

PLAINFIELD

FUNERAL OF MRS. MARY TUCKER, WHO DIED AT HEATON HOSPITAL.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary Tucker, widow of the late Almon Tucker of Marshfield, were held Friday afternoon, Rev. A. W. Hewitt officiating. The bearers were Burton E. Tucker, Leon Tucker, Wallace Holt and F. H. Bruffee. The burial was in the village cemetery. Mrs. Tucker died on Wednesday night at Heaton hospital, having been ill some time with Bright's disease. She was 67 years of age. She is survived by her son, Burton Tucker of Montpelier, and several nieces and nephews.

Miss Elvora Batchelder of Randolph is spending a few weeks in town with friends. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cate of North Montpelier and D. D. Lamb of East Calais were in town Wednesday.

Mrs. E. D. Bartlett, Mrs. Wallace Bartlett and son Wayne, Mrs. Lee Martin and Mrs. Allen Martin were in Montpelier Thursday.

E. V. Duke has sold his home on Main street to Mr. Howland of Cabot. Raymond Parks is at work in Barre for Smith & Camings.

Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb has sold her house on School street to E. V. Duke. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swain went Friday to St. Louis, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Spencer of Bennington are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Silas Willis.

Newton Davis has finished work for Martin & Nye, and leaves Wednesday for the Ayer training camp.

Mrs. Ella Tucker visited relatives in East Montpelier part of last week.

Mrs. Blanche Perrin and Miss Elvora Batchelder were in Montpelier Friday.

Mrs. W. H. Martin and Mrs. Merton Whitcomb were in Barre and Montpelier Thursday.

Misses Grace Batchelder, Dorothy Smith and Annie Corrigan began school at Montpelier seminary Tuesday.

Misses Fanny Martin and Lucy Stoddard are attending Goddard seminary, Barre, this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cutler of Barre were in town Thursday.

Mrs. Loua Pitkin of Barre and Miss Bessie Pitkin of Providence, R. I., visited relatives in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Alice Knapp Ward is at work at the Country club in Montpelier.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Leavitt were in Barre Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hall of Marshfield were in town Wednesday on business.

Arch Batchelder is spending a few days in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Burt Davis of Barre are spending a few days in the White mountains. They will also attend Brookton fair.

Curtis Holt has sold his home to A. M. Cate of North Montpelier.

Miss Ethel Colby is teaching in Waterbury this fall.

Miss Lucy Swift spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Middlesex.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnham Colby of North Troy spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives.

Miss Winnifred Hamel of Barre and Wayland Hamel of Montpelier spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hamel.

Waldo Bemis of Hardwick spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Dwinell.

Mrs. Hector Austin, Mrs. Simeon Dwinell and daughter, Dorothy, and Miss Florence Lathrop spent Saturday in Hardwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hollister of South Manchester, Conn., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Hollister.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Townsend and Mrs. Mary Hollister and daughters spent Saturday in Randolph.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wells of Marshfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Ballaw.

Fred Dwinell of Montpelier recently visited relatives in town.

C. L. Silver was a business visitor in Newbury Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Florence Lathrop of Boston is visiting at the home of Hector Austin.

Mrs. Lucinda Townsend of Hollister hill spent Thursday at the home of Smith Martyn.

Charles Davis and daughter, Elsie, and Russell Barber of Barre spent Thursday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawes and Mr. Bell of North Hatley, P. O. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Wyman and Mrs. Laura Golden.

Mrs. Brooks Buxton of Marshfield visited her sister, Mrs. Bert Batchelder, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle and daughter are spending a few days in Laconia, N. H. Mayo Wyman, who was seriously injured in a runaway accident recently, is reported more comfortable.

Mrs. Reuben Hudson of South Ryegate spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hollister.

Sunday, Oct. 7, will be rally day for the Methodist Sunday school. Those who have potatoes raised from the gold coin missionary potato given them last May, please bring them with them, name and weight of potatoes plainly marked on package.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Bartlett recently visited relatives in Cabot.

Mrs. Mabel Pratt of Pueblo, Colo., and Mrs. Harland Maxfield of Barre recently visited Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Batchelder.

The improvement society offers you two fine entertainments this season. The first will be given Wednesday evening, Oct. 3, at the opera house. The Florentine musicians are splendid artists. Be-

FAMILY DOCTOR'S GOOD ADVICE

To Go On Taking "Fruit-a-tives" Because They Did Her Good

ROCHESTER, JAN. 14th, 1915.

"I suffered for many years with terrible indigestion and constipation. I had frequent dizzy spells and became greatly run down. A neighbor advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve, and he advised me to go on with 'Fruit-a-tives'."

I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives' and I want to say to those who suffer from indigestion, constipation or headaches—'try Fruit-a-tives' and you will get well'. CORINE GAUDREAU. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ogdensburg, N.Y.

sure and hear them. A varied program will be given, of violin, accordion, piano, and vocal numbers, and readings. Tickets now on sale at the drug store. Both entertainments only 50c. The Parnells will appear Feb. 13—adv.

NORTH CALAIS

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taft of Starksboro have been visitors at Ida Thurston's for a few days.

Mrs. Ida Young of Barre is the guest of her son, Claude Young, for a time.

George White of Elmora is staying at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Laura Cameron, for an indefinite time.

Warren Ainsworth was a business visitor at Montpelier last week Monday.

Mrs. Martha Foster closed her cottage Wednesday and left for her home in Newark, N. J.

The district meeting of the W. R. C. will be held at Memorial hall on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 11.

Rev. C. C. Connor and wife are expected to speak at the Davis church Sunday morning, Oct. 7, and at the West church at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. They will be glad to meet as many as possible to talk about the community plan of meetings, as this is their last Sunday in town.

Remember the practice meeting of the W. R. C. at their hall on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 6, at 1:30 o'clock. Two candidates are expected in the evening for initiation.

Mr. and Mrs. Perley Thurston are staying at Ida Thurston's for a time.

Miss Millie Scribner, who has been staying at Herbert Scribner's for a time, went to New York Monday.

WEST BERLIN

Mrs. M. J. Ayers and Addie Emerson went to Woodsville, N. H., last Tuesday to visit Mrs. W. C. Keyes. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Patterson took them in their auto.

Mrs. E. A. Glines and daughter, Mrs. Ann Adams, left last Friday to visit Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Hill in Waterbury.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Snow of Sharon spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Robinson.

Mrs. Melvin Cooper returned to her home in East Haven Saturday.

Mrs. B. S. Gove spent Saturday in Northfield with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Leonard.

W. C. McIver, station agent in this place, moved from the car to the new station building last Saturday. The cars were taken from here to Middlesex.

H. A. Stockwell was in Montpelier Saturday.

Mrs. Salome Bailey, who had been visiting friends here, returned to her home in Montpelier the first of the week.

The Red Cross branch will meet with Mrs. C. H. Robinson next Friday afternoon.

Miss Nellie Tillotson was in Barre Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Florence Clark of Montpelier visited relatives in this place last week.

The ladies' aid will serve a vegetable supper in their hall next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. H. A. Stockwell spent Saturday in Northfield.

Miss Nellie Thrift was in Montpelier Saturday.

C. M. Ayers from Montpelier attended the business meeting of the cemetery, which was held in the schoolhouse last Saturday, and also visited several friends before his return.

Miss Bell Chandler returned from New Jersey recently.

NORWICH

C. B. Beal and Miss Jennie of Manchester spent last week at I. S. Gates'.

Wayne Johnson is visiting his sister in Woodsville.

The harvest and apron sale Friday night was well attended and $25 was taken.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. French and J. G. French were in New London Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Charles Gordon.

Lynn Martin and family were in Meriden Sunday to see Master Carl, who is in school there.

Miss Nancy Root is in Hartford with Mrs. Lucia Nott.

Mrs. Kate Ruggles is visiting in Fair Haven.

Anyone wishing to see a beautiful sight should visit G. H. Pattrell's apple orchard. One tree there is loaded to the ground with fruit. Mr. Pattrell is convinced that it pays to spray the trees.

The remains of Mrs. Aldrich were brought here from Windsor Wednesday, with burial in the family lot.

EAST HARDWICK

Clyde Little has moved to the Blair house in Walden and is working for John Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eldridge and son from Brookfield are visiting at the home of his father, Henry Eldridge.

Miss Susie Currier has gone to Barre to resume her school work.

Mrs. E. R. Stevens has returned from a visit with her brother, A. W. Farrington, in Walden.

Mrs. Etta Walbridge of Cabot is visiting friends and relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. J. N. Nicholson entertained several young ladies at her home Saturday. It was a Red Cross party.

The first entertainment in the lecture course will be Monday evening, Oct. 8, in village hall.

BETHEL

Miss Helen Snyder returned yesterday to Scranton, Pa., where she is employed in a hospital, leaving Miss Agnes Reynolds, whom she had nursed several weeks, much improved in health.

Timothy McQueenie went last Saturday to visit his son in New York City.

Don Carlos Rogers again is in poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gilman, Miss Bessie Gilman and Wesley Gilman of Bedford, Que., have been visiting at A. C. Batcheller's.

Dewey White was at White River Junction yesterday, enlisted in the 1st Vermont infantry, passed the physical examination and will report for duty next Monday.

Fred N. Chapman is at work in Ascutneyville.

Miss Dorothy F. Tucker returns today to Jackson college.

The town team defeated the Whitcomb high school team in an interesting football game yesterday. The town team scored two touchdowns and the high school did not score, but played a very good defensive game for beginners. Besides giving some promise of strength in rushing and passing, Quarterback Wilson is rounding his team into shape for some interesting games in the next six weeks.

Antonio Lemon was in Barre Saturday to obtain his final citizenship papers. Giuseppe Morale and Domenico Izzo accompanied him as witnesses.

The annual session of White River Valley Pomona grange will be held in Rochester next Saturday, with forenoon and afternoon sessions. The presiding officer will be F. N. Chapman of this village and local people on the program are Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. C. F. Waldo, E. H. W. Owen and B. L. Osgood.

At the regular meeting of Rising Star grange last evening the resignation of Miss Lois Wilson as lady assistant steward was accepted and Mrs. H. H. Shepard was appointed to serve the rest of the year.

Mrs. Earl Blaisdell of Newport, N. H., visited her sister, Mrs. P. E. Wallace, last Saturday.

Angelo Leppo has been assigned to battery C, 302d light field artillery, at Camp Devens.

Myron Rogers, who was certified as a member of the national army by a board in Northampton, Mass., where he registered, has been notified to report in that city for the next 40 per cent of selected soldiers and will go Friday to Northampton for that purpose.

Robert Snelling of Barre and Alfred Chandler of Stockbridge yesterday entered the Vermont School of Agriculture at Randolph Center.

EAST BROOKFIELD

Lawrence Holmes, Leland and Eva Reed, Morton Martin, Maurice and Margaret Taft and Clara Perham are at their homes here on an enforced vacation because of the infantile paralysis in Randolph.

Harold L. Poor who is doing cow-testing work for the Trout River association in East Berkshire, was home for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fiske of Burlington visited at the home of her parents last Sunday.

Fred Bruce and Eleanor and Gordon Finch who have been spending the summer with relatives here, have returned to their homes in Barre to attend the city schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Buck of East Bethel were business visitors here the first of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clark visited her father in Williamstown last Thursday.

The ladies' aid will serve a hash supper at the church next Thursday evening. Supper served from 6 until 8 o'clock after which a series of contests will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Holmes and son, Lawrence, and E. C. Jackson were in Barre last week.

Mrs. Julia Peabody who has been visiting friends in Orange, returned home last Saturday.

Lieut. Howard E. Camp from Fort Ethan Allen called on friends in town last Sunday.

Harold J. Farr and Miss Grace Tatrow were married at Randolph last Saturday. After an automobile trip through New York and Massachusetts, Mr. and Mrs. Farr will reside at the home place in East Brookfield. The best wishes of their many friends are extended to the young couple.

Fred E. Brown was a business visitor in Williamstown last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Octav Dushane and family have been visiting her relatives in Roxbury.

Oral and written compositions and a school paper, called "The North Branch Bugle," are a result of the English work of the north branch school every Friday afternoon. A special invitation is extended to parents and neighbors to visit school that day.

WASHINGTON

Mrs. Johannessen's family soon move back to the village.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lamb of Barre visited her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Reor, Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Avery has gone to Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cutler of South Barre and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Weston of this place went on a motor trip through South Royalton Sunday.

Mrs. Reor is very ill with the grip.

Crawford Ranges

Success Crowns Her Every Dish

Of course you've guessed the secret of her success—it's the Crawford Range. Of the exclusive Crawford features here are the ones she likes best:

Interchangeable Coal Hods—one for ashes, one for coal, concealed, clean—labor saving, means one trip to empty ashes and bring back coal.

Single Damper, which "Bakes," "Checks," and "Kindles" with one motion of an always cool knob.

A Convenient Gas End Oven, equipped with new and improved gas broiler. This broiler is instantly adjustable to hold the food at any required distance from the flame without touching the pan, without bending over. It folds away when not in use.

Perfection of design and finish, long service and utility, distinguish Crawford coal ranges—or gas combinations. Ask your dealer.

Sold by

C. W. AVERILL & CO.

This style range in four types, Palace, Castle, Fortress and Cottage.

RANDOLPH

Mr. and Mrs. William Howard, who have been passing the last 10 days with Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Howard, left Monday for their home in Hillsboro, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Chase and Rev. and Mrs. Frederick Leeds, who have been for the last two months at Portland, Me., have returned home.

Mrs. Joseph Goulah of St. Albans was in town Monday for a brief visit with her son, E. P. Rye.

Mrs. Nellie Banyea, after a stay of several weeks in Highgate, has returned here to remain for a time.

Winfred Bagley, who resides in Massachusetts, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Bagley of Central street.

Forest Southard was in Bethel Saturday to attend a hearing in the case of a water privilege on the farm he recently sold in Royalton to Joseph Reagan of Bethel.

Mrs. Lena Wright has returned from a 10 days' visit in Providence, R. I., and Concord, N. H. At the latter place she visited her brother, Mr. Young.

Mrs. Charles Palmer came from Newport, N. H., last week to pass a few days here with her husband.

Miss May Cross, after passing two weeks in town with her mother, Mrs. Asenath Cross, left Sunday noon for her home in Springfield, Mass.

Thelma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Lamson, who has been very ill at the sanatorium for several days, was not quite as well Sunday, but Monday her friends were more encouraged in her case.

The patients with "polio" which were reported 10 days ago are now improving and so far no new cases have developed. The cases are a mild form and if nothing new develops the school will open Monday, Oct. 8. Meanwhile there is some anxiety in regard to the outcome. All of the teachers have remained in town during the two weeks.

EAST BETHEL

M. D. Brown is ill.

Walter Green, Frank Green and H. V. Allen were in Barre and Montpelier on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of Randolph were in town Sunday.

Mrs. O. F. Godfrey will move to South Royalton for the winter. Her daughter, Carrie, will board with her and attend the high school there.

M. J. Buck has extended his cream gathering to East Brookfield and vicinity.

The quarries suspended operations Saturday, Sept. 29, keeping a small force of men another week to load the few carloads of stone remaining there.

ADAMANT

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker are in Massachusetts for a few weeks.

George Mathers of West Burke was a visitor in town a few days last week.

B. J. Hatch and mother have gone on an auto trip to New Hampshire to visit the sisters who live there.

A. R. Peck had the misfortune to lose one of his work horses Friday. It dropped dead in W. I. Rickard's yard.

Mrs. Lizzie Wood was a business visitor in East Calais last week.

Mrs. Katie York and children and sister, Etta Dailey, have returned to their homes in Barre, after spending a few days here.

Moses Shuttle of Montpelier, who has been working for Ben Hatch, has returned home.

HARDWICK

Mrs. A. D. Ferris and youngest daughter are the guests of relatives in St. Johnsbury for a few days.

The Thomas bungalow on High street has recently received a new coat of paint, and is now one of the best looking places at that section of the village.

A small party of young misses visited the home of Miss Cecyl Wright last Saturday afternoon to help her celebrate her 13th birthday anniversary. An unusually good time was had in a way common at parties of this time, including, of course, refreshments. The hostess was the recipient of several little tokens as reminders of the day.

Mrs. James Reid of Montpelier was a guest of friends in town last Saturday and Sunday.

Dorman Bridgman, who has been quite ill, is somewhat better at this time.

Miss Mary O'Malley recently went to Waterbury, where she accepted a position as waitress in the Waterbury inn.

Gordon Austin and family have moved here from Orleans.

Alton Parks and wife of Morrisville called on friends and relatives here last Saturday.

James Hency has moved from a tenement in the west end into a tenement in the Trow house on Cherry street.

Carl Jennings leaves Thursday morning for Burlington to resume his studies in the University of Vermont.

Louis Swenson's house was recently entered sometime during the day or night, and several household articles and vegetables taken. It does seem as though the number of robberies in this immediate vicinity of late could be brought to a standstill.

Irving Youngman has moved from the west end into the Michaud house on Main street. Mr. Youngman has the job of driving the Standard Oil company teams the coming year. C. E. McArthur having finished work for that company last Saturday night.

Miss Leah Dixon celebrated her 11th birthday anniversary at the home of her parents on Highland avenue last Thursday afternoon from 4 until 8. The little tots had an enjoyable time and the event will be one looked back upon as one of the pleasant times of their little lives.

Clifton White arrived home last Saturday night from Beverly, Mass., where he has been employed for several months.

Arthur Pelkey of Newport was in town the latter part of last week.

Miss Vera Thomas was home from her school work at Lyndon institute over Sunday.

Oscar Shepard received word the latter part of last week to report at the office in Washington, D. C., and accompanied by Mrs. Shepard, left for that city the first of the week. Mr. Shepard does not know just where he will be assigned, but his work will be that of clerk or stenographer. His many friends here wish him all success in his new field of labor.

James Hency has moved from a tenement in the west end into a tenement in the Trow house on Cherry street.

Carl Jennings leaves Thursday morning for Burlington to resume his studies in the University of Vermont.

Louis Swenson's house was recently entered sometime during the day or night, and several household articles and vegetables taken. It does seem as though the number of robberies in this immediate vicinity of late could be brought to a standstill.

Irving Youngman has moved from the west end into the Michaud house on Main street. Mr. Youngman has the job of driving the Standard Oil company teams the coming year. C. E. McArthur having finished work for that company last Saturday night.

Miss Leah Dixon celebrated her 11th birthday anniversary at the home of her parents on Highland avenue last Thursday afternoon from 4 until 8. The little tots had an enjoyable time and the event will be one looked back upon as one of the pleasant times of their little lives.

Clifton White arrived home last Saturday night from Beverly, Mass., where he has been employed for several months.

Arthur Pelkey of Newport was in town the latter part of last week.

Miss Vera Thomas was home from her school work at Lyndon institute over Sunday.

Oscar Shepard received word the latter part of last week to report at the office in Washington, D. C., and accompanied by Mrs. Shepard, left for that city the first of the week. Mr. Shepard does not know just where he will be assigned, but his work will be that of clerk or stenographer. His many friends here wish him all success in his new field of labor.

James Hency has moved from a tenement in the west end into a tenement in the Trow house on Cherry street.

Carl Jennings leaves Thursday morning for Burlington to resume his studies in the University of Vermont.

Louis Swenson's house was recently entered sometime during the day or night, and several household articles and vegetables taken. It does seem as though the number of robberies in this immediate vicinity of late could be brought to a standstill.

Irving Youngman has moved from the west end into the Michaud house on Main street. Mr. Youngman has the job of driving the Standard Oil company teams the coming year. C. E. McArthur having finished work for that company last Saturday night.

RANDOLPH CENTER

Potato Growers' Association Sells Entire Crop for Seed at $1.40 Per Bushel.

The Randolph Potato Growers' association have sold their entire crop for seed for $1.40 per bushel. The state farm estimates its crop at 1,500 bushels.

The state school of agriculture opens Tuesday, Oct. 2.