

The Homer Fitts Co. Incorporated "The Store Where Quality Counts"

Now Ready—A Complete Showing of Beacon Blankets Famous for Their Excellence of Quality, Design and Superior Finish

No matter where you go, Beacon Blankets are acknowledged to be the finest Blankets possible to obtain at each price—they are pre-eminent. And in this new display we have the most complete assortment that we have ever carried.

The exceptional colorings and artistic designs are deserving of special mention, and we are prepared to meet the requirements of every need.

There are — BATH ROBE BLANKETS COMFORTABLES INDIAN BLANKETS BABY BAGS and CRIB BLANKETS

from $1.25 to $7.00

For every purpose there's a style that exactly fills the want — and we even have Beacon Flannel by the yard, at 75c.

Beacon Blankets are the best value on the market — bar none; and among the most beautiful at any price.

ALL BEACON BLANKETS ARE GUARANTEED ABSOLUTELY FAST IN COLOR

BIG MISSION WEEK IN BARRE.

Two State Denominations Are to Hold Sessions.

This is to be a big week for Barre along missionary lines, the 32d annual meeting of the Vermont Woman's Home Missionary union and the 47th annual meeting of the Vermont branch, Woman's Board of Foreign Missions opening in the Congregational church this evening and continuing through to-morrow night, and the Methodists of the state having a great home missionary rally in the Hedding church, beginning at 10:30 Wednesday morning and continuing through Thursday.

EXCESSIVE ACIDITY is at the bottom of most digestive ills. KI-MOIDS for indigestion afford pleasing and prompt relief from the distress of acid-dyspepsia. MADE BY SCOTT & BOWNE MAKERS OF SCOTT'S EMULSION

Young Men's Suits

We are seeing more Young Men's Suits than ever before.

There is a reason for it, and if you will give us a call you will learn why so many of the young men are coming to us.

SHALL WE SEE YOU?

The Frank McWhorter Co.

BARRE DAILY TIMES TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1919.

The Weather Cloudy to-night, rain in Maine, cooler; Wednesday probably fair; gentle to moderate shifting winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Violin lessons given at moderate rates. Morrison, 6 Laurel St. Tel. 158-2. Newest styles in autumn and winter millinery. Miss M. M. Minnie, 102 Summer street. Leon Poirier of Burlington, who has been visiting in the city for a few days, returned yesterday.

Dance in Howland hall on Wednesday evening; Gilbertson's orchestra. Gents, 75c; ladies, free—adv. Public auto to either Washington or St. Johnsbury fairs. Notify Barre garage or Buzzell hotel—adv.

Miss Winnifred Hamel of the Adams company store, who has been spending a few days in Boston, has returned. The amusement committee of the Odd Ladies will meet Tuesday evening with Mrs. Harry Davidson of Murray street.

First-class grapes from the mountain of St. Helena, Cal., by the box or by the ton, $120 a ton. Apply to Angelo Scampini. Notice: The Little Dry Goods Store on Cottage street will be closed from Wednesday at 5 p. m. to Saturday at 8 p. m.

Bean supper, Presbyterian church, Saturday night, Sept. 27. Sounds good. You can rest assured it will taste good—adv. Richard White, recently discharged from the service, left Saturday for New Haven, Conn., where he has employment in a garage.

Bert S. Person, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Person of upper Prospect street, left this morning for Indianapolis, Ind., where he will enter college. Drs. Calvin Smyth and James Ravdin returned to-day to their homes in Philadelphia after being the guests of Miss Madeline Williams of 7 Averill street.

Arthur Crawford returned yesterday to A. W. Badger & Co.'s furniture department after a two weeks' vacation with his brother, Elmer, spent in Sherbrooke, P. Q. Daniel Laseor, a mechanic of the Palace garage, went to St. Albans this morning to return with a large Mercer sporting car, recently purchased by Charles Arnholm.

Elmer Scott, with his mother and sister, Mrs. Ambrose Donaldson of Granitville, left here last evening on a two weeks' motoring tour through Vermont, Connecticut and Massachusetts. News has been received here announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel McAllister to Leo F. Crowley, eldest son of William Crowley of East Barre, Sept. 9, by Rev. Harry Trust of Biddisford, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Perley Carr of Camp street, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Carr's sister, Mrs. Bertha Edwards at Pinnacle Park, Lake Winnepesaukee, returned home yesterday. One of our leading hairdressers says she has found nothing as good as Parisian Sage to cure dandruff and make the hair soft, thick and lustrous. E. A. Drown & Co. sell the genuine—Adv.

Mrs. M. L. Lewis of South Barre, who was injured in the automobile and motorcycle collision of last Wednesday afternoon on the Montpelier road, was taken to her home this morning in Badger's ambulance. Goddard's real football season will open Wednesday when that eleven meets the boys from Norwich university on the Goddard gridiron. Only light practice will be held until after the game, consisting of signal practice, punting and forward passing.

Hilda Habbe, John Shady, Joseph Charlie, Alex Corey, Miss Emma Tony and Tony Corey of Prospect street left this morning for Providence, R. I., where they were called by the death of Miss Mary John, which occurred yesterday afternoon after an illness of several years. She suffered from heart trouble.

Twenty of the 1919 graduates from Goddard seminary are entering college this year. Seven are entering the University of Vermont, five the college and others are entering Boston university, Boston college, New England Conservatory of Music, Brown, Columbia, Skidmore, Cornell, Ithaca conservatory and Northwestern college.

There were 41 patients at the Barre City hospital this morning, that number being the largest accommodated there since the hospital was established, barring, of course, the time when the influenza epidemic was at the highest last year. It is said that none of the cases there now are of epidemic form. Nine little newcomers were being cared for at the hospital this morning, two of them having been born last night.

On Dec. 23, 1918, Eva Stetson was convicted in Barre city court for keeping a disorderly house at 14 Charles street, for which the respondent was sentenced to not less than one year nor more than three in the house of correction at Windsor. Sentence was suspended, however, and the woman was placed on probation for three years. This morning she was brought before Judge E. L. Scott by State Probation Officer W. H. Jeffrey for having violated the parole. The woman admitted the violation, whereupon the court ordered that the original sentence be complied with and the mittimus issued. Next in line were three lumbermen charged with intoxication. Two second offenders were compelled to disclose the source of their intoxicating beverages, naming a local drug store in which they claimed Jamaica ginger was purchased. These men were Thomas Dolan of Waterbury, fined $5 and costs of $6.85; Louis Landry, fined $15 and costs of $6.85; George McSwain, also of Waterbury, fined $15 and costs of $6.85. Nathan Livingston of Granville, a first offender, was released after furnishing the required amount, $5 fine and costs of $6.85. Raymond Diemer of Plainfield, who was arrested on a warrant issued by State's Attorney Davis for larceny of a double-barreled shotgun which it is alleged belonged to John McLellan, was held pending the furnishing of $100 bail.

Special convocation of Granite chapter, No. 29, R. A. M., Tuesday, Sept. 23, at 7:30 p. m. Work, mark degree. Per order E. H. P. Regular stated convocation of Vincella lodge, No. 10, K. of P., Tuesday night, Sept. 23, at 7:30. Business. Regular meeting of Iroquois tribe, No. 16, I. O. R. M., to-night at 7:30. W. chosen tribe of East Barre will work the adoption degree on a class of pale faces. Corn and venison will be served. Entertainment committee meet at 6 o'clock.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. John MacDonald of Liberty street has returned from St. Albans, where she was the guest of Mrs. T. R. Waugh the past week.

Mrs. Inez Bassett and two daughters of Orleans are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Waterman of Washington street. Henry Bisson, one of the '19 class graduates at Spaulding, accompanied Floyd Gerrard to Bowdoin college, Brunswick, Me., yesterday.

Misses Ethel A. McFarland and Cleora Morse left Sunday night for Ithaca, N. Y., where they have enrolled in the conservatory of music. At the parish house of the Church of the Good Shepherd on Spaulding street this evening men of the parish will hold a smoker for an informal get-together.

John Jordan, who recently completed his duties as chef in the White mountains, went to Manchester, N. H., to-day for a few days' visit before proceeding to Exeter, N. H., to take up duties as a chef in the academy there.

Miss Grace Parry, a senior at the New England Conservatory of Music, who has been spending the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Parry of Richardson street, returned last night to the school in Boston.

All the foremen, including the call men and anyone interested in the foremen's convention to be held in this city Oct. 10, are urged to be present at the meeting in the Barre fire station at 8 o'clock to-morrow, Wednesday, evening.

Subscribers wishing to pay their hospital pledges can do so at the Times office at any time when the office is open. It is the desire of the committee that pledges in arrears or overdue be paid, as there is need of money at the present time.

At the Grover C. Hutchinson farm in Williamstown rated well yesterday, and a most successful sale is reported for the entire stock of farm implements and equipment. Frank Smith of Barre was the successful bidder on the farm, and he will take immediate possession.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hannon and son, Sidney, of Boston, while touring through Vermont, stopped in this city for a day or two to visit Mr. and Mrs. Alex Miles of Hill street. For the past two weeks they have been touring through various states in New England and are now en route to Canada to complete the month's motoring trip.

Mrs. Nazier Canton and Miss Florence Stone of Montreal, who have been visiting their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Tella Stone of Main street, and also Medrick Duford and mother, the latter a sister of Mr. Stone, and two Misses Canton from Quebec, left Barre this morning for home. They made the trip by automobile and on the way home stopped at Cambridge.

MONTPELIER

C. A. Kennedy of Coaticook, P. Q., came here this morning to take home with him the child W. Kennedy, whom the authorities placed in Sheriff F. H. Tracy's custody for safekeeping because of his queer actions Sunday night at the Pavilion hotel and other places. He was chasing butterflies and birds, taking his hat off to the pictures on the walls and he did a few other peculiar things, according to the opinion of those who saw the man.

W. Daley has leased the city hall in Montpelier for the purpose of showing the playgraph of the world series in baseball. He has received notice that the series will commence Oct. 1. It is expected it may run for nine days, although probably it will not.

Dorothy, the small child of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Perkins, is suffering with a broken collar bone received while accompanying her sister along the sidewalk recently in the neighborhood of their home. The child fell striking with sufficient force to break the collar bone.

Miss C. Olive Bennett is taking a vacation for a week from her duties in the fish and game office and is at her home in Danville. The will of Abba M. Smith, late of Montpelier, was proved in probate court to-day. G. H. Dale has been appointed administrator, with will annexed, of the estate of F. W. Morey, late of that town.

Joseph Rioux of Barre has been appointed administrator of the estate of Edmund Rioux, late of Barre, Irving E. Ellis of Northfield has settled his annual account of a fund created from the last will and testament of Polly D. Russell, late of Northfield. A. C. Tilden of Barre has been appointed administrator of the estate of Helena H. Gordon, late of Barre.

Charles De Bancroft has completed his work of taking the names of deceased persons from the headstones in cemeteries and finds that in Montpelier before 1870 there were 1280 buried and while in East Montpelier he found 600 persons were buried in the same length of time. It is a part of the work which the city is doing as provided under the last legislature for a more complete record in the secretary of state's office. Some 8000 births, deaths and marriages will be reported to the secretary in addition to what he now has on record.

The case of State vs. Bolis Union in Montpelier city court was completed this morning by Union paying a fine of $1 and costs. The matter has been under fire for two weeks. Union, after pleading guilty to keeping hogs contrary to the statutes, was given a few days in which to sell the hogs. He delayed this matter so long that finally the district health officer had to get after the man again, with the result that the hogs were removed last week and the penalty imposed this morning. The matter of N. Monti keeping hogs at his place on Barre street has been referred to the city grand juror for action.

With the view of beautifying the land back of the State House a part of which was recently deeded to the state by Katherine Viles, Governor Clement on Saturday showed to some eight men representing land scape architecture, the land which is under consideration. These included Augustus Saint Gardens, Cornish, N. H., James Greenleaf, New York, Mr. Meyer, New York, Mitchell Kendall, New York, Charles Noon, Detroit, Mich., and others.

GALICIA CROWN LANDS.

Were Under Discussion by the Supreme Council To-day. Paris, Sept. 23.—The status of the former Austro-Hungarian crown land of Galicia was discussed by the supreme council to-day. Premier Paderewski presented the Polish view as to the disposition of the territory. (The claims of the Poles and Ukrainians as to Galicia are widely at variance).

GRANITEVILLE

Notice. Regular meeting of branch No. 12, Q. W. I. U. of N. A., will be held in Miles' hall on Wednesday, Sept. 24, at 7:30 o'clock.

HARDWICK

R. F. Clowse of St. Johnsbury was in town last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Farrand have been visiting relatives in Bennington for a few days past.

George F. Bickford has gone to Middletown, Conn., where he has resumed his studies at Wesleyan university. Mrs. Alice R. Crane has been a recent guest of relatives in Bennington. Misses Leone Mitchell and Mildred Hooker have gone to Burlington to resume their studies at the University of Vermont.

Guy Larabee has entered the University of Vermont at Burlington. Carl Jennings has also resumed his studies at that institution. Bertrand Corey of Burlington was a recent guest of relatives here.

Miss Florence Salls, one of the faculty, was a week-end and over-Sunday guest of friends in Swanton. Joe Cordella has gone to Boston to enter Boston university.

The Hardwick baseball team, composed of veterans and academy players, went to Greensboro Bend last Saturday afternoon, where they defeated the picked-up team from that burg, 12 to 3.

R. F. Clowse has sold his nice place on Highland avenue to Mrs. Estella C. Johnson, who buys it for a home. Nelson Coburn has purchased the A. L. Wells place on Wolcott street, and Mr. Wells will move onto a farm in Walden.

B. W. Fisher, the local manager of the Bailey music rooms, has bought what is known as the Shepard place on West Church street for a home. Harry Mackender of Craftsbury, who recently bought the Dorman Bridgman place on Highland avenue, will soon open an up-to-date and modern meat market where the old market used to be, and the same is now being renovated and the meat market appliances put in place. A market in this place fills a long-felt want.

Clifford Gregory has purchased the Idle Hour theatre business of Nat Johnson of Northfield and opened for business Tuesday evening. Mr. Gregory is well known in Hardwick as an electrician, and has recently been discharged from the army, being an aviator and with the army of occupation in Germany. He will give the public nothing but first-class pictures, and we bespeak for him a good patronage.

J. H. Clark and son were in Burlington Monday and drove home two new Dodge touring cars. Bernard Johnson has gone to Springfield, Mass., where he has a lucrative position with a hardware firm.

ARRESTED IN BENNINGTON.

For Using Foul Language to Black Cat Worker. Bennington, Sept. 23.—The first arrest in connection with the strike at the Black Cat underwear mill occurred yesterday when Matthew Murray was arrested by a constable and pleaded guilty to a breach of the peace, the complaint charging Murray with using vile language to an employe, who was leaving the mill. Judge W. J. Meagher fined Murray $25.65, including costs and imposed a sentence of not more than two months in jail, the jail sentence being suspended during good behavior.

Judge Meagher severely scored Murray for his offense committed under the circumstances which might easily result in rioting and warned him that unless he conducted himself in an orderly manner, he would find himself in jail just as soon as the police could put him there. The textile workers held a big parade through the main streets of the village last night. Two bands furnished music and Main street was illuminated with red fire along its entire length. There was no disorder.

WAS LOST IN CLOUDS

But Capt. Bradley Reached Lausanne from London. Geneva, Monday, Sept. 22.—Captain Bradley, a British aviator, has landed at Lausanne after having flown over the Alps and losing his way in the clouds above Mont Blanc at an altitude of more than 15,000 feet. He made his trip in a 110-horsepower airplane and came from London by the way of Paris.

TAKE HAIR OUT NOT OFF THE SKIN Hair is bound to grow out coarse and stiff unless removed from the surface of the skin. The only common-sense way to remove hair is to attack it under the skin. DeMiracle, the original sanitary liquid, does this by absorption. Only genuine DeMiracle has a money-back guarantee in each package. At toilet counters in 50c, $1 and $2 sizes or by mail from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price. FREE book mailed in plain sealed envelope on request. DeMiracle, 1215th St. and Park Ave., New York.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED—First-class machine polisher; also 3 stonecutters; Alex. Milne Granite Co., Jockey Hollow. 16113 NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE FOR SALE. In very good condition; price reasonable; inquire at 4 Elliston street. 16115 FOUND—On East street, 1 Corbin key; apply to A. A. Boyer. 16111 WANTED—At Montpelier, Vermont, Montpelier, good second-hand S-F. extension tables. 16113 WANTED—A girl or woman to assist in dining room and kitchen in private boarding-house; apply at 78 Elm street. 16117 WANTED TO BUY—100 new milch cows and calves; springers or fresh; also 1 horse; 3 horses for sale; tel. 827-13; inquire of G. H. Adams, South Barre. 16115 WANTED—Man to work in livery stable; John Pappin, at Pappin's Livery. 16113 TO RENT—A 6-room cottage house on Seminary street with electric lights and bath; tel. 153-2 or inquire at 103 Washington street. 16117 FOR SALE—A nice lot of full-blooded White Wyandotte chickens weighing from 2 1/2 to 4 lbs.; $1.00 each for the lot; James Tassie, 85 South Main street. 16114 WANTED—A man to work on farm; apply to J. L. Buck, East Montpelier, Vt.; tel. Montpelier 85-W. 16115 WANTED AT ONCE—A table girl and an order cook; Pierce & Clark at Farrar's Restaurant, Montpelier. 16117 FOUND—A string of rosary beads; owner can have at Times office by paying for advertising. 16112 RIPE CUCUMBERS FOR SALE—Telephone 397-11 Barre. 16113

HOWARD H. REID, D. D. S.

HOWLAND BUILDING Specializing in Extracting and Dental X-Ray Diagnosis Phone 169-M

Union Dry Goods Co. PREPARED Throughout the entire store we were never so well prepared to serve your wants as now. Fall and Winter Goods are shown on every counter. There is everything here for every dress need, selected some time ago, as we were fore-thoughtful in providing for you. IN OUR GARMENT SECTION every rack is filled with the choicest and smartest models in SUITS, COATS AND DRESSES, from the best designers and tailors in the world. Coats for Women, Misses, Juniors and Children—Moderately Priced Special Arrivals this week— New Serge Skirts, Navy and Black $5.00 New Sweaters, all colors $6.50 and up See our Bungalow Aprons at $1.00 Flannel Waists, colored stripes, at $1.98 You can buy it for less of the Union Dry Goods Co.

MOTORIST PINNED DOWN. When Machine Slid Down Bank and Turned Over Several Times. Bristol, Sept. 23.—Charles N. Hunt and entire family were injured in an automobile accident Sunday while on their way to Hinesburg with Miss Dorothy Hunt, who teaches in Hinesburg and had been spending the week end at her home here. In passing a team, Mr. Hunt's car slid down an embankment, turning over two or three times and pinning the occupants beneath. Mr. Hunt was badly hurt and Miss Dorothy was taken from under the car in an unconscious condition. She had a hemorrhage and for a time was considered fatally injured. Mrs. Hunt and Marjorie were injured about the face and the two boys sustained minor injuries. Mrs. Hunt's uncle, E. H. Eastman, brought the party home. The car was not injured so but that Mr. Hunt drove it home. It is thought that all will recover.

The Grocery Saving Sale at the OLD GAS COMPANY STORE IN DEPOT SQUARE attracts the crowd. Plenty of goods, plenty of bargains waiting for the buyers. Don't miss this lifetime opportunity. Do not delay, as the stock is selling faster than we could expect.

Union Clothing Co. Owners

Park THEATRE MATINEE 2:15 EVENING 8:00 TELEPHONE 410 TO-DAY Wm. S. Hart in His Latest Big Success "WAGON TRACKS" A story of the great West and the gold-rush days of 1849-50. Everyone will enjoy this thrill picture. It is one of his best. Also a Pathé Review, the novelty film showing the slow-motion camera work. WEDNESDAY—CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG IN "THE ROAD THROUGH THE DARK" An interesting story of love and adventure. You will enjoy it from start to finish. Also Kinogram News and Mutt & Jeff cartoon comedy. THURSDAY—VIVIAN MARTIN IN "LOUISIANA" The well-known book by Frances Hodgson Burnett, a dandy little story of the southern mountains, sure to please everybody. Also a Mack Sennett Paramount comedy, "LOVE'S FALSE FACES," and a Pictograph news. A good program.

AUTO ROBES for Fall Driving We have a new stock of Auto Robes at prices to suit everyone. See window. C.W. Averill & Co. THE DEPENDABLE STORE