

WATERBURY

Charles Stevens of the Center Died at Hospital in Burlington. The body of Charles Stevens, who died at a hospital in Burlington, was brought from that city to his home at the Center. Mr. Stevens died of pneumonia, an operation being deemed inadvisable. Mr. Stevens had served the town efficiently as a lister for many years and had been assisting in taking the real estate appraisal. His death takes one of great activity. Charles H. Stevens was the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stevens and would have been 60 years old next September. He was educated in the public schools and at Green Mountain seminary. He married Miss Annie Smith, who survives him, with three children, Howard Stevens of Fairfax, Glen Stevens of Waterbury, Miss Maude Reynolds of Middlesex. There are also eight grandchildren. He was a member of Winooki lodge, No. 49.

Plainfield Red Cross Notes. It may be of interest to Plainfield people to know that the Red Cross quota for June, which consisted of four dozen raffle garments for men, sweaters, 65 pairs socks, was all completed by the 27th of June, was packed and shipped early in July. Much credit is due the committees who handled the work, also the splendid response from the members to work. The Red Cross had on deposit at the beginning of July 1, $421.15. Remember when you pay your membership dues it counts 40 cents for your own bank. Through the columns of this paper we wish to thank those who contributed to the Red Cross in the month of June. We received $5 from Dr. Wheeler, $5 from William Mears, $5 from Mrs. Byron, $1 from Mr. Long, $41.92 from Nellie Gill benefit, $1.75 from Maple Hill school, $3 from east hill school, a quilt from the south school, socks from junior high school. The July quotas will soon arrive. Reserve the afternoons Wednesday and Saturdays for the week room. Tuesdays for the knitting parties. Through the generosity of Mrs. Rideout we are able to enjoy a pleasant room for the work.

Madam Briggs Died at the Age of 90 Years—Funeral Held Monday. Madam Briggs, the aged mother of E. F. Briggs, passed away on Friday night, aged 90 years. Madam Briggs had been failing for a long time, and in the last days had been stricken with an attack of pneumonia, from which she never fully recovered. The funeral was held from the house on Monday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Blackford of Rochester officiating, assisted by a speaker of the spiritualist faith, this being the belief of the deceased, and in accordance with the request. The remains were taken to Rochester for burial. Among those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Briggs of Burlington, Mrs. R. P. Briggs of Morrisville and Mrs. D. N. Rice of Granville, all of whom were granddaughters of deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Briggs will remain here for a few days, the former taking a short vacation from the Abernethy store in Burlington, where he is employed.
