TALK OF THE TOWN

Music furnished for all occasions by Montpelier M. band orchestra. Karl Forsell, manager, phone Montpelier 252-V.
George Gath, a granite man from Indianapolis, who has been in Barre the past week, leaving several very nice contracts, has left for home.
If your glasses bother you by steaming or frosting over, get a 25c box of "No Steam" at Dr. Magoon's, the optometrist. It will stop it—adv.
Eleven ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Thaddeus Martin, east hill, yesterday afternoon to give Mrs. F. R. Northrop a farewell party. Light refreshments were served and Mrs. James Harvey, in behalf of the ladies, presented Mrs. Northrop a leather-covered book, "Daily Reminder," and wished her bon voyage. Mrs. Northrop leaves Friday for Florida.
Several of the Barre boys who are at Camp Devens were entertained Sunday, Nov. 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lesure in Fitchburg, Mass. (Mrs. Lesure will be remembered in Barre as Bessie Jones.) Sunday evening the boys were taken back to camp by auto and at the station in Ayer a group of 10 from Barre gathered to enjoy a social chat.

Regular meeting of local 241, R. C. I. P. A., Worthen hall Wednesday evening, Nov. 21. Very important meeting and every clerk is requested to be present.
Charles H. Northrop of Merchant street has resumed charge of his express business, after having been confined to the house by illness for the past five weeks. (Compressor trouble at the plant of the Harrison Granite Co. may postpone the resumption of work until next week, although it was expected to-day that the arrival of an expert repair man from Portland, Me., might enable the manufacturers to call in their men to-morrow or Friday. The plant of Comoli & Co., which receives its compressed air from the Harrison company, is also shut down for a few days.)
Mrs. Sophronia C. Noyes, until three years ago a resident of this city, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Hastings, in Groton early yesterday morning. Mrs. Noyes is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Hastings; one sister, Mrs. Fannie A. Richardson of Vancouver, Wash., and three grandchildren, Stanley and Elwin Robinson of this city and Earl Hastings of Groton. The funeral will be held at B. W. Hooker & Co.'s chapel Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in Elmwood cemetery.
Optometrists and opticians of Barre and nearby towns recently gathered at Hotel Barre for an enjoyable 8 o'clock dinner, which was followed by timely technical papers. Included in the list of speakers was Dr. Folsom of South Royalton, who spoke on "Proficiency in Practice." Mrs. W. F. Humphrey of Northfield considered the topic, "Co-ordination and Co-operation," and "Elimination of Evils" was discussed by A. S. Haskins of St. Johnsbury. Dr. D. C. Jarvis of this city contributed remarks and the paper, "Building on Business Bases," was given by A. D. Barter of Middlebury.
Miss Thomasina Kesson of Boynton street was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Ethel Gamble of Division street last evening, when about 15 of her lady friends gathered there in honor of her approaching marriage to Arthur LaBree of Danville. The house was tastefully decorated with flags and bunting, which gave a pleasing effect to the various rooms. During the evening refreshments were served, and an impromptu program of musical numbers and the playing of several games tended to provide a delightful evening's entertainment. During the evening Miss Kesson was the recipient of numerous articles as tokens of her friends' esteem, for which she responded in a most fitting manner.
Returning by motor from a business trip to Burlington yesterday, John Pappin, a local fireman, looked over the locale of an automobile accident in which an Olds car sheered over an embankment near Bolton, dropped 35 feet, and deposited the driver intact in the meadow below. Natives assured Mr. Pappin that the autoist emerged unscathed from the accident although the fence on the curve where the car left the road was demolished and fragments of the auto were hung up on the bank. The accident occurred early Tuesday morning and the slippery condition of the highway was believed to have contributed to the accident.

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

We Wish to Announce That Beginning TO-MORROW, THURSDAY, and Continuing Until Saturday, December 8th, We Will Hold

A Great Profit-Sharing and Stock-Reducing Sale

In Connection With Our Annual Thanksgiving Sale of Linens

WE WILL THUS BE "DOING OUR BIT," by sharing with our many customers, and many new ones we expect to have by this extraordinary event, a part of our regular and legitimate profits, and at a time when the purchasing power of a dollar is so much less than in normal times.

During these times of extremely high or war prices, this may be rather a poor business policy on our part, but we feel it our duty to help our loyal customers in purchasing their needs in Wearing Apparel and household necessities at the minimum of cost and at the same time reduce our unusually heavy stocks of winter merchandise.

The regular prices on all our stocks are below the present market values, and the additional discounts during this sale will mean a considerable saving to you.

Don't fail to come to this sale; and you may come with the fullest assurance of getting the best possible values for your money. Tell your friends about it.

READY-TO-WEAR DEPARTMENT

This department is offering extraordinary values during this big sale in Suits, Coats and Dresses that will surely appeal to every woman who has not yet bought her winter outfit. Remember, every garment in this big stock is new and strictly up to the minute in style. Why wait for January Clearance Sales, when you can buy now at these remarkably low prices and have a whole season's wear out of your Suit or Coat? There is no exaggeration as to real values at this store.
