

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION

At the Windsor county fair held in Woodstock last week, Mrs. J. G. Underwood received a first premium on a beautiful embroidered voile dress; Mrs. W. E. Britton a first premium for a crocheted night dress; Mrs. J. E. Johnson was awarded a special, two first, a second and third premium on silk embroidery and crocheting; Mrs. J. H. Flower a silver cup for the best quality of work in any one large collection of fancy articles; Mrs. Addie Britton King of South Pomfret, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Britton of Hartland, a silver cup for her collection of canned vegetables and fruits. These other premiums were given to the women of the fair.

Mrs. Marion House of Lebanon passed her 90th birthday anniversary recently, and friends called at her home on Bank street to offer congratulations. Mrs. House is the widow of the late Lester House, to whom she was married in 1850, since when she has resided here. She is a most remarkable woman for her age, and would easily pass for 75. She lives alone and does all her own work.

Miss Helen Locke of Haverhill, Mass., has arrived in Lebanon to take the position of district nurse. She is a graduate of the Mary Hitchcock hospital and comes highly recommended. Mrs. George Towle has acted as substitute nurse since the resignation of Miss Anna Bud last spring.

Mourning by a host of friends, Mrs. Nellie M. Hatch, a former resident of West Lebanon, passed away Wednesday evening, Sept. 17, at her home in Concord, N. H., following a lingering illness. Mrs. Hatch was 59 years of age, yet so lightly did the passage of time touch her that she never seemed to lose the vivacity and fresh enthusiasm of youth, nor failed in unflagging interest in the affairs of daily life. She was a beloved member of Fidelity lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, of White River Junction. She was Nellie Maria Smith, a daughter of Dwight and Julia (Story) Smith, and was born in Montpelier in 1860. In October, 1887, she was married to Fred G. Hatch by Rev. Charles Havens. The greater part of Mrs. Hatch's life was spent in this village, her family having moved here in 1880. About six years ago they moved to Woodsville, N. H., and later made their home in Concord. Mrs. Hatch is survived by her husband and two sons, Harold B. and Llewellyn B., the latter having only recently returned from overseas service; also by a brother, Frank M. Smith of this place. Services were held in her home in Concord, and to-day in her home church here, Rev. P. A. Kilmister officiating.

Mrs. William Patterson of West Lebanon was pleasantly surprised on Monday evening on her arrival home from a visit in Claremont to find gathered to receive her a number of her neighbors and friends, whose purpose was to assist her in celebrating her birthday. A birthday cake, the gift of Mrs. Charles Drake, formed a part of the refreshments of ice cream and cake, which were enjoyed during the evening. A substantial gift was left behind as a remembrance.

Fred J. Cantlin, owner and manager of the Park moving picture theatre, Lebanon, N. H., has sold out to H. C. Hodgkins of St. Albans and Fred Campbell of East Dedham, Mass. Mr. Campbell will move here, but will retain Mr. Cantlin's services as manager until November 1. Miss Doris Cantlin, pianist, and Paul Cantlin, operator, have been hired by the new management. Mr. Cantlin's plans are indefinite, but he may remain in Lebanon and open the Lyric theatre, of which he retains a lease.

Mrs. E. L. Harwood of West Lebanon announces the marriage of her daughter, Vena Evelyn, to Andrew B. Riddell of Hartford, Conn., Saturday, Sept. 20. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles of Lebanon. Mr. and Mrs. Riddell, after a wedding trip, will reside in Hartford, where the bride has had her residence for the past five years.

Madvor Stone passed away in his 84th year recently at his home on the Church Hill road, Hartford. Besides the widow, who has been his companion for 60 years, he is survived by eight children, five boys and three girls, Madvor B., of Hartford, who is the oldest, David E. of Framingham, Mass., David Gero of Wilder, Mrs. Martin Kaveny of West Hartford, Philip H. of Springfield, George E. of Hartford, Mrs. Charles A. Bomhower of Wilder, and William J. of Windsor, who is the youngest. Mr. Stone was born in South River, St. George, Canada, in 1830, and came to Hartford when a young man, where he has lived for 55 years as a farmer. He was always of a retiring disposition; his sterling character and courteous manner won for him the respect of all who knew him and his death marks the passing of one of the oldest citizens of the town. The funeral took place Wednesday from his late home. Solemn hymns of requiem were sung at St. Anthony's church by Rev. C. C. McManis. Interment was in St. Anthony's cemetery.

CABOT

Mr. and Mrs. Ivers Batchelder of New York were recent visitors at the home of his brother, Matthew.

Misses Rachel and Grace Bolton, Hazel Abbott, Flora and Clara Carpenter and Glenn Fay are attending Goddard seminary.

Charles Rogers has finished clerking at Walden Heights for Rogers & Currier and is stopping at the home of his brother, Harvey.

Miss Emma Conant has returned to her home in Chelsea, Mass., after spending a few days with Mrs. Fred Marsh. Gilbert Smith, youngest son of W. B. Smith, underwent an operation for appendicitis at Barre City hospital. At last reports he was doing well.

Mrs. Earl Rogers and son, Jack, have been visiting her parents in Enosburg Falls for several days.

Mrs. Alice Clark of St. Joseph, Mich., has been spending several weeks with her cousin, Mrs. Gertrude Wells. Cecil Smith recently entertained the pupils of the grammar department at a corn roast at his home.

Mrs. Hiram Russell and sister, Mrs. Lewis Colley, were entertained at the home of Leslie Russell in Barre recently.

A new furnace is being installed in the M. E. church.

Mrs. Nellie Wood of Lawrence, Mass., has been spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Heath.

Miss Abbie Smith is attending Boston university.

Miss Merna Walbridge is taking music on violin and voice and boarding at the home of her brother, Maurice, in Derry, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest St. John of Bradford were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hopkins.

Mrs. Fred Emery and children were recent guests of her brother in Calais.

Mrs. Perley Glidden and son of Vergennes were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Warren recently.

A letter from Mrs. Ida Barr at Brightlook hospital states that she will soon be home among her friends.

Mrs. Renfrew Gambin recently visited her brother, Will Finley, who has been very ill in the hospital.

A goodly number of people took in the fair at St. Johnsbury this week.

Miss Julia Harrington and her aunt, Mrs. L. G. Burnham, have returned to Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Sylvester of Woburn, Mass., were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Wells.

I. S. Tabor of North Calais was in town Thursday to attend the funeral of F. M. Marsh.

Mrs. John Crane has been spending several days in Middlesex, where her son, George, lives.

Misses Edna and Florence Harvey, Raymond Houghton and Lester Ford are attending Montpelier seminary.

Mrs. Flora Lance has sold most of her farm, reserving the house and some buildings and a piece of land in front of the house for a home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrie Urie and daughter of Greensboro and David Urie and daughter of Craftsbury visited their uncle, David Cunningham, the first of the week.

Fred M. Marsh died very suddenly Tuesday night after but four days' illness with gravelstones. More particulars later.

Rev. E. L. Goddard returned from Boston Wednesday. Services will be resumed at the M. E. church as usual.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

"Fair and Warmer."

"Fair and Warmer" is the piquant title of Avery Hopwood's latest and finest farce, which ran for one year at the Eltinge and Harris theatres, New York, and for six months at the Cort theatre, Chicago, and which Speth & Co., having put it on tour in response to universal demand, will present at the Barre opera house on Wednesday, Oct. 1.

Mr. Hopwood's farce tells a merry tale of how two highly respectable and more than average domesticated persons, discovering that their respective errand spouses had taxed their patience till it ceased to be a virtue, rose in their righteous wrath and tried to be wicked.

Having little or no experience in wickedness and being hindered rather than helped by what they knew of it, by hearsay, they involved themselves in terrible calamities, while the former naughty members of their families had the righteous indignation all to themselves.

The innocents, meanwhile, having even less knowledge of how to get out of trouble than how to get into it, saw their plight increase till it all but obliterated them. It is precisely the sort of idea which Avery Hopwood knows best how to put through its paces, getting its finest farcical flavor, and giving it his dearest characterization and satirical comedy. One scene, now famous as the cocktail scene, was described by the reviewers as the best in the whole history of farce.

"Fair and Warmer" begins in the early evening, stays up all night and concludes by noon of the following day, having in that time disrupted and reassorted two households, devastated a "fame robin" and brought wisdom and repentance to saints and sinners alike. It has not a moment between its curtains when its humor flags or its situations slacken.

Speth & Co. will present it here with a cast fully designed to give its comic values. Tickets on sale at box office. Open 2 to 5 afternoons, 7 to 9 at night.—Adv.

Child Almost Dead Grandmother Saves Life

Roxbury, Mass. A grandmother in Roxbury writes: "I put great faith in your medicine, and one of my children was dying. The doctor said she could not live until morning, and I ran out to the drug store, got a bottle of Dr. True's Elixir, was so excited I gave her half of the bottle at once, and at night I gave her the other half. I thought it either kill or cure, for the doctor says she is dying anyway, but she did not die. She went to sleep, the first sleep for a week, and the next morning she passed two worms, red in color, six inches long. The doctor came to see if she was dead, but he ran out pretty quick, as she was sitting in her chair eating a bowl of oatmeal and milk. That was twenty-four years ago, and now she has a baby girl of her own, seven months old, who is also using Dr. True's Elixir." (Name on request.)

Constipation, headaches, tired feeling, weakness, spots before the eyes, bad breath, sleeplessness, irritability, dizziness, and many other signs of sickness, can be relieved, if you take the prescription known as Dr. True's Elixir, The Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. It has done much for sick people, men, women, and children, ever since 1851—over 68 years' reputation.

Take Dr. True's Elixir—give it to your children—The Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. AT ALL DEALERS'. Dr. J. F. True & Co., Auburn, Me.—Adv.

You Can Live Well as long as you live and your income cannot be exhausted if you have an Annuity. Consult us. National Life Ins. Co., of Vt. (Mutual.) S. S. Ballard, general agent, Rialto block, Montpelier, Vt.

PATENTS

Write for Full Particulars and Terms

HIGHEST REFERENCES
BEST RESULTS
PROMPTNESS ASSURED

WATSON E. COLEMAN
Patent Lawyer
624 F Street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

LADIES' NIGHTROBES

We have just received our Ladies' Nightrobes for fall and winter wear. We advise buying early, as these goods are hard to get. We are giving good values in these goods.

Lee and Clara B. Shortt
MARSHFIELD, VT.

The PLAYHOUSE
MONTPELIER, VT.

Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 29-30

"The Shepherd of the Hills"

A splendid picturization of the popular American novel by Harold Bell Wright. A delightful story of the Ozarks, portraying the lives of these hardy mountaineers who are as clean cut and unaffected by the veneer of civilization as the rock-bound hills in which they live. Millions of people have read the book and seen the play. The Picture is a masterful visualization of them both.

Matinee 2:30: Children, 17c; Adults, 28c, including war tax
Evening 7:30: 28c, 39c, 55c, including war tax

Special Music---Seats Now on Sale---'Phone 340

Park THEATRE

Matinee At 2:15
Evenings At 6:45 and 8:30

Week of Sept. 29

MONDAY—ROBERT W. CHAMBERS' STORY
"THE DARK STAR"
WITH MARRION DAVIES AND ALL-STAR CAST
An amazing picture of mystery, crime, intrigue and daring. A tale with warm romance. A thrill with devil-may-care exploits. Also Burton Holmes travel picture and Pathe News of the latest world events.

TUESDAY—ETHEL CLAYTON IN "SPORTING CHANCES"
A picturization of "Impulse," a Snappy Story magazine story, a fine society story, one that will please everyone. We want you to see it. Also THE GHOST OF SLUMBER MOUNTAINS, the biggest short special ever made. It has a circus trimmed a mile. It makes a manager look like a dog kennel; $1,000.00 reward to anyone who has ever seen these monsters before. Men, women and children, come early. See this.

WEDNESDAY—MITCHELL LEWIS IN WILLIAM SULLIVAN'S NOVEL
"CHILDREN OF BANISHMENT"
A story of the North Woods written by Francis William Sullivan. Also a special photoplay reel, showing Geraldine Ferrar at home, Dustin Farnum, William Russell, Mae Marsh, J. Warren Kerrigan and Edith Storey at work and play. See the Kinogram news picture.

THURSDAY—ENID BENNETT IN "THE VIRTUOUS THIEF"
An exceptionally good story, full of action and interest every minute. Also Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Drew in a special comedy, "SQUARED," and a Pathe news picture of interesting items.

FRIDAY—MABEL NORMAND IN "UPSTAIRS"
A jazz comedy drama that will keep you happy and laughing every minute. Also a special L. K. comedy, "SIRENS OF SUDS," and a Kinogram news reel.

SATURDAY—CHARLES RAY IN HIS LATEST SUCCESS
"BILL HENRY"
The play that you don't want to miss. Attend the matinee to secure seats. Also a special Lloyd comedy and a Sunshine comedy. Attend the matinee and avoid the opening crowds.

Remember only one show every afternoon starting at 2:15. Two shows every night at 6:45 and 8:30

BARRE OPERA HOUSE

Wednesday Night, Oct. 1
NOT A MOVING PICTURE

AVERY HOPWOOD'S GALE OF LAUGHTER
FAIR AND WARMER

ONE YEAR NEW YORK SIX MONTHS CHICAGO

A SURE-FIRE CURE FOR THE BLUES

A NOTABLE CAST OF EQUITY ARTISTS
It will put a spring in your walk and add zest to to-morrow's living.
A play of temperament and temperature.
BEGINS WITH A ZEPHYR ENDS WITH A CYCLONE
Prices: $1.50, $1.00, 75c and 50c, Plus War Tax—Seat Sale opens Monday at box office—Box office open 2 to 5 afternoons, 7 to 9 evenings. Tel. 471-W.

