Bonds or bondage—which?
As yet we don't have to pay more for the air we breathe.

Help the boy scouts by buying Liberty loan bonds of them.

With just half an eye Theodore Roosevelt could see more than most men could with a dozen.

The hunting season is open in Europe—hunting for Zeppelins; and a number of the big game have been bagged.

The coming of frosty weather means the conservation of joy-riding gasoline, but, on the other hand, there is the call of the furnace.

When you are considering your duty to buy Liberty loan bonds remember that the bonds are the best security in the world to-day.

First in the production of granite, Vermont has just passed New York in the production of all kinds of stone. Only Ohio and Pennsylvania stand between Vermont and the top. Guess the rock-ribbed old state is coming right along.

The families of the American soldiers who were lost with the Antilles are to get the $6,000 promised by the United States government. It is poor compensation for the loss, for no amount of money could compensate for the loss of loved ones.

A COUNTY TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL

The educational campaign to be conducted in Washington county with a view to the establishment of a county tuberculosis hospital is one of great importance to the people of this whole section, for that which helps to reduce the number of cases of tuberculosis means not only an economic gain but a distinct addition to the sum total of human happiness.

WILLIAMSTOWN

The ladies' aid society of the M. E. church will hold its annual supper and sale at grange hall next Friday evening, Oct. 26. A chicken-pie supper will be served from 5 to 6 o'clock, to be followed by an entertainment, which will include both local talent and out of town people.

Bert Stevens, for some time in the employ of the C. V. R. B. as section hand, has engaged to work for Mr. Saas of Harrington hill, and has moved with his family to the house formerly owned by Eugene M. Reynolds.

Mrs. Charles H. Beckett and sister, Mrs. Wilhelmina Tuttle, of New York City, are in town for a few days, to close up the house for the winter. Mr. Beckett's health continues to improve, though not so rapidly as his family and many friends here could wish.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Williams visited Mrs. Williams' people in Gaysville the 21st.

Rural Carrier Robert E. Clogston of route No. 1, is taking his vacation, beginning to-day, a part of which he will spend with his parents in Bradford.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimball Chynoweth and daughter, Dorothy, took a motor trip to Vershire, the Ely mines at Copperfield, West Fairlee, and towns en route last Sunday, this section of the county being the home of Mr. Chynoweth in his early years. They were accompanied by Mrs. Chynoweth's brother, John Geake, who also worked in the mines there when a young man.

H. P. Hood & Co. are doing a good business in receiving milk at this station. The price to be paid from Oct. 15 to the end of December is $3.13 1-6 per hundred pounds for milk testing 3.5. Four cents additional is paid for each point over this test.

There have been several cases of chicken-pox in town within the past few days, but so far as known, none have been serious, and all are recovering.

The auction sale of furniture, etc., belonging to Mrs. Dora Brockway at the town hall last Saturday was well attended and fairly good prices realized. We hear it said that the real estate was not sold.

The food sale held by the ladies of the Red Cross at firemen's hall the 20th, was well patronized, and the contributions of food were very tempting in appearance. The list included baked beans, brown bread, doughnuts, pies, cakes, wheat and graham bread and rolls. A supper of baked beans, brown bread and coffee was furnished to a goodly number of people between 5 and 6 o'clock. The sum of $18.50 was realized. Many thanks are extended to all who contributed so generously.

The following program will be given at the Methodist fair Friday night, Oct. 26: Selection, male quartet; reading, illustrated, Miss Dickinson; solo, Hil-dreth Martin of Barre; reading, Miss Marion Anker of Barre; solo, Mr. Keeling; piano solo, Mrs. Edith Carr of Barre; address, Rev. Angell of Walden; solo, Richard Jeffords; farce, "His Methodist Foot," by local talent; selection, ladies' quartet.

NORTH RANDOLPH

At North Randolph grange Friday evening, Oct. 26, the program will be as follows: Song, "The Hand That Holds the Bread;" roll call, responded to by each member naming an instance of increased frugality which he or she has been led to practice because of patriotic motives; piano solo, Mrs. Arthur Parker; recitation, Glenn Preston; song, "Woman's Share in the National Task;" vocal solo, Mrs. Percy Rifford; recitation, Mrs. V. C. Farr; song, "Be in Earnest, Boys." It is expected that reports of the dairy show at Springfield will be given.
