

GOVERNMENT GETS INJUNCTION TO PREVENT SOFT COAL MINERS FROM GOING ON STRIKE TONIGHT

Hearing on the Order, Which Was Issued by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson at Indianapolis, Ind., Is to Be Held in That City on November 8.

OFFICIALS OF THE MINE WORKERS OF AMERICA ARE ENJOINED FROM STARTING OR ENCOURAGING THE STRIKE—THIS IS GOVERNMENT'S FIRST ACTION AGAINST THE BIG MOVEMENT.

Indianapolis, Oct. 31.—A temporary injunction restraining all strike activities of the United Mine Workers of America was issued in the federal district court here to-day on application of the United States government.

The order was directed against Frank G. Hayes, the incapacitated president of the union; John L. Lewis, acting president; William Green, secretary-treasurer, and all other officials of the organization.

The order was directed against Frank G. Hayes, the incapacitated president of the union; John L. Lewis, acting president; William Green, secretary-treasurer, and all other officials of the organization.

Service was had on Lewis, Green and several other union officials and members of the executive board, at union headquarters a few minutes before noon.

In presenting the petition, Judge Ames made it clear that the case will not involve the general right of workmen to organize or quit work. He said it would have no bearing on other industries and "merely involves the right of labor during the war to restrict or destroy the supply of food and fuel."

Under the order, the union officials are commanded to withdraw strike orders already issued and are forbidden to send out any other orders, written or oral, tending to promote the strike or in any way make it effective.

MAXIMUM COAL PRICES FIXED

Pres. Wilson To-day Signed Executive Order on Soft Coal

PREPARED SIZES ARE AT $4.60 A NET TON

Range from That Down to $2.60 at the Mine Mouth

Washington, D. C., Oct. 31.—An executive order fixing maximum prices for bituminous coal was signed to-day by President Wilson.

The maximum prices are fixed by statute and for prepared sizes range from $4.60 a net ton at the mine mouth to $2.60.

Rules set up during the war governing the margins of profit of middlemen and wholesale and retail dealers were re-established and Fuel Administrator Garfield was given all the authority to regulate production, sale, shipment, distribution, apportionment and storage or use of bituminous coal that he had during the war.

The president's executive order follows: "Whereas, the United States fuel administrator, acting under the authority of an executive order issued by me, date the 23d of August, 1917, appointing the said fuel administrator and of subsequent executive orders, and in furtherance of the purpose of said orders, and of the act of Congress therein referred to and approved Aug. 10, 1917, did on Jan. 31, 1919, and on Feb. 20, 1919, execute and issue orders suspending until further order by the president certain rules, regulations, orders and proclamations theretofore promulgated relating to the fixing of prices of the production, sale, shipment, distribution, apportionment, storage and use of coal, and whereas it is necessary to restore and maintain during the war certain of said rules, regulations, orders and proclamations:

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, acting under authority of the aforesaid act of Congress, approved Aug. 10, 1917, do hereby revoke and annul said orders of Jan. 31, 1919, and Feb. 20, 1919, to the extent necessary to restore all the rules, regulations, orders and proclamations therein suspended concerning:

"ANALYZING BAY STATE DRINKS. Samples Were Picked Up by Prohibition Enforcement Staff.

Boston, Oct. 31.—Samples of the alcoholic beverages that are being submitted for the legally extinct 2.75 per cent brand were given to a chemist for analysis to-day by Acting Collector of Internal Revenue Andrew J. Casey.

The samples were obtained in various parts of the state during the past two days by the prohibition enforcement staff of the internal revenue bureau. A chemist was sent here from Washington to establish a laboratory for the immediate analysis of samples.

Besides the enforcement organization established from the field force of the bureau, Acting Collector Casey has requested co-operation of all state, county and municipal officials engaged in the prosecution of criminal law incurring violation of the prohibition legislation.

THREE BELIEVED LOST As Their Dory Was Drifting Toward the Nantucket Rips.

Nantucket, Mass., Oct. 31.—Two more of the 16 fishermen who were cut off from the schooner Reading by fog and storm while landing trawls last Tuesday were thought here to-day. The men had rowed for 50 hours, with only scanty rations. They were rescued 20 miles off Nantucket during the night by the vessel which landed them here. The fate of another dory with three men from the Reading was still unknown. It was believed the men had little chance to save themselves, as when last seen they were drifting into the rips off this island.

MINE FIRE STILL BURNING. And Fate of 21 Entombed Men Is Not Known.

Amsterdam, O., Oct. 31.—Fire continued to rage in mine No. 2 of the Y and O Coal company here to-day with no word from the 21 entombed miners, for whom all hope has been lost.

Members of the mine rescue crew from Pittsburgh were still at the scene, but they had been unable to go very far into the mine because of the flames.

An effort will be made to-day to go back into the mine through a new entry, with a possible chance of cutting through to the men.

BARTON MAN FAILS. George P. Goodheart Has Debts of $1,528; Assets $800.

Burlington, Oct. 31.—George P. Goodheart, a carpenter, of Barton, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the office of the clerk of the United States court yesterday, showing debts of $1,528 and assets of $800, of which $405 is claimed exempt. Edwin A. Cook of Orleans has been named as commissioner in bankruptcy.

CANNOT AVERT WORK CESSATION

Declared Officials of Miners When They Heard of the Injunction

PURPOSE DECLARED STEELED TO STRIKE

Head of Ohio Miners Says There Is Not Time to Notify Men

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 31.—Assuming a defiant attitude toward the government's move to stop by injunction the threatened strike of soft coal miners, Frank Farrington, chairman of the miners' scale committee and president of the Illinois district, declared to-day the "strike had developed into something more than a miners' strike" and that it was "an attempt to enslave the working men and women of the country."

"I don't believe there is any power on earth that can stop the miners from going on strike to-night," Farrington said. "The action of the government will only inflame them. The question involved now is whether working men and women have the right to strike when they think they have cause to do so."

Columbus, O., Oct. 31.—John Moore, president of the United Mine Workers of Ohio, upon learning that the miners' union had been enjoined from striking to-morrow, declared that thousands of Ohio miners could not be notified in time to prevent them from striking at midnight to-night.

"We have no official notice of the injunction and if we did have it, it would be impossible to notify the 40,000 Ohio miners in time," said President Moore. Many of the miners will read of the injunction in the newspapers, he said, but other thousands will not see a newspaper for several days.

A. F. OF L. OFFICIALS PROTEST INJUNCTION

Protest Gompers Will See Attorney-General Palmer Later in the Day

Rights of Union Labor Declared Violated.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 31.—Officials of the American Federation of Labor protested to Attorney-General Palmer to-day against the action of the government in obtaining an injunction in the coal strike.

Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, did not accompany the delegation, but an engagement was made for him to see the attorney-general later in the day.

The federation officials declared the injunction violated the rights of union labor and indicated that the coal miners would have their support in any fight brought to dissolve the injunction. Mr. Palmer reiterated that the government was proceeding solely against one union which, he declared, was trying to violate the law. He said the right to strike was not involved.

It is understood that there will be no change in the policy of the government as a result of the representations of the union men.

PEACE CONFERENCE MAY END IN NOVEMBER

May Have to Adjourn Without Negotiating Treaty with Hungary Because of Rumania's Attitude.

Paris, Oct. 31.—The end of November may see the close of the Paris peace conference which has negotiated the peace treaties with Germany and Austria and has carried negotiations with Bulgaria into towards completion.

Unless the conference can speedily reach an agreement with Rumania and compel it to discontinue its interference in Hungary affairs there seems little chance that a peace treaty can be negotiated with Hungary at present, in which case the conference will probably close without making that treaty.

The Adriatic question will not necessarily prolong the life of the conference and there is no disposition among many of the peace delegates to drag out the conference much longer for the discussion of the European political questions involved in the Rumanian and Italian difficulties.

Dec. 1 is now looked upon as the latest probable date for the adjournment of the conference. Rumania is sending a special delegate to Paris to discuss its differences with the conference and a definite settlement of the Rumanian tangle or the abandonment of the effort at disentanglement is expected very shortly.

Then the discussions will begin with Rumania in the attempt to settle the questions arising from its seizure of Hungarian property and its objection to guaranteeing the rights of minorities, which was the cause of its refusal to sign the Austrian peace treaty.

PROHIBIT SALE OF ALL LIQUOR

Containing One-Half of One Per Cent or More of Alcohol

INJUNCTION SECURED BY U. S. OFFICER

New York Saloonkeepers Violating Enforcement Law Can Be Jailed

New York, Oct. 31.—United States District Judge Augustus N. Hand to-day granted a temporary injunction at the request of the United States district attorney prohibiting the sale of all liquor containing one-half of one per cent or more alcohol. Under the injunction, saloonkeepers who violate the prohibition enforcement law can be summarily arrested and imprisoned for contempt of court.

VERMONT EX-SOLDIERS DEMAND EXPLANATION OF GOV. CLEMENT

Concerning Statements in a Letter Bearing the Executive's Signature—A Tense Moment in Convention at Burlington.

Burlington, Oct. 31.—The Vermont branch of the American Legion, in its annual convention in Burlington yesterday, made a flat-footed demand upon Governor P. W. Clement, who was occupying a seat on the platform of the convention, that he explain a certain letter bearing his signature in which were statements considered by the Legion representatives as insulting to men who wore the uniform of the United States army in the world war.

Seated on the platform facing the convention, Governor Clement was called upon by H. Nelson Jackson of Burlington, who has headed the Vermont branch as temporary chairman since its organization, to retract the statements contained in his letter. A storm of applause from the floor of the convention greeted the action of Major Jackson, while not a voice was raised in defense of the governor.

Governor Clement had already addressed the convention, before any mention had been made of the letter in question. In a voice which shook with emotion, and before the hostile eyes of the ex-servicemen of the Green Mountain state, the governor tried to explain his situation. His explanation seemed not very satisfactory to the convention until at the direct question of Major Jackson, Governor Clement said that he would write another letter denying an intent before the hostile eyes of the ex-servicemen of the Green Mountain state, the governor tried to explain his situation.
