

Electric Portable, Floor Lamps and Domes Portable Lamps

What would be more appropriate and useful a gift to your wife, mother or sister, than one of these beautiful Lamps for the parlor, dining-room, or a small ivory standard Lamp for the boudoir? They will not only be appreciated now, but every glance at one of these handsome lights will bring up memories of the loved one who made such a useful gift.

Floor Lamps

Our Floor Lamps with mahogany standards and embroidered shades are in the most pleasing of color effects. Ask us to light them for you, so that you may see this display. Also a beautiful Willow Lamp to match that willow furniture of yours.

Domes

Our line of Domes, both with direct and indirect lighting systems, is as complete as money and good judgment can make it.

Look our show windows over to-night when you are down-town. They will be all lighted up and that is the proper time to judge a lamp.

Is Every Animal At Its Best?

Don't let your stock lose their Summer's gain through November neglect. Your animals are now going on dry feed—hay and grain.

It's a big change from the succulent, nutritious grasses of summer pastures which supply the needed laxatives and tonics.

Keep your animals' bowels open and regular—drive out the worms—keep their blood rich and keep their digestion good by feeding regularly

Dr. Hess Stock Tonic

A Conditioner and Worm Expeller

Don't allow your stock to "get off feed" and in a run-down condition. Condition your cows for calving by feeding Dr. Hess Stock Tonic before freshening. Then feed it regularly to increase the flow of milk. It lengthens the milking period.

Buy Stock Tonic according to the size of your herd. Get from your dealer two pounds for each average hog, five pounds for each horse, cow or steer, to start with, feed as directed and then watch results.

Miss Gertrude Lascor was pleasantly surprised at her home on North Main street Saturday night, when many of her young friends gathered in honor of her third birthday. Many games were played and before the young guests left their happy hostess, a dainty lunch was served, consisting of ice cream, cake and wafers.

William E. Gregory left this morning for Boston, after visiting three weeks at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Gregory. He will stay several days in Boston with his brother, Frank, before returning to Albany, N. Y., to resume his duties as conductor on the Twentieth Century Limited, New York Central railroad.

Richard S. Little of the west hill returned Saturday with one of the largest deer shot by a Barre man. In company with Harry Houghton, Redfield Hoar, Alex. Milne, Jr. and Belmont Houghton he was camped in the mountains of Orange. His prize was shot on Thursday and when dressed weighed in the vicinity of 200 pounds.

In the left ear was plainly visible the "V" placed there by the state some 25 years ago. There were eight prongs to the horns.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gage of Burlington, who are engaged in preparing for the American Legion post No. 1, Barre, the musical comedy entitled, "Marrying Mary," have the parts nearly all assigned and have staged two rehearsals. The much talked of part of Mary will be played by Miss Myrtle Gow. Alex. Stratton, alias Buckskin Rex, will play a big western role.

Another part which will figure as a leader is the detective part which will be played by the young law student, Dean Davis. This gives young Davis a chance to give vent to some of his ambitions in the line of a sleuth.

Ralph A. Martin, son of Joseph Martin of Moretown, but formerly of Barre, got a deer Wednesday morning and coming home, when he got on the main road, he loaded his deer onto Mr. Ward's lumber team. As he got nearly to the house, the deer started to slide off the load and Mr. Martin took his rifle in his right hand and in pushing the deer back onto the load accidentally discharged the firearm, a bullet going through his hand. He was brought by automobile to Heaton hospital, Montpelier, where it was found that some bones were broken near the wrist.

He will have to remain at the hospital several days before he can be taken home.

Mrs. John Brechin of Webster street suffered a painful injury as a result of slippery sidewalks Saturday afternoon when she fell, breaking both bones in her left leg below the knee. Mrs. Brechin was visiting in the home of Mrs. Helen Petrie at 7 Summer street and had just started down the incline towards the street when her feet slipped and she fell heavily to the ground. She was carried into the house and Dr. W. D. Reid was summoned. The truck of Charles Leith was pressed into service and the woman removed to her home, where the breaks were reduced. A daughter, Miss Margaret Brechin, nurse at Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, arrived yesterday to take care of her mother. Mrs. Brechin had a very comfortable night last night and although it will be some time before she will be able to use the limb no serious result is expected.

Skating on the thinnest of ice from the point of piquancy as it is understood in American farce—and yet never once is there any breaking through, either of the ice or the bounds of propriety, "La La Lucille" will be seen at the opera house Tuesday, Dec. 9, and while the book may perhaps be regarded at times as a trifle "risque" by some, it is so uproariously and almost continuously funny that only the super-particular folks have time to decide whether it is all entirely proper or not—adv.

Life in the underbrush and thickets of Worcester and vicinity netted two deer, one being dropped by the proprietor of the Baltimore lunch, Tom Mercer, and the other by a campmate, Cecil "Zeke" Dowers. The other four of the party, Feno Wetmore, Arthur Jones, John Mahoney and A. A. Lamorey came back without deer. Mr. Mercer's deer weighed 120 pounds and that of Mr. Dowers 110. The four least fortunate gunnison hunters gained, besides good appetites, a thorough knowledge of the intricacies of the Worcester mountain trails and contemplate at the next open season acting as guides in that domain.

Contrary to the usual custom at the Roman Catholic church, midnight mass on Christmas eve will not be celebrated this year, according to a notice given by Rev. P. M. McKenna at St. Monica's church yesterday. This ruling will also have effect in every other parish of the Burlington diocese, embracing Vermont, since the decree was received from the Rt. Rev. Bishop J. J. Rice of Burlington. The privilege is granted once a year by the pope at Rome to the individual dioceses but it has not been received as yet. Just how many dioceses of the United States and Canada will also be deprived of the midnight services at Roman Catholic churches is not known.

possibly there may be no others. It is, however, the first time in the history of the Burlington diocese, or as far as can be learned, that this privilege has not been granted.

WEST BERLIN. Fred Davis from Northfield has recently moved his family into one of Davis brothers' tenements in this place.

Milton Leonard from Ferrisburg and two of his friends, E. A. Chamberlain and Eaton Nichols, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Leonard, last week.

Miss M. L. Libbey spent a short time in Northfield last Friday.

Mrs. Florence Hewitt was called to White River Junction last week by the illness of her sister, Mrs. McNichol, who has been ill some time.

Mrs. Catherine Rummy returned home last Wednesday, after visiting friends in Boston some two weeks.

Adeloy Provost, who is representing Provost & Son in the western states, has just returned from a four months' trip.

There will be a box social and entertainment in the parish house on Wednesday evening, Dec. 10. Coffee will be served. Ladies, bring lunch enough for two.

Mrs. George LaForest from Northfield spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Ed Provost, last week.

Miss Myra Libbey, who has been spending several weeks with friends in New Hampshire, returned home last Friday.

Miss Corrie Streeter spent last Friday with friends in Northfield.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Patterson were in Northfield last Friday.

WAITSFIELD

John Maxwell and family have moved into Mrs. Zina McAllister's house for the winter.

Harold Fisk has purchased a farm in St. Johnsbury.

More than 300 people gathered Friday evening at the community reception in the Odd Fellows' hall for the service boys. After the introductory selection by Carroll's orchestra of Barre, there was a brief address of welcome by Rev. W. A. Remele. Then came a very fine musical program by the orchestra, interspersed with appropriate solo selections by Mrs. Billings, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Fory and H. C. Tilton. Two finely executed pieces were given on the violin by Arthur Spitzer by invitation. At the close of the musical program there was a bountiful serving of ice cream and cake. Then followed the dance, extending till 2 o'clock in the morning, and at which many couples remained. The occasion was one of pronounced enjoyment, and was felt to have been a great success by all present.

Mr. Cooper, agent for The Farm and Home of Springfield, Mass., spent several days in town last week.

Rev. W. A. Remele has been engaged to remain as pastor of the Congregational church for another year, beginning Jan. 1, 1920.

C. J. Green left Saturday night for Petaluma, Cal., to visit his brother, Frank Green, and consider what openings in a business direction he might find.

Connor, Hazel Palmer, Clarence Tucker, Ruth Farr and Ralph Joslin; prayer meeting committee, Earl Jones, Rev. W. A. Remele, Dwight Joslin, Clara Spaulding and Alice Bushnell; social committee, L. Jean Bisbee, Ruth Jones, Marion Jones, Philip Bisbee and William Graves; music committee, Dorothy Savage, Ward Joslin, Elsie Long; flower committee, Mrs. A. E. Farr, Orman Tucker, Everett Farr and E. S. Joslin.

JIMMY WILDE OUTPOINTED.

But He Gave Good Account of Himself Against Jack Sharkey.

Chicago, Dec. 8.—Jimmy Wilde, the British flyweight champion, although outpointed Saturday night by Jack Sharkey, New York bantamweight, is regarded as a remarkable fighter by newspaper boxing experts who saw the Britisher's first fight.

The little Welchman's superb blocking, side stepping, accurate hitting and gameness would be more plainly appreciated under the right system of scoring points, experts agreed, than by the American ringside men who revel in hard hitting and a rough and smashing style.

Wilde did not box a defensive battle, on the contrary, he did his share of the leading and stood toe to toe and slugged with his heavier opponent. But he did not pack the punch that was expected of him, although his right cross was dangerous until the final bell.

The quartet of soloists from the pope's private chapel, the Sistine chapel of the Vatican, Rome, are to appear at the U. V. M. gym at Burlington on Tuesday evening, Dec. 16, under the management of Arthur W. Dow. Members of the oldest choir in history and the most famous choir of the world has ever known, their tour of this country has been a memorable event in the annals of music in America. Gabrielli, Gentili, Cecchini and Dos Santos all fought in the Italian army and won glory on the field. Each was decorated for valor.

Their appearance in Burlington will be the most important musical event of the season.

Mail orders filed now; address Arthur W. Dow, P. O. box 153, Burlington. Tickets, $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50, and $3. War tax must be included and stamped addressed envelope. Public sale at Majestic theatre beginning Friday, Dec. 12—adv.
