Says corns stop hurting, then lift right off without one bit of pain

Hospital records show that every time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poisoning, which is needless, says a Cincinnati authority, who tells you that a quarter ounce of a drug called Irozone costs but a few cents at any drug store but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callous without even one little twinge of pain.

WATERBURY

Sergt. Alex Conbrough, Australian, Gave Address in Behalf of Relief Fund.

At a mass meeting in the Waterbury opera house Sunday evening, in the interest of the Armenian-Syrian relief drive, Sergt. Alex Conbrough of the Australian army delivered the most graphic and stirring address that has been heard during the war.

Annoying Kidney Ills

Make Life Miserable for Many Barre People.

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions. Night and day alike, the sufferer is tormented, and what with the burning and scalding, the attendant backache, headache and dizziness, life is, indeed, a burden.

C. H. Sinonds, carpenter, 6 Beckley court, says: "My kidneys caused me considerable annoyance by acting irregularly. The secretions contained brick-dust-like sediment and were highly colored. I had sharp, shooting pains across my back that interfered with my work. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, and the benefit they gave me has been permanent."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sinonds had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

NEWBURY

Last Thursday, Jan. 16, Robert M. Messer commenced the 80th year of his existence on this mundane sphere. Here in the pleasant home of his son, Milo, invited friends, friends who knew him in his boyhood, his early manhood and his vigorous prime, gathered to enjoy with him the serenity which years had brought.

Mr. Messer's health is not of the best but his mind is clear as a bell and time has not abated his indomitable energy. His mind is a storehouse of reminiscences of 50 and 60 years ago, which makes him a most enjoyable companion. Here on this historical farm, in a home which surrounds him with every comfort, in this home which faces the rising sun and an outlook on the broad meadows, the beautiful Connecticut and the mountains in the distance, this man of 80 years can enjoy the fruits of his labor and with the psalmist can say, "My life has fallen in pleasant places."

A most impressive service was held Sunday afternoon in the Congregational church, conducted by Rev. Henry S. Ives and Rev. Orrin W. Brock, in memory of Earl E. Brock, who gave up his life in the service of his country in a foreign land. Of the 38 boys of our town, he was the only one who lost his life in action. The large number present showed their respect for the dead and their sympathy for the afflicted parents. What seemed to make the service doubly impressive was that the speakers themselves were passing through the sea of a similar affliction and their words of sympathy came from stricken fathers who knew whereof they spoke, and which touched a responsive chord in the hearts of those present and gave the large congregation the impression that it was in a holy place, the house of mourning, the presence of God.

Life is a great artist. Sometimes it makes a woman's face, refining through suffering and sorrow, chiselling rough features through pain into fine ones. Sometimes it makes the wrinkled, faded face of an old woman beautiful through the sheer goodness stamped upon. These thoughts came to the writer as standing beside the open casket of an aged woman who passed from this world into the life of the beyond Sunday morning, Jan. 5. Almira Clement was born in North Groton, N. H., Aug. 21, 1842. On Feb. 21, 1869, she was married to William Aldrich and for a few years their home was in Westmoreland, N. H. Here four children were born, only two now living, Mrs. Whitney of this place, and Mrs. C. H. Wood of Brockton, Mass. These ministering daughters were with her until the last and did everything in their power to alleviate her sufferings. The last few years of her life were spent in Newbury, where she was a member of the First Congregational church and like the Mary of old did what she could to help carry on the work of the Master. Her funeral took place from the home of her daughter Wednesday, Jan. 8, Rev. Henry S. Ives officiating, and her remains were taken to Post Mills for interment in the family lot.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dame have received word their son, William, has arrived safely from overseas and is stationed at present in a southern camp. E. N. Sumner arrived home Friday, discharged from the navy. Mr. Sumner enlisted last February and since that time has made eight trips across, in the transport Antigone.

Miss Eleanor Clark, teacher training instructor at the Randolph high school, was the recent guest of Helen Wheeler. Mr. and Mrs. John Ford of Northfield Falls were Sunday guests at L. F. Abel's.

SOUTH BARRE

Mrs. Lena Robertson; vocal solo, Miss Sylvia Beaubien; suggestions as to what things this grange can do to hold its members, led by C. W. Webster; vocal selection, Misses Owens, Watson and Thow. To be forewarned is forearmed; gentlemen, be sure you pick the right state or you will never see the capital.

CABOT

On account of influenza, Morrill W. R. C. No. 45, did not hold its regular meeting Jan. 16, but will hold a call meeting Thursday, Jan. 23, for initiation and installation and to transact such business as can legally be done at a call meeting. A good attendance is desired. Be sure and read S. C. Voodry's adv. in another column of to-day's paper.

INDIGESTION AND CONSTIPATION

Quickly Relieved By "Fruit-a-lives"

"I suffered for many years with terrible indigestion and constipation. A neighbor advised 'Fruit-a-lives' (or Fruit Liver Tablets). I tried them. To the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve and he advised me to go on with 'Fruit-a-lives'."

I consider that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-lives" and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches—try "Fruit-a-lives" and you will get well. CORINE GAUDREAU. 70c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or from FRUIT-A-LIVES Limited, OGDENSBURG, N. Y.

RANDOLPH

The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Fish was held from the home of her father, Orville Carey, on Pearl street on Monday forenoon.

The influenza patients are now thought to be improving and there have been fewer new cases reported in the last few days, some of the doctors not having a new one on Saturday. It is hoped that the crisis is passed and that from this time there will be an improvement in conditions. Mrs. Peter Lazell and her daughters, all ill, are thought to be improving.
