

Has Your Home These Three Essentials?

It is what you put into the home that makes or mars its home-like atmosphere.

You must have real necessities that contribute to comfort.

You must have harmony between the various pieces of furniture.

You must have quality, which means service, returned for the expenditure.

In all these points of service, this store is particularly able to render the utmost. Whether your needs be that of a single piece or that of completely furnishing the home, you will find it worth while to inspect what we have to offer.

And now that fireside comforts are so emphasized by the season, it surely is the time to make the living-room pleasant to live in. We have just the things that will enable you to enjoy this room — from reading lamp to card or smoker's table.

Ours is just as much a store for those who want to see nice things as those who come to buy — for we are proud enough of our goods to gladly show them.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Roy Stewart in "The Boss of the Lazy Y" and a two-reel Sennett comedy, Bijou to-day—adv.

Have you called at the Church street school building with your gifts for relief of those suffering Belgians?

Owing to the prevailing distemper, it is thought best to cancel the preaching service which was to be held at the Brookside school, East Montpelier road, Sunday afternoon.

A large number of men employed at Carroll Bros. plant of Granite street were ill to-day because the employees most necessary in operating the millinery are ill of the grip. Last night both the derrickman and the engineer, among others, were stricken with the malady.

Arrested on an intoxication charge and then listed as an habitual drunkard, Joseph Jacques of this city told Grand Juror William Wishart in municipal court this morning that two drinks of whiskey, purchased in a North Main street saloon, were enough to bring him yesterday. He declined an invitation to disclose further and Magistrate H. W. Scott sentenced him to serve 30 days in the county jail, besides paying a fine of $15 and costs.

Guests arriving at Hotel Barre last night and this morning included the following people: W. L. Lyman of Concord, N. H.; Mrs. H. G. Richardson, Mrs. F. E. Richardson of Essex Junction; Miss Richards of Littleton, N. H.; William J. Quebec of Rutland; E. S. Newcomb of Waterbury Center; D. A. Trayhan of Littleton, N. H.; L. M. Kinaley of Orleans; C. W. Wentworth of Madison, Wis.; A. E. Kendrick of Burlington; Me. and Mrs. W. A. Sanders of New York; E. P. Hamilton of St. Johnsbury; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rousseau of Woonsocket, R. I.; W. B. Mills of Rutland; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brodie of Hartford, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Warren of Winnipeg, Man.; F. W. Peck of Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. Smarden and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Smarden of Montreal; P. Q. Paul C. Parsley, John A. Williams and Clifford A. Maynard of Middlestone, Conn.; F. E. Chalmers of Rutland; W. C. Garth of New York; M. E. Curran of Boston; Miss Ada Foster of New York.

Six lodges were represented at the annual meeting of the 13th district of Odd Fellows, which was held in the rooms of Hiawatha lodge in the Gordon building last evening. Because of illness and unpropitious weather, the attendance was only 50. Grand Master O. W. Edwards of Burlington, the deputy grand master, Alex. Duncan of this city, and two other Barre grand officers, F. W. Jackson, state secretary, and Rev. J. B. Reardon, state chaplain, were present. In addition to representatives from Cabot lodge of Cabot, Arandia lodge of Plainfield, Gill lodge of East Barre, Williamstown lodge of Williamstown, and Washington lodge of Washington. Judge H. W. Scott, the grand representative, made the address of welcome, the response for the district being given by H. C. Cutting, while Mr. Edwards gave the response for the grand officers. Grand Secretary F. W. Jackson read the unwritten words and the initiatory degree was very creditably exemplified by Gill lodge of East Barre. A banquet brought the meeting to a close.

Four-Minute Singing Added.
