TALK OF THE TOWN

Visit Abbott's bargain basement. Special values in heavy cloakings at Abbott's.

William Reaside has returned to the city, after a trip to Philadelphia and Chester, Pa.

Regular meeting of Ruth Chapter, No. 33, O. E. S., Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, at 7:30 o'clock.

All coupon bonds of the fourth Liberty loan are ready for delivery at the Granite Savings bank.

Regular meeting of the New England Order of Protection this evening at 7:30. Important business. A large attendance is desired.

Albert S. Scott, who is employed by the Central Vermont railroad in St. Albans, called on Barre friends yesterday and to-day.

Wanted at once—20 second-hand stoves. Will pay cash or will exchange for new Anders stoves. E. A. Prindie, Wortham block.

Edward Carter, a former resident of Barre, who has been renewing acquaintances in the city, returned yesterday to his home in St. Albans.

A regular meeting of St. John's court, C. O. F., will be held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Installation of officers. Every member is requested to attend.

Rev. Fr. P. M. McKenna, pastor of St. Monica's church, was one of the 60 Catholic clergymen who attended the funeral of Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan in St. Albans yesterday.

Wesley Hoffman, a well known North Main street cigarmaker, who has been confined to the house for several weeks, was able to be uptown yesterday for the first time since his illness.

Mrs. E. C. Brock of Washington street has been passing several days in Quechee and White River Junction. During her absence she substituted as a teacher in the schools of Quechee, where she was formerly principal.

Because of unsettled conditions growing out of the epidemic, the annual fair which members of Clara Gordon and its ladies' auxiliary usually stage at this time has been deferred, although it is possible that the bazaar will be held later in the season.

There will be a parish supper at the Congregational church Friday night at 6 o'clock. Everyone come and bring a contribution to the supper. At 10 o'clock Friday the ladies of the Congregational church will meet to tie puffs for the missionary barrel. Bring lunches.

George Asbury, a Waterbury man who was injured in an auto accident on the Montpelier road Monday afternoon, has so far recovered as to be able to return to his home. His companion, Eugene R. Robinson, who was injured more severely, is still a patient at the hospital.

C. N. Kenyon of Franklin street received tidings last night of the death of A. M. Hannaford, which occurred in Claremont, N. H., during the day. The deceased had been ill but a few days. Mr. Hannaford was formerly a well known business man in Claremont, although he retired some years ago. He was around 82 years old. His first wife was Miss Deborah Old of Barre. Two years ago the remains of his second wife were brought to this city for interment. The body of Mr. Hannaford will reach here Friday evening and a brief committal service at Elmwood cemetery Saturday morning will be in charge of Rev. J. B. Reardon, pastor of the Universalist church.

Taste It—Then Decide.

You'd be surprised, the large number of well-to-do people who serve "Sweet Nut" since they've discovered that this delicious table luxury does not contain any animal fat, and is only called Oleomargarine to conform with an old law that was passed before "Sweet Nut" was discovered. This new kind of nut butter is made from the nutritious parts of the white, crispy meat of coconuts churned with pasteurized milk, price only 32¢ a pound. Purer and more nutritious ingredients it would be impossible to use. Try Benefit Brand "Sweet Nut" Margarine—it tastes and looks the same when served as creamery butter and is just as nutritious. Serve it for a few meals and let the family decide. For sale only at the Direct Importing Co.'s yellow front store, 60 North Main street, Barre, where Benefit Brand Teas, Coffees and Grocery Specialties are retailed at wholesale prices. Look for our store in your town.—adv.

ANEMIA CAUSES NERVOUSNESS AND INDIGESTION

This Pittsfield Woman Shows How All These Troubles Are Corrected by Building Up the Blood.

Thin blood is the cause of many troubles that are often attributed to other sources. The blood circulates throughout the entire system and when it is at fault the resulting discomfort may make itself felt in any organ of the body. The nerves become undernourished and neuralgia is a frequent accompaniment of anemia. Good digestion without rich, red blood is almost impossible and sufferers from anemia are frequently dyspeptic.

Thomas Dougherty of No. 321 South Street, Pittsfield, Mass., is a living example of the benefit that can be obtained in such cases by the use of the right tonic. She says:

"I was very pale and thin. Sometimes my complexion had a sort of greenish cast and my lips and gums were pale. I had a crowded feeling in my left side, also a nervous fluttering. I was so weak that I couldn't do my housework."

"My nerves were also in bad shape and I did not sleep well. I had terrible headaches, my appetite was poor and I didn't care whether I ate anything or not."

"About seven weeks ago I gave Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and I could see that I was better after I had taken a box and a half. I could sleep better and was not so weak. Well, I kept on and about all the symptoms of which I complained have disappeared. I can go upstairs without being all tired out and do many things that I couldn't have done a few weeks ago. I have a much better color, am not nervous, I sleep well and my appetite is good. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and will continue to do so for I know that they are excellent."

"The Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. A booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be mailed free to any address upon request."

The Unitus class of the Baptist church will hold a fair Wednesday afternoon and evening. Program at 8 p. m. Admission, 5c and 10c.—adv.

Bennington's new representative in the general assembly, Edwin L. Moore, is a figure well known to friends throughout the state and here in Barre, there is hardly a man who ever competed in any of the state fairs' tournaments who is not acquainted with him. Mr. Moore was elected on the Republican ticket by a close vote over his Democratic opponent. In addition to his legislative duties, he will continue to serve as secretary of the state fairs' association.

Relatives of Douglas Wood, the lad who suffered a leg fracture in an auto accident Monday, say that the mishap occurred through no carelessness of his own. They state that Mr. Lane was carrying a number of boys to Montpelier and that the Wood boy was sitting on the fender of the car with his feet on the bumper, when an automobile operated by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills struck the Wood boy on the leg. The accident occurred near Intercity park, and the boy was taken to the City hospital, where a fracture just above the right ankle was reduced. He was reported to be resting quite comfortably to-day.

Corp. James P. Riley, son of Martin Riley of East street, and well remembered in Vermont musical circles as the leader of a popular dance orchestra, has been called to duty as an entertainer in the army dramatic troupe of the American expeditionary forces. The organization is known as the "Jambons," and its talent includes men who have made themselves famous along the big-time vaudeville circuits in America. Corp. Riley went up to the front and was wounded. Upon receiving his discharge from a hospital, he was directed to associate himself with the "Jambons." The entertainers go up and down the American lines and furnish music for the soldiers.

One of the Civil War veterans who figured in Monday's parade, Nat Bond, janitor at the federal building, probably is the last survivor in this vicinity of the famous "Hooker's" brigade. Not a man who served in that brigade under Gen. "Fighting Joe" Hooker is known to be alive and some years ago when a memorial to that fiery fighter was unveiled in Boston it was with difficulty that a sizable delegation of Hooker's men was brought to the scene. Incidentally, of a large number of Vermont Grand Army men who undoubtedly celebrated yesterday, Mr. Bond is probably the only one who was an eye witness of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimack. Comrade Bond fought with the 16th Massachusetts regiment.

Dwellers in the Syrian colony on Prospect street, realizing the loyalty to their adopted country by unfurling a large flag Monday. The ceremony was short and simple, but the celebrators could not contain themselves for enthusiasm and a loud cheer went up among the spectators as the clean, new banner took the wind. With the cessation of hostilities in the Turkish war zone, where Gen. Allenby, before the Sick Man of Europe capitulated, released from virtual captivity thousands of Armenians, Syrians in Barre are hoping to hear from relatives who have not been able to write their relatives here since the war broke out. The Syrian people are overjoyed that the Hun has been conquered, but they cannot conceal a peculiar kind of satisfaction in the defeat of the Turk.

The Whole World Rejoices

Never in the history of the world was there such rejoicing as at the present time. Never was there such a willingness to sacrifice for the sake of others as now. And while the severe strain of war is broken, there still remains a great sacrifice for us to help provide for those countries that have suffered so during these last four years.

We must do all we can to help bring all industries back to their normal condition.

Barre has wonderfully stood the strain and in all calls has gone over the top with a rush that has surprised the whole state. It is up to us now to continue that spirit of push and co-operation that will make Barre the center of attraction of the whole state.

We Are Now Off for Christmas

You are urged by the government to do your Christmas shopping as early as possible. We are asked by the government to refrain from hiring extra help through the month of December. So it is up to you to help us obey the government order by doing your Christmas shopping as early as possible. Of course you must remember that the tendency for all merchandise will be towards an advance in price, instead of a decrease. We must help clothe those people who have been rendered destitute during this great struggle.

Women Who Shop About

Of course when you purchase your Winter Coat you want to make sure that you have a wide choice of style and a variety to choose from. For this reason we ask you to look over our large line of the season's best style values. We point you to the Wooltex and Printz-Beidermann lines as the standard of Coat values we offer you. Every Coat must reach that standard of value and service. See these special Coat values while the line is complete.

We can show you a large variety of Children's Coats, in values that are sure to please, at the time of purchase as well as after you have gotten them home.

Ladies' Small Furs and Fur Coats

This weather will surely bring to your mind the thought of warm furs for yourself and children. Our line is now complete in every detail. Children's furs for Christmas are here now. Why not get them early while the assortment is good.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat, Which Clogs Kidneys, Then Back Hurts and Bladder Bothers You.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.
