

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH
Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Al! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.
Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.—Adv.

Switzerland, the asylum of ex-monarchs.

St. Johnsbury hopped from the frying-pan into the fire on the license question.

The Germans won't give up the Rhine but they may consent to have it taken from them.

The way Von Bernstorff sticks to Wilson's 14 points might indicate that he was impaled on one of them.

We commend the spirit of the legislator at Montpelier who declared: "I want to go home feeling that I haven't soaked everybody."

Add to the war casualties: Three killed, 100 injured so that they had to be taken to hospitals and several hundred more bruised—all in an effort to see the war heroes parade down Fifth avenue.

If the readers of the St. Johnsbury Republican follow the admonition of that paper and set their clocks "back" an hour next Sunday they will find themselves just about two hours late for doing business with the remainder of the country. Of course, it was only a slip of the contemporary's pen (or typewriter) which put "back" in place of ahead.

A man who is at liberty pending an appeal on conviction for sedition has been nominated for mayor of the city of Butte, Mont. It doesn't speak well for the political party which thereby turned down a former army officer on the issue of Americanism. In fact, it seems to be up to the voters of the city to turn to and elect the candidate of the other party if it desires to retain the good opinion of the country as a whole.

The necessary machinery of operation in Vermont ought to be set at work at once to aid the Vermont boys of the 302d field artillery to bring back their regimental colors from France, as the boys suggested in a recent letter to Governor Clement they desire to do. This letter stated that the majority of the regiment was made up of Vermonters, which fact would seem to make the state entitled to receive the regimental colors. A claim, or a request, for the colors ought to be put in at once.

The Germans have got to that stage of getting their "second wind" in which they boldly assert that they will not sign a treaty which is not inspired by "impartiality, justice and reconciliation." If Germany had ever shown a spirit inspired by impartiality, justice and reconciliation it could come to the peace conference with such a demand; but, unfortunately for Germany's prospects, it cannot be said that its government ever displayed such a spirit. German impartiality! German justice! Think of Belgium. Think of the Lusitania! Think of sinking hospital ships!

It Can Be Done

Death sentence has been passed upon the old excuse, "It is impossible for me to save money these days."

Every person who is buying Liberty Bonds on the installment plan is demonstrating the truth of the old adage, "If there is a will, there is a way."

We believe that thousands of patriotic Americans, now learning to save money under the spur of Patriotism, will become permanent converts to the Thrift habit, and America will be a better America for it.
