Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

Walter B. Gibbs, who pleaded guilty to stealing hens from Ray Matt of Marlboro, was sentenced in Brattleboro municipal court to two months in Newfane jail.

Mrs. Hattie G. Young Phelps, wife of Frank Phelps, died at her home in Bellows Falls April 7 of rheumatism. She was born in Royalton 65 years ago.

W. D. Bull found a dead deer near the shore of Lake Bomoseen in Hydeville a few days ago. The deer apparently had jumped over a ledge and broken his neck.

Ruth McNaughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max McNaughton of Middlebury, was badly burned about the chest Sunday by hot gravy, which was spilled when the child ran against her grandmother, who was carrying the dish of gravy.

H. C. Avery of Bradford has been chosen captain of the Dartmouth college track team. Avery led the cross-country team last year and is regarded as the green's best man at the distance runs.

St. Paul's Episcopal church, Burlington, has extended a call to Rev. S. H. Watkins of New York City to become its pastor, succeeding Rev. George W. Davenport, who is secretary of the Seaman's Institute, New York City. Mr. Watkins was formerly rector of St. James' church at Arlington and of St. Luke's church at St. Albans. He has been in New York five years.

Dr. A. R. Bell narrowly escaped serious injury Friday as he was walking along the street in Enosburg Falls. A team belonging to E. H. Perkins of Bakerfield and driven by his young son ran into him, the shaft piercing the heavy fur-lined overcoat. The frightened horse reared and dragged the doctor about 25 feet before the coat gave way, leaving a portion on the shaft. Dr. Bell suffered a severe shaking up and sustained a badly bruised knee.

Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, who is to retire from the editorship of Zion's Herald, the Methodist weekly of New England, the last of this month, after a service of 30 years, was born in Vermont. He united with the Vermont conference in 1875, his first church being at Hyde Park. After supplying two other churches in the state he went to New Hampshire, going to Boston in 1888 as editor of the paper from which he now withdraws on account of advancing age.

BECOMES PUBLICITY DIRECTOR. Miss Lena Hamilton to Urge War Savings Stamp Sale.

Waterbury, April 9.—Mrs. D. C. Jones has returned from Boston, where she attended a conference of war savings publicity directors of New England. Mrs. Jones is state manager of the savings division of the Public Service company in Vermont, of which Mrs. Edward Curtis Smith of St. Albans is state director. Miss Lena Hamilton of St. Albans, who is state publicity chairman of the woman's Liberty loan committee of Vermont, has been appointed state publicity director for the war savings division.

WANT TO EXTEND LINE. St. Albans and Fairfax Co. Wants to Go to Burlington.

Burlington, April 9.—The Vermont public service commission held a hearing yesterday at the Vermont hotel on the application of the Public Service company of St. Albans and Fairfax to extend its line to Burlington and through the streets of the city and to increase its capital stock.
