Don't waste the water.

Burlington is now a city of magnificent distances—to those who are compelled to walk by reason of the trolley men's strike.

Boston has about decided to follow the lead of Barre and raise its tax rate. Still, Boston has quite a ways to go before it catches up.

Carnegie was thrifty. That wasn't the sole reason for his wealth but it was a contributing cause, no doubt—thrift when applied to business.

The strike of the actors in New York is bringing back onto the boards some of the old-time talent, whose appearance must be very pleasing to the patrons of the theatres in the metropolis, judging the situation from the artistic standpoint.

Report that harvest laborers were being paid $15 a day in the Winnipeg district was pretty thoroughly spiked by the statement from railroad officials in Montreal that harvest laborers are being paid from $3.50 to $4.50 a day for their labor in Winnipeg.

It has come from Henry Ford's own lips that no place in Vermont has been considered as a possible site for one of the branch factories to be constructed by the Ford concern.

An Enosburg Falls man has just been fined $300 for selling lemon extract under circumstances which made it evident to the court that the extract was used for beverage purposes.

A lighted cigarette or a smoker's match carelessly tossed is held to have been responsible for the terrible scene enacted at Montreal's amusement park when a cage full of people was plunged into a burning mass of gaudy, inflammable material.

The city of Rutland is going to try out, under the new system of district health supervision, the plan of having its public health attended to by a district health officer who is located 25 miles away from Rutland.

from paying for the district system. Double assessment is not justice.

A RURAL PROBLEM FOR VERMONT. The town of Somerset in Windham county offers a serious problem to the state of Vermont, the more serious because it typifies the small hill town in Vermont.

What is to become of Somerset? is a pertinent question at the present time. It might, perhaps, be made the mandatory of some other town were a willing town to be found to accept the job; but strong towns in the immediate vicinity of Somerset are not to be found.

New York, Aug. 12.—A social hygiene conference of representatives from the various state leagues of women voters and state suffrage associations is to be held in New York City during the week of Oct. 17-24.

Speak Well of Your Town.

Speak well of your town at all times. You can do this at home as well as effectively as when away. Just remember that kind expressions travel just as fast as the other class.

The Temper of Congress.

Congress would be better qualified to deal with the present difficult situation, both with regard to the railroads and the league of nations, if it had not been almost continuously in session for the last several years.

Added evidence that tempers in Washington are bad and nerves on both sides not what they should be is found in the angry protests in the House against even the rulings of Speaker Gillett.

For the present Congress must remain in session. But if for a few hours elections could be forgotten and jockeying for political position be abandoned in the face of a domestic crisis, there would be more hope of wise decisions.

The October conference will coincide with the important convention on social morality called by the war work council of the Young Men's Christian association.

Constipation Can Be Cured

Constipation can be cured only by the process of naturally restoring the functions to normal. Harsh, drastic cathartics and laxatives do not do this. Mineral Oil does. The action of is purely mechanical. It facilitates a liberal and easy passage by the simple process of lubricating the parts. It is the best thing to use for people habitually constipated. It does not upset the system. It is colorless, odorless and tasteless.
