

BETHEL

Funeral of Mrs. Joseph D. Brown Held Yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. Joseph D. Brown was held yesterday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Faber Benedict. Harold V. Allen conducted the funeral, Rev. J. Wesley Miller officiating, and Miss Fannie Harrington sang twice. Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. John B. Perham and George Perham of Brookfield, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kelly of Northfield, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Little of Chelsea, besides the bereaved husband from Vernon, N. H.

Miss Elizabeth Welch is nursing Mrs. H. H. Fifield and Miss Mildred Persons is taking her place at the Greene sanatorium.

W. M. Fisher has returned to Springfield, Mass., after a three weeks' vacation here and at his cottage in Barnard.

Faber Benedict has sold his farm to his son, C. E. Benedict, who will conduct it, specializing in registered Holstein stock. Harold Bundy and Eugene Parrott threw off notes from a fast moving soldiers' train Saturday evening. The notes found their way to their parents.

Local men, who will appear this week before the exemption board at Woodstock are: Joseph H. Counter, J. Howard Myott, Harry S. Turner and Louis A. Williams, on Wednesday; Leo F. Edmunds, Myron H. Call and Christopher N. Arnold, on Friday.

Ivers W. Hackett was here Friday from Great Barrington, Mass., on his way to attend the second training camp for reserve officers at Plattsburg, N. Y.

The cemetery commissioners will build a fence around the Lympus cemetery and will begin improvements within, but cannot go far with the present appropriation.

Miss Gladys P. Drew of Allston, Mass., is at Guy Wilson's for the week.

Miss Ellaween Sandpsra and Miss Marion Grant are in Northfield for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Batchelder of Springfield are visiting at Wallace Batchelder's.

L. F. Terry is driving a new Oakland Six automobile.

The first target drill of the rifle club was held at the 200-yard range last Saturday, each member taking ten shots at the small targets. Paul Wilson with 43, and Leon Barnes with 42, were the leaders. Both are prospective members of the new national army. W. L. Parsons has been appointed range superintendent.

A son was born Aug. 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Gennona.

Miss Ada Paine of Boston is visiting at R. L. Persons'.

Miss Adeline Clifford has returned from Cape Rosier, Me., being accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Percy Clifford of that place. Guests yesterday at Mr. Clifford's were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gray and their daughters from Hardwick.

William Smart of Montpelier has been visiting at B. W. Trumbull's.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa B. Chatfield of Windsor have been visiting at W. A. Chatfield's.

Harold P. Perkins returned Saturday from a 10-days' automobile trip as far east as Brunswick, Me., and was accompanied by his daughter, Barbara, and Mrs. Minnie Shepard, who had been visiting in Portland.

Miss Helen Smith and Miss Evalina Cornell have returned from Woodstock where they went last winter and again will work at the Bacon house.

Mrs. Fred Perley and her son, William, from Bellows Falls are with relatives here.

Angelo Lepore appeared before the war board at Woodstock last Friday, passed the physical examination and made no claim for exemption. Antonio Lemon went Saturday and failed by one pound in weight to pass the physical examination. Lawrence Morale, who passed physically and waived exemption, cannot be certified, as he is only 20 years of age and registered under a misunderstanding of the situation.

Frank Ceresa, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ceresa, has returned from North Tunbridge, where he worked several days for a farmer before he was known to have been away from home. He says he liked the place and wants to go back. He has a certificate of having completed the elementary course of study and his friends hope he will attend high school the coming year.

RANDOLPH

Miss Mary Wedgwood, who has a position in the library at New Haven, Conn., has come to pass her vacation here with her mother, Mrs. W. F. Wedgwood.

Miss Vernie Chamberlin, a teacher passing her vacation here, has returned from a trip to Rochester, to pass the time until the opening of her school about Sept. 1 in Oxenbury, Mass.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Drew, who have been in Keene, N. H., for a several weeks' stay, have returned here to pass a few days with their brothers, L. C. and George Drew, before locating somewhere for a home.

The first meeting of Silver Cross circle of King's Daughters was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Leonard.

Two trainloads of soldiers from Fort Ethan Allen passed through here Saturday evening, but their destination was not known.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Rowell and Mrs. F. A. Salisbury have returned from a trip to Boston, New York, New Jersey and other points.

Miss Katherine ReCorr of Stowe stopped off here on her return from Fitchburg, Mass., and passed a day with Mrs. E. M. Woodworth.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick Leeds and Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Chase have gone to Portland, Me., to pass the next two months.

Clement Kellogg and wife of Plafield were in town Sunday to see their mother, Mrs. R. G. Kellogg, who does not improve from her illness. Miss Beatrice Kellogg of the same place was also in town for a few days last week to assist in her care.

The teacher training department of the high school will be held in the Summer street building this year, this having been in repair and made quite attractive. Miss Eleanor J. Clark is to be the teacher, as usual, and the schools all begin Sept. 10.

Mrs. J. C. Wells returned Sat., day from a several days' stay with Mr. and Mrs. John Wells at East Randolph.

George and Lee Daniels of North Montpelier are the guests of their brother, P. B. Daniels.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilder of Burlington are in town to assist in the production of "Honey-moon Lane," which is to be given by local talent under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Philbrook, and a portion of the proceeds will be devoted to Red Cross work. During Mr. and Mrs. Wilder's stay here they are being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Chandler.

Charles Palmer, who has been passing a week in Newport, N. H., has returned here to resume his work.

Rev. G. O. Howe occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church Sunday morning and the church was closed in the evening. Rev. S. G. Sutor, the pastor, who has been absent attending the Claremont, N. H., camp meeting, is expected home the first of the week.

Miss Cora Bliss came from Swanton on Saturday night to be the guest of Miss Blanche Sparhawk and the first of the week will go on to Boston to purchase half millinery goods for her store in Swanton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tewksbury took Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Whitcomb by auto to Barre Sunday, where the two latter attended the funeral of the late Homer Fitts, with whom Mr. Whitcomb was formerly associated in business.

Mrs. Azro Stockwell of Rochester, a lady about 80 years of age, was brought here Sunday on a bed and placed in the sanatorium for a broken hip, which she sustained a fall a few days ago.

CABOT

J. B. Knight of Ludlow is spending a few days in town and is a guest at E. M. Bliss'.

Albert Rogers did not go to Mary Fletcher hospital as recently reported, but to the hospital at St. Johnsbury. On account of his serious condition he was not considered able to be taken to Burlington.

Mrs. Hubert Wheeler and children have been visiting her grandmother at Rumney, N. H., the past few days.

Mrs. Willis Fields of Massachusetts is visiting her mother, Mrs. Viola Harvey, at P. A. Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore of India, who are visiting Mrs. Moore's brother, M. I. Wheeler, had a narrow escape from a serious accident last Monday. As they were returning from berrying, the shackle broke on the shaft, frightening the horse, which ran and overturned the wagon, throwing the occupants into a pool of muddy water and spilling their berries. They escaped without any broken bones, but pretty well frightened and splattered with mud.

Abbie Smith visited her sister, Mrs. Dana Perry, in Montpelier this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Scott have been spending a few days with relatives in Craftsbury this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waldo of South Boston are visiting at E. D. Waldo's and Walter Perry's.

Fred Walbridge, Leon Perry, Clifton Rogers, Charlie Barnett and Wrennie Barnett spent a few days at Joe's pond this week.

Guy Clifford and family of Morrisville were guests of Arthur Rogers recently.

Asa Preston of Marshfield visited his daughter, Mrs. A. V. Nelson, this week.

The first regular meeting of the Judith Lyford Woman's club will be held at the club rooms Tuesday, Sept. 4. The committee for the meeting are Mrs. Flora Abbott and Mrs. Gertrude Read. Attention of members is called to the fact that no printed calendars will be issued for the ensuing year. A copy of its work outlined by the executive committee, covering both study and social meetings, will be posted in the club rooms and each member is at liberty to make use of the same at any meeting.

Miss Flora Atkins went to Danville Friday morning to visit her brother, Wesley, and family, and from there will go to Mount Berry, Ga., to teach the coming year.

Raymond Farrington has rented Miss Flora Atkins' house and will move there in the near future.

The annual old home week banquet given by the Woman's club was held in town hall Tuesday evening, Aug. 14. The hall was converted into a Japanese tea room, decorations consisting entirely of Japanese lanterns, parasols, banners, screens, china, etc. Small table covers with Japanese luncheon cloths were used to accommodate the guests, about 100 enjoying the banquet and entertainment. The post prandial exercises were in charge of Mrs. Gertrude Wells, president of the club. The entertainment was of a Japanese nature, consisting of solos, fan and parasol drills, etc. Another interesting feature was the table in charge of Mrs. Fanny Currier, upon which was displayed Japanese fans, lamp shades, pottery, etc., which was sold and the proceeds added to the library fund. The banquet was a success socially and financially, $43 being added to the treasury of the club. The committee desire to thank all who helped to make the program such a success also the young ladies who so kindly acted as waitresses.

HANCOCK

E. L. Martin was in Rutland last week. Julius and Agnes Church of Bellows Falls have been at the home of their grandfather, Julius Church, for two weeks.

Mrs. Capitola Church is visiting relatives in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Lloyd Church, Misses Mamie Hubbard and Phyllis Farr were at Lake Dunmore last week.

Will Blair was at home from Randolph over Sunday.

Daniel and Wayne Dunham were in Middlebury recently.

Mrs. Marion Howard and Robert Keudall of New York City are guests at A. L. Miller's.

Miss Gladys Boutwell of Stockbridge visited Mrs. Caroline Marsh last week.

David Blair, Maurice Eaton, Leonard Marsh, Irwin Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Martin, George Blair and son, Lawrence, Arthur, Charles and Ruth Dowdell visited Fort Ethan Allen last week.

Archie McCullom of Barre was a guest at Elmore Goodyear's recently.

William Goodyear went to Burlington recently to have his eyes tested, but did not receive much encouragement.

Mrs. Leslie Farr and infant son of Bethel have been recent guests at George Farr's.

WAITSFIELD

Bert Savage of Proctor is at his home on the common.

Dr. H. H. Fullerton of Waterbury was in town Wednesday.

Clarence and Orman Tucker went on Thursday to Orwell.

Loren Allen and Stuart Carson of Barre spent several days at A. B. Tucker's this week.

The village bridge is closed to travel, new sleepers and flooring being laid.

Mrs. Lizzie Ann Livingston is caring for Mrs. Peter LaBelle.

Miss Coughlin, who has been at J. A. Smith's, returned Tuesday to Burlington.

Miss Mildred Moore of Warren is a guest at Albert Barnard's.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Remole were in Montpelier Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Belden were home from Burlington Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Washington County Farm asso-

J. L. BOWMAN CO.

20-22 State Street MONTPELIER

J. L. BOWMAN CO.

ALTERATION SALE

One whole week will be devoted to clearing the house of every garment, in Suits, Coats, Rain Coats, Skirts and Dresses, that was left over from the season's collections, and in order that the carpenter can have a free hand, in making extensive alterations, we must clear out every garment in the house at a merciless reduction, which means in many cases less than half their former price. AN OPPORTUNITY KEEN SHOPPERS WILL TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IMMEDIATELY.

Tailored Suits

6 Regulation Khaki Camping Suits. Former price $6.00, NOW $3.49

50 finest Tailored Suits, Wooltex and other good makes, at from $35.00 ranging down to $9.75

Many of these Suits are worth up to $50.00. See windows.

Shirt Waists

10 dozen New Waists, made of Plain and Novelty Voiles, Organdies and Novelty Weaves, fresh and new, worth $1.29. Alteration Sale Price .69c

25 All Silk, Embroidered in colors, very neat and dressy, worth $1.69. Alteration Sale Price .95c

50 Waists of Plain and Fancy Voiles, Crepe de Chines, Georgettes and Novelties. Alteration Sale Price

50c and 60c on the dollar

Misses' and Children's Dresses

Misses' and Children's Dresses will be offered at ridiculous prices, and you will find a large and varied assortment, from the crisp and dainty Organdie to the sedate Silks and Serges. Mothers should take advantage of this last opportunity to buy at a big saving.

Skirts

About 85 Wash Skirts, made of the finest Gabardines, Piques, Repps, Cords, and many other weaves, in plain White and Sport Models, will be priced at one-half.

A wonderful assortment of Wool, Taffetas, Satins, and Sport Stripes in all the new models, specially priced.

THE WELL CORSETED WOMAN

wears a Gos-sard. An individual model for every figure. And a model for you is here; let our corsetiere fit you properly.

$2.00 and up to $8.50

To the Ladies of Barre:

We are receiving daily the newest creations in Coats, Suits, Dresses, Skirts, and Waists, from fashion centers, and invite you to visit our store often and inspect the collection. NEW models will be added daily. You will always find the latest garments HERE.

WE WILL THANK YOU FOR THE VISIT, WHETHER YOU BUY OR NOT.

Dresses of Quality

20 good Dresses Plain White and Fancy Voiles. End of the season's group. Worth up to $4.98. Alteration Sale Price, $1.00

15 finest Dresses in one assortment. Organdies, Voiles, Repps, Linenes and Printed Materials, worth up to $8.98. Alteration Sale Price $3.00

Just received a beautiful collection of new Fall Dresses in Satins, Taffetas, and Serges, for your approval. Ask to see them.

Coats

About 75 Coats of every known weave and color, comprising the season's best styles of Sport Effects, as well as the conservative models. The Red Ticket on each garment will tell the story of our loss and your gain. LOOK THEM OVER.

About 50 Misses' Coats, of all the best materials. Sizes 6 to 14, and 13, 15, and 17 will be included and priced below the cost of production.

Raincoats and Capes

We will not spare the knife on this Department, and will price every garment at a figure that will make short work of the entire lot. Teachers and school children should take advantage of this chance NOW.

Parasols

Children's Fancy Parasols in all colors to close at .39c

Last and final cut on all Fancy Sun Shades. Cost is no object. Sport and conservative styles in all colors and all the newest handles.

THE NEW STORE

J. L. BOWMAN CO.

Successor to A. H. Temple, Montpelier

THE NEW STORE

WATERBURY

Harry Irish, who enlisted from Moretown last spring, arrived at the home of his brother, Walter Irish, Thursday night, having received an honorable discharge from the army because of dependent parents. Mr. Irish was in the 11th cavalry, stationed for a time at Fort Ethan Allen, later at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and recently at Newport News, Va. He went to his home in South Duxbury yesterday.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fuller on the Montpelier road seemed more comfortable yesterday.

Mrs. Oscar Stevens of Enosburg Falls is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Preston. She was accompanied by Mrs. Rood of Wisconsin, a cousin of Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Preston, who has not been in Vermont for 11 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Harris of Boston and Mrs. Parker of Montpelier were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Preston.

S. S. Foster of St. Johnsbury was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Jerome Hart, this week.

Mrs. H. H. Goss of Orange, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Lunt of Hopedale, Mass., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jennings of East Middlebury have come to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Douglas. Mrs. Lee Morgan of Burlington was also a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Douglas.

WORCESTER

George Bruce and daughter, Grace, from Williamstown, are visiting at C. M. Ladd's.

The ladies' aid social was well attended Wednesday evening. They took in $7.91 and a good time was reported.

Mrs. Emily Bailey is home from East Montpelier for a few days.

Miss Glavia Gonyeau from Montpelier and Harvey Jones from Barre visited Miss Gonyeau's brother, Frank Gonyeau, Sunday. Mrs. J. F. Williams of Hardwick is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Gonyeau.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Curtis visited their son, Hiram, at Fort Ethan Allen Friday, who was expected to leave Friday evening with Co. H. They will form part of the 26th division of the U. S. army. They also attended the farewell reception, given to their son, Herman, and Victor Lawless, who have enlisted in the U. S. navy, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lawless, 15 Vine street, Montpelier. There was a good company and a good time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Susan Burrell has had a monument set for her husband, Albert Burrell. Mrs. A. F. Hurd has returned from

PLAINFIELD

J. H. Edwards and son of Norfolk, Va., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis for the past week. Mr. Edwards is an uncle of Mrs. Davis.

CONSCRIPT LIST GETS NEW NAMES

Orange County Board Announces Additions to "Certified Men." Also Gives Names of Those Exempted or Discharged.

The latest additions to the lists of men "certified for service" in the new National army by the local board for Orange county are printed below:

List of Persons Called into the Service of the United States Not Exempted or Discharged.

Serial No. Name and address.

1067 Angus L. McLean, Graniteville.

125 Glenn Forrest Flint, Randolph.

678 Leslie Arthur Persons, Randolph.

11 Clement Louanis, Bradford.

908 Charles Edwards Gilley, Tunbridge.

6 Joseph F. Louanis, Bradford, Vt.

92 Ralph Flint Carpenter, Randolph.

1112 Wm. Joseph Rabitaille, Graniteville.

717 Max Augustus Thomas, Randolph.

190 Merrill Edson Upham, Brookfield.

388 William Henry Smith, North Havenhill, N. H.

PLAINFIELD

J. H. Edwards and son of Norfolk, Va., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis for the past week. Mr. Edwards is an uncle of Mrs. Davis.

CONSCRIPT LIST GETS NEW NAMES

Orange County Board Announces Additions to "Certified Men." Also Gives Names of Those Exempted or Discharged.

The latest additions to the lists of men "certified for service" in the new National army by the local board for Orange county are printed below:

List of Persons Called into the Service of the United States Not Exempted or Discharged.

Serial No. Name and address.

1067 Angus L. McLean, Graniteville.

125 Glenn Forrest Flint, Randolph.

678 Leslie Arthur Persons, Randolph.

11 Clement Louanis, Bradford.

908 Charles Edwards Gilley, Tunbridge.

6 Joseph F. Louanis, Bradford, Vt.

92 Ralph Flint Carpenter, Randolph.

1112 Wm. Joseph Rabitaille, Graniteville.

717 Max Augustus Thomas, Randolph.

190 Merrill Edson Upham, Brookfield.

388 William Henry Smith, North Havenhill, N. H.

PLAINFIELD

J. H. Edwards and son of Norfolk, Va., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis for the past week. Mr. Edwards is an uncle of Mrs. Davis.

CONSCRIPT LIST GETS NEW NAMES

Orange County Board Announces Additions to "Certified Men." Also Gives Names of Those Exempted or Discharged.

The latest additions to the lists of men "certified for service" in the new National army by the local board for Orange county are printed below:

List of Persons Called into the Service of the United States Not Exempted or Discharged.

Serial No. Name and address.

1067 Angus L. McLean, Graniteville.

125 Glenn Forrest Flint, Randolph.

678 Leslie Arthur Persons, Randolph.

11 Clement Louanis, Bradford.

908 Charles Edwards Gilley, Tunbridge.

6 Joseph F. Louanis, Bradford, Vt.

92 Ralph Flint Carpenter, Randolph.

1112 Wm. Joseph Rabitaille, Graniteville.

717 Max Augustus Thomas, Randolph.

190 Merrill Edson Upham, Brookfield.

388 William Henry Smith, North Havenhill, N. H.

PARK THEATRE

Vermont's Best Photoplay House

Matinee, 2:15 and 3:30—Tel. 613-W—Evening, 7 and 8:30

TO-DAY

MONDAY, AUGUST 27

George Beban in

"THE BOND BETWEEN"

A special Paramount feature, sure to please all. Also a Burton Holmes Travel Picture and a good Comedy.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 28

Arthur Ashley in

"THE IRON RING"

A Brady-Made World feature full of action. Also other plays of interest.

PRICES: MATINEE—Adults, Balcony 5c, Orchestra 10c; Children under 14 Years, 5c

EVENING—Balcony 10c, All Orchestra Seats 15c

Don't wear a veil to cover up skin trouble Resinol makes sick skins well

Is