

There Should Be a Refrigerator in Every Home

It lessens the work of the housewife.

It increases the efficiency and earning power of the man.

It promotes the health of the whole family, and health is wealth.

It provides properly chilled drinks in hot weather and keeps the milk sweet and cool for the children.

It enables a hungry man to find a lunch when he wants it, because he knows where to look for it.

It is a sanitary food storage plant—simple in construction and economical in operation.

It is said that an army travels on its stomach—so does the working man or woman, the business man and professional man—all get their energy from food.

That is where you get yours.

We will be pleased to show you a complete line of well-made refrigerators at moderate prices.

Mrs. William McCarthy of Hartford, Conn., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tassie of 11 Cliff street, for a few days. Mrs. McCarthy will be remembered as Miss Anna Tassie.

Arthur L. Averill and wife left this morning for Buffalo, N. Y., for a week's vacation with relatives. The return trip will be made by automobile. Mr. Averill having agreed to drive a new Cadillac car back for H. G. Bennett.

The body of William Rizzi, whose death occurred yesterday morning at the Pembroke sanatorium at Concord, N. H., from tuberculosis, arrived in the city this morning and was taken to the home of L. G. Rizzi of 1 Cornhill street to await burial this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A piano recital will be given by Miss Hazel Mackay, assisted by George F. Mackay, baritone soloist, at Miss Gladys N. Gale's studio, 48 Wellington street, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. A postponed musical of the Barre Woman's club. The general public is invited at the usual 15 cents admission.

John Tomasi, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Tomasi of Merchant street, and Allan Johnston, son of Mrs. Isabelle Johnston of 77 Blackwell street, returned yesterday to the University of Vermont, where both are students, after several days, passed at their homes. To-day examinations, closing the years work, begin.

Miss Doris Eastman, daughter of Mrs. Thomas H. Cave, jr., of 29 Wellington street, returned last night to her home after completing the first year's work at Mount Holyoke college at South Hadley, Mass. College sessions ended last week and since that time Miss Eastman has been visiting friends in Boston and vicinity.

William Dunbar, representing R. Hanson & Co. of Chicago, one of the largest retail monumental firms in the country, returned to his home city last night after having been in Barre on business for several days, during which he placed some fine big contracts with local dealers. Mr. Dunbar will be remembered as a former resident of Barre for many years.

The Vermont Retail Dealers' association is planning for a big summer outing at Lake Willoughby around June 19, and to this end, preparations are fast being made to make it a worthy one. George N. Tilden, one of the committee in charge of the affair, hopes to hold a dinner early in the day and a banquet in the evening. Field sports, boating, everything that is amusement of the highest type, will be introduced, together with a few speakers, scheduled for the occasion.

Last evening at the City park the second band concert of the season was well appreciated by a large group of people from many of the surrounding towns as well as Barre residents. The City band, under the leadership of W. Gilbertson, cornetist, produced the results from the winter months' practicing, furnishing a fine quality of music. After the concert a dance was held in Howard's hall and young people from various parts of the state contributed somewhat to the large crowd that filled the hall.

George Thompson of Brook street has gone to Montreal at the request of the Canadian army officials to decide upon some trade or study of some sort that will better him for his life's work. He will be able to choose any vocation he wishes and after that will receive eight months' training at the expense of the Canadian government. It will be remembered that Mr. Thompson, who served in the Canadian army with the 5th Grenadier Guards, was the first wounded soldier to return to this city. He saw extensive service in France and owing to the seriousness of his condition, effects of trench feet and gas, he was sent to his home with a medical discharge. He plans to visit friends in Barre around July 4.

HELPED WHEN ON VERGE OF A BREAKDOWN

Bridgeport Resident Grateful for Relief Secured by Treatment With Blood Builder.

Cases of walking sickness are known to everyone. The victims include those who keep on working from day to day when it seems as though a breakdown is inevitable. They complain of nervousness, sleeplessness, exhaustion, indigestion and sometimes heart fluttering and the pains of rheumatism, sciatica or neuralgia. For such there is hope in the tonic treatment recommended by Mrs. William Walker of No. 146 Cedar street, Bridgeport, Conn. She says: "By gradual stages my condition became so bad that I was on the verge of a nervous breakdown. My stomach caused me great distress, especially from gas, and when I tried to gain rest through sleep I tossed about and generally arose more tired than when I went to bed. My appetite was poor, and at times I was unable to do my work. There were aches all over my body and dizzy spells invariably came on when I stooped over."

"I had read a great deal about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try the remedy. There was a change for the better in a short time, and gradually my strength came back. My stomach was so much better that I could eat a hearty meal without distress, and I slept well. The dizzy spells have entirely disappeared, my nerves have gained strength, and I feel fine. I owe my present condition to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Your own druggist can supply you with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or you can order direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., enclosing fifty cents for one box or $2.00 for six boxes. Write to-day for the free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System."—Adv.

Camp Billings Opens July 2.

Camp Billings is located at Fairlee lake near South Fairlee, Vt., about 25 miles north of White River Junction, the gift of the Billings family of Woodstock. It is owned and maintained by the Windsor County Young Men's Christian association committee, and has cared for nearly 800 boys and girls in the past 12 years, representing nearly every community in the county and several outside. During the coming season it will provide a splendid summer vacation and outing as in the past, continuing to give a limited amount of definite instruction.

The county Y. M. C. A. committee provides the supervision, equipment and instruction—campers being charged for board only and that at low rates considering the high cost of provisions and wages for cooks.

Secretary and Mrs. A. C. Hurd will be in personal charge of the camp, assisted by Principal C. L. Joy of the Hartford high school and a group of experienced counsellors and leaders. Miss Katherine Hobbs of Worcester, Mass., has been employed as counsellor and instructor in hours' old economy and the committee plans to employ a swimming instructor within a few days. Complete lists of all leaders, counsellors and instructors will be both mailed on request and published within a few days.

Teachers, office girls and clerks in their teens or early twenties may avail themselves of the privilege of Camp Billings during July. New equipment is being added again this year, including tents, a splendid chemical toilet system, motor boat, large hotel range and the property generally improved, making it one of the best appointed camp sites in New England.

The camp, while unsectarian, is given a Christian atmosphere and each camper is constantly under the most careful surveillance. Reference, application blanks and descriptive folder with photographs mailed on request to Y. M. C. A. office, White River Junction, Vt.

Inasmuch as the accommodations are limited, applications should be sent in early. A few girls and boys from about Vermont can attend, provided they get their applications in early.

A party of 30 from Boston and Worcester, Mass., spent three days in fishing at Caspian lake, Greensboro, recently and landed some big fish.

To get rid of the elm tree beetle, trees in Middlebury are being sprayed by the village trustees with the new sprayer owned by the town.
