AMERICAN FOOD INCREASE BECOMES VICTOR GUARANTEE

Secretary of Agriculture Houston Said To-day Before Iowa Bankers' Association, in Convention at Dubuque, Iowa.

Dubuque, Ia., June 20.—American food crops, increasing because of the effort of farmers, were classed as an additional guaranty of the successful outcome of the war by Secretary of Agriculture Houston, in an address to-day before Iowa Bankers' association. Along with his presentation of figures summarizing agricultural accomplishment, he called upon the residents of cities and towns to see that bountiful harvests promised do not waste because of labor shortage. Of the war itself, he said, "There is no way out of this grim business except through it."

"This war will not be won by a miracle or by enchantment," he added. "There can be no turning back, no faltering, no hesitation. We are determined to teach the lesson that law must rule among nations as among individuals and to establish guarantees for future peace and the prevention of a recurrence of such a calamity as this."

As to the agricultural effort during 1918 Secretary Houston said the American farmers had responded heartily to the call of the allied populations for food.

"Farmers planted 23,000,000 acres more in leading crops in 1917 than in 1916," he said. "They greatly increased the number of livestock in spite of exportations. They increased the number of milch cows by 390,000, of other cattle by nearly two million, the number of sheep, for the first time in a generation and a half, by 1,300,000 and of swine by nearly 4,000,000. In spite of exportations of horses and mules, they increased the number of 454,000. The indications are that they will do better even this year."

"We shall not fail because of food shortage," he said. "And I need not point out to the bankers the large bearing of this enormous production on the foundations and machinery of finance and credit."

"These statements mean another thing. They mean difficulties of harvesting. It is a matter of patriotism and business for you to omit no effort to help in the matter of labor supply. This duty is of the most urgent and impelling character in this crisis."

CLAIRVOYANT FINED

And Given Leave to Vacate Brattleboro at Once.

Brattleboro, June 20.—"Prof." J. R. Harrington, clairvoyant, guilty in the municipal court room yesterday afternoon before Assistant Judge Fred B. Pier of the Windham county court to the charge of obtaining money under false pretense. Attorney Frank E. Barber, representing the state in the absence of the state's attorney, and Attorney Robert C. Bacon, representing Harrington, agreed that a fine of $10 would be acceptable, and that fine was imposed, Harrington, according to a statement made to the court by the attorneys, having agreed to stop the practice and to leave town.

Harrington has been exercising his "supernatural powers" in Brattleboro several weeks, having headquarters in a house near the Odd Fellows' temple. Deputy Sheriff Fred Cressy arrested him there yesterday afternoon.

It was alleged that Tuesday a Brattleboro woman whom the complainant set up as "Jane Doe," because she did not desire publicity in connection with the case, visited Harrington and that he falsely pretended to her that he had supernatural powers whereby if he paid him $5 and withdrew $1,400 which she had on deposit at the Brattleboro Trust company and allowed him to put the money in an envelope together with a lock of her hair and a lock of his hair he could go into a trance and obtain for her a large amount of property from the estate of her husband.

She paid him $5 and went to the bank after the money, but the treasurer suspected that something was wrong and dissuaded her from carrying out the plans.

It was stated in court that Harrington had paid the $5 to the woman.

LIQUOR SELLERS CONVICTED.

And Others are Being Tried in California County Court.

Hardwick, June 20.—A large number of witnesses are being summoned to county court at St. Johnsbury daily to testify at the trials of the people taken into custody during the raid for persons selling liquor illegally here last Friday morning, the raid being under direction of State's Attorney Campbell of St. Johnsbury, and Attorney General Barber of Brattleboro, aided by nine county deputies. They arrested the following people and took them to St. Johnsbury, where most of them secured bail: G. C. Bianchi and wife, Mr. Giuseppe's mother, Mrs. Gaggetti, Mrs. Guizzetti, Mrs. Predella, Mrs. Mike Travers, G. Galli and wife, Van Paz and wife, E. MacBoll, Josephine Gheller and Mrs. Enrico Calogari.

Mr. Bianchi's mother was convicted, but has not been sentenced or fined as yet. Mr. and Mrs. Bianchi pleaded guilty, as did Mrs. Travers, and Mrs. E. Calogari, while the trial of Mrs. Gheller is in progress at present.

Proof undisputable has been introduced, which was obtained through the efforts of Milton Pottle, a Morgan detective of Boston, who has been quietly working up the evidence in these cases for the past six or eight months and we must admit that he was a pretty slick proposition. He worked in several different places in town at divers times, got acquainted with frequenters of the houses where the selling has been going on and did a thorough job.

STOCKYARDS UNDER LICENSE

A Presidential Proclamation Calling for It Was Issued To-day

COMMISSION MEN AND OTHERS ALSO

They Must Secure Their Licenses On or Before July 25

Washington, D. C., June 20.—All stock yards in the United States to-day were ordered by President Wilson to be put under federal license. A presidential proclamation was issued which requires that licenses must be obtained from the food administration on or before July 25.

License is also required for commission men, order buyers, traders, speculators and scalpers handling or dealing in live cattle, sheep, swine, or goats, "in or in connection with such stock yards," except those exempted by the food and fuel law.

The president's action is in accord with the recommendation of a committee on the stock and meat situation, approved by the president and which held hearings in Chicago, Philadelphia and other cities.

Regular powers under the proclamation are conferred upon the secretary of agriculture, who in turn it was announced, has delegated the authority to the bureau of markets, of which Charles J. Brand is chief. Licenses machinery developed by the food administration in connection with the licenses of firms engaged in handling food will be used, it was explained. Rules and regulations for the licenses are being formulated by the bureau of markets and will be given out within a few weeks. Conferences will be held with stock men, stockyards operators and representatives of trade, first will be called.

Penalties for stockyard concerns and individuals who fail to license by July 25 are provided in the proclamation. The recommendation of the investigating committee upon which the president based his proclamation follows:

"The stockyards should be placed under license and regulation by the department of justice, which should also establish a government system of animal grading under suitable regulations and methods of price reporting of actual transactions. Daily reports should be made on distribution and destinations of live stock, meats and other products from principal packing points."

WILL ADD 250,000 MEN.

Available for Immediate Military Duty by Reclassification.

Washington, June 20.—Preliminary reports indicate that more than 250,000 men may be added to Class I, available for immediate military duty, as a result of Provost Marshal General Crowder's recent order for revision of deferred classifications list by local draft boards.

Very Effective Method for Banishing Hairs

(Modes of To-day.)
At very little cost any woman can rid her face of hairy growths if she will use the delatone treatment. This is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This paste is spread upon the hairy surface for two or three minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm results from this treatment, but care should be used to buy real delatone.—Adv.

VERDICT FOR B. & M.

Ordered in Hampden Railroad Case—Goes to Supreme Court.

Springfield, Mass., June 20.—Chief Justice John Aiken of the supreme court yesterday ordered the jury to bring in a verdict for the defendant in the suit of the Hampden Railroad corporation vs. the Boston & Maine Railroad company to recover a construction account of nearly $4,000,000 based on the failure of the Boston & Maine railroad to ratify a lease of the Hampden road.

In giving his order to the jury Judge Aiken stated emphatically that he was not influenced by any question of fraud. The suit has been on trial since May 27 and the witnesses have included men now or in the recent past prominent in the railroad world. The case, it is understood, will be taken to the supreme court on law points involved.

Be Foot Satisfied

Funny how many men will put up with ill-fitting shoes, without a murmur. They seem to take it as a matter of course that they must "break in" a pair of shoes that are misfits instead of buying shoes that are built to fit the foot from the first day on.

Regal Shoes

are made over such a variety of good, sensible lasts that we can be sure of fitting any foot. Style and wear in Regals are not questioned by folks who know about Regals.
