

RANDOLPH

Miss Marguerite Harrington of East Brookfield spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Bert Gay.

The regular meeting of Col. Isaac Converse chapter, Daughters of America Revolution, was held on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 29, at the home of Abbie F. Clarke, with a large attendance. One name for membership was balloted upon and unanimously elected to become a member of the chapter. The roll call was then given, with responses furnished by Mrs. E. O. Blanchard, Mrs. Julia Cummings and Miss Beatrice Pinney, who were all present. Piano duets, which were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. G. H. Temple, regent, then gave an account of the meetings of the chapter in the last 10 years, for anniversary having fallen upon the 10th of this month. This was very interesting. In the absence of Miss Hayward, to whom was announced the topic for a paper, "The First Thanksgiving," Mrs. Lemuel Richmond read the same at her request. Miss Grace Applebee of Littleton, N. H., then gave a vocal selection, accompanied by Mrs. L. S. Brigham, and this was so well enjoyed that a second one was requested, to which she generously responded. Miss Winifred Richmond followed with a paper on "Old New England Churches," which was interesting to all. The usual social hour followed and refreshments were served. The business meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Hayward, which when their papers are returned will become members of the chapter, and they will be received with a warm welcome.

Mrs. Fannie L. Vinton of East Granville was in town on Saturday, the guest of friends, and left to-day for Melrose Highlands for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Burnell of Woodstock closed a two weeks' visit in this place with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Manchester and left for their home on Saturday.

Mrs. Gladys Wilson Bundy was in town on Saturday calling upon friends, before returning to her home in Rochester, where she is a teacher in the high school.

Mrs. Bert Farnsworth returned Saturday from Roxbury, where she had been with her father, Stephen Butterfield, who is now in his 85th year and quite well.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lamb of Gilbertville, Mass., the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. M. W. Campbell, on Saturday, had gone to Warren to visit relatives.

Mrs. A. B. Holmes, who has been for several months at the inn, has returned to her home in Waban, Mass., for the winter.

Miss Esther Stimers was in White River Junction on Saturday to visit her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Lazzelle.

Fred W. Curtis has deeded the house owned by him on Forest street, north-east side, to Mrs. Essie L. Hook, who comes from Chelsea to occupy the same.

A. D. Stone, who has been for the last two weeks with A. C. Slack, left Monday for his home in New York City, where he will pass a few weeks before going to a military college in Indiana.

Gerald Rupp, U. S. navy, has recently received a change from pilot to radio operator. Seaman Rupp expects to remain at Newport, R. I., for a few weeks, after which he will go to the Great Lakes Naval Training school, near Chicago, for an extended course.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Fannie Jones was held at the home on South Main street on Saturday afternoon at 3:30. Rev. Fraser Metzger officiating, and interment was in Southview cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Jones have closed their home on South Main street and gone to Boston for an extended stay.

Rev. W. S. Smithers went to Wilder Saturday to occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday, there being no regular pastor for the church there till about Jan. 1.

A very pretty surprise was tendered Miss Marguerite Harrington last Monday evening at the home of Miss Doris Reynolds, in honor of her approaching marriage to Robert Gay of this place. The rooms were tastefully decorated in green and white and several beautiful articles, consisting of cut glass and linen, were left with good wishes for the recipient. A dainty buffet luncheon of ice cream, water and "good luck" cake was served and all report a jolly good time.

KEMP'S BALSAM WILL STOP THAT COUGH GUARANTEED

Opera House To-night The Urban Stock Co. WITH FRANK URBAN LeRoy Kenneth and Chas. Mills in "The Dummy" The Detective Comedy Hit of the Season POPULAR PRICES 25c, 35c, 50c, plus war tax To-morrow "PALS FIRST"

CHelsea

Philip J. Little, who came here with the remains of his wife for funeral and interment recently, has returned to his home in Fitchburg, Mass.

Allen & Underhill have recently installed a new 500-candlepower lamp for their moving pictures, which enables them to produce pictures equal to those seen in the larger theatres.

The quarantine for diphtheria has been raised from the families of Fred D. and Lyman D. Parkhurst, and it has been most gratifying to know that there was no spread of the contagion by reason of strict observance of the quarantine.

Mrs. C. E. Jackson, who had been visiting friends in town and also in Barre, has returned to her home in Brookline, Mass.

Mrs. O. D. Tracy and son, Robert, who have been guests of friends and relatives in Montpelier, have returned home.

Miss Amber Cole has completed her work in Quechee and is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Cole, on the west hill.

Miss Elsie F. Welch has finished work as table girl at the inn and gone to her home in Fitchburg.

Judge S. C. Wilson, who has been presiding at the September term of court in Windham county, has completed the work on the civil docket and the term of court has adjourned and he returned home Wednesday evening. He will return to Newfane later in the winter to hear some chancery cases. He is teaching in Harlow Park to-day to preside at the December term of Lamoille county court, which convenes Dec. 2.

Eddie Boardman, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boardman, has gone to Northfield to work in a stone-shed.

Miss Lizzie Townsend of Barre has been the guest of her brother, W. P. Townsend, and wife during Thanksgiving week.

Among those who were here for Thanksgiving we noted the following: Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart and son of Barre, at Hale K. Darling's; Vinton C. Corwin of Dartmouth college at E. A. Corwin's; Misses Ruth and Delia Ransom, who are attending a commercial college at Manchester, N. H., at H. E. Ransom's; Miss Nova M. Bohannon, who is teaching in Harlow Park at L. H. Bohannon's; Mrs. Gail Helmer and son, George Helmer, of New York City, at William F. Hood's.

Mrs. Martin and son, Needham, who have been guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. M. C. Taft, for several weeks, left last week for Hyde Park to visit Mrs. Martin's mother, after which they will return to their home in Nashville, Tenn.

Hale K. Darling was in Bradford on legal business Saturday.

What was for many years the Methodist parsonage on North Main street has been sold and deeded to Will Hathaway, who buys for a home, and Mr. Hathaway has accepted the position of engineer at the bobbin shop, which will be open for business the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Hathaway, who for several years have lived on the John Stanley farm in Washington, have rented Will A. Reed's tenement house near the bobbin shop and have already taken possession.

Frank C. Dickinson of Montpelier visited friends and relatives in town Thursday.

The afternoon stage to South Royalton, which during the summer and fall has left the local postoffice at 2:30, has gone onto the winter schedule, leaving now at 1:30 p. m.

At the annual meeting of the Tyrian club, which was held recently at their club rooms, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Ernest A. Corwin; vice-president, Edward B. Hatch; secretary and treasurer, Charles E. Dickinson; executive committee, Herbert F. Comstock, Guy A. Buck and Leon E. Grant.

The Thanksgiving ball held under the auspices of the local post, No. 61, of the American Legion was well attended and the music furnished for the occasion by a Barre orchestra of four pieces was good and there were many in attendance from out of town.

Prof. Hough and the boys from the high school are remodeling the upper floor in the old schoolhouse building into a large and commodious hall for the purpose of holding basketball games this winter.

A. W. Saunders and his partner, Mr. O'Neill of Lowell, Mass., were in town several days last week making arrangements for starting up work at the bobbin shop.

Charles E. Dickinson, who recently purchased the Horace H. Jones farm on the east hill, has built a new sugar house and will endeavor to make use of the splendid sugar place on the farm next spring. Ben A. Goodrich has also built a new sugarhouse on his farm on the west hill.

Miss Shirley Camp has gone to Brookline, Mass., to assist Mr. C. E. Jackson in her household duties for a few weeks.

Herbert E. Ransom and J. O. Perkins have each been so unfortunate as to lose some livestock by reason of the animals having got access to Paris green or other poison.

Joe Darling was home from Goddard seminary for the Thanksgiving recess. George Dunbar, who has lived on the east hill for many years, has moved to the village and is living with Charles Gifford.

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. McKinley were with their son, Dr. L. E. McKinley, at North Haverhill over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Morrison of Barre were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Crow Thanksgiving day.

Columbia Rosa has gone to Lisbon, N. H., to work in the family of the young Italian who recently purchased a large peg mill in that town to insure a supply of pegs for the industries of his native town in Italy.

Everett Heartz, who is now stationed at the Charlestown navy yard, is spending a furlough at home. His sister, Edna, who is in school in Boston, accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Beaton and daughter, Barbara, returned from a visit to East Roxbury Friday.

Two dances and two moving picture shows in grange hall this week have kept the younger people entertained and dispelled the idea that this is a dull town.

B. H. Benedict, C. E. Benedict, H. A. Eastman, Merton Little of Chelsea and Mark Spaulding have a hunting camp in "Bingo," a timber tract in the west part of Rochester.

W. H. Parrott is here from Boston for the hunting season. Robert Snell, of Windsor, G. W. Hatch and Florian Parsons from Springfield, Ellery C. Howes of Shelburne farms was a Thanksgiving day guest at Albert L. Dinsmore's.

Miss Elizabeth Crain returned Saturday to Burlington after caring for James F. Ripley during his recent illness.

James F. Ripley, 23, of Somerville, Mass., has been visiting his uncle. Many persons who have been availing themselves of the reduced prices charged at the army retail stores will be interested to know that to relieve the congestion of mails at Christmas time no orders for delivery by parcel post will be accepted after Dec. 10. The latest list of supplies has been posted at the postoffice.

Ralph Preston was taken Friday to the Randolph sanatorium for treatment and a slight operation.

Mr. C. C. Paine and his family reached Savannah, Ga., last Wednesday by boat from Boston, on their way to Federal Point, Fla.

The household goods belonging to the estate of L. E. Squires were sold at auction Saturday by C. W. Taylor, the administrator.

Miss Ellaween Sandars is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Gilpin, in Northfield.

Miss Grace Rowe visited Miss Lettie Evans at Randolph Center Saturday.

Miss Jessie Archibald visited at the home of Miss Ruth Leonard in Stockbridge over the Thanksgiving recess.

A clean house with plenty of fresh air and sunshine is a long step in the direction of health, says the United States public health service.

CHelsea

Philip J. Little, who came here with the remains of his wife for funeral and interment recently, has returned to his home in Fitchburg, Mass.

Allen & Underhill have recently installed a new 500-candlepower lamp for their moving pictures, which enables them to produce pictures equal to those seen in the larger theatres.

The quarantine for diphtheria has been raised from the families of Fred D. and Lyman D. Parkhurst, and it has been most gratifying to know that there was no spread of the contagion by reason of strict observance of the quarantine.

Mrs. C. E. Jackson, who had been visiting friends in town and also in Barre, has returned to her home in Brookline, Mass.

Mrs. O. D. Tracy and son, Robert, who have been guests of friends and relatives in Montpelier, have returned home.

Miss Amber Cole has completed her work in Quechee and is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Cole, on the west hill.

Miss Elsie F. Welch has finished work as table girl at the inn and gone to her home in Fitchburg.

Judge S. C. Wilson, who has been presiding at the September term of court in Windham county, has completed the work on the civil docket and the term of court has adjourned and he returned home Wednesday evening. He will return to Newfane later in the winter to hear some chancery cases. He is teaching in Harlow Park to-day to preside at the December term of Lamoille county court, which convenes Dec. 2.

Eddie Boardman, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boardman, has gone to Northfield to work in a stone-shed.

Miss Lizzie Townsend of Barre has been the guest of her brother, W. P. Townsend, and wife during Thanksgiving week.

Among those who were here for Thanksgiving we noted the following: Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart and son of Barre, at Hale K. Darling's; Vinton C. Corwin of Dartmouth college at E. A. Corwin's; Misses Ruth and Delia Ransom, who are attending a commercial college at Manchester, N. H., at H. E. Ransom's; Miss Nova M. Bohannon, who is teaching in Harlow Park at L. H. Bohannon's; Mrs. Gail Helmer and son, George Helmer, of New York City, at William F. Hood's.

Mrs. Martin and son, Needham, who have been guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. M. C. Taft, for several weeks, left last week for Hyde Park to visit Mrs. Martin's mother, after which they will return to their home in Nashville, Tenn.

Hale K. Darling was in Bradford on legal business Saturday.

What was for many years the Methodist parsonage on North Main street has been sold and deeded to Will Hathaway, who buys for a home, and Mr. Hathaway has accepted the position of engineer at the bobbin shop, which will be open for business the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Hathaway, who for several years have lived on the John Stanley farm in Washington, have rented Will A. Reed's tenement house near the bobbin shop and have already taken possession.

Frank C. Dickinson of Montpelier visited friends and relatives in town Thursday.

The afternoon stage to South Royalton, which during the summer and fall has left the local postoffice at 2:30, has gone onto the winter schedule, leaving now at 1:30 p. m.

At the annual meeting of the Tyrian club, which was held recently at their club rooms, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Ernest A. Corwin; vice-president, Edward B. Hatch; secretary and treasurer, Charles E. Dickinson; executive committee, Herbert F. Comstock, Guy A. Buck and Leon E. Grant.

The Thanksgiving ball held under the auspices of the local post, No. 61, of the American Legion was well attended and the music furnished for the occasion by a Barre orchestra of four pieces was good and there were many in attendance from out of town.

Prof. Hough and the boys from the high school are remodeling the upper floor in the old schoolhouse building into a large and commodious hall for the purpose of holding basketball games this winter.

A. W. Saunders and his partner, Mr. O'Neill of Lowell, Mass., were in town several days last week making arrangements for starting up work at the bobbin shop.

Charles E. Dickinson, who recently purchased the Horace H. Jones farm on the east hill, has built a new sugar house and will endeavor to make use of the splendid sugar place on the farm next spring. Ben A. Goodrich has also built a new sugarhouse on his farm on the west hill.

Miss Shirley Camp has gone to Brookline, Mass., to assist Mr. C. E. Jackson in her household duties for a few weeks.

Herbert E. Ransom and J. O. Perkins have each been so unfortunate as to lose some livestock by reason of the animals having got access to Paris green or other poison.

Joe Darling was home from Goddard seminary for the Thanksgiving recess. George Dunbar, who has lived on the east hill for many years, has moved to the village and is living with Charles Gifford.

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. McKinley were with their son, Dr. L. E. McKinley, at North Haverhill over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Morrison of Barre were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Crow Thanksgiving day.

Columbia Rosa has gone to Lisbon, N. H., to work in the family of the young Italian who recently purchased a large peg mill in that town to insure a supply of pegs for the industries of his native town in Italy.

Everett Heartz, who is now stationed at the Charlestown navy yard, is spending a furlough at home. His sister, Edna, who is in school in Boston, accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Beaton and daughter, Barbara, returned from a visit to East Roxbury Friday.

Two dances and two moving picture shows in grange hall this week have kept the younger people entertained and dispelled the idea that this is a dull town.

B. H. Benedict, C. E. Benedict, H. A. Eastman, Merton Little of Chelsea and Mark Spaulding have a hunting camp in "Bingo," a timber tract in the west part of Rochester.

W. H. Parrott is here from Boston for the hunting season. Robert Snell, of Windsor, G. W. Hatch and Florian Parsons from Springfield, Ellery C. Howes of Shelburne farms was a Thanksgiving day guest at Albert L. Dinsmore's.

Miss Elizabeth Crain returned Saturday to Burlington after caring for James F. Ripley during his recent illness.

James F. Ripley, 23, of Somerville, Mass., has been visiting his uncle. Many persons who have been availing themselves of the reduced prices charged at the army retail stores will be interested to know that to relieve the congestion of mails at Christmas time no orders for delivery by parcel post will be accepted after Dec. 10. The latest list of supplies has been posted at the postoffice.

Ralph Preston was taken Friday to the Randolph sanatorium for treatment and a slight operation.

Mr. C. C. Paine and his family reached Savannah, Ga., last Wednesday by boat from Boston, on their way to Federal Point, Fla.

The household goods belonging to the estate of L. E. Squires were sold at auction Saturday by C. W. Taylor, the administrator.

Miss Ellaween Sandars is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Gilpin, in Northfield.

Miss Grace Rowe visited Miss Lettie Evans at Randolph Center Saturday.

Miss Jessie Archibald visited at the home of Miss Ruth Leonard in Stockbridge over the Thanksgiving recess.

A clean house with plenty of fresh air and sunshine is a long step in the direction of health, says the United States public health service.

CHelsea

Philip J. Little, who came here with the remains of his wife for funeral and interment recently, has returned to his home in Fitchburg, Mass.

Allen & Underhill have recently installed a new 500-candlepower lamp for their moving pictures, which enables them to produce pictures equal to those seen in the larger theatres.

The quarantine for diphtheria has been raised from the families of Fred D. and Lyman D. Parkhurst, and it has been most gratifying to know that there was no spread of the contagion by reason of strict observance of the quarantine.

Mrs. C. E. Jackson, who had been visiting friends in town and also in Barre, has returned to her home in Brookline, Mass.

Mrs. O. D. Tracy and son, Robert, who have been guests of friends and relatives in Montpelier, have returned home.

Miss Amber Cole has completed her work in Quechee and is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Cole, on the west hill.

Miss Elsie F. Welch has finished work as table girl at the inn and gone to her home in Fitchburg.

Judge S. C. Wilson, who has been presiding at the September term of court in Windham county, has completed the work on the civil docket and the term of court has adjourned and he returned home Wednesday evening. He will return to Newfane later in the winter to hear some chancery cases. He is teaching in Harlow Park to-day to preside at the December term of Lamoille county court, which convenes Dec. 2.

Eddie Boardman, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boardman, has gone to Northfield to work in a stone-shed.

Miss Lizzie Townsend of Barre has been the guest of her brother, W. P. Townsend, and wife during Thanksgiving week.

Among those who were here for Thanksgiving we noted the following: Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart and son of Barre, at Hale K. Darling's; Vinton C. Corwin of Dartmouth college at E. A. Corwin's; Misses Ruth and Delia Ransom, who are attending a commercial college at Manchester, N. H., at H. E. Ransom's; Miss Nova M. Bohannon, who is teaching in Harlow Park at L. H. Bohannon's; Mrs. Gail Helmer and son, George Helmer, of New York City, at William F. Hood's.

Mrs. Martin and son, Needham, who have been guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. M. C. Taft, for several weeks, left last week for Hyde Park to visit Mrs. Martin's mother, after which they will return to their home in Nashville, Tenn.

Hale K. Darling was in Bradford on legal business Saturday.

What was for many years the Methodist parsonage on North Main street has been sold and deeded to Will Hathaway, who buys for a home, and Mr. Hathaway has accepted the position of engineer at the bobbin shop, which will be open for business the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Hathaway, who for several years have lived on the John Stanley farm in Washington, have rented Will A. Reed's tenement house near the bobbin shop and have already taken possession.

Frank C. Dickinson of Montpelier visited friends and relatives in town Thursday.

The afternoon stage to South Royalton, which during the summer and fall has left the local postoffice at 2:30, has gone onto the winter schedule, leaving now at 1:30 p. m.

At the annual meeting of the Tyrian club, which was held recently at their club rooms, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Ernest A. Corwin; vice-president, Edward B. Hatch; secretary and treasurer, Charles E. Dickinson; executive committee, Herbert F. Comstock, Guy A. Buck and Leon E. Grant.

The Thanksgiving ball held under the auspices of the local post, No. 61, of the American Legion was well attended and the music furnished for the occasion by a Barre orchestra of four pieces was good and there were many in attendance from out of town.

Prof. Hough and the boys from the high school are remodeling the upper floor in the old schoolhouse building into a large and commodious hall for the purpose of holding basketball games this winter.

A. W. Saunders and his partner, Mr. O'Neill of Lowell, Mass., were in town several days last week making arrangements for starting up work at the bobbin shop.

Charles E. Dickinson, who recently purchased the Horace H. Jones farm on the east hill, has built a new sugar house and will endeavor to make use of the splendid sugar place on the farm next spring. Ben A. Goodrich has also built a new sugarhouse on his farm on the west hill.

Miss Shirley Camp has gone to Brookline, Mass., to assist Mr. C. E. Jackson in her household duties for a few weeks.

Herbert E. Ransom and J. O. Perkins have each been so unfortunate as to lose some livestock by reason of the animals having got access to Paris green or other poison.

Joe Darling was home from Goddard seminary for the Thanksgiving recess. George Dunbar, who has lived on the east hill for many years, has moved to the village and is living with Charles Gifford.

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. McKinley were with their son, Dr. L. E. McKinley, at North Haverhill over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Morrison of Barre were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Crow Thanksgiving day.

Columbia Rosa has gone to Lisbon, N. H., to work in the family of the young Italian who recently purchased a large peg mill in that town to insure a supply of pegs for the industries of his native town in Italy.

Everett Heartz, who is now stationed at the Charlestown navy yard, is spending a furlough at home. His sister, Edna, who is in school in Boston, accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Beaton and daughter, Barbara, returned from a visit to East Roxbury Friday.

Two dances and two moving picture shows in grange hall this week have kept the younger people entertained and dispelled the idea that this is a dull town.

B. H. Benedict, C. E. Benedict, H. A. Eastman, Merton Little of Chelsea and Mark Spaulding have a hunting camp in "Bingo," a timber tract in the west part of Rochester.

W. H. Parrott is here from Boston for the hunting season. Robert Snell, of Windsor, G. W. Hatch and Florian Parsons from Springfield, Ellery C. Howes of Shelburne farms was a Thanksgiving day guest at Albert L. Dinsmore's.

Miss Elizabeth Crain returned Saturday to Burlington after caring for James F. Ripley during his recent illness.

James F. Ripley, 23, of Somerville, Mass., has been visiting his uncle. Many persons who have been availing themselves of the reduced prices charged at the army retail stores will be interested to know that to relieve the congestion of mails at Christmas time no orders for delivery by parcel post will be accepted after Dec. 10. The latest list of supplies has been posted at the postoffice.

Ralph Preston was taken Friday to the Randolph sanatorium for treatment and a slight operation.

Mr. C. C. Paine and his family reached Savannah, Ga., last Wednesday by boat from Boston, on their way to Federal Point, Fla.

The household goods belonging to the estate of L. E. Squires were sold at auction Saturday by C. W. Taylor, the administrator.

Miss Ellaween Sandars is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Gilpin, in Northfield.

Miss Grace Rowe visited Miss Lettie Evans at Randolph Center Saturday.

Miss Jessie Archibald visited at the home of Miss Ruth Leonard in Stockbridge over the Thanksgiving recess.

A clean house with plenty of fresh air and sunshine is a long step in the direction of health, says the United States public health service.

Feel Tired, Achy-All Played Out?

ARE you dull, tired, achy all over—bothered with a "bad back?" Do you lack energy for the day's work? Evening find you "all played out?" Don't worry so much about it! You can't expect to feel up to par if your kidneys aren't acting right. The kidneys need help occasionally just as the bowels need help. A dull, nagging backache; soreness, lameness and sharp, sudden pains are all symptoms of neglected kidneys. You may have headaches and dizziness, too, and perhaps some annoying kidney irregularity. Don't wait for more serious troubles. Get back your health and keep it! Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

Read These Barre Cases:

PROSPECT STREET: A. J. Stewart, carriage maker, 24-26 Prospect street, says: "Some years ago I suffered from an accident, which left my kidneys weak. I was troubled more or less after that with the kidney secretions. They were off color and generally contained sediment. My back was quite lame at times, and sharp pains ran up and down my spine. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills at such times, and they have always given satisfactory relief."
MERCHANT STREET: Mrs. N. M. Nelson, 20 Merchant street, says: "A severe attack of the grip left my kidneys in a weakened condition. The slightest housework tired me, and after I was on my feet for any great time, sharp pains across my back compelled me to stop and rest. Other complications came on, and my kidneys began to act unnaturally. I paid out over one hundred dollars, seeking relief, but got none. I became discouraged until someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They stopped the trouble in a short time and rid me of the dangerous attack."
BECKLEY COURT: C. H. Simonds, carpenter, 6 Beckley court, says: "My kidneys caused me considerable annoyance by acting irregularly. The kidney secretions contained brick-dust-like sediment and were highly colored. I had sharp, shooting pains across my back that interfered with my work. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, and the benefit they gave me has been permanent."
SUMMER STREET: Mrs. J. F. Robbins, 38 Summer street, says: "My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills leads me to give them a high recommendation. I used them for a severe case of backache. I was so run down it was hard for me to walk. Mornings my limbs were very lame. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills, which were procured at Cummings & Lewis' Drug Store, entirely rid me of the complaint."

Doan's Kidney Pills

Every Druggist has Doan's, 60c a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Manufacturing Chemists, Buffalo, N. Y.

SOUTH RYEGATE

Raymond Beaton and wife of Springfield, Mass., are spending a week with Mrs. Jeanie Beaton.

Frank Rosa returned Saturday from a business trip to Boston and is now packing up preparatory to removing his family to Barre.

Rev. J. S. Garvin was in Albany, N. Y., the first of the week attending a meeting of his denomination.