

August Clearance Sale on Refrigerators 20% Off

You can afford to buy one of these at the present price, if you weren't to use it a day this season. Next year refrigerators will be much more than the present price. We have only a few left.

August Clearance Sale on Old Hickory Furniture for the Porch or Veranda 25% Off

Come in and see these before they are all gone.

White Sewing Machines

Cabinet, four, six and eight drawer machines.

They are prize winners and indispensable in every well-ordered home. Ask the lady who owns a White. We do not send out agents so are able to save you from $10.00 to $20.00 on every machine. Let us demonstrate.

B. W. Hooker & Co., Inc.
Leading Furniture Dealers

TALK OF THE TOWN

Lemon sherbet at Russell's to-day. See the counter of wash goods, 15c a yard, at Pitts'.
K. J. Kirk has returned to his home in St. Johnsbury, after passing several days in the city on business.
Mrs. James Donald left last night for Boston, in which vicinity she is to pass a few weeks with relatives.
G. H. Ball of Keith avenue left this morning for Seneca Falls, N. Y., where he has secured employment.
Miss Jennie Holden of Cambridge, Mass., a former resident of Barre, is passing a vacation with relatives in the city.
William F. Littlejohn, who took the military training course at Plattsburg, N. Y., is at his home on Orange street for a time.
Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Magoon of North Main street left yesterday on an automobile trip to West Fairlee, expecting to be absent several days.
Miss Margaret Kelley arrived to-day from Milford, Mass., to spend a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harley Kenerson of Averill street.
Earl Parker, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Lizzie A. Head of Washington street, returned this morning to Hartford, Conn., where he is employed.
Charles Zanleoni, jr., of North Main street went to Montpelier this morning to begin work for the law firm of Theriault & Hunt. Mr. Zanleoni will have charge of the collection department.
At the Bolster plant on Granite street plans are being made for an extension to the storage room, which will be used as a compressor shed. The building will have lateral dimensions of 12 and 32 feet.
Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cate, who were married in Barre a week ago, returned to the city yesterday after passing several days in camp at Malletts bay on Lake Champlain. After visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Bates of Orange street they are to go to North Calais to reside.
Miss Myra A. Bagley, formerly a teacher in the city schools, who has been passing several days in the city as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fisher of Averill street, has returned to her home in Rutland. Miss Bagley recently resigned her position as teacher of English and French in the Rutland high school.
S. Hollister Jackson of Wellington street left to-day for Philadelphia, Pa., where he is to act as chairman of the after-dinner exercises at a banquet to be given in the Hotel Adelphia to-morrow evening in honor of the National Retail Monument Dealers' association. Members of the Barre-quarriers' and manufacturers' associations will be the hosts.
William H. Vanderbilt of New York, who recently enlisted in the United States naval reserve fleet at Newport, R. I., registered at Hotel Barre last night. Young Vanderbilt is accompanied by two companions of the fleet, A. P. Quinn and J. P. Flynn, who are on a trip through New England while on brief leave. The three sailors left by automobile for New Hampshire this morning.
Mayor E. C. Glysson and Mrs. Glysson returned recently from Cady's Falls, near Morrisville, where they visited their daughter, Miss Ruth Glysson, and Miss Swasey, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Swasey of Waterbury. Misses Glysson and Swasey are engaged on a large farm for a few weeks while Miss Terrill of the state university extension is in charge of a large canning project. During her temporary absence this week her student-helpers are supervising the work of preserving vegetables and fruit.
Police headquarters got a hurry call from Granite street yesterday afternoon when a family row grew to such proportions that alleged women principals in the altercation became frightened. On a complaint made to Grand Juror William Whigham, Officer John W. Dineen went to Granite street and arrested Reggiera Balconi and Edward Cerasoli, charging them with breach of the peace offenses. Today in city court each respondent entered a plea of guilty and Magistrate H. W. Scott imposed fines of $5 and costs, which Cerasoli and Balconi arranged to pay.
F. M. Kempton has completed plans for the erection of a grain elevator and storage at his mill on South Main street and work on the addition will be gotten under way as soon as the aldermanic fire committee has approved of the plans. Mr. Kempton contemplates the erection of a storage structure 15 by 30 feet and 12 feet high. It will grow out of the flat roof of the main building and will have no projections over the mill. For some time the miller has been cramped for storage space and the addition, it is expected, will enable him to provide storage facilities hitherto much needed but unavailable.
After having been detained in the custody of Sheriff F. H. Tracy following his appearance in negligence on Summer street early Saturday morning, Henry DeV. Buckhout, a real estate operator, left early this morning for his home in White Plains, N. Y. He was accompanied by S. H. Davies of New York, a graduate nurse, who was directed by members of Mr. Buckhout's family to come to Barre and investigate the case. Although his condition has improved somewhat during his detention, Buckhout's mental condition remains serious and Mr. Davies will recommend the rest cure for the patient upon his arrival in White Plains.
Accompanied by eight linemen, composing the Barre service crew of the Vermont Tel. & Tel. Co., H. H. Hodgdon, the district foreman, left this morning for North Duxbury, whence to strike out through the woods for a point near Ricker mountain. There the crew will occupy an abandoned farmhouse for a time while constructing a farmer's line from Camel's Hump to Waterbury. Two weeks will be spent on the first camp site and then the camp headquarters will be moved to a point half way between Callaghan's at the base of the Hump and North Duxbury station. The telephone company has completed plans for extending the line from Camel's Hump over Ricker mountain to accommodate a number of farmers, and thence to the Little river, where a junction with one of the main lines will be effected. It is expected that a month will elapse before the work is completed.

A. P. ABBOTT CO. | A. P. ABBOTT CO. | A. P. ABBOTT CO. | A. P. ABBOTT CO.

Economy To-day

appears in nearly every paragraph of the English language. We are just beginning to catch its meaning. Economy in your buying, then in the use and distribution of what you have to do with means a great deal to your country as well as to you. There is nowhere that you can practice economy in buying better than in our Bargain Basement.

BARGAIN BASEMENT These values are all of them much better than goods bought from regular stocks.

BARGAIN BASEMENT A large assortment of staple and fancy Gingham, these are all new styles and values that will be sold in all regular stocks at 18c per yard; this may seem a little early, but none too styles and values that will be sold in school dresses. These 12 1-2c yard.

BARGAIN BASEMENT Here are lots of Crashes and Towels that you can save a part of your money on if bought now.

BARGAIN BASEMENT Our table of Silks that were selling in our regular department at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 per yard; these come in plaids, stripes and figures, all desirable goods for waists, dress trimmings, or white dresses. You should see these silks before you go to regular stocks you may find just what you would pay double for the price of this lot, 89c per yard.

BARGAIN BASEMENT Several lots of Curtain Scrim at 12 1-2c and 18c that are worth lots more.

BARGAIN BASEMENT Our table of Remnants—Here is a place to pick up some real bargains; lots of lengths for waists and children's wear.

BARGAIN BASEMENT Buttons for children's dresses and underwear at 5c and 10c per card.

BARGAIN BASEMENT One lot Muslins, Dimities and Lawns of various values, all fresh, clean, desirable goods; these, your choice at 15c per yard.

BARGAIN BASEMENT Large assortment of Colored Oranges, these are 25c goods, desirable styles, beautiful designs at 15c per yard.

BARGAIN BASEMENT One lot of 25c Galatea, in stripes for shirts and children's wear, these at 19c per yard.

BARGAIN BASEMENT Yard-wide Percales, these in standard grades, in new patterns, now in basement at 15c per yard.

BARGAIN BASEMENT 50c Silk Novelty Wash Goods, come in white with colored and black figure, very pretty for street or party dresses; this one lot at 29c per yard.

In our Garment Department are dresses at half price. Special prices on skirts, such as silks and summer skirts. New arrival of popular priced waists, those that sell at $1.00 and $1.25 each.

The Daylight Store

Kodak Films Developed Free

when purchased at our store if 6 prints are made

Russell's, The Red Cross Pharmacy

TALK OF THE TOWN

Warren White returned to his home in Stowe yesterday after having spent several days in town on business.
Miss Jennie Williamson arrived yesterday from New York to spend a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Olliver of Division street.
Mrs. Patrick O'Farrell and children of Graniteville left the city this morning for Sherbrooke, P. Q., where they are to make a visit of several weeks with relatives.
Among the business visitors in town yesterday were: D. A. Bennett of Williamstown, Miss Doris Knapp of Plainfield, and Miss Ruth McLeod of Websterville.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rockwood and daughter, Helen, and Mrs. N. M. Nelson and son, Paul, left this afternoon for Malletts bay, Winoski, where they will camp for several days.
Mario Dughi returned yesterday from Buffalo, N. Y., where he has been visiting with relatives during the past week. He resumed his duties in the Cummings & Lewis drug store this morning.
Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dodge and Miss Mina Fisher of Minneapolis, Minn., who are touring New England, were registered at Hotel Barre last night and during their stay in the city called on their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Baldwin of Washington street. The party left this morning for the White mountains.
News reached Barre late yesterday afternoon that the buildings on the Foster farm near East Montpelier were burning. People living along the East Montpelier road got the information soon and there was a general rallying of farmers bent on assisting the Fosters when it was discovered that the story of the blaze was erroneous, as someone had discerned a brush fire back of the buildings and in the distance thought that the barns were afire.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See the new feathers, felt and satin hats at the Mrs. Shepard Co.
All the banks of the city will be closed to-morrow, Bennington battle day.
Mrs. W. F. Clark and Miss Anna Clark of Brookfield were among the visitors in the city yesterday.
C. H. Davis of St. Johnsbury and C. W. Goodwin of Chelsea were Barre business visitors yesterday.
Mrs. Wallace Grady of Merchant street returned yesterday from Brattleboro, where she has been visiting friends for a few days.
Neale W. Hooker, who has been taking the military training course at Plattsburg, arrived in the city last night and left to-day for an outing at Lake Cushman, Greensboro.
When Mario Zanleoni started to wheel his car toward the Palace garage on North Main street last evening, a car operated by A. A. Lamorey and coming from the south crashed into the rear end of the first automobile. Slippery paving was given as the cause of the mishap, as the wheels on the automobile driven by Mr. Lamorey skidded suddenly when he applied his brakes. One of the mudguards on Mr. Zanleoni's car was disjunctured, but the damage was trivial.
Two strangers and two mysterious extension valves were woven into the story told in city court this morning by George Leclair, who was asked by Grand Juror William Wishart to explain where he procured the liquor which made him intoxicated yesterday. Leclair was locked up last night and when arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott to-day acknowledged a subsequent offense. After the story-telling episode, the judge sentenced him to serve 30 days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $15 and costs.

NOTICE OF CALL AND TO APPEAR FOR PHYSICAL EXAMINATION.

The following named persons are hereby notified that they are called for military service of the United States by this Local Board. They will report at the office of the Local Board for physical examination on the 20th day of August, 1917, at 8:00 o'clock a. m.

Order No.	Serial No.	Name	Address
94	453	Alexander Matheson, 2 Plain St., Barre.
95	1829	Charles A. Adams, S. Barre.
96	2945	Raymond Preston Sweet, Waterbury.
97	10	Eleanor J. Dole, 31 Perry St., Barre.
98	2725	Henry William Webster, Roxbury.
99	2783	Walter James Murray, Warren.
100	2756	Henry Lyander Moore, Warren.
101	2953	Edward George Gray, Waterbury.
102	1943	William Murray, Graniteville.
103	1081	Herbert Chester Sargent, E. Barre.
104	1705	William E. Lavagnaw, Fayston.
105	2149	Henry Forest Gray, Worcester.
106	1821	Austin H. Jamison, Barre.
107	1688	Elgin A. Martin, Fayston.
108	487	Henry Lewis Moise, 72 Franklin street, Barre.
109	1282	Joseph Eli Bowler, Websterville.
110	3090	Edwin Luther Burke, Woodbury.
111	1323	George J. Barber, Barre.
112	1847	Frederick Hanson Gear, 28 First avenue, Montpelier.

Date of posting notice, Aug. 14, 1917.
GEORGE N. TILDEN, Chairman.
LEWIS C. MOODY, Clerk.

examination on the 20th day of August, 1917, at 10:30 o'clock a. m.

The following named persons are hereby notified that they are called for military service of the United States by this Local Board. They will report at the office of the Local Board for physical examination on the 20th day of August, 1917, at 10:30 o'clock a. m.

Order No.	Serial No.	Name	Address
113	797	Joseph H. A. Fortier, 23 Pike St., Barre.
114	140	Max Cecil Fisher, 24 Averill St., Barre.
115	2599	William T. MacCreedie, Northfield.
116	1536	Orrin Nute Jackson, Calais.
117	1922	Vittore Bisozero, 8 Sibley Ave., Montpelier.
118	2952	Robert N. Egan, Waterbury.
119	1723	Carroll Ashbel Meers, Marshfield.
120	2808	Roy H. Enrich, Watfield.
121	1779	Harry Franklin Bliss, E. Montpelier.
122	3288	John William Donald, Websterville.
123	2247	Calvin H. H. Murray, 19 Summit street, Montpelier.
124	2011	Elmer Edwin Pierce, 39 Main St., Montpelier.
125	432	Gusto Toca, 247-255 N. Main St., Barre.
126	2719	George Mitchell Estey, Roxbury.
127	3053	Henry D. Snow, Waterbury.
128	2962	Glenn Carroll Stevens, Waterbury.
129	18	Furtis Harold Abbott, 15 W. Patterson street, Barre.
130	652	Paula Toal, 8 Second St., Barre.
131	927	Charles Stevens Lessor, 3 Webster avenue, Barre.

Date of posting notice, Aug. 14, 1917.
GEORGE N. TILDEN, Chairman.
LEWIS C. MOODY, Clerk.

NOTICE OF CALL AND TO APPEAR FOR PHYSICAL EXAMINATION.

The following named persons are hereby notified that they are called for military service of the United States by this Local Board. They will report at the office of the Local Board for physical Barre Town Quarantine Notice. All children in Websterville under 16 years of age are quarantined on their own premises until further notice. The churches in Websterville are also closed until further notice, and all churches in Barre Town are closed to Websterville people until further notice.

Per order Board of Health.
The secretary of Barre aeris, No. 1733, will be in the West block every Tuesday and Friday evening to collect dues.
Per order Sec.

TALK OF THE TOWN

A. R. Andrews of Northfield was among the business visitors in town to-day.
Edward Brown of Enfield, N. H., is spending a few days with friends in town.
Mrs. Fred Alger of Williamstown was brought to the City hospital to-day for treatment.
Aulay Ogston, who received a commission after completing a course in military training at Plattsburg, is at his home in Barre for a few days.
For the second time within a fortnight aliens in Barre and vicinity are given an opportunity to take the initial steps which lead to citizenship. Clerk F. S. Platt and his assistants arrived in the city this forenoon and established themselves at city hall. This afternoon the hearings were held in the court room, but because of the board of civil authority meeting to-night, it is probable that the scene of the session will be shifted to the council chamber. It is thought that nearly 100 candidates will appear.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Visit Pitts' annex for bargains.
Lemon sherbet at Russell's to-day.
Mrs. James Opie of Quincy, Mass., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sydney G. Kidd of Maple avenue.
Rev. C. H. Wells of Newark, N. J., who is spending a month's vacation from his parish, touring the state, is visiting for a few days with relatives in town.
Thus far August has been a busy month at Hotel Barre and the tourist registrations have taxed the accommodations. Among those arriving last night and this morning were the following: Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Lindsay and chauffeur of Southboro, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Gardner of Swampscott, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Thomas of Boston, Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Phillips, Mrs. E. L. Plumley, A. N. Phillips, jr., and chauffeur of Stamford, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cutler of Baltimore, Md., W. E. Mayo of Berlin, N. H., L. E. Duke of Gorham, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Brabox and Mrs. George Nelber of Hartford, Conn., W. J. M. Sutherland of Holyoke, Mass., W. H. Vanderbilt, A. P. Quinn and J. W. Flynn of the naval training school at Newport, R. I., A. W. Cole of Barton, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dodge and Miss Mina Fisher of Minneapolis, Minn., H. W. Buchanan of Orleans, William McCormack of Pittsford, F. H. Rider of Pilot Bay, P. Q., Harry G. Seltzer of Reading, Pa., Mrs. Charles G. Howes of Philadelphia, Miss Sue C. Brooks of New York City and chauffeur, W. S. Willard of Concord, N. H., F. J. Lawless of Detroit, Mich., W. W. Pennimore and J. F. Kane of Syracuse, N. Y., A. T. Knapp and L. A. Knapp of Danbury, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Sherman and Mrs. C. T. Bean and Miss Bean of Newport.

Report of the Tunbridge Valley Cow Testing Association.

The following is a list of the cows producing one thousand pounds of milk or forty pounds of butter fat, for the months of July, 1917.

Owener	No.	Age	When Fresh	Lib. Milk	Test	But. Fat
Benj. Tucker	6	Jersey	2	5-14-17	851	47.40
Benj. Tucker	8	Jersey	5	10-24-16	818	67.41
Benj. Tucker	11	Jersey	4	10-8-16	738	56.41
Benj. Tucker	13	J&H	5	11-11-16	1101	45.47
Chas. Riddle	9	Holste'n	6	11-7-16	1000	47.42
James Howe	16	Holste'n	4	7-27-17	1104	49.44
L. G. BATES, Sec.
J. E. TAYLOR, Official Tester.

The Tonic

Which contains the greatest amount of bone, muscle, and brain-making protein, and the lowest percentage of waste, is our

Syrup of Hypophosphites

It reduces the labor of digestion and gives greater nutrition. Price 75c.

Drown's Drug Store

48 No. Main St.

Your House Needs Paint Inside and Outside

and we have the color it requires. Use

Bay State Liquid Paint

A. V. Beckley

Over Drown's Drug Store Phone 219-W 46 Main Street

DRINK

- CLIQUE CLUB GINGER ALE, per bottle.....12c
- MOXIE, per bottle.....25c
- WELCH'S GRAPE JUICE, per bottle...10c, 25c, 45c
- BANNER BRAND LIME JUICE, per bottle...15c
- AMBROSIA PUNCH FRUIT SYRUP, per bottle 25c
- DOANE'S CRANBERRY JUICE, per bottle....25c
- HOT-KO, per bottle.....35c
- CHER-KO, pe' bottle.....35c
- ME-KO, per bottle.....35c
- LEMONS, for lemonade, per dozen.....40c to 45c
- HEINZ'S ROOT BEER EXTRACT, per bottle...18c

FRUIT

- CULTIVATED RASPBERRIES, per basket.....15c
- BANANAS PEARS CANTALOUPE
- ORANGES PEACHES WATERMELONS

The Smith & Cumings Co.
"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"

GOOD VALUES

- New Mealy Potatoes, per peck.....35c
 - Oleomargarine, per pound.....22c, 30c and 32c
 - Best Clear Glass Lightning Jars, per dozen, 1-2 pint 70c, pints 80c, quarts 90c
- Prices are liable to be higher later.

DERBY'S MEATS IN GLASS.

- Pickled Lambs' Tongues, jars.....12 1/2c and 20c
- Pickled Lambs' Tongues, pints, each.....50c
- Sliced Ox Tongue two sizes.....30c and $1.00
- Lunch Tongue in glass.....30c
- Calves' Tongue in glass.....50c
- Derby Chicken in glass jars.....50c
- Richardson & Rob's Chicken in cans.....50c

We recommend the Elwood Poultry Farm Products, all packed in glass, Selected Chicken, a la King, and Creamed Chicken.

- Peanut Butter in bulk, per pound.....20c
- Just arrived, Olive Zest.....10c, 15c, and 25c
- Premier Dressing in two sizes.....13c and 30c

The F. D. Ladd Company