote several times the amount of this space telling of the various styles and just why you should buy at this store. Nothing will convince you more than a visit and inspection.

Of Course We Have Plenty of Pretty Waists to Choose From

And though the very newest fashion ideas are shown, the Waists are surprisingly reasonable in cost. Prices range from $1.00 to $8.50. There are Waists of Georgette Crepe and Crepe de Chine for as little as $2.98, Waists of Striped and Plain Silks for $2.50; and then the finer Waists are of combinations of Satin and Georgette Crepe in the smartest designs we've seen this season.

The Homer Fitts Company

TALK OF THE TOWN

Charles Marr of Burlington was a business visitor in the city over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hanson of Groton were business visitors in the city Saturday.

Mrs. A. Birnie left Sunday for New York and Boston to attend the millinery openings.

Regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's club will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:45.

Guy Hart of Dorchester, Mass., a visitor at Goddard, was taken to the City hospital yesterday for treatment.

Quiet reigned at police headquarters through the week end and there were no respondents to go aloft for arraignment this morning.

Miss Edith M. Brown, trimmer for Miss L. E. Townsend, arrived from New York Sunday and began work for the season to-day.—adv.

Stanley Rollins of Windsor arrived in the city Saturday evening and will spend several days visiting friends and relatives in Barre and Corinth.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Comstock of East street returned to Barre this morning after spending several days visiting with friends and relatives in Randolph.

Neolin soles what you need on your shoes for the coming spring weather. Put on by M. Charbonneau and son, basement Worthen block, Keith avenue.

Ralph Downing, who has been employed as a teamster at Leonard's during the winter, has completed his duties there and commenced work as hostler at Johnston & Gamble's livery this morning.

J. W. Adams, formerly employed as a piano salesman for E. E. Clarkson & Co. of Burlington in this city, returned to his home in Burlington Saturday, after spending a few days in this vicinity on a business trip.

Friends of Miss Florence Stayton of Philadelphia, Pa., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Stayton of South Main street, will be pleased to learn of her marriage Saturday morning to John Stebbins of Northeast, Pa. It was a quiet ceremony and performed by a Congregational pastor of Philadelphia.

Immediately after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins started on a short trip which will take them to a few towns in Pennsylvania, after which they go to Mr. Stebbins' home in Northeast. The bride has been training and working as a nurse during the past four years at the University of Pennsylvania hospital and is well and favorably known by a large circle of acquaintances in Barre and surrounding towns. The groom is a prosperous farmer in Northeast and confines most of his time to his fruit growing ranch. No cards.

Special communication of Granite Lodge, No. 35, F. and A. M., Masonic hall, on Tuesday, March 6, at 7 p. m. Work, M. M. degree. Per Order W. M.

Regular meeting of Iroquois tribe, No. 11, I. O. R. M., to-night at 7 o'clock. Work, adoption and chief's degree. Entertainment committee will meet at close of meeting.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Don't forget the Pavilion opens March 12.—adv.

A. C. Flint of Stafford was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

Frank Hutchinson of Trow hill is confined to the house on account of illness.

Mrs. C. C. Cranfield of Middlesex was among the business visitors in the city to-day.

Don't forget the basketball game in Spaulding gym. to-night. Come and see a good game.

J. E. Ward of East street left this morning for a business trip of two weeks in Boston and vicinity.

Miss Eileen Parks of King street returned to her home Saturday after visiting relatives in Plainfield.

Guy Hart of Dorchester, Mass., a visitor at Goddard, was taken to the City hospital yesterday for treatment.

Charles Keynon of Merchant street left last evening for Boston, where he will spend several days on business.

The Pavilion theatre will open March 12 with motion pictures and first-class vaudeville from Keith's of Boston.—adv.

Misses Rose Phillips and Theresa Duncan returned to the city last evening after visiting friends in Northfield over the week end.

Miss Ella Owen of Tremont street left to-day for New York, where she will spend several days in the interest of the A. P. Abbott Co.

Mrs. R. F. Clark of St. Johnsbury is staying for a while at the home of Emory Clark of Spaulding street, called here by the serious illness of Mr. Clark.

The sixth in the series of readings from literature will be held at the Spaulding high school to-night, when Supt. White will read from Sam Walter Foss' works. Among the Williamstown business visitors and shoppers in the city Saturday were Miss Lucy DeCoteau, Miss Rena Bruce and Mrs. Frank Downs and daughter, Jessie.

M. Joseph Martelle of Prospect street returned to Barre last evening from St. Albans, where he has been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Martelle.

The Montpelier Choral society will hold its regular rehearsal in the city hall, Montpelier, Tuesday, March 6, at 8 p. m. All members are requested to bring tickets. Those who have not registered are asked to do so without delay.

The Independent Order of Foresters will hold a public meeting in K. of C. hall, Scamplin block, Tuesday, March 6, at 7:30 p. m. Everybody come and hear L. B. Kinney, D. L. C. R., of Antwerp, N. Y., superintendent of field work. He will lecture on "Forestry," and will tell you why the I. O. Foresters is the blue ribbon order of the world, and the only large order that is 100 per cent sound. No admission fee. Everyone welcome.

At the Sunday morning masses in St. Monica's church the pastor, Rev. P. M. McKenna, reported on the service of 40 hours which was conducted during the week. Communion was made during the services, which continued from Tuesday to Thursday, numbered 1343, which was the largest aggregate ever reached at 40-hour devotionals in St. Monica's. Fr. McKenna commended his parishioners for their faithfulness during the period and said that their conduct in attending the services, sometimes under difficulties, emphasized the lessons of patience and perseverance.

TALK OF THE TOWN

F. H. Bartlett of North Main street returned to the city last evening, after a week-end visit with friends in St. Albans.

Mrs. T. H. Carroll of Bolster avenue left yesterday for Lebanon, N. H., where she will spend several days visiting friends and relatives.

"A Man's Voice," a farce-comedy in two acts, to be presented by the Odd Ladies in the Knights of Columbus hall Friday evening, March 9. Dancing will follow. Admission 25 cents, ladies 10 cents. Farce begins at 8 o'clock.

E. A. Rodney of Vancouver, B. C., arrived in the city last evening and will spend several weeks visiting friends in Washington, East Barre and Graniteville.

A deal was recently consummated through the D. A. Perry Real Estate agency, whereby Robert H. Jones and wife sold their Allen street property, consisting of a six-room cottage and nearly an acre of land, to John Papin of Bolster place. Mr. Papin bought for home and will move there within a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will leave shortly for Utica, N. Y., where they will live at the home of their daughter, Miss Blodwyn Jones, who graduated a short time ago from a training school for nurses at Utica.

In a list of students at Jackson college, which was published in the Boston papers yesterday, as to their standing in the different circles of their college work, two well known Goddard alumni were named. Miss Marion Rayment of Cavendish, a graduate from the hilltop institution in the class of '09, and a member of the Jackson college class of '17 was among those who are in the most sociable set, while Miss Reulah Tillotson of Montpelier, a graduate in the class of '14 at Goddard, was among the names of the most efficient in the college.

In the list which was given are the prettiest, wittiest, sweetest, most romantic, the girl everyone loves, most talented, most efficient and most sociable.

A large crowd turned out to H. M. Farnham's combination horse sale last Friday. Only about 29 commission horses were brought in and sold, and as many as 25 more could have been disposed of, as there seems to be a big demand from all directions this spring for second-hand horses, but the supply is short. They sold all the way from $20 to $145 for single horses, and one pair brought $375. A number of fresh horses were disposed of at private sale during the day. One nice pair of dapple grays were sold to Mr. Thraher of Boston, a milk dealer, who owns a farm in Braintree, this state. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

Fifty couples enjoyed a private dancing assembly given in Foresters' hall on Saturday evening under the patronage of the D. B. M. C. G., an organization of Barre and Montpelier young women who recently formed a club. Miss Lizzie Stephens played the piano and during an intermission she furnished the accompaniment for a sketch in which members of the club represented a "rithmetic class in an old-fashioned school. The entertainers were well received and a repetition of the sketch was necessary before dancing was resumed. Refreshments of coffee and sandwiches were served and just before the party ended it was announced that the young men would give a return dance in the near future.

Washington had his Benedict Arnold, the Master his Judas Iscariot, and Woodrow Wilson has his William Jennings Bryan" was one of the more remarkable remarks of Rev. Edgar Crossland, who preached on the First Presbyterian church last evening. "The American Crisis and Germany," was the subject of the pastor's address. It was the second fiery philippic uttered by the clergyman against the kaiser on succeeding Sundays and if, as it is presumed, there were pro-ally sympathizers in the congregation, the sermon met with general favor. Rev. Crossland reviewed at some length the circumstances which brought the United States to the brink of war and illustrated his claim that the cause against Germany is a righteous one by comparing the flags of the principal nations involved, concluding at the close that the black bar in the German banner was a stain. In the course of his remarks, he also repeated the charge that Germany furnished sinews of war for the Boers in their rebellion against British rule.

Washington had his Benedict Arnold, the Master his Judas Iscariot, and Woodrow Wilson has his William Jennings Bryan" was one of the more remarkable remarks of Rev. Edgar Crossland, who preached on the First Presbyterian church last evening. "The American Crisis and Germany," was the subject of the pastor's address. It was the second fiery philippic uttered by the clergyman against the kaiser on succeeding Sundays and if, as it is presumed, there were pro-ally sympathizers in the congregation, the sermon met with general favor. Rev. Crossland reviewed at some length the circumstances which brought the United States to the brink of war and illustrated his claim that the cause against Germany is a righteous one by comparing the flags of the principal nations involved, concluding at the close that the black bar in the German banner was a stain. In the course of his remarks, he also repeated the charge that Germany furnished sinews of war for the Boers in their rebellion against British rule.

Washington had his Benedict Arnold, the Master his Judas Iscariot, and Woodrow Wilson has his William Jennings Bryan" was one of the more remarkable remarks of Rev. Edgar Crossland, who preached on the First Presbyterian church last evening. "The American Crisis and Germany," was the subject of the pastor's address. It was the second fiery philippic uttered by the clergyman against the kaiser on succeeding Sundays and if, as it is presumed, there were pro-ally sympathizers in the congregation, the sermon met with general favor. Rev. Crossland reviewed at some length the circumstances which brought the United States to the brink of war and illustrated his claim that the cause against Germany is a righteous one by comparing the flags of the principal nations involved, concluding at the close that the black bar in the German banner was a stain. In the course of his remarks, he also repeated the charge that Germany furnished sinews of war for the Boers in their rebellion against British rule.

If you don't want high taxes, Then vote them out of sight; And vote for Mr. Sutor. If you want to vote right.—adv.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

TEENEMENTS TO RENT—Steam heat; A. Tonnal, 12 Merchant street; tel. 177-W. 2395

FOR SALE—Chestnut mare, 7 years old, weighs 950; pacer, by Alden, 2:05 1/2, dam by Condy, 1:15 1/4; price, $250; Lowell M. 25613 Barre, Vt.

WANTED—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; must be desirable location and have all modern conveniences; address "X," care of Times office. 23967

WANTED—Young man would like position in granite office, offering opportunity of developing good knowledge of drawing; write box 251, Barre. 23968

TO RENT—Two furnished rooms for light housekeeping in Eastman block; inquire of G. L. Woodworth, tel. 424-L. 23969

WANTED—A man to drive delivery team; apply at The Kempton Mills. 23970

Union Dry Goods Company Giving You Good Service

In this store, it means having goods that you can depend upon to be full value for what you pay for them.

It means your satisfaction guaranteed, your money back or other goods in exchange, as you prefer, for anything we sell that isn't wholly satisfactory.

We have now on display complete stocks and beautiful assortments of spring merchandise for your selection. Reliable goods that are new and up-to-date, and at the lowest prices always.

THE NEW SUITS will surely please you. Fashionable and exclusive models in the new season's leading colors, and very moderately priced.

THE NEW COATS are indeed attractive. A large assortment of the latest styles for your selection. Priced from $6.98 to $35.00

Monday Evening Special A sale of Ladies' All-Wool Dress Skirts in Navy and Black Serges, Poplins, etc., all good styles and regularly sold from $5.00 to $5.98. Your choice to-night, each.....$3.69

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

191 North Main Street Telephone 599-M

TALK OF THE TOWN

Visit Abbott's bargain basement. See the new suits at Abbott's.

See Abbott's new spring sweaters. Special five-reel Red Feather feature at the Bijou to-day.—adv.

Manager J. V. Rowen of Hotel Barre is attending the automobile show in Boston this week.

Dance and card party under the auspices of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in Odd Fellows' hall March 6. Dancing, 25c a couple. Cards, 10c.

A. W. Reid of Franklin street, who has been convalescing from an operation for appendicitis, was able to resume his duties in the office of the Standard Granite Co. to-day.

Polling booths and ballot boxes were put in readiness to-day for the annual election to-morrow and this afternoon a truckman and his assistants busied themselves in delivering the voting places to the several ward polling places.

An effort will be made to have the Church street schoolhouse sufficiently heated and extra provisions for insuring the comfort of the voters and the ward officers are to be made elsewhere. In wards 3 and 1 the polling booths have not been disturbed since the November election, but most of the equipment used in the other polling places has been stored in the basement at city hall.

At their home on Harrington avenue Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Julian were joyfully surprised by a large number of friends, who assembled to bid them farewell before their departure from the city a short time hence. The host and hostess were entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell for the evening, little realizing that their guest list was to assume much larger proportions. An impromptu program included vocal numbers by such members of the company contributed, piano solos and victrola selections. Afterward whist was enjoyed and at the end of the competition it was announced that favors for the highest scoring had been awarded Miss Marguerite Scott and James Stephen, while the consolation awards went to Mrs. William Stephen and James Black. One of the enjoyable features of the gathering came when William Stephen, speaking for the guests, presented Mrs. Julian a tablecloth and napkins and her husband a thermos bottle. A delicious luncheon was served under the direction of Mrs. James Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Julian are leaving soon for Portland, Me., where they are to reside.

At their home on Harrington avenue Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Julian were joyfully surprised by a large number of friends, who assembled to bid them farewell before their departure from the city a short time hence. The host and hostess were entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell for the evening, little realizing that their guest list was to assume much larger proportions. An impromptu program included vocal numbers by such members of the company contributed, piano solos and victrola selections. Afterward whist was enjoyed and at the end of the competition it was announced that favors for the highest scoring had been awarded Miss Marguerite Scott and James Stephen, while the consolation awards went to Mrs. William Stephen and James Black. One of the enjoyable features of the gathering came when William Stephen, speaking for the guests, presented Mrs. Julian a tablecloth and napkins and her husband a thermos bottle. A delicious luncheon was served under the direction of Mrs. James Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Julian are leaving soon for Portland, Me., where they are to reside.

Washington had his Benedict Arnold, the Master his Judas Iscariot, and Woodrow Wilson has his William Jennings Bryan" was one of the more remarkable remarks of Rev. Edgar Crossland, who preached on the First Presbyterian church last evening. "The American Crisis and Germany," was the subject of the pastor's address. It was the second fiery philippic uttered by the clergyman against the kaiser on succeeding Sundays and if, as it is presumed, there were pro-ally sympathizers in the congregation, the sermon met with general favor. Rev. Crossland reviewed at some length the circumstances which brought the United States to the brink of war and illustrated his claim that the cause against Germany is a righteous one by comparing the flags of the principal nations involved, concluding at the close that the black bar in the German banner was a stain. In the course of his remarks, he also repeated the charge that Germany furnished sinews of war for the Boers in their rebellion against British rule.

Washington had his Benedict Arnold, the Master his Judas Iscariot, and Woodrow Wilson has his William Jennings Bryan" was one of the more remarkable remarks of Rev. Edgar Crossland, who preached on the First Presbyterian church last evening. "The American Crisis and Germany," was the subject of the pastor's address. It was the second fiery philippic uttered by the clergyman against the kaiser on succeeding Sundays and if, as it is presumed, there were pro-ally sympathizers in the congregation, the sermon met with general favor. Rev. Crossland reviewed at some length the circumstances which brought the United States to the brink of war and illustrated his claim that the cause against Germany is a righteous one by comparing the flags of the principal nations involved, concluding at the close that the black bar in the German banner was a stain. In the course of his remarks, he also repeated the charge that Germany furnished sinews of war for the Boers in their rebellion against British rule.

Washington had his Benedict Arnold, the Master his Judas Iscariot, and Woodrow Wilson has his William Jennings Bryan" was one of the more remarkable remarks of Rev. Edgar Crossland, who preached on the First Presbyterian church last evening. "The American Crisis and Germany," was the subject of the pastor's address. It was the second fiery philippic uttered by the clergyman against the kaiser on succeeding Sundays and if, as it is presumed, there were pro-ally sympathizers in the congregation, the sermon met with general favor. Rev. Crossland reviewed at some length the circumstances which brought the United States to the brink of war and illustrated his claim that the cause against Germany is a righteous one by comparing the flags of the principal nations involved, concluding at the close that the black bar in the German banner was a stain. In the course of his remarks, he also repeated the charge that Germany furnished sinews of war for the Boers in their rebellion against British rule.

If you don't want high taxes, Then vote them out of sight; And vote for Mr. Sutor. If you want to vote right.—adv.

WE DELIVER FREE

The only effort necessary when you want anything in our line is a few steps to the nearest telephone. We are waiting at our end of the line, ready to take your message.

Phone 613-J

Barre Drug Co.

"PROGRESSIVE PHARMACY" 231-239 N. Main St. Tel. 613-J

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's bargain basement. Boston pencil sharpeners 87c at Abbott's.

Farmers in need of rubber boots read Shea's ad. on page 5.—adv.

Miss Christine Saxoner of Andes, N. Y., who has been passing a month in New York while the spring millinery openings were in progress, arrived in the city last evening and is to be engaged as a trimmer in the millinery parlors of the Mrs. Shepard Co., Inc., during the spring season.

Among the guests registered at Hotel Barre through the week end were the following people: N. K. Kingman of Rutland, J. M. Arthur of Warren, O. B. L. Rice of Springfield, Miss Margaret A. O'Brien of Burlington, Miss Katherine A. Riley and Miss Mayme A. Riley of Burlington, Thomas A. Chadwick of New York, Miss Hickey of Burlington, Earle S. Drown of St. Johnsbury, A. C. Lewis and John B. Wheeler of Burlington, M. H. Corcoran and D. H. Bissell of Essex Junction, A. J. Smith of South Ryegate, K. M. Frasch of Columbus, O., P. J. MeTigue of Portland, Me.

W. W. Perkins returned to his home in Bethel Saturday evening after a business trip in Barre and vicinity.

Friends of A. E. Davis will be glad to learn that he was able to drive to Barre from Plainfield Saturday, after convalescing from the severe operation to which he submitted at the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington several weeks ago.

Miss Ruth Hatch, who has been employed as a night operator in the Montpelier exchange of the Vermont Tel. & Tel. Co. for several months, completed her duties there Saturday night and was transferred to the Barre exchange yesterday. As a night operator in the Barre exchange, Miss Hatch succeeds Miss Mabel Connor, who has been assigned to the day exchange service.

If you don't want high taxes, Then vote them out of sight; And vote for Mr. Sutor. If you want to vote right.—adv.

Samoset CHOCOLATES Cummings & Lewis DRUGGISTS, 54 NORTH MAIN STREET, BARRE

March Shoe Sale

The last call for you to save money on shoes for the entire family is while the March Sale is on.

Here Are Some Splendid Values

$3.00 values for $1.98 $3.50 values for $2.29 $4.00 values for $2.89

Come early

People's Shoe Store

C. S. Andrews, prop., Barre, Vermont

We Have the Agency Another Year

For—Cyphers Incubators Columbia Incubators Cyphers Brooders and Hovers

Buy now and save money

C. W. Averill & Co. Telephone 500 Barre, Vermont

Trunks, Bags and Suit Cases

We have just received a new line of the above goods and the prices are moderate.

Trunks from $4.50 to $18.00.

&lt;