John Bottaro and Faust Bignamio were the hosts at a dinner given last evening, when a number of their young men friends came together. The affair was the complement of a reception given in Clan Gordon hall Tuesday evening in honor of Messrs. Bottaro and Bignamio, who are leaving for Fort Slocum, N. Y.

The following articles of household effects will be disposed of at auction at the C. H. Corliss farm, about one mile from Williamstown village, on Friday afternoon, May 3, at 1 o'clock: Piano, drop-head White sewing machine, practically new; new kitchen cabinet, 15 bed spreads, 25 sheets, three dozen linen napkins, lot lace curtains, number pieces of rare antique furniture, good diningroom set, three dozen silver knives and forks, three dozen silver spoons, lot parlor furniture, lot silver dessert spoons, etc., etc. D. A. Perry, auctioneer.

A large number of Barre people are planning to motor to East Brookfield late to-morrow afternoon or early evening for the purpose of participating in the Red Cross carnival and poultry show which Brookfield people are to stage. Rather elaborate preparations for the "vander" have been made and a large part of the countryside is rallying loyally to the support of the affair in various ways. There will be a literary and musical program as one of the features, and ice cream and other delicacies will be on sale. The Brookfield branch "committee," which made known its plans in a picturesque letter published recently over the signature of "Cad," intends to make it an old-time country gathering, and the fact that all of the money goes to the Red Cross should make a special appeal to everyone. The "vander" is to be held Friday evening, and not to-night.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Farewell Reception for Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Keeling.

The esteem in which Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Keeling are held in this community was evidenced by the large attendance at a farewell reception given them in the Methodist church on the evening of Tuesday, April 30. Richard Jeffords, acting as master of ceremonies, called on the different speakers, the number including Rev. W. N. Roberts, a former pastor now living here, Mrs. Jennie Dickenson, W. H. Hebard, Rev. John Irons of the Congregational church, and William B. Jones, each of whom gave expression to their appreciation of Mr. Keeling as a pastor, as a man and a citizen. The last named speaker also presented a purse of money and Mr. Keeling made brief remarks, thanking the people for their kindness during his two years pastorate. Mrs. W. B. Jones sang a solo, and the men's chorus, under direction of James Walbridge, and of which Mr. Keeling has been a loyal member while here, sang two selections. The gathering then found seats in the vestry, where light refreshments were served by the ladies and a social hour was enjoyed.

The selectmen will meet at the office of the town clerk next Friday forenoon, May 3, to pay bills against the town. The Rural Good Luck club are to meet with Mrs. Henry Stewart next Saturday afternoon. Roll call and tying of quilts.

Dr. A. A. Cross, who went to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., some weeks ago, has now been sent to Boston for a special course in surgery work, and Mrs. Cross has joined him there. It is reported that the doctor gained a high standing in his examinations while at Fort Oglethorpe, and that he will be in Boston for perhaps two months.

Mrs. Frank Lang of Barre was in town last week and spent the time between trains visiting friends.

Born, May 1, at the Barre City hospital, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Farrington of Cabot. Mrs. Farrington was formerly Miss Irene Marr of Williamstown.

Francis Lasell is engaged to work for G. Ray Tripp this summer and began work May 1.

There were several farmers in town who raised wheat last year and the number is to be increased this season.

Ralph Gale has sold his farm, known to our older residents as the Lactus Slinn farm, to Charles Blanchard of Berlin and the new owner will take possession this spring.

Style, Youth, Beauty, Are Yours

Many women distort their own natural beauty by wearing Corsets fitted with rigid steel stays. Steel boning is the foe of beauty. It robs the figure of handsome lines.

La Resistia, fitted with Spirabone, has superseded the old-fashioned Corset and rigid stay.

Spirabone found only in La Resistia. Corsets fitted.

Shoes for Men. Look Over Our New Ralstons!

If you are thinking of new Shoes, look over the Ralstons in our show window, or, better yet, come into the store and look them over closely and slip your feet into a pair.

That's the true test of the style and fit of any Shoe, and we are sure that the try-on will prove so satisfactory that a try-out will result.

Ralstons are standard A-1 materials, put together by standard A-1 workmanship. The result is a Shoe of which most men are glad to say, "Exactly my kind of a Shoe."
