Mrs. Hattie Tracy, Wife of Jailer, Made Deputy Sheriff.

Mrs. Hattie Tracy, wife of Sheriff F. H. Tracy, is the first woman in Vermont to be sworn into state service as a deputy sheriff, having taken the oath and her papers having been made out by the county clerk Tuesday afternoon. Since Sheriff Tracy has been serving the state in that capacity he has sent Mrs. Tracy to the penal institution of the state with women and child prisoners, but the new government regulation relative to mileage for state officials changed the entire matter, with the result that Mrs. Tracy has been appointed a deputy sheriff and will continue to accompany women and children from this county to the penal institutions.

William Hennessey of the federal secret service was in the city last evening on his way to southern Vermont where he is investigating matters for the government. Speaking of Prof. A. H. Appelmann he said that early last summer he made a lengthy investigation of the man, with the result that he sent to the government advice that, in his opinion, the man should be deported and it was a sense of satisfaction to him to see that the government through another department had again established the facts. The man has been under surveillance since last summer.

Mrs. Carlisle Hancock left on the evening train Tuesday for Kansas City, Mo., where she will meet Captain Hancock, her husband. They will go to Houston, Tex., for the winter, Captain Hancock having been transferred to a fort near that city.

Rev. F. W. Lewis of Groton is visiting at the home of C. E. Ayers for a few days.

The chiropodists of Vermont will meet with Mrs. John W. Dillon here to-morrow.

The First Baptist society of Newport has filed articles of association, the subscribers being E. A. Brown, E. E. Jenne, Carroll Huntington, Helen Hinman, C. M. Chamberlain and F. E. Alfred.

A conference was held to-day between Gov. Graham and the members of the building committee relative to the rooms in the new state building.

The Montpelier ice company has purchased of Louis Emmons his ice business on Berlin pond and it is expected that shortly there will come before the city council a representative of the company asking that a permit be granted the company to harvest ice on the pond. The deal has been completed for some days, but one of those concerned in it stated Tuesday afternoon that the deeds had not been passed. By two decisions recently obtained in supreme court the ice company has almost, if not quite, been put out of business as far as cutting ice on the North branch has been concerned, for C. S. Whittier and George Campbell have been decided as owners of opposite sides of the river, where the company cuts ice.

Deputy Sheriff C. A. Smith returned Tuesday evening from St. Albans, where he appeared in Franklin county court that morning with Bert Briggs of Northfield, who was found to have been in contempt of court, because he had not paid $10 a week for the support of his son, who has been living with his grandmother in Roxbury for 17 months. Since the court, at which Judge Waterman was presiding in Franklin county at that time, ordered Briggs to pay the $10 for support of his son, following his divorce case, nothing has been paid. The court Tuesday adjudged him in contempt and ordered him to pay $20 a month until $170 of back pay has been made up and then to pay $10 a month thereafter until further order of the court and to pay about $23 costs in connection with the contempt proceedings. Briggs was the fireman on the train running between this city and Burlington when the head-on collision took place in Burlington yards last summer, after which the engineer and firemen were relieved of their duties.

It is expected that a representative of the grange will appear before the city council this evening in an effort to demonstrate to that body that it should not cut wood for the benefit of the people of Montpelier. This is the notice which has been given out about city hall last evening and to-day. The action of the council in the matter will be watched with a good deal of interest. The wood which has been chopped for a few weeks as fast as men could be hired for the purpose, is being sawed this week and will be ready for distribution next week.

WILSON TO ACT AGAINST SPIES AND SABOTAGE

Draft of Regulations Presented at Meeting of the Cabinet by Attorney General Gregory—Enemy Aliens Must Register.

Washington, Nov. 14.—President Wilson is expected to issue a proclamation soon requiring every alien enemy within the United States to register, as a step toward ridding the country of spies and sabotage. The government has decided that this procedure is the only way open for sifting from the 1,000,000 Germans in the United States the few who are believed to be causing fires in munition plants, grain elevators and warehouses and promoting propaganda injurious to America's prosecution of the war.

Attorney General Gregory took to the cabinet yesterday, for President Wilson's consideration, a draft of regulations under which the registration might be carried out, following the program adopted in England and France for keeping a close watch over the activities of enemy subjects.

About 35 friends of Miss Alfaretta Ducharme awaited her at her home in the Miles block as she returned from evening school last night, to celebrate her 18th birthday. Miss Ducharme was taken by surprise but she soon made everyone feel at home and a very pleasant evening was passed with music and playing of games. Refreshments of wafers, cake and coffee were served. Mr. Downs, in behalf of the company, presented a purse of money and some other gifts, to which Miss Ducharme responded with appreciation.

At the Orange Holt auction sale in Williamstown yesterday, 20 cows, with two or three exceptions, that were to freshen from the middle of January to the first of May, sold for from $38.50 to $75. Young cattle and hogs brought very good prices. One 12-year-old brood mare sold for $186, baby colt by her side $82, one farm horse $200, one farm horse $125, one three-year-old colt $200, corn of the cob $1.64, potatoes $1.25, 300 bushels of oats 71c and 74c per bushel, hay in the barn $8.50 and $8.60, oat straw $7.75 per ton. The real estate was not sold. This was considered by the public to be a very good sale. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

At her home on Summer street last evening Miss Ida Bianchi was pleasantly surprised by about 20 of her lady friends, the occasion being in the nature of a farewell party, as Miss Bianchi is to leave in a few days for Albany, N. Y., where she will enroll in the Albany business college. She completed her duties in the Bowman dry goods store in Montpelier last week, after being employed there for some time. During the evening refreshments were served, while an impromptu program of musical selections furnished an enjoyable evening's entertainment. In behalf of her friends Miss Sophia Rossi presented the hostess a handsome fountain pen, for which she responded in a most fitting manner.

A bovine mystery containing some of the elements which used to make Sherlock Holmes sit up and knit his eyebrows in the Baker street apartments challenged the attention of Barre motorists on the Montpelier road early last evening and is still awaiting a solution to-day.

A motor party consisting of F. C. Eaton, A. A. Lamorey and A. C. Jones, encountered the dead cow as it lay stretched across the highway near Jones Bros' plant. In Mr. Eaton's car they were badly jolted when the machine struck the carcass instead of clearing it and Mr. Jones was slightly injured. Dog tracks and prints from the north saved a car containing F. L. Small and J. S. Wilson from accident, as the latter were hurrying toward Montpelier when they saw the Eaton auto stop suddenly and narrowly miss going over the bank. Examination disclosed the body of a cow that evidently had been struck by a trolley car or auto. Someone had bled the animal and left it lying in the highway.

The surprise of members of the Eaton party a Montpelier attorney called them to account this morning for killing the cow, but the Barre men were ready to depose that the bovine had passed on before they arrived.

Central Vermont railway goes to supreme court upon exonerations. Arguments were also presented in the afternoon relative to the case of Booth vs. Mobbs in which a small verdict was recovered earlier in the term in favor of the plaintiff. J. W. Gordon argued for setting aside the verdict and for a new trial, while P. L. Laird argued that the verdict should be set aside and a verdict rendered by the court in favor of the defendant to recover his costs, claiming that the exemplary damages were against the weight of evidence, that the jury when it returned a verdict giving the plaintiff no damages for liability removed the chance for giving exemplary damages because there is no case on record where exemplary damages have been given when the jury has cleared the defendant of doing personal damage to the plaintiff. But the court set aside the verdict and continued the case for a new trial, to which Mr. Laird took exceptions and the case will go to supreme court on the grounds that court refused to give a decision as argued by Mr. Laird.

C. D. Wheelock, who four weeks ago was brought into county court on the charge of having broken his probation, was again in the same court Tuesday afternoon and the court gave its decision relative to the matter, which was that he had broken his probation and that the original sentence of not less than a year nor more than 18 months shall be carried into effect by committing the man to the state prison. Wheelock four weeks ago was given three weeks in which to harvest his 10 acres of beans grown during the summer in Plainfield. He was to have appeared last week but did not do so and Tuesday was set again for the matter to be disposed of. After the decision had been announced he was taken to jail to await being taken to the state prison.

WETS IN OHIO.

Prohibition Defeated by a Majority of 1723.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 14.—With every county in Ohio having reported officially, eight-six, to the secretary of state and the remaining two by county seat officials, which have not yet reported to the secretary of state, prohibition in Ohio has been defeated by a majority of 1723 on the face of the returns. The total stands:

For prohibition 522,430; against prohibition, 524,153.

A Good Supply of Good Rubbers

for all members of the family at present, but those who read the papers will note that every Rubber factory in the United States has agreed to turn over their entire output of Four-Buckle Arctics to the government for our soldier boys.

Read the following, which appears in the "Boston Post":

Entire Output of Arctics for Army. Washington, Nov. 6.—Every manufacturer of rubber overshoes in the country met to-day with an auxiliary committee of the council of national defense and agreed to turn over to the government for the army the entire output of four-buckle "arctics" from now until Jan. 5. This will mean a total of about 300,000 pairs. Orders for rubber hip boots had been placed previously.

We advise our friends to secure their Rubbers and Arctics at the earliest possible moment. When the supply on hand is exhausted, no more can be secured this season, so all dealers advise us. We have the B. F. Goodrich makes in "Hipress" for heavy wear and "Straight Line" for dress wear. Also "Ball Band" and "Victors."

H. C. Blodgett of St. Johnsbury was among the business visitors in the city yesterday and to-day.

Arrived to-day, a large shipment of hats. Call early, as this is the last shipment this season. Mrs. Birnie's, Pleasant street.

Mrs. Samuel Carswell of Ayers street returned to the city last evening, after a visit of five weeks with relatives in New York.

Charles G. Scott of Ayers street, an employe of Trow & Holden, who suffered a fracture of the knee joint some weeks ago, is recovering slowly from his injury.

Yesterday Mr. Scott was able to leave for his former home in Quebec, where he is to complete his period of convalescence.

William Orr, a prominent Y. M. C. A. worker, whose address was one of the interesting features of the campaign meeting at Spaulding school last night, returned to-day to Burlington, where he is doing special work, before returning to his home in New York.

Small-time thieves made an unsuccessful effort to burglarize the hardware store of C. W. Averill & Co. last night, discovery of the attempted break having been made this morning when employes of the concern opened the store. Evidently a hatchet or some edged tool was used in trying to effect an entrance through a basement door in the driveway on the south side of the Averill block.

Chief Sinclair was called to the store to investigate, but the would-be burglars, through accident or design, did not leave many clues upon which the police could work. A panel in the door had been roughly handled and it was apparently the purpose of the burglar to smash the thin strip of wood and unlock the door from the inside.

Red Men of Barre and East Barre are continuing their efforts to raise money for the Red Men memorial to be erected at Plymouth, Mass., and plans for the monument have gone forward so rapidly that the figure of an Indian in the heroic likeness of Massasoit has been designed by the sculptor, Dahlin, the author of the remarkable statue located in front of the art museum in Boston, the "Appeal to the Great Spirit."

Chief Sinclair was called to the store to investigate, but the would-be burglars, through accident or design, did not leave many clues upon which the police could work. A panel in the door had been roughly handled and it was apparently the purpose of the burglar to smash the thin strip of wood and unlock the door from the inside.

Wallace Dodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dodge of South Main street, furnishes an interesting account of a successful hunting expedition which he enjoyed on Mount Killington last Saturday. Young Dodge is employed in Springfield and with a companion set out for the mountain on a motorcycle with a side car attachment. On the previous night they had driven a nest of raccoons into a tree and their first move upon reaching the mountain was to cut down the tree. Three raccoons, emerging from the trunk, were straightway dispatched. Continuing their hunt the nimble raccoons were successful in bagging two bobcats, of which there is said to be an unusually large number in the woods of Vermont this winter. After skinning raccoons and cats, the young hunters adorned their car with the pelts and struck out for Springfield. In little villages through which they passed the hounds stared open-eyed at the killing made and old hunters declared that their bag was the finest seen this year. A photograph of the hunters and the hunted, which young Mr. Dodge's parents have received, bears out their story of Saturday's doings on Killington.
