An American army of 8,000 on the Rhine will be but a drop in the bucket, so to speak, but—well, it will be enough.

There may be a good many "hard-boiled" officers in the United States. If so, it would be better to find them out before they have a chance to put their brutality into operation against the soldiers. Military offenses can be punished without brutality.

Henry Ford's suit against a Chicago newspaper for libel seems to have fastened him indefinitely in the trenches of plain civilian life. Any illusions the public may have had about him as a potential United States senator have been shattered and scattered.

Now we know that commerce follows the flag, for $305,000,000 followed the United States flag to Europe during the most recent month of June. It is wonderful how the threads of commerce are being picked up after being lost or attenuated during more than four years of warfare.

No great alarm is felt about the failure of Austria to sign the treaty of peace with the allies because it is certain that sooner or later Austria must sign the treaty and take her burdens up along with Germany. Austria has been protesting of late that she is no longer a great and rich nation in order to secure for her a modification of the terms of the treaty; and that very confession lays bare the fact that Austria is so little and so poor that she must depend upon the kindness of the world, chiefly the allied world, for some years to come. Hence Austria will sign the treaty of peace and abide by the conditions which the allies laid down in their conferences at Paris. Austria may be disposed to back and fill, sidestep and falter, but it will all come out to the inevitable act of doing as the Germans did in affixing their signatures to the new bill of international rights.

WATCH THE WATER WASTE. Although no official action has been taken by the city government, it will not be amiss to warn the people of Barre who are users of the city water to be as sparing as possible of the water in the present exigency. It is said that despite the fact that the level of the water in the main reservoir at Orange has gone down far below the normal mark there is no immediate need for alarm over the situation. Even so it would seem to be the part of prudence to conserve as much as possible of the water which is now going to waste or being used needlessly, in order to prevent reaching that point where alarm would be felt. If the users of city water would see to it that all places of waste were attended to at once that action would go far toward increasing the surplus in the reservoir. The use of water for sprinkling lawns should be dispensed with even though the lawns may be suffering for the need of water. All other uses to which city water is put aside from the necessities ought to be curtailed or stopped entirely. There appears to be no prospect of an immediate break in the dry spell and until there is a break in abnormal conditions we should be careful to conserve as much water as possible.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. Daniel Cady and His Poems. Editor, Barre Times: We very much enjoy Daniel Cady's poems but please tell us, who is Daniel Cady? and has he written any books and where does he live? We live here under the shadow of Mt. Hunger and somehow never noticed much about the name until a few months ago when we commenced to read a poem now and then. M. B. Masham.

[Daniel Cady is a native of Vermont and a graduate of the University of Vermont, who practiced law in New York City for some time and is now a resident of Burlington. His delightful poems of old Vermont life are not his only literary work, as he has published a few volumes of verse. Mr. Cady is able to take the most commonplace thing of everyday life of old Vermont and give it a charm that is very appealing.]

THE BEACON SHOWS. All Next Week on Berlin Street Grounds. When the Beacon Shows agent applied for Barre permit to show here, he invited a committee to come to St. Albans, where the carnival was playing, on Friday evening Mayor Glysson, Chief Mitchell, Arthur Loranger and Henry Alexander were the guests of the agent and they visited the Beacon Shows, which was playing that city to an immense patronage nightly. The committee spent a most agreeable evening as the guests of Manager Veilare and Treasurer Fer-Vau, and were well pleased with the attractions and pronounced it the strongest, cleanest and most legitimate carnival they had seen in years and one that will meet the highest endorsement of Barre amusement goers after they have seen it, and say the Barre Outing club was fortunate in securing so fine an attraction for our city. They are booked back there for next summer.

SEVEN BARKS

It may be possible that you don't know what SEVEN BARKS stands for, so we will enlighten you: It is a safe, remarkable remedy, made from the extracts of seven different kinds of roots and herbs, every one of which has great medicinal value, scientifically blended and for nearly 50 years has been a reliable remedy for indigestion, constipation, liver, kidney and stomach disorders.

SEVEN BARKS has never been extensively advertised, but has enjoyed a wonderful and steady sale for nearly a half century, and purely upon its merits.

SEVEN BARKS has saved thousands of families doctors' bills, as well as untold suffering. It is inexpensive, only 50 cents per bottle, and the dose is from 10 to 20 drops in a little water after meals.

There is hardly a family but why some member is more or less frequently troubled with biliousness, indigestion, liver or kidney trouble. If you have never tried SEVEN BARKS, do not fail to do so, and watch the rapid and wonderful results.

Don't put off asking your druggist for SEVEN BARKS: if he does not happen to have it, he will get it for you.—Adv.

CHELSEA

Mrs. Thomas J. Quaide Died Last Week and Burial Was at Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. Anna (Magoon) Quaide passed away at her home in the upper village last week Thursday and the funeral was held from her late home Friday afternoon and her remains were taken by automobile on Saturday to Lynn, Mass., for burial in the Quaide family lot beside her daughter, who died several years ago. The remains were accompanied by her husband, Thomas J. Quaide, who returned Sunday evening. Besides the husband, the deceased is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ormsby of Vershire and Mrs. Ware of Boston, and one brother, Dan Magoon of Fairlee. She was about 75 years of age.

Miss Lydia Mendon, who has been the guest of Miss Mary George, left Monday for her home in Melrose Highlands, Mass.

Deputy United States Marshal George F. Lackey of Montpelier was in town last week and arrested Arthur A. Taylor on a U. S. warrant, charging him with sending obscene matter through the U. S. mails, and took him to Montpelier and lodged him in jail to await trial in the U. S. court.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, with their daughter and cousin, Mrs. Robert Layton of Providence, R. I., were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Judd. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Judd are cousins and had not met before for 30 years.

Daniel G. Bixby, who has been in the U. S. service for the past 15 months and who recently returned from overseas, has received his discharge and arrived in town last week Friday.

Jerry J. Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Lucas, who has been their guest for a few weeks, left last week for Detroit, Mich., with prospects of obtaining employment in some of the large automobile manufacturing plants in that city. He was accompanied by his friend, Harold Twist, of Hartford, Conn., and the young men contemplate after a few months' work in Detroit, to proceed on their journey to California, expecting to reach the Pacific coast before winter.

As a special communication of George Washington lodge, No. 51, F. and A. M., held Tuesday evening, the F. G. degree was conferred upon three candidates and there will be a special communication held Tuesday evening, Aug. 7, when the M. M. degree will be conferred and all members are requested to be present at 8 o'clock sharp as the meeting will commence at that time.

Charles J. Corwin of Boston and his daughter, Miss Clyde A. Corwin, are guests at the Chelsea inn. Mr. Corwin holds the position as assistant to the income deputy for Massachusetts, and Miss Corwin is a nurse in the Melrose hospital at Waverly, Mass.

Dr. William H. Cook has gone to Bethel for a month to do dental work and there is a possibility that he may locate there if he finds from the month's experience that the opening will warrant making the change. Dr. Cook has made good here and has had the loyal support of the townspeople and has drawn a large patronage from the adjoining towns, and our people would seriously regret to have him leave town.

It is understood that Harry Paul of Lynn, Mass., who has been here more or less for the past month by reason of the failing health and death of his mother, Mrs. Leonard Paul, has purchased the Orange county garage of Albert P. Bugbee, who built the same and has operated for two or three years past. Mr. Paul proposes to complete the building, and equip it with all the modern machinery necessary for an up-to-date repair garage and will also carry a large stock of automobile accessories. Mr. Paul is an expert auto mechanic and has had 20 years' experience in the business, and proposes to put in a force of mechanics sufficient to handle the business, which naturally comes here. The location is central for a large outlying territory and as Mr. Paul is a hustler, the outlook is good for a thriving business.

Mrs. Charles Goodwin and Mrs. Arthur F. Dickinson have returned from the Randolph sanatorium, where they submitted to operations, from which they are making satisfactory recovery.

Thomas G. Dearborn of Stratford, who was formerly of this town, has accepted a position with the Bailey Music Co. of White River Junction as a salesman, and is on the road most of the time and was in town last week in the interest of the company and made several sales while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lover have sold their farm on the Vershire road together with stock and tools to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Dudash and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Braznah, who came here recently from Ohio. Consideration, $3,500, and the sale was made through the Vincent Horkey agency of New York City. The new purchasers have bought for a home and bring nine children with them. Mr. and Mrs. Lover have not decided as yet where they will locate, but expect to visit for a time with friends in Moores, N. Y., where they lived before they located in Chelsea.

Will Hathaway has rented the former Methodist parsonage on Main street and has moved his family there, vacating the house purchased last spring by Charles A. Luce, who expects to occupy the same for a home before winter.

The cement foundation for the new Masonic block is nearly completed and carpenters will have the frame well started before the week-end and it is expected that the work will be rapidly pushed along to completion.

Mrs. Frank Allen of Nashua, N. H., and her sister, Mrs. Frank Kenson of Concord, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bixby on South Main street.

Doan Corliss of New York City joined his family, who are guests at the home of Mrs. Corliss' parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Parkhurst, last Sunday, having made the trip by automobile.

Buy good pianos and player pianos at Bailey's Music Rooms, Main street, Barre.

Everybody Likes Soda Water

No matter who calls or when, a glass of Bottled Soda is always welcome. It's a fine thing for the afternoon callers, for the evening guests, for the card party, for any of those pleasant, informal little neighborly events that do so much to make life worth living. Nothing is better for young or old after outdoor athletic sport, as it cools without danger of ill effects. Always have a few bottles on ice.
