ADMIRAL SIR DAVID BEATTY REPRESENTS THE ALLIES

The Germans Are Said to be Guided by Admiral Hipper Who Was in Command at the Battle Off Helgoland in January 1915

A Berlin wireless dispatch received in London Thursday announced that the Koenigsburg put to sea at 1 p. m. on Nov. 13 with the plenipotentiaries of the workmen and soldiers' council of the German fleet. The German delegates are accompanied by Admiral Hipper, the chief of the high seas forces, who will act as an adviser during the deliberations. Admiral Hipper and Admiral Beatty were the opposing commanders in a battle off Helgoland in January, 1915.

Paris, Nov. 15 (by the Associated Press).—The naval terms of the German and Austrian armistice are being carried out rapidly. Admiral Hugh Rodman will be the American representative at a meeting to-morrow with German naval delegates at a British port.

STORMED AUSTRIAN PARLIAMENT.

Twenty Persons Were Injured in the Riot in Vienna.

Paris, Thursday, Nov. 14.—Socialists stormed the Austrian Parliament building in Vienna Wednesday and tried to enter the chamber where the new state council was in session. Shots were fired before order could be restored and twenty persons in the crowd outside the building were injured, according to dispatches reaching here. President Dinghofer denied that the firing began from the Parliament buildings.

The new national flag of three bands, red, white and red, was hoisted over the building, but soon afterward some one removed the white band and the crowd cheered the red flag.

A party of Socialists occupied the offices of the Neue Presse and brought out special editions advocating the establishment of a Socialist republic in Germany.

Internment was ordered, but when it became known that one of the party was the crown prince, all were disarmed and detained until the arrival of the Dutch commander at Maastricht and other officials.

The crown prince accompanied the commander to the latter's home, where he remains, with his suite, under guard, pending instructions from The Hague.

EX-MAYOR VAN WYCK DEAD.

First Executive of Greater New York Died in Paris.

Paris, Nov. 15, 4:35 a. m.—Robert A. Van Wyck, former mayor of New York City, is dead here.

New York, Nov. 15.—Robert Anderson Van Wyck was the first man elected mayor of New York City after the adoption of the charter under which Brooklyn, Long Island City and other places adjoining the former city of New York were consolidated with it to form what became known as Greater New York. Mr. Van Wyck, a Democrat, entered the mayor's office in 1898 and served until 1902. In the election he defeated Seth Low and General B. F. Tracy. He was 69 years old.

LOYD GEORGE THE ISSUE.

Around Him Revolves the Whole British Election.

London, Thursday, Nov. 14.—The issue in the coming election is whether the country will endorse Lloyd George's proposal that the present coalition government, with himself as premier, shall be continued after the war for the work of making peace and carrying on the labor of reconstruction.

Never before were British political conditions so chaotic as they are to-day. The year has shattered old party lines.

The electoral reform bill adopted by Parliament during the summer of 1917 virtually doubled the number of voters. It gave the ballot to all women over thirty, men over twenty-one and soldiers under twenty-one. This added six million females and two million males to the voting lists.

Mr. Lloyd George has before him the difficult task of trying to keep together that majority of the conservative party which supported his war measures and enough liberals to give him a balance of power. The decisive factors will be how many liberals will follow him and what the labor party will do.

So far as Ireland is concerned, the election probably means the almost total disappearance of the old nationalist party of Redmond and Dillon from Westminster. The Sinn Feiners are expected to sweep southern Ireland, but the members elected by the Sinn Feiners always refuse to take their seats.

In addition to trying to hold together his conservative and liberal supporters, Mr. Lloyd George is trying to reconcile the Asquith faction. Mr. Asquith could have had a high seat in the present cabinet if he would have accepted it. There were two obstacles, however, home rule and protection. One of these conservatives will not have and the other is objected to by the liberals.

Mr. Lloyd George addressed a large group of liberal members from both Houses of Parliament on Tuesday. Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, also presented the coalition program at a meeting of conservatives. This program is said to include "safeguarding" agriculture and essential manufactures, imperial preference and home rule without coercion of the six counties of Ulster.

Mr. Lloyd George's speech before the liberals advocated a league of nations and emphasized the need of national unity. He begged the liberals not to balk. Limited protection and half-way home rule do not satisfy the stalwarts of either party. The greatest asset of Mr. Lloyd George is his personal popularity.

Prof. A. B. Hart of Harvard Refers to Bolsheviki Uprising.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 15.—Professor Albert Bushnell Hart of Harvard university, historian and economist, in a published statement to-day warned against the belief that hostilities are at an end. Professor Hart said that the "Red Spectre" of bolshevism in Germany and Austria-Hungary might make it necessary for the American and allied troops to renew fighting at any time to prevent civil war in those countries.

IT WAS CLEARLY THE DUTY OF AMERICA AND THE ALLIED NATIONS, PROF. HART SAID, TO STEEM THE TIDE OF ANARCHY IN THE CENTRAL STATES UNTIL STABLE GOVERNMENTS WERE ORGANIZED TO MEET THE SITUATION.

APPEALS FOR FUNDS.

Secretary Baker and Provost Marshal Crowder Address People.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—Support for the United War Work campaign to uphold America's sons abroad in the important tasks of peace ahead of them, was asked to-day by Secretary Baker.

"I think all Americans now recognize the fair record of our army," said the war secretary, "but we must not fail also to appraise the work it has yet to do.

Following the exhilaration of combat comes the tedium of peace, but the tasks of peace are infinitely important and we must uphold our sons as they perform them. This drive for the United War Work fund is a direct challenge of the measure of our appreciation. It is our way to reach out arms of helpfulness to every distant place where the flag is unfurled for the healing of humanity."

Provost Marshal General Crowder issued a statement emphasizing that money for the welfare workers will be more needed now than during the war.

BASEBALL PICKING UP.

Plans Are Being Made For Big Revival Next Summer.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 15.—With the signing of peace terms, baseball in the minor leagues will be resumed on a larger scale than ever in the opinion of John H. Farrell of Auburn, N. Y., secretary of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, who to-day closed up the affairs of the annual meeting. Settlement of a dozen disputes involving various claims of players and clubs was made by the national board of arbitration.

Soldiers returning from the battlefields of France and the training camps will do much to bring baseball back to its former popularity, Secretary Farrell believes.

Definite plans for the resumption of the sport will be taken at a special meeting of the national association in Chicago after the first of the year, President M. H. Sexton said.

Are Sought to Administer the German Food Supply.

Amsterdam, Thursday, Nov. 14.—The new German government has issued an appeal to the peasant population, asking for the formation of peasants' councils for the purpose of organizing food supply. The appeal says such voluntary self-administration is better than bureaucratic organization and will avert recourse to compulsory measures.

U. S. SOLDIERS SUFFER SLUMP

Those Left in Home Camps Are Growing Rather Uneasy

AFTER CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES

War Department Views the Loss of Morale as Somewhat Alarming

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—Cessation of hostilities in Europe and disappearance of the prospect of meeting the enemy on the battlefield has brought an immediate loss of morale among American troops at home that is regarded as a war department as somewhat alarming. It is understood that steps to deal with the situation already are being prepared.

Upon news that the armistice had been signed, the mental attitude of the individual soldier is said to have undergone a marked change. Instead of bombardment of the immediate superiors with queries as to the probable date of entraining for the seaboard, he became anxious as to the date of his release from service.

More serious are reports by some commanding officers that their men are exhibiting a tendency to view themselves as already released from the strict routine of the camps. It is understood relatives of soldiers who have absented themselves will be asked to assist the authorities in having them returned promptly to spare the families the disgrace of having an armed guard sent, and with a view to mitigating the punishment of the offenders.

VERMONT WAR WORK FUND COMING ALONG

Total of $416,765 Was Reported Up to Last Night, Though Large Sum Yet Remains to Be Subscribed

Figures received at the headquarters of the state publicity department in Barre to-day show that Vermont is progressing steadily toward its quota in the United War Work campaign. Up to last night the sum of $416,765 had been subscribed. It remains to be said that much notwithstanding, if the state is to go over the top, as the 50 per cent over-subscription which the nation has been asked to register in view of the increased needs of the seven constituent organizations, makes it imperative that Vermont's gift to the boys shall be $706,000. The campaign closes Monday night, and by that time it is hoped that the United States, by contributing $250,000,000, will have completed the greatest free-will offering in history.

Washington county's total to date is $49,093, and the other counties have contributed as follows: Addison, $14,007; Bennington, $16,285; Caledonia, $43,360; Chittenden, $86,754; Essex, $3,414; Franklin, $26,651; Grand Isle, $650; Lamoille, $1,299; Orange, $4,249; Orleans, $13,714; Rutland, $81,080; Windham, $29,313; Windsor, $47,726.

Up to Wednesday night the per capita subscription of the students' division in Vermont led the students' divisions in every state in the union. Students in the Castleton normal school had subscribed $186.50. At Middlebury college, where the quota is $4,500, subscriptions totalled $3,630. Norwich university is far and away over the top. There the students have met an $1,800 quota with aggregate subscriptions of $3,750, and they are not through yet. The University of Vermont also makes a splendid showing, the subscription being $8,030, as against a quota of $7,000. Everywhere in the state the students' division is directing its efforts toward maintaining the lead established in the middle of the week.

DIDN'T TELL WHOLE STORY.

Germans Didn't Publish Armistice Terms Saying Allies Would Furnish Food.

Copenhagen, Nov. 15.—The Politiken quotes Colonel Wade, the British military attaché here, as saying in an interview that the Germans in publishing the terms of the armistice omitted six or seven articles, including that relating to the allies providing food if necessary.

COTTON PRICES JUMPED.

Advanced $10 a Bale Within Few Minutes on Cotton Exchange.

New York, Nov. 15.—Cotton advanced ten dollars a bale within a few minutes after the market opened here to-day. This represented the maximum of 200 points fixed, with a view to preventing undue speculation, as the limit for fluctuations during one day's trading.

The advance was attributed to heavy covering of some of the big short lines held by Liverpool, where the maximum limit of operations has been reduced to 50 points.

After the heavy buying here there was a reaction of almost 50 points on realizing by local brokers.

INFLUENZA IS CHECKED.

Total Number of Cases Is Reduced By One-Third.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—For the first time since Spanish influenza became epidemic in army camps at home, the surgeon general's weekly report shows the disease effectively checked, with indications of further improvement. Figures made public to-day record a decrease of about one-third in the number of cases for the week ending Nov. 8, as compared with the previous week. The total was 6,887, as compared with 18,176. Marked improvement generally was shown in the pneumonia situation.

Ovila W. Boyce of North Main street returned to the city yesterday after passing a few days at his former home in Malone, N. Y.

TWO GOOD MEETINGS HELD

In Barre Town Last Night in Interests of War Work Fund.

Rousing rallies in East Barre and up per Granitville last night drove home to the people of Barre Town the responsibilities of the United War Work campaign, which was launched Monday in behalf of the Salvation Army, the Y. M. C. A., the National Catholic War council, the Y. W. C. A., the Jewish Welfare board, the War Camp Community service and the American Library association. The meetings were held in the East Barre opera house and in Gilbert's theatre, where the hearty enthusiasm of the crowds readily attested to a general desire to help the boys over there. The speakers were Atty. Joseph Brennan of Boston, executive secretary of the National War council, C. D. Koppner, Y. M. C. A. worker recently returned from France, and former Senator Harry Daniels of East Montpelier, chairman of the Washington county committee. Harold P. Hinman, chairman of the state publicity committee, was an interlunatic speaker, for he stirred the Granitville audience to enthusiasm while it awaited the arrival of the other speakers. The Barre and drum band of Barre and Barre Town furnished excellent inspirational music for both meetings. A delegation of Barre men, including members of Barre council, Knights of Columbus, accompanied the speakers and musicians.

Dr. N. E. Avery, Barre Town chairman of the campaign committee, presided at both rallies. Chairman Daniels, in his prefatory remarks, said that Barre Town undoubtedly had sent a larger number of men per capita to the colors than any town in Vermont, and that it was due the boys over there to subscribe the quota of $5,000. It developed during the rallies that the Victory boys and girls in the town have been so thoroughly organized through the patriotic co-operation of the teachers, Mr. Koppner, of the Y. M. C. A., gave a vivid portrayal of his work in a "Y" unit that served with the French army for a year. He closed by urging his auditors not to desert the boys in the most critical moment of their fighting careers. Mr. Brennan talked at length and in a persuasive way on the salient purposes of the seven constituent organizations represented in the campaign. He lauded the American fighting man and made a powerful plea for contributions that will express in a material way the splendid victory of the allies.

NO BILL DRAFTERS

Although They Are Supposed to Be Appointed 30 Days Before Legislature.

Pursuant to the general laws, Sergeant-at-Arms Dwight Dwinell is mailing as fast as he can get the addresses of the members of legislature the required number of blank bills to be used by the members in drafting bills so that they may be ready in 30 days before the convening of the legislature send these to the legislative draftsmen, who as far as is known have not yet been appointed by the speaker of the House and lieutenant governor. The laws provide that the above officials shall be appointed on the first Friday of each term, but as far as the records of the last legislature show no appointment took place. Under the acts of 1915 the persons holding the office at that time were legislated out of office, it is understood, and no appointment to fill the vacancy has been made. It is understood that one of the men employed in that capacity during the last session of the legislature has been here to make arrangements for the opening of the session. The two draftsmen are under the law to be actually in session at least 30 days preceding the convening of the legislature.

TRYING COLLISION CASE.

A. A. Bianchi vs. Clinton Millar Taken Up To-day.

Different arrangements had to be made in Washington county court this morning when it was learned that the insurance cases could not be tried; and the case of A. A. Bianchi vs. Clinton Millar was started. This is a suit brought to recover damages which are alleged to have resulted from a collision of automobiles of the parties on Washington street in Barre. Mr. Millar has also brought suit against Mr. Bianchi.

During the intervening time while the court was waiting for the case of E. Gomez vs. the insurance case, it heard the petition brought by Stewart Cunningham vs. Agnes May Cunningham, a bill for divorce. It is a Northfield case. F. E. Gleason appeared for the petitioner.

The jury in the Bianchi vs. Millar case is as follows: W. H. Berdan, Waterbury; V. E. Ayers, Barre; E. D. Waldo, Cabot; B. L. Bell, Berlin; J. W. Mears, Marshfield; F. D. Banfill, Cabot; G. W. Luce, Montpelier; L. R. Walls, Middlesex; Edmond Eddy, Woodbury; C. D. Mather, Montpelier; W. E. Mills, Waitsfield; D. B. Bisbee, Waitsfield.

This morning when A. H. Buzzell was on the witness stand, Mr. Hoar asked him relative to the speed the Bianchi machine was running. Witness said he could not estimate it. Mr. Hoar asked if he had not driven in automobiles considerably to which Mr. Buzzell replied with a smile: "Ever since you owned that two-cylinder Cadillac," and a general smile spread over the court room.

The question appears to be whether Mr. Bianchi went too far in having the automobile overhauled, following the accident, and then asking for payment for the same by the insurance company.

WILL CONTEST SENATE SEATS

Democrats Give Notice That Newberry and Moses Must Fight

BRIBERY CHARGED IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

Recount Has Been Ordered in That State for Dec. 9

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—Contests of the election of two Republican senators—Truman H. Newberry of Michigan and George H. Moses of New Hampshire—were forecast in proceedings to-day before the Senate privileges and elections committee. Protests against the seating of both, elected on the face of the returns, were received by the committee, which deferred action.

On the face of returns, Newberry was elected over Henry Ford, the Democratic candidate, and Moses over John B. Jameson, Democrat, for the unexpired term of the late Senator Gallinger.

The protest against Moses was made in a telegram by Alexander Murchie, chairman of the New Hampshire Democratic state committee, who informed Chairman Pomeroy that charges of election bribery had been made and that a recount had been ordered for Dec. 9.

The committee had been planned to take up to-day consideration of the resolution authorizing an investigation into the primary campaign expenditures of Senator-elect Newberry, but action was temporarily postponed upon the receipt of a telegram from Elbert H. Fowler, secretary of the non-partisan Ford-for-Senate club, advising that he was committed to transmitting information concerning Newberry's alleged personal activities in the campaign. The committee decided to await the arrival of this information.

SUPREME COURT CONCLUDES.

A Chittenden County Case Was Presented Thursday Afternoon.

Final adjournment occurred in supreme court Thursday afternoon. The case of Chittenden County Trust Co. vs. Lyman C. Hurl, executor, was argued by J. H. Macomber and V. A. Bulford for the plaintiff. This is a foreclosure case upon property and came to this court upon an agreed statement of facts as per stipulations, with a cross bill brought by the defendants. The defendants did not argue their case but presented it upon briefs. Following this case a few minor matters were disposed of and then adjournment was taken.

With the final adjournment taking place, several cases were disposed of. The court appointed the commission who will hear the evidence relative to the disbarment of Ernest H. O'Brien of Rutland. The commission is composed of R. W. Hubbard, Hyde Park, W. H. Fairchild of Fairfield and trustee, Hunt of Montpelier. The application for a writ of error which R. A. Hoar is preparing connected with the Anna Felch case to take it to supreme court was not presented, but it can be presented to Justice Watson after the term closed.

In Rutland county the following cases were settled and discontinued: William Potter vs. Annette Piroos and Jennie Leonard, common counts, and Potter vs. the same defendants, tort, and Potter vs. Clarendon, contract.

In Chittenden county the case of E. J. Walker vs. Burlington was settled and discontinued, while the case of Clark vs. the Traveler's insurance company was continued. In Orleans county all cases were continued, while in Essex county the case of Stern Bros. vs. W. S. Currier is with the court by a presentation of briefs. The others were continued. These cases were heard by presentation on briefs: Wilson vs. Richardson, Robert Sykes vs. William Bartlett, tort, in which the lower court found the defendant was not liable, William Mayo, administrator, vs. E. F. Claffin, ejectment, in which the plaintiff received a verdict in the lower court.

All other cases were continued excepting those that have been mentioned as heard, excepting Lane vs. M. L. Wood and Lane Manufacturing Co., which was heard on briefs. The case of John Minns vs. Benjamin Gates was continued.

TALK OF THE TOWN

A daughter was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. LaBell of 10 Second street.

Rev. F. H. Lerrigo of New York was in Barre yesterday to confer with local clergymen and laymen over plans for a campaign which the Baptist denomination is to inaugurate next week.

The cover page of the current issue of the Granite Cutters' Journal bears a half-tone of the Powell memorial in Rowanoke, Va., which was cut in Barre granite.

The authorities are continuing their investigation of the allegation that the laws relating to cemetery interments were violated by a former sexton of the Beckley street cemetery recently. A number of persons who were connected with the case in one way or another have been interviewed. The board of health has been questioned as to the investigation which followed the charge that a body had been disinterred without permit and while the police have not concluded their inquiry, it is known that the necessary permit was not issued. This forenoon Grand Juror William Wisbart, who is directing the investigation, said that the inquiry might lead to developments in the near future.
