Let America's foremost judge examine your poultry and settle the argument which you may have with your neighbors or friends as to who have the best poultry, at the Vermont Poultry association show Dec. 23, 24 and 25.
William G. Adams, who is affiliated with the Marr & Gordon manufacturing plant of this city, passed the week end with his family on Washington street. For the past several months he has been in Ausable Forks, N. Y., superintending the work of opening a new quarry of green granite, analyzed and tested as a stone of fine durability besides being very attractive. Mr. Adams was accompanied here by M. J. Crowley, quarry superintendent of the Moss Rose Granite company of Ausable Forks, who returned with him to-day.
Francis Cleary of North Main street will be detained from his work at the North Barre stoneshed a number of days as a result of an injury to his right hand, he having lost the forefinger at the first joint. He was holding a piece of box board for one of the employes to cut and had remarked to the wielder of the axe that he would like to have him be careful and not cut his hand. He then withdrew his hand and returned it again to the same position with only the forefinger outstretched, and with the next blow the chopper connected with the axe across the finger, severing it from the hand. Medical assistance was obtained and the man is now comfortable, but compelled to be idle for a few days.

J. J. Travers, a former employe of the N. D. Phelps Hardware Co., arrived in Barre yesterday for a short visit, and left this morning for his home in Whitefield, N. H. Mr. Travers left Barre several months ago for the Portland, Maine, where he has been taking treatment since that time. He returns much improved in health and expects to return to work in the early part of the year.
The Merchants' association has extended its co-operation to the American Legion by agreeing to close the stores on Thursday and Friday evenings, so that the Christmas shopping will not interfere with the attendance of anyone at the performances of "Marrying Mary" on those nights. So don't miss this, the big event of the theatrical season, but come and bring your family, for this is a play which will appeal to old and young—adv.
Considerable interest is being shown over the wrestling match to be staged in the Socialist hall, Granite street on Wednesday night. It has been several years since Barre sports have had an opportunity of witnessing a battle royal on the mat and no doubt there will be a large crowd at the ringside tomorrow night. Joe Shimkus, the Lithuanian middleweight, remembered here as a member of the Beacon carnival shows, will meet Joe Santos. Santos is known as the big Italian and makes his headquarters at the "Bachelors", N. Y. He has wrestled many of the heavyweights up and down New York state, among whom are Zbysko and Stecker. If sufficient support is given the promoters, other matches will be put on in Barre this winter.
Pleasing Recital Given at Goddard.
Local and outside talent represented at the Goddard seminary music recital last evening gave a fine account of itself and displayed the beginning of careful training when it presented to a small audience a most pleasing musical program of about 20 numbers. In two numbers the girls' glee club accounted well of themselves and their trainers as the opening of the program. Then Miss Verna Sartell and Miss Sylvia Beaulieu each played a piano solo; the respective pieces were "Scherzo" and "The Butterfly," followed by the singing of "Rose Marie" and "O Heart of Mine" by Miss Vera Benjamin. Miss Arline Hutchins produced the "Awakening of Spring" most pleasingly at the piano. This was followed by the work which seemed to take as well as any of the program, when "Dance Moderne" was played by the Misses Lease and Sartell on two pianos.
Miss Hazel Billings rendered two pleasing solos, "De Gray Owl" and "Mignonette." Miss Lillian Johnson produced a selection from Chopin, followed by the pleasing and well expressed selection, "Berceuse from Jocelyn," played by Miss Marjorie Kent. Edward Hamel, the only man in the recital, who has a promising bass voice, sang "Out on the Deep." Miss Dorothy Shaw played two selections, followed by a group of rose songs sung by Miss Rose Levin. Miss Mary Allen was strongly applauded when she played "L'Amour Joyeuse." The pleasing program was closed with another duet for two pianos, Misses Shaw and Lease rendering the same. The program showed the work of untiring patience of both teacher and pupil.

Stated convocation of Granite chapter, No. 20, R. A. M., Tuesday, Dec. 16, at 7 p. m. Business and work M. E. M. Degree Refreshments. Per order E. H. P.

SAVE MEAT—SAVE MONEY

EMMA WILL BE WELCOME

Miss Goldman Told Russia Will Be Pleased to Receive Her.
New York, Dec. 16.—Emma Goldman was informed yesterday by Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, bolshevik "ambassador to the United States," that she, Alexander Berkman and other anarchists awaiting deportation at Ellis Island would be welcome in soviet Russia, whether the government intends to send them.
In a letter to Miss Goldman, Martens denied he had said the bolshevik would execute her if she plotted in soviet Russia as she had in the United States.

Resolutions.

Whereas, Death has removed from our Comrade Newell R. Farnham, a charter member of our post, and for many years a faithful adjutant, always ready to do what he could for the good of the order, and of the year 1919. Whereas, he will be greatly missed in our order and in his home, also in the town in which he has so long been active in the business circles,
Resolved, that the post extend its sympathy to the children and grandchildren of our comrade, and that a copy of these resolutions be presented to them, also that they be placed on the records of this post and a copy be sent to the Barre Daily Times for publication.
O. E. Seaver,
C. J. Cram,
Committee.

Notice.

Anyone knowing of any poor family who will not have a Christmas dinner can report the same to the Salvation Army. Time is short, so it will be necessary to report immediately. Capt. Austin Fry, 15 Mount street, Tel. 261-M.
