

"I had been troubled for a long time with chronic constipation and never found any relief that gave me the natural relief that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has." (From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Mr. I. Rosenthal, 6 W. 28th St., New York, N. Y.)

Nearly every disease can be traced to constipation. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that quickly relieves constipation and restores normal activity. It is gentle in its action and does not gripe.

SOUTH WALDEN

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Houston were guests at the home of her uncle, John Wilcox, in Greensboro last Sunday. Mrs. Charles French's niece is at her home. A. L. Beals was in St. Johnsbury on Tuesday to attend a conference. E. T. Goodenough and family were guests of his mother and sister in Plainfield Saturday. Mrs. Archie Miles and son, Lyman, have been spending the past week at her parents' in Stannard. Frank Wilcox and family visited at the home of his uncle, George Lovejoy, in Hardwick Sunday. George Smith is moving his family into the Thurston house.

VERSHIRE

Julia Picken has returned to her school in Bradford. Ray Cross and family have moved to Springfield. Harley Drugg was the truckman. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Billings of Springfield were in Vershire Monday and Mrs. Ormsby accompanied them home. She plans to spend the winter in Springfield. Mr. Pratt's people have company from Boston. Mrs. H. Mattoon and Mrs. E. Blanchard visited their sister, Mrs. Oscar Carlton of West Fairlee recently. On Friday, Nov. 1, Mrs. Ethel Church Lewis went to Brightlook hospital, St. Johnsbury, where she underwent serious operations, which at last news seemed successful. The following Thursday Nellie Spear Tuller was operated on at the Mary Hitchcock hospital, Hanover. She was accompanied to the hospital by her husband, mother and one sister, who stayed with her until this week. At last report she was doing well. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sleeper and Earl and Hugh went to see her Monday. While Vershire doesn't lack in square miles, she is far short of other towns in population, but all the same, Vershire wants to go over the top, and when the peace or armistice news came, bells rang and the people hurried about to have a celebration. A fine program was hastily arranged and well rendered, music, reading and speeches by Mr. Conant, our coming representative, John Sleeper and others. Cake and coffee were served in abundance, after which the young people enjoyed music and dancing. It was the biggest event here since the boys' farewell parties.

CABOT

At the last Red Cross meeting, held Friday, Nov. 8, reports of the past year's proceedings were read and accepted. The society now numbers 325 members, 68 juniors. From Oct. 1, 1917, to Oct. 1, 1918, has been a prosperous year financially and much work has been completed and sent to headquarters, valued at $1,612.10. The treasury now contains $602.06. Articles made included: 60 Christmas bags, 40 comfort bags, 270 pairs of socks, 27 helmets, 70 sweaters, 60 pajamas, 104 aprons, 30 dresses, 10 boys' shirts, 42 bandages, 10 chemises, 46 mullers, 107 pairs of wristers, 24 drawers, 6 hot water bag covers, 1 cap. The following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. Florence Norris; vice-president, J. W. Butterfield; secretary, Esther Wells; treasurer, Frank McAllister; finance committee, Mrs. Bertha Marsh, Fred Marsh, Ralph Mayo; supply committee, Mrs. Earl Rogers, Mrs. H. W. Dane, Mrs. Gertrude Wells; membership committee, Miss Eva Clough, Mrs. C. F. Mack, Mrs. Howard Carpenter; civic relief committee, Rev. F. E. Currier, Mrs. Kate Gould; cutting and distributing committee, Miss Rose Boswell, Mrs. Lina Wheeler, Mrs. Nettie Nelson; inspector, Mrs. Etta Walbridge; auditor, Mrs. Annie McAllister; publicity, Mrs. Ida Barr, Mrs. Myrtle Voody, Mrs. Carrie Smith, Mrs. J. M. Southwick. Through the generosity and kindness of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dane, who opened a room in their home free of charge, our society has had comfortable quarters. At this meeting a rising vote of thanks from the society was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Dane. Thursday, Nov. 7, there came rushing over the wires the news that peace was declared and for over four hours the church bells rang, sounding forth the joyful tidings, only to meet disappointment ere the dawn of the next morning. Nevertheless enthusiasm did not die out and Monday morning the same bells again rang out the same report, which was founded on a solid basis that war was over. School bells, farm bells and whistles were put to work, while the sound of gongs was heard in adjoining towns. Shortly after dark 200 or more citizens wended their way to the hilltop in Dr. Warren's park, where, the previous afternoon, men and school children had cut and erected a mound of evergreens and wood, from the top of which was a gallows, from which the effigy of the kaiser was finally suspended and as the flames leaped higher and the shouting of the crowd "Hang him! Hang him!" increased, the image fell amid the roaring mass. Sheets of "Red, red, red" were waved for the soldier and sailor and navy boys, and the United States of America. The "Star Spangled Banner," "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and "Tipperary" were sung. Short speeches from townspeople helped to make the occasion jovial and one long to be remembered. At the close the crowd were invited to I. O. G. T. hall, where refreshment of cookies and coffee were served. The church bells and all others that could be rung, joined by a home-made band, kept up constant joviality until the midnight hour, and when the boys came home let us all be as enthusiastic in welcoming them.

MORETOWN

Mrs. D. C. Turner returned to her home in Montpelier Wednesday after a visit at M. R. Child's, her brother. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bates were in Montpelier and Barre Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sherman and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Farnsworth were in Montpelier Friday to attend the funeral of Guy Sherman. Fuller and Foster Slayton of Barre were at W. L. Wilcox' Monday and Tuesday. SOUTH RYEGATE

Gordon A. Smith went to Camp Devens Saturday night to visit his brother, George K. MacDonald, who expects to leave in a few days for a training camp in Maryland. Willard Backley had the misfortune to fracture his right arm in cranking an automobile Monday. Pvt. Leroy Williams of Camp Devens spent Sunday in town. Miss Dora Farquharson came home from Dover, N. H., last week to complete her recovery from a severe attack of influenza. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McLain were in St. Johnsbury Tuesday. Norman Bone has decided not to return to Montpelier seminary this year. The other students, George Fisk, Roberta Brock and Dorothy Grant, went back at the reopening of the seminary. Miss Celia Ingraham is at home after her season at the Dimock farm in Topham. Mrs. Robert Farquharson is confined to the bed with an attack of neuritis. She returned Thursday from Dover, N. H., where she went to care for her daughter, Dora, and was taken sick there. Miss Ruth Ingraham has returned to the Vail school at Lyndon. Ray Bailey left for Kineo, Me., on Wednesday, to get his automobile, which was left there when he came home to take his examination by the local draft board. The local Red Cross is richer by $4.00, which was obtained from a bushel of potatoes donated by Ernest Grapes. Mrs. Annie Holmes of Barre, who has been employed at Sugar Hill, N. H., the past season, is staying a few days with Mrs. M. F. McDonald on her way home. E. E. Wallace, local manager for H. P. Hood & Sons, is taking a vacation at his home in Derby. Alonzo Rogers of Danby is taking his place. The impromptu parade and peace celebration Monday night did little to the energy and patriotic spirit of the village. Rev. George Squires of Proctorville has been appointed pastor of the Federated church in Charlemont, Mass.

BETHEL

A. N. Newell and Richard Wynn Have a Partnership Deer. A. N. Newell and Richard Wynn, hunting yesterday in Stockbridge, shot together at a huge buck, dressing nearly 250 pounds, with nine-point antlers, and brought him down. Which fired the fatal shot neither hunter knows. One or the other of them will report to the warden, the meat will be divided and the other will try again. Harry J. Chadwick of St. Albans, a former resident, with three other St. Albans men, is at "The Ranch," a favorite hunting station in the north part of the town. About 70 people attended a chicken-pie supper given last evening by the Methodist ladies' aid society. About 25 books taken from the public library before the influenza epidemic have not been returned. If returned now Saturday no fines will be charged, but if not returned then, fines will be charged from the time the library was reopened, Nov. 2. The ladies of the Universalist church will hold their annual fair Dec. 5 and 6. There will be a chicken-pie supper the first night and a rousing play the next. Mrs. Barbara (Poduzzi) Caranchini and Mrs. Fred Wagner were in Barre Monday and on Wednesday Mrs. Caranchini went to Waterbury to visit her sister and children, who are sick. Guy M. Farr returned yesterday from Bellows Falls, where he has been working. B. C. Rogers lately received a letter from his son, Sgt. Averill Rogers of the U. S. marine corps, the first intimation the father has had of his son's arrival overseas. Daniel Stoddard, a veteran of the Civil war and senior vice commander of Daniel Lillie post, has trapped two fine foxes lately.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Look Young! Nobody Can Tell If You Use Grandmother's Simple Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

EAST RANDOLPH

Mrs. Nora (Camp) Granger died of pneumonia at the Red Cross emergency hospital in Windsor Nov. 7. The remains were brought to East Randolph. The services and burial were Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the village cemetery. Her pastor, Rev. Hazelton of Chelsea, officiated. Mrs. Granger was born in Worcester Aug. 24, 1890, only child of Arthur H. and Julia (Utton) Camp. She was married to Clarence Granger Oct. 21, 1913, and is survived, besides her husband, by two sons, Arthur Howard, four years, and Harold Clarence, two years old. Although she had not been well for some time, her final sickness was of short duration. She was taken ill Thursday night, but did not consider it serious when the physician was called. The immediate cause of her death was heart failure. Mr. Hazelton gave splendid tribute to the memory of the departed. There were many lovely floral tributes, which testified to the esteem of her many friends. Two little children without any mother; Two little hearts all yearning for love. Why does God take those who here seem most needed; Take them away from the ones that they love?

ORANGE

Never before did the bell in the old church peal so happy as it is pealing to its people as it did at 4 o'clock Monday morning. In answer to it, other bells, drums and horns chimed in until the glorious news penetrated every valley and climbed each hill. We are a small town, but we are largely represented in the service, and it is with thanksgiving we lay a great burden of sorrow. The Center school showed their spirit and enterprise by a parade at noon and a celebration in the afternoon. Ernest and Stanley Curtis have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Curtis, for a few days. Stanley left for a cantonment in South Carolina Sunday night. Ernest will return to his duties as a fireman on the Central Vermont railroad in a few days. The war work drive is on. Be ready to lend a little home comfort and cheer to the boys when the solicitor visits you. Arthur Flanders is visiting his father, R. C. Flanders, during deer season. R. P. Lord has returned to Syracuse, N. Y., after spending the summer at his old home here.

Bay State Paints For Every Purpose WADSWORTH, HURLOW & CO. Inc. Boston, Mass.

They're making history in France and now they want to study it!

THEY are going to have a chance to study history at first-hand as soon as peace comes. And they are going to have a chance to study lots of other things—from cooking to carpentry, from electricity to economics, from tailoring to telegraphy, from civics to cobbling, from art to agriculture.

That's going to be the big job of these United War Work organizations as soon as peace is declared.

Under the direction of the Army, plans have been worked out to let our fighters go to school—to give men vocational and technical training that will fit them to earn more when they return than they did before they left—to open up the English and French universities for higher education—to organize correspondence courses so that however isolated a man may be, he can benefit by these advantages.

While they are right on the ground they will be able to visit places where European history has been made.

Instructors will be drawn from the Army and a thousand civilians are sailing for France to supplement the mighty force of educators now in France.

This is but one phase of the plans for demobilization—to make the change from military back to civil life a period of profit for our fighters. It is only one reason for you to give more than you thought you would, for the work of these organizations will never cease until the last of our fighters is safely back at home.

WASHINGTON

Nearly all the town has been canvassed in the interests of the war relief drive. Our town quota is $792, a sum too large to raise by subscription alone. In order to obtain the full amount called for, a two-night carnival has been planned to take place Friday and Saturday evenings at schoolhouse hall. Goods of all sorts are to be donated and sold at auction. A mystery table will be well piled with five- and ten-cent articles. A table of fancywork, china, etc., will attract all searching for Christmas gifts. On Friday evening a dance will be held, at which a box supper will be a leading feature. All ladies are asked to bring boxes, each containing the name of the lady carrying it. These will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. Coffee will be on sale at this time. On Saturday evening a large crowd is expected to attend the auction. Calves, pigs, poultry, vegetables, wood and other articles of interest will be sold at this time. It is hoped everyone will be in attendance both nights. Bring a lunch box Friday night and come prepared to bid and buy both Friday and Saturday evenings. Seven hundred and ninety-two dollars is a large sum for a small town to raise, but we have met all quotas given us so far and must continue to do for our boys and girls over there.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends who by their letters and kind words have shown how deeply they sympathized with us in the hour of our bereavement. Mrs. V. E. Jeffords, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Seaver, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Beaver.
