

E. BARRECHURCH ANNIVERSARY

Congregational Society Fittingly Observed 25th Milestone

LARGE AUDIENCES, MARKED INTEREST Many Speakers Were Heard in the Two Days' Program

The 25th anniversary of the East Barre Congregational church was observed July 27 and 28. Rev. C. H. Merrill, D. D., secretary of the Vermont Missionary society, preached the anniversary sermon from the text I Tim. 3:15, "The Church of the Living God."

Dr. Merrill said in substance that the church is different from all other institutions. It is in a class by itself. He spoke of the three great institutions in life, the home, the state and the church. The home stands for social culture, the state for political privileges and the church for moral and religious culture. All three are indispensable to normal life. Fraternal orders that minister to the welfare of their members in different ways owe their existence to the church and what it stands for. The church is the mother of all kindly and helpful organizations, and is divine in its origin, the representative of Jesus Christ and the agent that is bringing in the kingdom of God. It is in the world to do a special work; to bring man into right relationship with God. It exists for worship, for the culture of the spiritual life in man. It should do its work in a thorough, businesslike way. It is in the world to instruct religiously and this it does through the preaching service, the Sunday school and the Y. P. S. C. E. It is in the world as an evangelizing agency, to carry the gospel to the "untarmparts of the earth." It is in the community to serve in all possible ways, to transform and Christianize life in all of its departments. The sermon was strong, practical and fervent and was much enjoyed by the congregation.

At 7 o'clock Sunday a praise service was held, followed with selections by the choir and a solo by Miss Georgia Palmer. Rev. F. L. Goodspeed, D. D., pastor of the Barre Congregational church, preached an able and interesting sermon on the topic, "What the Church Stands For."

Dr. Goodspeed said that the church isn't a society of ethical culture. It doesn't exist by reason of wealth or social standing. It is a means to an end. It exists for the kingdom. The church isn't a religious club. It is a mutual association of Christians whose great bond is loyalty to Jesus Christ; who are learning how to live their own lives and to help others to conduct life rightly. The church has been called "the union of all who love in the interests of all who suffer." The church is to the kingdom what steam is to the engine. It is a motive force. It is the kingdom's powers harnessed for service. It is the divine channel through which God would pour current of transforming, vitalizing influence into the social, business and political life of the world. Factories stand for the physical—the church for the soul. Without the church of the living God men would forget the true balance and emphasis of life.

The church, continued Rev. Mr. Goodspeed, preaches seven days in the week, telling of something above buying and selling. Just as the schoolhouse stands for the mind, a library for the intellect, a factory for food and clothes, so the church stands for the soul and all its heaven-born privileges and possibilities. There is many a man who has no pastoral connection except when there is death in the family, then he wakes up to ask, "What minister shall we have?" The church is for worship. It is the great memorial of the living Christ. It represents the work and the passion of Christ.

Monday evening an interesting program was carried out. An historical sketch of the church edifice and church choir was given by A. C. Dickey. As Mr. Dickey was one of the men who helped to build the edifice and has always been connected with the choir, he was able to draw from memory's storehouse in preparing his interesting paper.

An historical sketch of the church, showing its growth and work in all its various departments was given by Rev. James Hamage, who has been the faithful, earnest, well beloved pastor the past eight years. An original poem, beautiful in thought, depicting incidents in the life of the church, was given by Mrs. C. W. Tucker. A letter from a daughter of Rev. A. J. Eastman, a former pastor, was read, also one from Rev. S. T. Achensbach, who served the church as pastor from 1905 to 1907.

Four short addresses were given by Rev. Frank Blomfield, Dr. C. Petersen, Rev. Amos Lord and Dr. C. H. Merrill. Rev. Blomfield spoke in a reminiscent vein of the time when he was pastor in 1910. Dr. Petersen brought hearty greetings from the Baptist church at Westerville and Rev. Lord from the church at Orange. Dr. Merrill was the last speaker of the evening. He recounted many incidents in the life of the church and touched rather feelingly on the fact that he was the only surviving member of the council that met to organize the church. His words will long be remembered by those present. During the evening several excellent selections were rendered by the choir. Large audiences were present at all the services and included a goodly number from out of town.

STRONG DENIES RESPONSIBILITY.

Was a Hundred Miles from Prison Camp and Nothing to Do with It.

San Francisco, July 30.—Denial of charges by Lieutenant Frank (Hard-boiled) Smith before a House subcommittee in New York that he was responsible for cruel treatment of American soldiers at prison farm No. 2, near Paris, was made here yesterday by Major General Frederick S. Strong, commander of the south coast artillery district.

"I was a hundred miles from the farm and had absolutely nothing to do with the treatment of the prisoners there," General Strong said. He declined to enlarge on the statement.

General Strong commanded the 40th division.

GERMANS SEEK CAUSE OF WAR

To Make Their Own Investigation as to Its Origin.

Berlin, Monday, July 28 (By the Associated Press).—Serialist motion to hasten the bill authorizing a state tribunal to investigate the causes of the war and the guilt for it passed the national assembly at Weimar to-day by a large majority.

Dr. Eduard David, minister of the interior, said that Germany must have such an institution to offset the entente's proposed court. Under the present plan secret documents would be published first, then those relating to the armistice, and finally, those relating to the outbreak of the war.

MANY CHILDREN BORN BLIND.

Cause Said to Be Malnutrition of Their Polish Mothers.

Warsaw, Poland, July 29.—The abnormal number of children born blind in this country during the past three years despite the fact that their parents were healthy is due mainly to the malnutrition of mothers, according to a report issued to-day by the American Red Cross.

The increasing amount of blindness among children at birth was thought at first to herald the advent of some new war disease. But investigation by American experts proved that the famished condition of the mothers reacted on the eye-sight of their infants.

BOLSHEVIK FORCES ADVANCE.

Taking Advantage of Retirement from Onega.

London, July 30.—Bolshevik forces were reported yesterday in a wireless dispatch from Moscow to be taking advantage of the recent allied retirement from Onega by advancing eastward toward the railway running south from Archangel to Vologda. The dispatch said the bolsheviks had occupied the village of Churovskoe.

Reverses were announced on the southern fronts, where, it was said, the bolshevik troops had abandoned Konstantinograd and had withdrawn their lines in that region to 27 miles northeast of Poltava. On the Pskov front also, it was said, the bolsheviks were retreating.

PUTTING PEP INTO DISABLED MEN.

Federal Board for Vocational Education Finds Way for Discouraged Soldiers.

Washington, D. C., July 30.—It takes a great deal to stump the federal board for vocational education when it comes to finding something a disabled soldier, sailor, or marine can do.

"A perforated ear drum, valvular heart disease and mitral insufficiency" sound like the last words of the family doctor. A private in the infantry heard this diagnosis with a sinking feeling. He was a machinist, but that trade had to go now, and he wondered how he would ever live on the salary of a workman. That was the only kind of employment he could get. The federal board found him with the will to carry on, but no way, and they provided the way.

It seems that he had a gift for drawing, and he was given a trial course in commercial design in a school of industrial arts. The trial course had developed into a regular term, he is doing so well.
