All veterans of the Spanish American war are urgently requested to meet in front of the opera house Sunday morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of marching with the G. A. R. veterans to the Congregational church, where Memorial Sunday exercises will be held.

A special program of interest has been scheduled for the Sunday evening service at the Hedding M. E. church. Capt. Harold Cutler, assistant with the dental corps, and 1st Lieut. Neale Hooker of the famous 102d regiment, will give messages on their experiences in France. Everybody is welcome.

A regular meeting of the Purple consulate of the I. O. O. L. M. U., was held at the home of Mrs. Helen Stephen, 56 Pleasant street, Tuesday evening. After transacting the business a delicious luncheon of assorted sandwiches, cake, fruit and coffee was served and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all.

H. A. Aseltine and wife of Randolph have disposed of their farm in that town to Henry A. Phelps of this city. Mr. Phelps purchases for investment and in the transaction Mr. and Mrs. Aseltine become the possessors of a two-tenement house on Long street. The farm consists of 150 acres and will be occupied by Mr. Aseltine and family until Nov. 1, giving him an opportunity to reap the harvests of his spring's work.

Forrest Willey, now a veterinary in the regular army and stationed at a southern camp, stepped off an incoming train yesterday for a short vacation with his friends and relatives in this locality. Willey has seen extensive service both at the Mexican border and in France, having left with Co. H when the Mexican trouble called out the National Guard forces. Again he volunteered for service and enlisted in the regular army for a period of three years, six months of which must now be served before he can be discharged.

Kenneth Macrae, for nearly four years manager of the Union Dry Goods store and latterly of Athol, Mass., has reserved space at room 10, Miles granite block, where on Saturday, May 24, he will again wait on the public with a select line of women's apparel and fancy goods. At present Mr. Macrae plans to deal exclusively in smaller accessories, but as business warrants will carry a complete line of read-to-wear garments. His past success and honest dealing will no doubt insure him liberal patronage. He extends a cordial welcome to every lady in this vicinity to make a call and inspect his stocks, just in from the markets.

Winnetta council, D. of P., entertained last night in Clan Gordon hall, Grand Sachem Brockington of Brattleboro, Past Sachem Barrett of Montpelier and Great Keeper of Wampum Dawley of Montpelier on an official visit to the local organization. Five palanquins were initiated into the ranks during the evening. Each of the visiting officials were called on to make a few remarks, after which a social time followed by dancing was indulged in by a large delegation. Music for the dancing was furnished by Cooper and Prøeland. Mrs. Alex McHaffie favored the company with a solo. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and wafers were served by the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Moss of Boston arrived yesterday for a brief business visit and in the meantime called on Mr. and Mrs. Levin of Merchant street, their relatives.

Mrs. Carrie Fitts received a cablegram this morning stating that Harold Fitts sailed from Bordeaux to-day on the Santa Clara with the 161st transportation guards.

John Hakkanen, arrested yesterday afternoon on an intoxication charge, pleaded not guilty in city court this morning, whereupon his case was continued until to-morrow morning.

Miss Catherine McLaughlin, sister of Mrs. John O'Leary of 24 Eastern avenue, returned to her home in Winchendon, Mass., after passing a three weeks' vacation in this city.

The members of Clan Gordon will attend divine service at the Baptist church on Sunday morning at 10:30. The pastor will preach a special sermon on "True Manhood." A cordial invitation is extended to all.
