

RANDOLPH

Milan Bannister, 17, of Braintree, is charged with forgery.

Milan Bannister of Braintree, a lad 17 years of age, is now confined in the lock-up in this place on a charge of forgery, which he does not deny, it is stated. Last Saturday Mr. Bannister went into the A. & P. store, which is managed by A. C. Slack, and purchased a can of salmon and two boxes of sardines and presented in payment a check of $30, which was made to Clyde Tullar, and signed by Dr. J. P. Gifford of this place. Mr. Slack asked how Dr. Gifford happened to be owing Clyde Tullar this amount and the young man replied that he did not know, unless it was in payment for potatoes which he had drawn to the sanatorium. The check was cashed and he went away. Later Mr. Slack went out to the bank and found that it was refused there, and a few hours after he learned that the same boy had been into the store of Tewksbury & Raymond and purchased a small bill of goods and there presented for payment a check of $42.50 made to John Bingham and signed by Albert Beedle. With the latter check was an order from Mr. Beedle to pay the amount to the bearer. The Tewksbury & Raymond company also went to the bank and the check was refused and after close examination it was thought that both checks were forged. Mr. Slack took Officer D. H. Howe and went to Braintree and found the young man in bed. After getting up the youth did not deny the same and he was brought here and confined till his trial, which will be held as soon as the proper authorities are here. The money which he got on the checks was expended for a motorcycle which he purchased in Braintree. The young man's father lives on a farm in Braintree and is a hard-working man. The mother of the boy died when he was about one year old.

Mrs. Savage and two daughters from the state of Illinois came Tuesday to visit their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eaton, and Wednesday went on to Montpelier, where, after a short visit, they will take up their journey homeward.

SICK WIFE'S STORY SURPRISES BARRE

The following has surprised Barre: A business man's wife suffered from dyspepsia and constipation for years. Although the diet she was so blasted her clothes would not fit. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc. as mixed in Adler-ika relieved her INSTANTLY. Because Adler-ika empties BOTH large and small intestine, it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICK-EST action of anything we ever sold. HARDWICK

Alfred Wheeler, 66, Dropped Dead in His Potato Field.

Alfred Wheeler, aged 66 years, a well known farmer in this vicinity, dropped dead in his potato field on his farm in the edge of Wolcott last Saturday shortly after dinner. The funeral services were held at Woodbury Center Monday afternoon at 1:30 following a prayer at the house at 10:30 in the forenoon. Rev. E. G. French of Danville officiating. Burial was in the family lot in the cemetery at South Woodbury. Mr. Wheeler was born in Woodbury Feb. 16, 1851, and on Feb. 25, 1882, married Lizzie Wheelock in Calais. Three children, Mrs. C. T. Pierce, Miss Lura Wheeler and Lynn Wheeler, all of this place, besides the widow, survive him. Mr. Wheeler for 20 years was a quarryman, coming to the present farm several years ago. He was in his usual health up to the time his fatal stroke, though he had been troubled with his heart for the past year, but was able to be about his usual farm duties most of the time. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in this town as well as in Woodbury and Calais.

The Stampede Girls are holding forth nightly at the gymnasium this week. The troupe consists of a two-piece orchestra and seven dancing girls. The dances are fairly well tended.

Next Sunday is Rally Sunday at the Congregational church and the superintendent urges that all teachers make an effort to make this a genuine rally day of the children and young people.

W. J. Simnot has finished work at Clark's tonorial parlors and has taken a contract to cut Christmas trees. "Bill" is an expert in this line of work, as well as shaving and hair cutting.

Judge W. H. Taylor is in Montpelier attending the October session of supreme court.

The streak of lawlessness in this vicinity still continues. Besides the breaks previously mentioned in this column, there has been one more break made, that of stealing an automobile tire from Dr. Darling's garage on Highland avenue, and probably an attempted break into C. C. Dwinell's house on Winter street. Mrs. Dwinell, whose health is poor, sleeps on a screened veranda nights, and on Monday night or early Tuesday morning she awoke suddenly and saw a man prowling around on the piazza. The man disappeared as soon as she awoke. It also appears that some grain is missing from Dr. Harford's barn.

W. W. Dale was arrested Tuesday for intoxication and taken to St. Johnsbury and lodged in county jail.

Malachi Little is home from St. Albans this week.

Miss Gladys McGuire arrived home Tuesday from Fitchburg, Mass., where she is attending school, being called here by the illness of her father, D. L. McGuire.

Miss Alice Rogers, who has been visiting at H. W. Drew's, returned to her home in North Troy the first of the week.

Fred Eldridge, wife and little son of Brookfield have been visiting relatives in this vicinity the past week, having sold their farm in Brookfield. They will pass the winter in Florida, going down with Mr. Eldridge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Eldridge of East Hardwick.

Fred Jackson has leased the Marshall wooden block on Main street for a term of years and took possession on Monday, Oct. 1.

Miss Christine Munro left on Monday morning for a vacation from her duties at the hospital and will visit friends in Manchester, N. H.

A. H. Billings and family have moved to Springfield.

Rev. E. G. French of Danville was in town Monday and Tuesday, officiating at the funeral of Alfred Wheeler, and visiting friends.

James (Peter) Rowell left Tuesday morning for St. Johnsbury, where he was present at a banquet given the boys who left Wednesday morning for their respective cantonments in Massachusetts.

WATERBURY

Deaths of Mrs. D. J. Morse and Mrs. Rachel Gilson Occurred Yesterday.

Mrs. D. J. Morse, mother of Mrs. D. D. Groat, died at the home of Dr. Groat yesterday morning. She broke her hip Monday and although they realized its seriousness, did not expect the end so quickly. Mrs. Morse was born in Ottawa, May 11, 1841. Jane McKee, daughter of Thomas and Jane McKee, they moved while she was young to Montpelier and she was educated there in the Union school. She went to teach in Waterbury, where she married D. J. Morse and lived on the Morse farm. Mr. Morse died 18 years ago. One year later she came to live with Dr. and Mrs. Groat. She leaves four children, Mrs. D. D. Groat, Mrs. Nettie B. Hunt of Woodville, N. H., Mrs. W. A. Howe of Toledo, O., Dr. W. J. Morse, bacteriologist at the University of Maine at Orono; also 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Two grandsons are in war service, one in Vermont troops and the other, a two-year Harvard law student, now in aviation service and stationed with a Harvard unit at Toronto. One peculiar incident is that the deceased was at the station Sunday night and saw him while on his way from Plattsburg to Toronto. Mrs. Morse was well known, liked and entered largely into community life.

Mrs. Rachel Gilson died at the Vermont state hospital yesterday, where she was being treated. Her maiden name was Rachel Fife, daughter of Franklin and Ada Towne Fife, born in Granby, P. Q., 50 years ago next December. She married Truman Gilson of Penacook, N. H., in 1908. She leaves one brother and two sisters in Waterbury, James Gilson, Mrs. Nellie Breene, Mrs. William Hurlburt. The funeral was held at the home of James Gilson on Randall avenue this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the body will be taken to Penacook, N. H., Friday morning.

Edale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Bai Rossi, died Sunday and was buried Tuesday.

LESS GRANITE PAVING

Was Sold in 1916 Than in the Preceding Year.

According to figures reported to G. F. Loughlin of the U. S. geological survey, department of the interior, there were sold in 1916 44,795,790 granite paving blocks, valued at $2,288,486, a decrease of nearly seven per cent. in quantity and of nearly three per cent. in value compared with the figures for 1915. The average price per thousand, however, increased from $48.85 to $51.09. Four of the 18 producing states, Maryland, New Hampshire, North Carolina, and Wisconsin, showed increase in quantity and value of sales.

The decrease in quantity in 1916, although smaller than that in 1915, was even more general. Wisconsin's increase evidently signifies continuation of the increased demand in the Chicago and neighboring markets, but other increases during 1915 in the interior states were not maintained in 1916. The other three states showing increase in 1916 supplied the same general markets as neighboring states showing increase in 1915 supplied amount of increase was insufficient to offset the decrease. Maine's decrease was due, in part at least, to a strike in the Vinal Haven district, which kept 400 paving cutters idle for six weeks. Had work continued at the average rate during that period, the New England states as a whole and probably the entire country, would have equalled or surpassed the production in 1915. As there has been a growing recognition among city engineers and street commissions of the suitability of granite paving blocks for streets supporting heavy traffic, the decrease in quantity of paving blocks sold in 1916 appears due to a decrease in the amount of heavy traffic construction work, rather than to competition with other paving materials.

Wisconsin, which ranked second in quantity and first in value in 1915, led in both quantity and value in 1916. Maine, which ranked first in quantity in 1915, was second in both quantity and value in 1916. New Hampshire passed Massachusetts in quantity, ranking third in this respect.

The quantity and value of paving blocks sold in these and in other states producing more than 1,000,000 blocks during 1916 and 1915 were as follows:

Table with 3 columns: State, 1915 Quantity, 1915 Value, 1916 Quantity, 1916 Value. Includes Wisconsin, Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, North Carolina, Georgia, Minnesota, New Hampshire.

The average price per thousand varied from as low as $32 in California and $33 in Georgia, to $66 in Minnesota and Rhode Island. There was little geographic significance to differences in average price, other than a relatively low price for labor in the southeastern states. The principal controlling factor was apparently the ease with which the blocks could be prepared. Thus the average prices in New Hampshire ($45) and in Georgia ($53), where easily worked granite blocks are abundantly produced, were in contrast to that in Massachusetts ($53), where some of the granites are unusually hard, and with those in Wisconsin ($62) and Minnesota ($66), which are characterized by hard granites.

The value of sale of "dura" granite paving, reported by two producers, was not included in the foregoing figures.

LOOKING BACKWARD 60 YEARS

An Interesting Bit of History Everybody Should Know

One of the interesting places in Lowell, Mass., is the old apothecary shop on Merrimack street, established in 1827. This location is still a drug store, although of course modernized in many departments. The old prescription books, however, have been preserved and form an interesting record covering nearly a century.

Perhaps one of the most interesting books is that of the year 1855. On one of the pages of this book, that dated June 9th, 1855, is written the original prescription for Father John's Medicine. This prescription was compounded for the Reverend Father John O'Brien at the old drug store on that date, and was so successful in treating Father John's ailment, that was a severe cold and throat trouble, that he recommended the medicine to his friends and parishioners. In going to the drug store and calling for the medicine, they always asked for Father John's Medicine, and in this way the medicine got its name and was advertised.

Father John's Medicine is a safe family remedy for colds, coughs, throat troubles, and as a tonic and body builder, because it does not contain opium, morphine, chloroform, and any other poisonous drugs, or alcohol, but is all pure, wholesome nourishing.

The Old Apothecary Shop - Established in 1827.

Branch No. 12, Q. W. L. U., of N. A., notice to quarryworkers and all other laborers of every department: Mr. E. J.monds, commissioner of industries, will be in Miles' hall, Graniteville, on Thursday evening, Oct. 4, to explain the workmen's compensation law and also the factory inspection law. Every workman, no matter what his occupation is, should be present for his own interest. Fill the hall. Per order of secretary, P. J. Finnegan.

WEAK KIDNEYS MEAN A WEAK BODY

When you're fifty, your body begins to creak a little at the hinges. Motion is more slow and deliberate. "Not so young as I used to be" is a frequent and unwelcome thought. Certain bodily functions upon which good health and good spirits so much depend, are impaired. The weak spot is generally the bladder. Unpleasant symptoms show themselves. Painful and annoying complications in other organs arise. This is particularly true with elderly people. If you only know how, this trouble can be obviated.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the inconvenience and pain due to advancing years. It is a standard, old-time home remedy, and
