

Most Effective Remedy Mother Had Ever Used

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieves Baby When Other Medicines Failed?

There is nothing so necessary to a child's health and comfort as regularity of the bowels. All children are especially susceptible to stomach trouble and any overstrain of the sensitive organs has a tendency to obstruct elimination.

To relieve constipation a mild laxative should be employed. Cathartics and purgatives are violent in their action and should be avoided. Mrs. Alfred Du Bois, Mt. Holly, N. J., says Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is without doubt the most effective remedy for constipation she has ever used and that it is the only remedy she could find for her baby.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, free from opiates or narcotic drugs; it acts gently without griping or other discomfort, and appeals to children because of its pleasant taste.

GIRLS! MAKE A BEAUTY LOTION WITH LEMONS

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream, one can prepare a full quart pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is truly marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.—Adv.

EAST CORINTH

Gentlemen's night at Goldenrod grange was quite a success as an entertainment, a minstrel show with music furnished the feast for the mind, while later the inner man was regaled with cake and ice cream. This grange has recently procured new regalia for their team work and many new members have come in.

The village school opened Monday with the same teachers as the first of the year, Miss Prudence George and Miss Laura LaLime. Supt. Clark visited the school Monday and talked gardening to the pupils, many of whom seem quite enthusiastic now to help supply the family tables. Here's hoping it will not die when the weeds start.

Mrs. Martha Morrison has been quite sick with bronchial trouble at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Jackman. She is much better at this writing and expects soon to be knitting socks for the soldiers and teaching a younger generation the gentle art, both occupations she gladly shares with Madam Malzard.

John Morrison was in town several days to help care for his mother, also Norman McLam and wife with Wendell and Elizabeth McLam called on their grandmother Sunday.

L. L. Worthley is keeping his new Tonford busy these days taking bobbins to Bradford for the Jackman company and doing freighting for himself and others.

C. W. Jewell is busy drawing wood to Bradford. He has hired Clarence White to work for him on the farm.

Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headache properly to understand the cause which produces the affection," says Dr. J. W. Ray, of Florence, Ala. Continuing, he says, "Physicians cannot even begin the treatment of a disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause which produces the headache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose anti-kamnia tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. A most effective cure for headache gives comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuralgia, and particularly the headache of women."

When we have a patient subject to regular attacks of such headache and when he feels the least sign of an oncoming attack, he should take two A-K Tablets. Obtainable at all druggists in any quantity desired.

Rev. F. L. Sargent preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. He goes this week to Guilford, N. H., where he has a pastorate. Their many friends are very sorry to part with Mr. and Mrs. Sargent, and wish them success in their new field.

HARDWICK

Margaret Ann Thomson and Merle C. Jones Married.

A very pretty church wedding occurred Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Baptist church when Merle C. Jones and Miss Margaret Ann Thomson, both of this place, were united in marriage by Rev. G. H. Redding, pastor of the Methodist church. The church was prettily decorated with crepe paper streamers of white and green and white crepe paper bells, and the front of the pulpit platform and the choir loft were a complete bank of potted plants and flowers. Hadley Burnham of Hyde Park acted as best man and Miss Madeline Grant of this place attended the bride. The bride was given away by her father, Robert Thomson. Little Alice Thomson acted as flower girl and Miss Mary Ward played the wedding march. Following the ceremony the happy young couple left by auto for Hyde Park, where they have a newly furnished home, the groom having a position as clerk in a store in that village. Over 200 people attended the wedding, and all unite in best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Master Robert Thomson has gone to Hyde Park to make his home with his sister, Mrs. Merle Jones.

The boy scouts are feeling very proud over their gift of a handsome bugle which came from their friend and honorary member, Dr. Clinton Hagg of New York City.

The scouts are putting in weekly practicing at drilling, to be in readiness for Decoration day, as they are planning to take part in the day's program.

There was a largely attended meeting of the Chautauqua guarantors a few evenings since at the Memorial building, and it seemed to be the sense of the meeting that this plan of entertainment be held again this summer, and it will probably be done.

Mrs. Arthur Porter met with a very painful, though not serious, injury last Sunday, when she caught one heel on the cellar stair as she started to go down the stairs. She went down, but not in the usual way. She fell headlong and badly sprained her right wrist. She is again able to be out but will be unable to play the piano at the Bailey music rooms for some time.

Mrs. Charles T. Pierce was hit in the head by a baseball last Wednesday afternoon and rendered nearly unconscious for some time. There were some youngsters playing ball in the street and as she stood on the sidewalk in front of J. M. McCloud's house on Church street she was accidentally struck just over the temple by a wild heave from the hands of some boy and injured as stated above. This practice of playing ball in the streets should be stopped.

Mrs. C. T. Pierce returned from the Green Mountain sanatorium in Burlington the latter part of last week very much improved in health.

Mrs. Annie Pierce went on Wednesday to Burlington to enter the Green Mountain sanatorium for a course of treatment.

George Ward has begun work for the village electric department.

Carl Daniels, who just recently returned from the West after an absence of two years or more, has entered the employ of J. Leo Johnson in his garage on Wolcott street.

Hardwick, in common with other Vermont towns, is making plans not for a monster parade, rally, etc., but a good one, a regular "Wake Up America" evening, the date being Thursday evening, May 3. It is planned to have a big flag raising in front of the Hardwick hotel at 7 o'clock sharp, after which a parade, led by the band, boy scouts, and every other society that has existence in this or any other village is invited to take part, especially patriotic organizations, church societies, campfire girls, citizens and, in fact, everybody. The line of march will be to the opera house, where three excellent speakers will deliver short and patriotic addresses on the spirit of the times. Let all get together and help boost this great patriotic affair, and show other towns that Hardwick stands with those in the front rank. The executive committee is composed of James A. Gallagher, Frank T. Taylor and C. T. Pierce; the music committee is Robin Blake and Mrs. Sarah Holton; the advertising committee, J. E. Appolt, P. A. Shattuck and R. J. Mulcahy; the flag raising committee, C. A. Stanford and H. R. Kimball; finance committee, C. H. McLeod and L. B. Tims. Watch for further announcements. We wish to add that one of the speakers contacting to be here on this occasion is Rev. Fraser Metzger of Randolph, and hearing him alone will be worth a trip to Hardwick. A general and cordial invitation is extended to all in Hardwick and to all outside of Hardwick. Do not feel slighted, but come and boost.

Rev. F. L. Sargent preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. He goes this week to Guilford, N. H., where he has a pastorate. Their many friends are very sorry to part with Mr. and Mrs. Sargent, and wish them success in their new field.

Dr. Marshall was in town Wednesday to see Miss Eva Demas. She is quite sick with a nervous breakdown.

I know Resinol will heal this rash. I never worry if I have a little rash or other eruption break out—I just put on a bit of Resinol Ointment. That takes out the itching and burning instantly, and soon clears the trouble away. I learned of Resinol Ointment through our doctor prescribing it for my brother. Tom had been almost frantic with eczema for months but that ointment healed his skin like magic.

CABOT

Edward McPhilymy's Death Followed a Long Illness.

Edward McPhilymy passed away at his home in Cabot Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, April 15, the end following a long illness of tuberculosis. He was born in Dorset in 1866 and was a granite cutter by trade, but for the past five years was a successful farmer. He was an industrious, honest and much respected citizen, a devoted husband and kind neighbor. July 6, 1908, he was united in marriage with Mrs. Elsie Russell at Hardwick. After a prayer service at the home Monday noon, conducted by Rev. M. W. Hale, his remains, accompanied by his wife, were taken to East Dorset, where funeral services were held in St. Jerome's church Tuesday at 10 o'clock. Besides his companion, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. William Kelley of Dorset, Miss Sarah McPhilymy of New York City, and three brothers, William of West Rutland, John of Dorset and Patrick of Chelsea, Mass. The bearers were his five nephews, Frank, John and William Kelley, John and Charles McPhilymy and Dr. A. A. Cross. Burial was in St. Jerome's cemetery at East Dorset.

Those who were present from out of town were Kathryn Daley of Rutland, William McPhilymy and two sons of West Rutland, Sarah McPhilymy and Alice Kelley of New York City, Patrick McPhilymy of Chelsea, Mass., Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Cross of Williamstown, Elizabeth Kelley of Pittsford, Frank Kelley of Bennington and many friends from nearby towns.

Miss Mary McAllister of St. Johnsbury is spending a week with her father and other relatives.

Aaron Witham was in Hardwick Tuesday on business.

Miss Merna Walbridge entertained several of her young friends last week Wednesday evening in honor of her 16
