

SOUTH RYEGATE

J. B. McLam was in St. Johnsbury Thursday. Miss Jeanie Beaton is planning to enter Hanover hospital early in July to study nursing. Miss Cecile Brock is assisting Mrs. Charlotte Lord of North Ferrisford. Miss Celia Ingraham has gone to Barton to work as a table girl at the Crystal Lake house this summer. Miss Margaret Stephens returned on Monday for the summer vacation after her year of teaching at St. Johnsbury. F. Santin, a much esteemed Italian resident of this town, died Monday of cancer of the stomach. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m. at the home of the deceased, Rev. F. A. Collins officiating. Mr. Santin leaves a wife and three small sons. Rev. and Mrs. D. M. McKinlay and their niece, Miss Theodora Vandervoort, returned Thursday from attending commencement at the University of Vermont, Burlington, Dr. Leland McKinlay graduating with first honors from the medical college. Wednesday the father, mother and cousin of the young doctor witnessed his marriage to Miss Blanche Urie of Craftsbury. Dr. McKinlay has many friends in this vicinity, who extend best wishes and congratulations. He has enlisted as U. S. navy surgeon and expects to be called into service at any time. Frederick Samuelson went last week to Massachusetts, where he has employment in the Charlestown navy yard for the next two years. Mr. and Mrs. S. Mills were in Montpelier Thursday. Mrs. C. B. Darling, with her little son, is spending the week in Bradford with Mrs. B. H. Hooker. Mrs. Darling and Mrs. Hooker expect to go next week to Manchester, N. H., to visit Mrs. Darling's parents. C. B. Darling accompanied Dr. G. L. Darling to Lowell, Mass., Sunday night and will remain a week or more. Among those who attended the banquet of the Connecticut and Wells River Valley Board of Trade Thursday evening at Lake Fairlee were Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Darling, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Tewksbury, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McLam, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith, Miss Corinne Samuelson, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Beckley and Miss Tylea Beckley. Miss Janie Hertz came home Saturday from Concord, N. H., where she has been employed, to spend the summer with her parents here. Miss Mary Hertz, who has been attending school at Wells River, is also home, but expects soon to go to the White mountains to work in a summer hotel. Mrs. Nancy Gates died Monday after an illness of six months' duration. The funeral was held at her late home on Wednesday at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. Mr. Faris of the Covenant church at West Barnet officiating, assisted by Rev. F. A. Collins. The large attendance and many beautiful flowers paid tribute to the respect and love felt for the deceased by all who knew her. Mr. Faris, of whose church Mrs. Gates was a most devoted and faithful member, spoke feelingly of her kindness, faith, and good works. "Her works do follow her," she leaves three daughters to mourn her loss, Miss Nellie Bone, Mrs. G. L. Tyler of West Newbury, and Miss Ruth Gates; also one sister, Mrs. William Bone. Mrs. Gates was 72 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Brown were in Hanover Saturday to consult the doctors there as to Mr. Brown's health. The reports were most encouraging. Miss Corine Samuelson, night superintendent in the Park hospital at New York City, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Samuelson. Mrs. Lydia Bailey is improving.

WATERBURY

At St. Andrew's church to-morrow, high mass and sermon will be at 10:30, the rosary and the benediction of the blessed sacrament at 7:30. Sunday being Patriots' day, the service and sermon at the Congregational church will be in keeping. At the Methodist Episcopal church, there will be the children's Sunday offering. The regular Sunday school offering at this church will be for Red Cross work. At 4:30 o'clock there will be a special vesper memorial service by Mentor Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 51, and Emerald Rebekah Lodge, No. 33, in the Congregational church, to which the public is invited. Members of the lodges are requested to meet at the lodge room at 3:30. Miss Margaret Durgin, who has been the guest of Miss Ollie Somerville and Mrs. F. E. Atkins, has returned to her home in Concord, N. H. The special drive for Red Cross funds shows $514,000 raised for that work. Previous to this over $600 had been raised by the local branch. Second Lieut. Harold Denny Campbell, U. S. marine corps, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Campbell of this town, is with the first expedition of U. S. marines to place the American flag on the firing line in France. The wedding of Miss Elizabeth N. Kelly, daughter of Mrs. Anna Kelly of Moretown, and Harold O. Chamberlain of East Charleston was held on Wednesday morning in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Robert Devoy performing the ceremony. They were attended by Miss Frances Kerin of Montpelier and L. P. Kelly of Moretown. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine and hat to match and carried bride's roses, while Miss Kerin wore an old-rose gown and a hat to match. They are to reside in Moretown. News has been received of the death of M. E. Caverly in East Nutley, N. Y., from typhoid fever on June 8. Burial in New Hampshire. Mrs. Caverly will be remembered by people here and students of Montpelier seminary as Miss Lola Bixby. The sympathy of friends here is extended to the widow. The next meeting of the Canning club will be held in assembly hall at the Methodist church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. July 5, Miss Marjorie Luce will have charge of the canning demonstration. Miss Edith Bell of Warner, N. H., who has been the guest of Miss Annie Dorothy Palmer, has gone to McIndoe Falls, where she will visit friends. Miss Belle Anderson has returned to her home at the Center after a year of teaching in the Edmunds high school at Burlington.

EAST BARRE

A public dance will be held in Loasoa's hall next Tuesday evening. Music will be furnished by Gauthier's orchestra. Admission, 50c; ladies free.

WOODBURY

Mrs. Lee Tebbetts of East Calais spent Thursday at Mrs. Victor Hood's. Warner Thomas underwent a serious and successful operation at the Mary Fletcher hospital Monday. Fred Weeks and family were guests Saturday and Sunday in Hardwick of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weeks. Miss Lelia Webber has returned home from several weeks' stay at Warner Lawson's in Calais. Mr. and Mrs. George Maddock were Sunday visitors in Barre. Earl Baldwin was a business visitor in Barre and Northfield the latter part of the week. Miss Bertha Prieur left Tuesday for her home in Salisbury to spend the summer vacation, after a year's successful teaching in the primary department of the graded school. The band concert, which was held on the common Saturday evening, was greatly enjoyed by everyone. The band was recently organized and several of the members are young boys of the village; so let us all unite in giving them our loyal support. Concerts will be held during the summer evenings. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Carr of East Barre spent the day Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carr. Miss Lydia Hull is home from her school duties at Goddard seminary for the summer vacation. Mrs. Mary Alger and two children of Elmore were recent guests of her uncle, Walter Davis, and family. The graded schools closed last Friday, and the teachers have returned to their respective homes, Miss Helen Sheehan and Mrs. Charles Weeks to Hardwick and Miss Bertha Prieur to Salisbury. Pupils in the intermediate department with perfect attendance were: Sylvia Dalley, Alma Nelson, Kathryn Sweeney and Ralph Glidden. Dorothy Doty was absent one-half day during the year. There were 127 specimens of flowers brought in. Carl Thomas and Miss Ollie Thomas were in Burlington the first of the week to see their father, Warner Thomas, who is at the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holt of Barre visited at George Maddock's Sunday. Miss Flora Drennan of Montpelier was a guest the first of the week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Drennan. Mrs. William Carver and two children of West Barnet are guests of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Fecteau, for a few days. Mrs. Kate Colley was a recent visitor in Northfield, Barre and Montpelier. The eighth graduation exercises of the schools in town were held last Friday evening at the school hall. There were 12 members in the graduating class. An interesting program was rendered in a very creditable manner. Superintendent Butterfield awarded the diplomas with a few well-chosen remarks, after which a promenade was held. The band furnished music during the evening. Ralph Pibbin was a visitor in the place Wednesday while on his way home to Burlington from school work at Montpelier seminary. George Golden and Henry Hull of Barre were at the latter's home over Sunday. Isaac Shatney of East Hardwick was a visitor Tuesday of his daughter, Mrs. Florence Fecteau, who is seriously ill.

GROTON

Miss Louise Spencer of Montpelier was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Hall several days this week. Fred Piersons of Somerville, Mass., arrived here early in the week and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Coffin. Mr. Piersons was in trade here around thirty years ago. Mrs. Emily Clark of Jonesville, Wis., is visiting relatives in town. Mrs. Clark is passing the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Kimball, in Newbury. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willey of St. Johnsbury is visiting Mr. Willey's sister, Mrs. John Chalmers, and family. Mrs. Helen Welch, who is making her home in Newbury this summer, has been in town several days this week. Mrs. Harry Thompson of St. Albans is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Lewis at the Methodist parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Welch of Plainfield have been passing the week with Mr. Welch's brother, G. S. Welch, and family. Mrs. Ira Ricker of Billerica, Mass., was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Eastman, on Wednesday. William Smith of Lyndonville was in town Wednesday, surveying land in the west part of the town. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Clark and Mrs. James Adams went to Hardwick Wednesday, where they attended the wedding that evening of Charles A. Adams and Miss Erma Thomas. Mr. Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Adams of this place, and is well and favorably known here. He is employed in the undertaking business, and is now located in Grovton, N. H. Scott D. Welch has sold his stock of goods in the meat market to H. L. James. Mr. James has disposed of the goods and will not conduct a meat market. At the Methodist church Sunday morning, the topic of the sermon will be, "The Hole in the Pocket." The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered, in which service it is expected the Rev. Jacob Finger of Mount Morris, N. Y., will assist. At the Baptist church Sunday morning at the usual hour of service, the children of the Sunday school will give a children's day concert, entitled, "On to Victory," which will include songs, recitations, drills, etc. The evening service will be at 7:30 o'clock, the topic of the sermon being, "The King of a Nation That is Blessed of the Lord."

Bonaccord Football Club

PICNIC AND GAMES CALEDONIA PARK WEDNESDAY, JULY 4th Quoting Shooting Competitions FOOTBALL BASEBALL and other sports Train leaves at 11 a. m.

RANDOLPH

Mrs. E. F. Briggs and Alton Briggs of Barre, who is here for a week's vacation, went on Friday to Granville to visit Mrs. Briggs' daughter. Miss Kingsbury of Hingham, Mass., after passing two weeks with Mrs. Clara Averill, went on Friday to her home. Mrs. S. W. Howard went to Royalton Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. Rose Coolidge, who is now in very feeble health. Mrs. A. L. Mulloy, who has been in Burlington, stopped off here for Friday night to visit her brother, John Sherburne, and family, and then went on to her home in Waterbury, Conn. Miss Ramona Holden went to Northfield Friday, where she will be with Mr. and Mrs. Shaw in camp for several weeks. Miss Carrie Eaton has been engaged to teach in the fifth grade in the school here for the next year. Mrs. E. M. Woodworth and her son, Donald, returned on Friday from a several days' stay in Morrisville, where she went to visit her mother. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Burt of West Rindge were the guests of Mrs. George E. Morse last week. Robert Sault, a teacher in Lawrence, Mass., has come to pass his summer vacation with his sisters, Misses Agnes and Mabel Sault. Miss May H. Cross of Springfield, Mass., is with her mother, Mrs. Asenath Cross, for a few days. Mrs. V. D. Fraser and Mrs. Allen Borden and son, Paul, of Woodstock are passing the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Drew. Miss Josephine Emery has gone to Wilkes-Barre, Pa., to visit her brother, Clarence Emery, and family. Announcements have been received here of the marriage at Los Angeles of Miss Leona Kellhofer and Frank G. Steiner. Miss Kellhofer lived in town and has many acquaintances here. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Avery and Miss Hazel Cook of Campton, N. H., came Sunday to pass a few days here with Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Rumrill. William Leonard, who has been assisting in the Mitchell restaurant, went Friday to Burlington and that night to New York, where he enlisted in the navy. H. W. Spooner of New York, engineer with the construction company that is now figuring on the foundation of Hotel Chandler, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chandler over Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. Howard Drew of Brownings, Mo., arrived on Monday to pass an indefinite time with L. C. and G. A. Drew, who are Dr. Drew's brothers. Rev. and Mrs. Frazier Metzger and their three sons left by auto Wednesday for Freehold, N. Y. Mr. Metzger will remain till Saturday and Mrs. Metzger and the boys for a much longer visit. A district library meeting for Washington and Orange counties was recently held here, with an attendance of twelve delegates. The morning session was held in the Kimball public library, with Miss Bertha Joslyn of Waterbury library presiding. E. W. Tewksbury, one of the trustees, gave a few words of welcome and was followed by Rev. Homer White, who is the chairman of trustees. Mr. White also extended a cordial welcome to the visitors. The afternoon session was held at the high school building and this session was opened by a violin solo by Wayne Hedges, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. L. S. Brigham. Prin. E. G. Ham gave a talk on "The Poet As a Patriot," and this was followed by an address by Rev. Frazier Metzger upon "The Message of the Hour." Miss Rebecca Wright, secretary of the Vermont library commission, had charge of the book reviews and introduced Charles R. Beeman of Williams-town, superintendent of the northwest Orange district. At the conclusion of the meeting the visitors were treated to an auto ride. W. R. Clark and Dr. H. B. McIntyre went to Boston and New Haven, Conn., last week. Mr. Clark returning, but Dr. McIntyre went on to New York, where he is awaiting orders to join the hospital service. Miss Lucia Clark returned from New Haven, Conn., last week and is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Clark.

SOUTH CABOT

Henry Ward Beecher said, "Don't be like a grasshopper, which jumps first and afterward looks round for a place to land." They'll Help Some There. Save the old tin cans. You'll be putting them to good use if you only can the grouch in them.—Atlanta Constitution. One of the chief secrets of happiness is never to allow your energies to stagnate.

BETHEL

Music lovers enjoyed an unusual treat last evening, when the Gilmore Ward Bryant Concert company of Durham, N. C., gave a concert of great merit at the town hall. The members of the company are guests for the summer at C. E. Noble's. They are: Gilmore Ward Bryant, pianist, and his wife, Mattie (Bullard) Bryant, vocalist, both natives of this town; Max Bryant, cellist; Gerald Bryant, violinist, and Miss Nora Lee Crowell, pianist. Although the day and evening were very unpropitious, a large audience attended the concert, the entire proceeds of which were for the Red Cross. Rev. W. C. Harvey voiced the thanks of the Red Cross for the public spirit shown by the Bryants, who have proved their interest in Vermont on many occasions, especially this summer, when repeatedly they have favored the public with exhibitions of their exceptional talent. Mrs. B. H. Smead returned last evening from a few days' visit to her mother in Northfield. Clyde W. Bowen was in Burlington yesterday. Fred M. Davis and Miss Emma Walker were married in Bethel Thursday by Rev. W. C. Harvey. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Walker, and the bridegroom is a son of Charles M. Davis. The bride graduated last year with honors from the teacher training course of Randolph high school, previously having attended Whitcomb high school three years. This year she has taught the mountain school in this town. Joseph G. Fuller is moving his family to Great Barrington, Mass., where he is employed on a steam mill lumber job.

HARDWICK STREET

John Olmsted, who has been very ill, seems to be recovering at the present time. D. E. Goodrich and family spent Wednesday with his brother, Levi, at Hardwick Center. Miss Helen Russell has returned from Burlington to spend her vacation with her parents here. Mrs. Alfred Steady and daughter visited at Edward Salls' a few days recently. Mrs. George F. Warner and little son, Lawrence, were guests at M. L. Thompson's at East Craftsbury Friday. Mrs. J. B. Lumsden, who has been quite ill with measles, is improving. Mrs. Frank Lamonda of Greensboro is assisting at the Delano home for a few days. Miss Agnes Pike, who has been on the Street for a few days, has returned to her home in Walden. Mrs. Lillia Underwood entertained the King's Daughters last Wednesday. Ned Underwood is spending the week in Boston and vicinity.

SOUTH BARRE

The regular meeting of the South Barre grange was held June 28, with 34 members of the Williamstown grange present. The following program by the visiting members was given and very much enjoyed, many numbers being entered: Clarinet solo, C. W. Cram, accompanied by Mrs. Blanche Poor; recitation, Mrs. Ethel Poor; vocal solo, Mrs. J. L. Putnam; vocal solo, Mrs. Fred George; reading, Mr. Irons; clarinet solo, C. W. Cram; reading, Mrs. Florence Thompson; vocal solo, Mr. Irons, accompanied by Mrs. Blanche Poor; vocal solo, C. W. Cram; reading, Mrs. Ethel Poor. Mr. Colby, Mr. Holden, Mr. Irons and Mr. McAllister responded in a pleasing manner to "Suggestions for the good of the order." At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. The committee in charge was Mrs. E. A. Witham, Mrs. Fred Beville and W. F. Shepard.

GRANITEVILLE

A public dance will be held in Loasoa's hall next Tuesday evening. Music will be furnished by Gauthier's orchestra. Admission, 50c; ladies free.

EAST MONTPELIER

The village school closed Friday, June 22, and the grammar room joined the other schools at the Center in a basket picnic. Games and races were enjoyed by the children, and in the afternoon an informal graduation took place. Mrs. Green played "America" and the audience joined in singing, after which, owing to the absence of Mr. Reynolds, Mr. Lance, the superintendent, made some appropriate and interesting remarks and presented diplomas to those who passed from the eighth grade to the high school. "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," was sung at the close. The weather was kind to us, and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all. Those of the village school who received certificates were: Madene Rodgers, Erander Welch, Nelson Abbiatti, Robert Copping, Earl Daniels, Bertrand Lavigne, Marshall Perkins. The primary room held a little picnic of their own at the schoolhouse. Miss Foss furnished a treat of ice cream. Monday the new flag which Mr. Dudley succeeded in obtaining for us arrived and, the weather being favorable, floated in the breeze from the top of the new flagpole which Mr. Kelton helped the boys get ready the week before. The sixteenth annual camping of the East Montpelier Evangelical Camping association is to be held on the campground in this place from Aug. 17 to Aug. 26, inclusive. The first service will be held on Friday evening, the 17th, and the services will continue over two Sundays.

TOPSHAM

Misses Gertrude and Florence Herring, accompanied by their brother, Ted, of West Somerville, Mass., arrived in town Monday to pass the summer at their home here. E. C. Poole is helping L. F. Sanborn of Barre for a few days. F. A. Church spent a few days in Woodsville on business recently. Mrs. Clinton Beede of Brentwood, N. H., has been spending several days with her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Viola Jeffords and Mrs. Mary Cunningham. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hight, accompanied by Mrs. Hight's brother, Fred Bagley, Ed. Farnham, and Asa Magoon, attended court in Chelsea Wednesday. The graduation exercises, held at the hall Thursday, June 21, were well attended. The graduates were Erma Maria Welch, Shirley Mae Ryan, Gladys Mae Downing, James Duncan McKay, Chauncey Garland McKay, Sherwood Elmer Williams. Mrs. Jessie McKay of East Topsham is stopping at her son's for a time.

SOUTH BARRE

The regular meeting of the South Barre grange was held June 28, with 34 members of the Williamstown grange present. The following program by the visiting members was given and very much enjoyed, many numbers being entered: Clarinet solo, C. W. Cram, accompanied by Mrs. Blanche Poor; recitation, Mrs. Ethel Poor; vocal solo, Mrs. J. L. Putnam; vocal solo, Mrs. Fred George; reading, Mr. Irons; clarinet solo, C. W. Cram; reading, Mrs. Florence Thompson; vocal solo, Mr. Irons, accompanied by Mrs. Blanche Poor; vocal solo, C. W. Cram; reading, Mrs. Ethel Poor. Mr. Colby, Mr. Holden, Mr. Irons and Mr. McAllister responded in a pleasing manner to "Suggestions for the good of the order." At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. The committee in charge was Mrs. E. A. Witham, Mrs. Fred Beville and W. F. Shepard.

Just Had to Find It.

The average foreigner can rarely comprehend the geographical area of the United States, as was quite fully illustrated by the Englishman and his valet who had been traveling due west from Boston for five days. At the end of the fifth day master and servant were seated in the smoking car, and it was observed that the man was gazing steadily and thoughtfully out of the window. Finally his companion became curious. "William," said he, "of what are you thinking?" "I was just thinking, sir, about the discovery of America," replied the valet. "Columbus didn't do such a wonderful thing, after all, when he found this country, did he, now, sir? Hatter hall's said 'an' done, 'ow could 'e 'elp it?—Everybody's.

Too Much Prudence. Gwendie—Why did you refuse him if he is such a prudent man? Gertie—He said he thought if he got married he could save more money.—London Opinion. Cheap Imitation. The Shopper—Are these genuine goldfish? The Sales Person—No'm, not at that price. These are only rolled plate.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

PARK THEATRE

Matinee: 2:15 and 3:30 Evening: 7:00 and 8:30 Balcony 5c, Orchestra 10c, Children 5c Balcony 5c, Orchestra 10c

PROGRAM FOR WEEK OF JULY 2

Monday, July 2 Earl Williams in the Wonderful Detective Drama "ARSENE LUPIN" Also a Burton Holmes Travel Picture, and a Real Life, showing many interesting subjects.

Tuesday, July 3 Robert Warwick and Gail Kane in "THE FALSE FRIEND" An especially interesting play, also the new Pathe News of world events; and a special two real comedy "THE FOOTLIGHT FLAMES"

Wednesday, July 4 EXTRA SPECIAL HOLIDAY PROGRAM Douglas Fairbanks, the best known and most popular screen actor in the special Arcraft comedy drama "IN AGAIN OUT AGAIN" You'll come in again to see it. Also a special Black Cat feature in two acts; "The Rainbow Box," featuring Marguerite Clayton. Prices to-day, Matinee 5c and 10c; Evening 10c and 15c.

Thursday, July 5 Viola Dana, the Wonderful Star, in "GOD'S LAW AND THE MAN" A play and a story that will please all; also a good Geo. Ovey comedy and a travel picture.

Friday, July 6—Double Bill George Beban, the big star in "An Alien", in his latest success "HIS SWEETHEART" We cannot too strongly suggest you attend this play if you wish to see one of the best. As an added attraction we will show, starting to-day and continuing for 7 weeks, the "Official War Pictures" of the great war. Real, authentic views of actual battles. These films have been sent to this country and are released by Wm. K. Vanderbilt for the relief of the Allies. No change in prices. Shown first in Boston and New York, and other cities, at 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00. Don't miss this opportunity to see these pictures at our regular prices.

Saturday, July 7 Virginia Pearson in a Play of Life "SISTER AGAINST SISTER" Also a Vitagraph and other comedies.

Am simply covered with eruption—What can I do? "I can't rest, I can't sleep, and most of all, I hardly dare go out, for when it starts itching, I simply have to scratch, no matter where I am." "Don't worry a bit—just get a cake of Resinol Soap and a jar of Resinol Ointment. Use them according to directions and I am sure you will get prompt relief, and that your skin will be all right in a few days." Resinol Ointment is so nearly flesh-colored that it can be used on exposed surfaces without attracting undue attention. Contains nothing that could irritate the tenderest skin. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

PARK THEATRE

Vermont's Best Photoplay House Matinee, 2:15 and 3:30—Tel. 613-W—Evening, 7 and 8:30

TO-DAY June Caprice in "A CHILD OF THE WILDS" One of her best. Also several good comedies. A fine play for children.

PRICES: MATINEE—Adults, Balcony 5c, Orchestra 10c; Children under 14 Years, 5c EVENING—Balcony 5c, All Orchestra Seats 10c

Fourth of July WALL PAPER A. V. BECKLEY (Over Druggist's Drug Store) Phone 285-W 46 Main Street

BARRE 6 Days Coming JULY 2 6 Nights Monday SUMMER FESTIVAL and EXPOSITION Under Auspices of Italian A. C. Amrica's Biggest, Greatest, Cleanest Carnival Organization Special - Monster Fireworks Display - Free WEDNESDAY, JULY 4 COME AND BRING YOUR FAMILY