

CONDITIONS GROW WORSE

In Siberia They Are Very Bad and by No Means Improving

BOLSHEVIK AIDED BY GERMAN PRISONERS

Japan as Yet Is Undecided How to Act in the Matter

Washington, March 13.—Conditions in Siberia are growing worse. Apparently reliable reports brought to the Associated Press correspondent at Harbin Manchuria indicate that there is a wide-spread propaganda, with speech making by Bolsheviki orators among workmen and never a word in behalf of the entire allies.

General Semenov, anti-Bolsheviki leader in Siberia, has retreated before superior Bolsheviki forces into Manchuria. It is said and it is believed that the Bolsheviki numbered many former German prisoners among them. General Semenov brought with him his dead and wounded and reported himself out of ammunition and money.

Meantime, dispatches from Tokio quote Premier Teruchi as telling the House of Representatives on March 9 that Japan had not yet reached a decision regarding the dispatch of troops to Siberia. The utmost care, he said, would be used in deciding "this momentous question." Foreign Minister Motono said Japan's allies had made no request that troops be sent, though opinions were being exchanged. Japanese opinion that soldiers should go to Siberia was qualified by fear that Russia might be driven toward Germany unless care was taken.

John Skelton Williams Says No Decision Reached by Government—Matter Under Consideration.

Washington, March 13.—Reports that the railroad administration had offered to provide for obligations of $45,000,000 of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad were denied yesterday by John Skelton Williams, director of the division of finance and purchases of the railroad administration. No decision has been reached as to the extent of government aid to the road, he said, although the subject is under consideration.

SHIPYARDS TOO SLOW

Admiral Bowles Wants Men to "Speed Up" on Work.

Philadelphia, March 13.—Rear Admiral Bowles, sent here by the government to "speed up" shipbuilding, said Monday: "All shipyards along the Atlantic seaboard, including those in Philadelphia, are not producing the results which personnel and equipment warrant."

Referring to Philadelphia and vicinity, he said: "All the shipyards except those with naval contracts, the Cramp's and the New York Shipbuilding company, are bad and it is hard to tell which is the worst."

He refused to go into details regarding the deficiencies of the various companies, but said he had hopes that they would soon improve.

YOUNG HITCHCOCK LOST.

St. Paul's School Aviator Reported Missing.

Newburg, N. Y., March 13.—In a cablegram received here from Francis Thomas Hitchcock, jr., a 17-year-old member of the French squadron is reported as missing in action. The cablegram was received by Thomas Hitchcock, the boy's father.

Young Hitchcock was a student at St. Paul's school, Concord, N. H., until last July when he decided to enter service. Too young to be accepted into American aviation service he sailed for France and in the middle of June was before the German lines. He is credited with having brought down three German machines.

LA FOLLETTE CASE COMING UP.

Washington, March 13.—Consideration of disloyalty charges against Senator La Follette of Wisconsin will be resumed soon by the Senate privileges and elections committee, Chairman Pomerene said yesterday.

You're Bilious! Take Cascarets

Pleasant relief for liver and bowels, and cost 10c a box—no gripe!

Feel grand! Be efficient! Clean your torpid liver and sluggish bowels with good, harmless Cascarets—they don't gripe or sicken. Give your insides a good cleaning and rid yourself of head-aches, bilious spells, dizziness, sickness, bad breath, stomach sourness, gases, etc. Cheer up! Get 10-cent box from any drug store. Also best cathartic for bilious, constipated children—tastes like candy but never fails. Cascarets work while you sleep.—Adv.

SPRING TREATMENT

Necessary to Purify Blood and Correct Weak, Run-Down Conditions

Trying weather, exposure to storms, the grip, hard colds, pneumonia, fevers, diphtheria and other blood-poisoning, prostrating diseases leave the whole system sub-normal—below par—weak and slow—blood depleted and thin, with that tired feeling, poor appetite, backache, rheumatic pains, delicate digestive power or almost none at all. The ideal treatment is

Hood's Sarsaparilla—to be taken before meals—thoroughly to purify the blood and expel poisons, and Peptiron—to be taken after meals—to put power into the blood, give strength, increase red corpuscles and restore tone, and do it quickly.

If there is biliousness, constipation, bad taste in the mouth, or "the blues," the liver is torpid. Take Hood's Pills—they rouse the liver and relieve all liver ills, are perfectly compatible with Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron.—Adv.

DRY SETBACK IN NEW YORK

Senate Committee Favors State Referendum on Liquor Question.

Albany, N. Y., March 13.—By a vote of 6 to 3, the Senate committee on taxation and retrenchment yesterday reported out the Emerson "state referendum" bill, which provides for state bond prohibition by a constitutional amendment to be put to a referendum of the people in 1919.

This is the measure to which advocates of prohibition on Monday's hearing made such vigorous protest. With its being reported out, the chances for adoption of the Hill-McNab bill ratifying the federal constitutional amendment melted considerably.

SUBMARINE HUNTING.

Writer in Liverpool Paper Describes the Methods Used in Capture.

London, March 13 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—One of the methods by which, as the first sea lord, Sir Eric Geddes said recently, the submarine menace is being "held" is vividly described by a writer in the Liverpool Journal of Commerce.

A seaplane had "spotted" a submarine lying on the seabed. Instantly, the observer's finger commenced to tap a key and 10 miles away, a long, lean destroyer and four squat trawlers detached themselves from a pack of hounds working a covert, and hastened to the kill. Meanwhile the seaplane circled around, but when the surface ships arrived her instructions, delivered by wireless, were curt and precise. Acting upon them the trawlers stationed themselves at the four corners of a wet quadrangle, while the destroyer kept her guns ready to talk to Fritz should he appear above the surface.

The trawlers at the corners of the wet quadrangle got out their sweeps—long wire hawsers of an incredible stoutness, with a heavy "kite" in the center—to keep their lights down on the seabed—and commenced to steam towards each other. As the pairs of vessels met, their wires simultaneously engaged themselves under the U-boat's bow and stern, and commenced to work their sinuous way between her hull and the sea bottom.

Then the strange thing happened. Two round, black objects seemed to detach themselves from her hull and float surfacewards to hover a second and then to commence bobbing down the tide—bobbing down a lane much frequented by those ships that brought food, munitions of war, and hundreds of other things to England's shore.

"Minelayer, eh?" called the seaplane's observer.

"That's it, lad," came the telephoned answer, "but her eggs can wait for a minute."

The trawlers now crossed their dependent cables and thus held the U-boat in a kind of a wire snare. She seemed to suddenly wake from her danger, for with a bound she tried to disentangle herself from the meshes which held her. But it was no use; the trawlers had been too long at the game to leave any loopholes and the submarine was doomed.

"Got him," signalled the seaplane.

"Thanks," replied the destroyer. "We'll give him five minutes to come up and breathe, but no longer." That time passed but still Fritz made no further move.

At a bagged signal from the destroyer the port foremost trawler and the starboard after one clipped a small ring of high explosive to the bar-taut wire and allowed it to slide down till it touched the U-boat's hull. It was the seaplane's turn to wave a flag, and immediately there followed the crashing of its mine upon two firing cradles. The uprising of two great mounds of water and a rumbling, muffled explosion.

"The seaplane circled twice above the patch of rising oil, ascertained that Fritz had been destroyed, and notified the destroyer of the fact. Then, with her observer slipping a drum of cartridges into his machine gun, she sped on after those objects bobbing down tide. A burst of rapid firing—and the first of the devil's eggs, its buoyancy chamber punctured, sank with a gurgle; the second gave a better show, for it exploded grandly—and harmlessly—as the bullets reached it.

These agents have been supplied with the necessary blanks.

EXPRESS LINE CONTROL

Federal Operation to Include All the Large Companies

ADMINISTRATION GIVES INTIMATION

Admiral Bowles Wants Men to Speed Up Work in Shipyards

Washington, March 13.—Government control probably will be extended soon to the leading express companies, it is intimated officially by the railroad administration. The companies that would be affected are the Adams, American, Wells-Fargo, Southern, Great Northern, Northern, Canadian and Western.

Most express companies' earnings last year were far below the record of the year before and some, notably the Adams, recorded a deficit in the latter months. Government operation and compensation on the basis of the average earnings for the last three years are sought by most companies. Since the government took over the railroads, representatives of the companies have conferred repeatedly with railroad administration officials, urging that the government take over their interests. Some decision probably will be reached within 10 days. Action has been delayed by discussions of the proper basis of compensation. An application of the express companies for a 10 per cent increase in rates is pending before the interstate commerce commission.

BERLIN

Impressive Service for Cremation of Old Flags and Dedication of New.

The flag raising at Berlin Corners went off very successfully last Friday. The opening exercises, after a piano recital by Mrs. Wilbur Brown, consisted of some exercises by the pupils of the Berlin Corners school and some introductory remarks by Rev. Frank Blomfield, who said that the old flag hanging from the tower had been torn to tatters by wind and storm, a subscription list was left at Kimball's store, resulting in sufficient to purchase the two flags to be raised that afternoon.

M. Corliss spoke well for the farmers, referring to their efforts to conform to the wishes of the government. Mrs. Leon Stewart described the work of the local Red Cross society, giving a list of the amount of work which had been accomplished by its members. Rev. S. F. Blomfield of Montpelier gave a stirring address, received with much applause. The scholars of the east road and Mirror Lake schools gave selections between these addresses. As a finale, a tableau was presented, representing Uncle Sam, Columbia and an American soldier in uniform.

After singing "The Star Spangled Banner," the old flag and another that for years had been flying at Mrs. George Winslow's, were each boxed and quickly carried down the aisles to the stove, where, with a few words of committal, they were cremated, while, as a mark of respect, the audience stood.

The new flags were then displayed on the platform, Uncle Sam and the soldier holding the national colors, while Columbia and another girl held the sacrifice flag of 11 stars. Rev. Frank Blomfield prayed a prayer of dedication. They were then taken outside and under the direction of Clinton Benjamin run up the pole. "God Bless Our Native Land" was sung and the proceedings terminated.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat and Take Salts for Back-ache or Bladder Trouble

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The uric becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush of the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

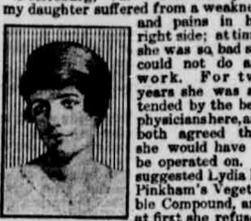

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful, effervescent, lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

HER DAUGHTER WAS SAVED FROM OPERATION

Mrs. Wells of Petersburg Tells How.

Petersburg, Va.—"For two years my daughter suffered from a weakness and pains in her right side; at times she was so bad she could not do any work. For two years she was attended by the best physicians here, and both agreed that she would have to be operated on. I suggested Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and at first she refused to take it, but finally consented. From the very beginning it helped her, and now she is entirely well, and telling everybody how much good it has done her."

—Mrs. W. D. WELLS, 226 North Adams Street, Petersburg, Va.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Wells did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, stomach aching, dizziness, would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years experience is at your service.

Appreciation by the public of the general invitation given by the Twenty-five club to attend the lecture by "Shellproof Mac" in the Methodist church Monday evening was shown by the number who attended, the main auditorium and room opening into same being filled. Mr. McKay told the thrilling experiences through which he had passed with great earnestness and brought the methods of modern warfare vividly to the people. Many thanks were due the Twenty-five club for bringing such a speaker to town. Lemare's "Andantino" and Godard's "Berceuse" were rendered by Earl Twombly on the violin, with organ accompaniment by Mrs. Palmer, and at the close all joined in "America." A fitting introduction was given the speaker by Prin. Reimher of the local high school.

RICKER'S MARKET REPORTS.

Large Receipts of Calves and Fair Number of Hogs.

St. Johnsbury, March 13.—Receipts at W. A. Ricker's market for the week ending March 11 included:

Poultry—15c. Lambs—5@12c. Hogs—23 1/2, 13@14c. Cattle—17 1/2, 4@8c. Calves—8@7, 5@12c. Milch Cows—65, $60@110.

HOG PRICES ADVANCED.

This Despite Heavy Receipts at Brighton Market.

Brighton, Mass., March 13.—Delays continue to be the order of the day in the shipment of livestock to the Brighton market, especially on all shipments made from Maine over the Boston & Maine railroad. Yesterday morning's arrivals at that market were limited to five cars from the Boston & Albany, though just before noon it was reported that three cars had arrived at Somerville Junction from New Hampshire via the Southern division. These cars were expected at the Boston yards early in the afternoon, though nothing was definitely known regarding the date east train.

Arrivals at Brighton during the past week included 24 cars of cattle and three cars of hogs from the West, 24 cars of livestock from New York state and six cars from the Boston & Maine railroad.

Though receipts of hogs from the West have been fairly heavy during the week, prices have advanced sharply, both live and dressed being a half-cent above last week's quotations. Buyers were paying 17 1/2 @ 17 3/4c at the yards yesterday morning for live hogs, this range including both best lots and rough lots. Near-by arrivals of hogs were fairly good, one shipper bringing in nearly a hundred from southern Middlesex towns.

While the local kill of hogs shows a material falling off for the week, the total has still been far above the average of the winter, the week's kill as reported by Boston packers being 30,000 hogs, against 37,000 for the preceding week and 25,000 for the same week last year. Since Jan. 1, 1918, the total kill by Boston packers has been 277,000 hogs, against 363,500 for the same period in 1917.

Exports of pork products are nil, as has been the case for many weeks. Dressed hogs have been advanced in price to 22 @ 22 1/2c, compared with 21 1/2 @ 22c a week ago. Prices are now at the top level of the winter.

Heavy cattle were very scarce yesterday morning, and the delayed cars were not claimed to include anything specially noticeable in that direction. The dressed beef market is unsatisfactory, but shippers are insisting on getting top prices, even for medium grade stock. If here, the best cattle would bring 11 @ 11 1/2c for heavy stock, while good cattle would bring 9 @ 10c, and light cattle 7 @ 8c.

Eight cents appears to be about the top for good beef cows and heifers, though offerings yesterday were light. Based on asking prices, best beef cows may be quoted at $8 1/2c, good cows at 7 @ 8c, ordinary cows at 5 1/2 @ 6 1/2c, and canner cows at 4 1/2 @ 5c.

For average bulks, 7 @ 7 1/2c appears to be about the market, though an occasional fancy bull is held at 8c and above. Bologna bulls are quotable at 5 @ 5 1/2c.

There is an easier feeling in the market for calves, owing to heavier arrivals of medium and poor grades. Fancy small lots are quoted at 15 @ 15 1/2c, but bunch lots of the best grade take a wide range at 12 @ 14c. Fair lots are quotable at 9 @ 11c, and grassers and drinkers at 6 @ 8c.

No sheep or lambs were offered at the Brighton yards yesterday, though some are arriving at the slaughter house direct from the West.

Trade is slow at the cow barn, owing to moderate offerings of choice milch cows. No change is noted in values, quotations ranging from $50 @ $60 for ordinary milkers to $125 @ $150 and upward for fancy milkers.
