

When Buying a Refrigerator Get the Best

The Food Bill, the Ice Bill, and the Doctor Bill are closely related.

This fact is becoming better understood every year, and to-day very few people are satisfied with anything but the most perfect of refrigerators, gladly doing without something else, rather than risk the family's health with a poor refrigerator.

We handle the Monarch line of refrigerators. They are made by manufacturers who know how to construct the Best in a refrigerator. Built of the best materials obtainable, and we believe we have the refrigerator ideal, reasonable in price, built to last and give economical service.

Ash cases, white enamel or galvanized lined. Top icing and side icing features. Prices from $16.65 to $31.50. Investigation will cost you little.

Those who have unpaid pledges can be of great help in the matter by going to the war chest rooms and paying same. Those who cannot go there, however, will be waited upon by Miss Hoar.

The body of Mrs. Harriet Little, who died during the winter in Miami, Fla., where she had been since December, is expected in Barre to-day, her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Drew, having left with the body last Wednesday. Should the party arrive as specified, the burial service for Mrs. Little will be held at Elmwood cemetery Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. B. Reardon officiating. Mrs. Drew will be with friends at 16 Merchant street while in Barre.

Miss Glynora Gould of 58 Spaulding street was most pleasantly surprised Thursday evening by 21 young lady friends, who had met at the home of her friend, Miss Harriet Houston, of 53 Maple avenue. A miscellaneous shower of kitchen utensils, a beautiful banjo clock, and other useful articles were presented to the young lady. Miss Gould could not comprehend the meaning at first, of so many of her friends being present, but soon learned that information concerning her marriage to W. W. Cummings some time in the near future had reached the ears of her friends. Refreshments, music and other diversions contributed to the enjoyment of the evening.

Mrs. Nellie McCarthy of 11 Summer street was the recipient of a letter yesterday from her son, Charles, a sailor on the scouting cruiser Chester, which anchored in New York harbor Thursday morning. Two years ago he enlisted and for the past 21 months has been sailing in foreign waters. During the war his boat aided as a convoy several times when troops were being transported to England and France, though not once since his leave from America has the crew been allowed to go ashore except in foreign lands. The Chester sailed from Murmansk, Russia, an inland town about 50 miles from the White sea, located on the Tola river, and went to Plymouth, England. After a brief stay at Plymouth, anchor was pulled and at once the homeward journey began. Seaman McCarthy expects to obtain a furlough very soon.

Very Good, Indeed A. D. S. Cod Liver Extract

Cordial form simply means a wine-like composition of very tasty character, serving as a vehicle in which to carry the active medicinal principles of cod liver extract. It makes a body builder, lung strengthener, flesh restorer, general system tonic, unequalled by any other kind of combination. Recovering from colds, weak systems, emaciated bodies, and for chronic coughs and colds, here is a preparation that can be depended upon.

He Knew Them.

"I told you," said the merchant, "to mark this box 'Handle with care.'"

"That," replied the college graduate, "is the Latin for 'Handle with care.'"

"Huh! How do you expect a baggage man to understand that?"

"He won't, and therefore he won't get mad and smash the box."—Boston Transcript.
