

NORTHFIELD

H. M. Howe has been promoted to Major of Reserve Officers' Corps. Harold M. Howe, formerly captain in the 101st ammunition train, has received his promotion to major. He has been assigned major in the artillery section of the reserved officers' corps. Major Howe was captain of Co. D, 1st Vermont infantry, for several years, and saw service with that outfit on the Mexican border. He was again called into service with the company and went across with the outfit, after being transferred to the ammunition train. He saw 22 months' service in France and was twice recommended for major while overseas. Major Howe is associated in business with his father, Col. E. L. Howe, in Northfield, who has a monumental business.

C. M. Goodrich was in Burlington Tuesday, and Mrs. Goodrich, who underwent a serious operation at the Mary Fletcher hospital, three weeks ago, was able to accompany him home.

Miss Ruth Shaw, who attends Columbia university, in New York, is at the home of her parents, Prof. and Mrs. E. A. Shaw.

Gerald Donahue, who has been employed in New London, Conn., is at the home of his parents, Chief of Police and Mrs. J. M. Donahue. He expects to go to work in Northfield.

A meeting was held last week in the interest of the boys' club, which is to be held in Northfield Jan. 23-25. Committees were named and complete arrangements made. It is expected that 450 boys will be present at the conference.

Norman Rice of Concord, Alaska, and daughter, Miss Mabel, who attends Middlebury college, are visiting his father, J. C. Rice, for the holidays.

Miss Roberta Davis, who teaches in Jeffersonville, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis, for the holidays. Miss Helena Davis, who is attending a domestic science school in Boston, is also at her home in town.

S. C. Visker, a former resident of this town now of Claremont, N. H., was a recent visitor in town.

Miss Marion Burns, who is attending the University of Vermont, is at the home of her aunt, Miss Mary Dugan, for the holidays.

Mrs. Charles Spear of Ansonia, Conn., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ryan.

Miss Mildred McCarthy, who is attending Burdette college in Boston, visited in town a few days the past week. From here she went to Montpelier to visit her sisters, the Misses Josephine and Katherine McCarthy.

Miss Pauline Franklin of Springfield, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harmon, at the Park inn.

F. L. Tracy, who has lived at the Harlow bridge for the past 17 years, has moved to Northfield Falls, where they are to have charge of C. M. Davis' boarding house.

Prof. and Mrs. K. R. B. Flint and son, Winston, went to Middlebury last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas. From there they will go to Williamstown, Mass., to visit Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hussey.

Miss Stella Cough, who recently resigned as teacher in the Northfield grammar school, is spending a few days in Montpelier, before going to Connecticut to assume her duties as teacher.

George Cross of the Cross Bros. Granite Co. spent a few days in Boston the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Boynton, who attends the normal school in St. Albans, N. Y., is the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boynton, for the holidays.

Mrs. E. A. Thornell of Brooklyn, N. Y., and sister, Miss Elizabeth Doyle, of Rutland are at the home of their mother, Mrs. John Doyle, for the holidays.

Miss Wilhelmina Brundell, who is attending school in St. Albans, is visiting her aunt, Miss Sarah Brundell, during the holiday vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dearing and son, Howard, of Burlington spent Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Housatonic.

Miss Felicia Falzaroni, who is attending Burdette college in Boston, is at the home of her father, Dominic Falzaroni, for the holiday vacation.

The Tufts musical clubs are to give a concert in Northfield soon, under the auspices of the senior class of the clubs in this town, and everyone is pleased to have the opportunity of hearing them again.

Miss Lila Hedges of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., who recently underwent a very serious surgical operation, is a little better. Her condition has been very critical, but the operation was for ulcers of the stomach.

Mrs. C. R. Russell, who has been in Massachusetts for the past six weeks, has returned home.

Christmas gatherings were held in the homes of Ned Underwood, R. G. Norcross, E. D. Peake and C. R. Russell.

Elsie Underwood and Ethel Russell are at their homes for the Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Lena Fay of East Hardwick was the guest of Mrs. E. D. Peake Friday. Mrs. Milton Meloyne has gone from P. A. Eastman's to Boston.

C. R. Russell was a business visitor in Craftsbury Wednesday.

Don't Bother With the HOT WATER BOTTLE Or the Old Fashioned Mustard Applications.

Radway's JELLYFORM—in a tube—is cleaner, more convenient. Takes away the pain—does not blister or discolor the skin—vanishes quickly—and has a warming, soothing effect.

For the treatment of rheumatism, lumbago, sprains, neuralgia, headache, toothache, in the chest, grip, sore throat, but the affected parts freely with JELLYFORM—it reaches in to the seat of the pain and relieves the patient at once.

JELLYFORM is Radway's Ready Relief in concentrated form—in a collapsible tube—THE MODERN WAY.

Liquid—in bottles or JELLYFORM—in tube. All druggists—35 cents and 70 cents. Radway's Ready Relief

MARSHFIELD

The community spirit was successfully manifested on Wednesday evening when some 275 gathered in the K. of P. hall for the community Christmas celebration. In spite of the snowy weather the attendance was larger than at any time since the war began. The various committees performed their work well. The decorations were especially pleasing. The financial committee met with a hearty response in the endeavor to bring Christmas cheer from the community to all shut-ins. There was a large number of useful and valuable presents. Much credit is due the entertainment committee, under the leadership of Miss Amy Cameron. While the membership of this committee was reduced by illness and absences from town, a very pleasing program was carried out as follows: Song "Little Town of Bethlehem"; children; prayer; Rev. G. A. Furness; recitation; Earle Lunge; song, "Snowflakes"; six girls; exercise, "The Christmas Carol"; recitation, "Mason Davis"; song, "Upon the House-tops"; three girls; exercise, "How the World Keeps Christmas"; recitation, Doris Reed; recitation, Adeline Sicily; exercise, "A Plan That Failed."

A son was born last Monday to Mr. and Mrs. William Inglis of Barre. Mrs. Inglis is the wife of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cole of this village.

The two or three inches of snow which fell Wednesday not only made Christmas a little whiter, but also improved the sleighing, which had become very poor.

The nurse who has been caring for Miss Anna Burham returned to her home in Peacham last Monday for Christmas. Miss Burham is somewhat improved, though not yet up.

In addition to those already reported, the following have been at their various homes for the vacation: Percy and Royce Pitkin from Tufts college and Cornell university, Stanley Lyndes from Pratt institute, Brooklyn, Miss News from Wells River high school, Miss Gladys Newton from Newbury, Miss Leola Taft from Thetford, Miss Ethel Bohanon from Wilder, Miss Dorothy Wooster from Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Grace Wooster from Waterbury, Conn., Miss Edna St. John from Worcester.

Mrs. Flora Bliss has another grandchild, a son having been born last Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Swasey of Danville.

Merton Briggs and family spent Christmas at the home of Orville Cole.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will present the plan of work suggested by the interchurch world movement. It is hoped that all will heartily enlist in this work for Marshfield the coming month. In the evening the topic of the pastor's address will be "Improvement."

Those who have not sufficient coal for the winter will now be able to renew their supply, for as a part of the Christmas cheer there comes the word that a carload is on the way to Marshfield.

Mrs. E. L. Spencer is ill with a hard cold. The Christmas trade for our stores has been unusually good this year.

Mrs. Lucy Bemis has closed her house for the rest of the winter and will board with Mrs. Beckley.

Ernest Lambertson, who has been honored the past few weeks with a lame ankle, caused by an accident in the mill yard, has so far recovered as to be out to the Christmas tree Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Inez Darling, formerly of Marshfield, has been very ill with bronchial pneumonia at Essex Junction. She has sufficiently recovered to accompany her daughter, Mrs. Verne Hudson, to Marshfield on Tuesday. Mrs. Hudson having gone to Essex Junction Monday. Mrs. Darling will remain with her daughter for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Royce and Alton Royce of Brainins were Christmas guests at George H. Luce's.

A. H. Bowen of Walsfield, who has been working at Windsor, was here on his way home for Christmas. After the holidays he will be with his sister, Mrs. E. E. Cushman, during the cold weather.

Miss Agnes Reynolds is at home from Lancaster, Pa., where she does high school work as a teacher of home economics in one of the many state schools. Her school is one of 10 which has been designated as teacher training points for home economics in the state.

Mrs. Charles Batchelder gave a very pleasant Christmas party at her home on Thursday evening.

Misses Ada Gilchrist and Bessie Batchelder are at their homes from their work in Montreal.

I have opened a shoe repairing shop in the Bascom hotel building, entrance at foot of Bascom theatre stairs. All kinds of shoe and rubber work done promptly, thoroughly and at fair prices. H. A. Mack.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Corliss of Belmontville spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. George Martin of South Newbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marsh left Friday for New York City, where they will spend New Year's. Mrs. Marsh expects to be gone about four weeks, while Mr. Marsh will return in a few days.

Clarence Waterman visited his mother, Mrs. A. E. Smith, several days this week.

Miss Isabel Frost of Montpelier has been visiting relatives here during the Christmas recess.

Mrs. Charles Heath passed Thursday and Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Sanders, and family at Woodsville, N. H.

Mrs. John A. Chalmers and son, William, left yesterday to visit friends in Laconia, N. H., and before returning will visit relatives in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taisey and Nelson Taisey of Woodsville, N. H., were guests of friends in town Christmas day.

Miss Jennie Taylor of St. Johnsbury, Miss Agnes Taylor and Alex Burton of Woodsville, N. H., were at Mrs. Marietta Taylor's, Christmas.

Mrs. M. E. Whipple returned Thursday from the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington, where she has been for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Page and sons spent Christmas with their son, Henry Page, and family at Monroe, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Lindsey and others were at South Ryegate on Wednesday to attend the funeral of William Terry.

Mrs. Anna Hastings has returned from an extended visit with her daughter at Bedford, Mass., and is at her home here for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Richardson of Bradford were at the home of Mrs. Richardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dennis, Christmas day.

Miss Alice Lord of St. Johnsbury was among the Christmas visitors in town. Mrs. Minnie White, who was caring for Mrs. W. E. Carpenter and infant son, was called to her home at South Ryegate Tuesday by the accident in which her daughter, Gertrude, was badly burned.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clark of Hardwick have been passing several days here with relatives.

SOUTH RYEGATE

Gertie White Terribly Burned and There is Little Hope of Recovery. Gertie White, the eldest daughter of Mrs. Minnie White, was terribly burned Wednesday by her clothing taking fire from a stove. Little hope is entertained of her recovery.

A. A. Kidder has leased his farm, which has been his home all his life, and taken a house in the village. He will work in the stonemason of Axel Anderson.

Miss Angie Hunter of Lyndonville made a short visit to Mrs. C. M. Libby Friday on her way to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wallace went to Lawrence, Mass., to visit at the former home of Mrs. Wallace over the holiday.

Lloyd Dafling is home from Hartford, Conn., for a short stay.

Carl Samuelson, who is attending Brown university, is spending the Christmas vacation at home.

The Gust Rabonioli and his clerk, George Ingram, were both in Barre over Christmas.

Miss Corinne Samuelson, who holds the position of night superintendent in the Holyoke City hospital, spent Christmas day with her people in South Ryegate.

The funeral services of William Terry were held in the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon. The pastor, Rev. W. T. Bailey, officiating. A quartet composed of A. T. Beaton, Robert McKenzie, Mrs. B. P. Crowe and Mrs. A. R. Bone sang two selections. The bearers were the sons and sons-in-law of the deceased. A beautiful casket and a profusion of magnificent flowers seemed to lessen the gloom of the solemn occasion, though there was sincere mourning even beyond the immediate family connections. Mr. Terry's familiar presence around town, his sympathy for all in trouble and his habitual rendering of services, large and small whenever he saw an opportunity, made for him a special place in the life of the community, which will not soon be filled. To his household goes the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

Adina M. Terry of Torrville, Conn., was called here by the serious illness of his father, arriving Monday and has remained through the week.

Mrs. Charles Ord of Barre is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beaton for a few days.

Misses Rose and Ruth Anderson of Boston spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson.

BETHEL

Selectman Jerome Morgan of Barnard and Holder of Other Offices Dead.

Jerome Morgan, senior selectman of Barnard, for many years a selectman, justice of the peace and school director, died last Wednesday evening and the funeral was held yesterday at the Methodist church in that town. Rev. Louis L. Holway officiating. He is survived by his son, Fred H. Morgan.

Christmas guests at R. E. Burnett's were Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Twitchell and children of Bellows Falls and R. D. Twitchell of Detroit.

Raymond Holway of Barnard, recently in the United States navy, who is taking a pre-medical course at the University of Vermont, returned to Burlington yesterday after a week's rest at home.

Don Wilson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wilson, is quite seriously ill with catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Royce and Alton Royce of Brainins were Christmas guests at George H. Luce's.

A. H. Bowen of Walsfield, who has been working at Windsor, was here on his way home for Christmas. After the holidays he will be with his sister, Mrs. E. E. Cushman, during the cold weather.

Miss Agnes Reynolds is at home from Lancaster, Pa., where she does high school work as a teacher of home economics in one of the many state schools. Her school is one of 10 which has been designated as teacher training points for home economics in the state.

Mrs. Charles Batchelder gave a very pleasant Christmas party at her home on Thursday evening.

Misses Ada Gilchrist and Bessie Batchelder are at their homes from their work in Montreal.

I have opened a shoe repairing shop in the Bascom hotel building, entrance at foot of Bascom theatre stairs. All kinds of shoe and rubber work done promptly, thoroughly and at fair prices. H. A. Mack.

WELLS RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Corliss of Belmontville spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. George Martin of South Newbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marsh left Friday for New York City, where they will spend New Year's. Mrs. Marsh expects to be gone about four weeks, while Mr. Marsh will return in a few days.

Clarence Waterman visited his mother, Mrs. A. E. Smith, several days this week.

Miss Isabel Frost of Montpelier has been visiting relatives here during the Christmas recess.

Mrs. Charles Heath passed Thursday and Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Sanders, and family at Woodsville, N. H.

Mrs. John A. Chalmers and son, William, left yesterday to visit friends in Laconia, N. H., and before returning will visit relatives in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taisey and Nelson Taisey of Woodsville, N. H., were guests of friends in town Christmas day.

Miss Jennie Taylor of St. Johnsbury, Miss Agnes Taylor and Alex Burton of Woodsville, N. H., were at Mrs. Marietta Taylor's, Christmas.

Mrs. M. E. Whipple returned Thursday from the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington, where she has been for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Page and sons spent Christmas with their son, Henry Page, and family at Monroe, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Lindsey and others were at South Ryegate on Wednesday to attend the funeral of William Terry.

Mrs. Anna Hastings has returned from an extended visit with her daughter at Bedford, Mass., and is at her home here for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Richardson of Bradford were at the home of Mrs. Richardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dennis, Christmas day.

Miss Alice Lord of St. Johnsbury was among the Christmas visitors in town. Mrs. Minnie White, who was caring for Mrs. W. E. Carpenter and infant son, was called to her home at South Ryegate Tuesday by the accident in which her daughter, Gertrude, was badly burned.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clark of Hardwick have been passing several days here with relatives.

HARDWICK

James B. Elder, Civil War Veteran, Died Tuesday—Aged 75.

James Bates Elder, a veteran of the Civil war, who has been making his home for some time with T. A. McCall, at the west end, passed away last Tuesday morning, aged 75 years. The remains were taken to Colchester on Wednesday morning for burial. Mr. Elder was born in Augusta, Me., in October, 1844. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. McCall.

Sherman Macomber, a student at Middlebury college, was in town the latter part of last week, calling on friends.

M. W. Jones of Littleton, N. H., was a visitor in town a part of this week. Miss Margaret Bishop of Johnson was a visitor in town Friday and Saturday of this week.

William Lorimer of Portsmouth, N. H., is a guest of friends in town for a few days.

Cecil Thomas of Portsmouth, N. H., is a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Thomas, for a few days.

Miss Marian Webber, an employee of the Hardwick Gazette, has been on the sick list for the past few days.

A school orchestra went to Ferrisville Thursday evening to furnish music for a dance following the basketball game between the legion teams. Miss Dorothy Merriam of Springfield is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Merriam, for a few days.

M. W. Gallagher was home from his work in Burlington over Christmas.

Leigh O. Paquette was home from his work in Swanton Christmas day.

Bernard E. Johnson of Springfield has been home this week visiting relatives.

J. P. Thayer is home from his work in Springfield.

Howard Jones of Bristol, Conn., is visiting relatives in town for a few days.

E. Fairman Crane and wife of Burlington were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Crane over Christmas.

At Jackson arrived home a few days since from the state hospital at Waterbury, where he has been for treatment.

Ivan Hunt arrived home Wednesday from Philadelphia, Pa., where he is attending a school of business administration.

C. E. Hersey and wife of St. Johnsbury were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Hersey.

Howard Townsend of Bristol, Conn., is at home for the holiday vacation.

Mrs. J. A. Kennedy and children of Athol, Mass., are passing the holidays here with relatives.

E. A. Merrill of Cabot has sold a house and a parcel of land in the vicinity of the old Columbian shed to Albert A. Taylor and wife of Danville.

Don't forget the hospital benefit dance at the gymnasium hall next week Wednesday evening, New Year's eve. Come and dance the old year out and the new one in and help a worthy cause. The hall will be appropriately decorated for the occasion.

Hardwick merchants report the largest Christmas trade of recent years in the week just passed. The weather has been ideal and people flocked in from nearby towns and bought liberally.

The Christmas exercises at the University of Vermont, returned to Burlington yesterday after a week's rest at home.

Don Wilson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wilson, is quite seriously ill with catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Royce and Alton Royce of Brainins were Christmas guests at George H. Luce's.

A. H. Bowen of Walsfield, who has been working at Windsor, was here on his way home for Christmas. After the holidays he will be with his sister, Mrs. E. E. Cushman, during the cold weather.

Miss Agnes Reynolds is at home from Lancaster, Pa., where she does high school work as a teacher of home economics in one of the many state schools. Her school is one of 10 which has been designated as teacher training points for home economics in the state.

Mrs. Charles Batchelder gave a very pleasant Christmas party at her home on Thursday evening.

Misses Ada Gilchrist and Bessie Batchelder are at their homes from their work in Montreal.

I have opened a shoe repairing shop in the Bascom hotel building, entrance at foot of Bascom theatre stairs. All kinds of shoe and rubber work done promptly, thoroughly and at fair prices. H. A. Mack.

WORCESTER

Charles Tewksbury is quite ill.

Mrs. Carrie Templeton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Eva Hull, in Montpelier.

Miss Myra Richardson of Randolph is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Engel, at the parsonage.

The Christmas exercises at the church Wednesday evening by the younger members of the Sunday school were very pleasing. Much credit for the success of the singing by the children is due to Mrs. Cutler and Miss Bernice Putney. The church was very prettily decorated in green, red and white, and two well-laden trees bore the kinds of fruit that seemed to please the audience, although some of the men thought the corn cobs were slow in getting distributed.

School closed Friday of last week with a Christmas tree and a treat, and in the evening a party was given for Miss LaLime, who closed her labors here with the end of the term. The children showed much regret at her leaving and with a unanimous speech Rev. E. P. Cutler presented her a substantial proof of the esteem the parents and other friends felt for her. Coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts were served, after which games for the children and dancing were indulged in and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Bill King, who joined the navy last March, walked in on his parents early Christmas morning, having been granted a week's furlough from his ship. Since leaving East Corinth, he has been to the Pacific and seen many things of interest.

Winn Taplin was home from Hardwick, Mass., long enough Christmas day to eat his dinner with his parents, but was called back by telegram to attend a milk meeting in Springfield, Mass. He is agent of the farm bureau for the town of Hardwick, Mass.

Mrs. Eliza George returned to town Tuesday.

Verna Holland is spending her Christmas vacation at home.

Mrs. Caroline Wilson is spending the week at the home of her daughter in Piermont, N. H.

C. S. Bailey says he isn't really enjoying that lame back he has been entertaining this week.

Ralph Carter and Henry Metcalf have been helping handle Christmas mail this week. Ralph on the train from White River Junction to Boston and Henry transferring and sorting night mail at the Junction.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb and son and Beatrice Main were at R. D. Rowland's for Christmas.

Mrs. Bessie Jacobs of North Montpelier was a visitor at her father's, Albie McLeod, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ashline of Montpelier visited their mother, Mrs. Ida Goodwin, at Earl Slayton's, on Christmas day.

Henry Munsell of Springfield spent the holidays with his father, Dr. W. H. Munsell.

Carl Marsh arrived home Wednesday afternoon from Hanover, N. H., where he has been overseeing the building of a dormitory for the college. Mr. Marsh has charge of the Woodsville office.

Phil Van Dyke, wife and daughter, are spending several weeks with his mother and brothers in Boston.

Dr. A. B. Woodman spent Christmas day with six people at Lisbon, N. H.

Mrs. L. D. Smith gave a party to 32 little girls in the church vestry on Tuesday afternoon.

Henry Munsell of Springfield spent the holidays with his father, Dr. W. H. Munsell.

Carl Marsh arrived home Wednesday afternoon from Hanover, N. H., where he has been overseeing the building of a dormitory for the college. Mr. Marsh has charge of the Woodsville office.

Phil Van Dyke, wife and daughter, are spending several weeks with his mother and brothers in Boston.

Dr. A. B. Woodman spent Christmas day with six people at Lisbon, N. H.

Mrs. L. D. Smith gave a party to 32 little girls in the church vestry on Tuesday afternoon.

Henry Munsell of Springfield spent the holidays with his father, Dr. W. H. Munsell.

Carl Marsh arrived home Wednesday afternoon from Hanover, N. H., where he has been overseeing the building of a dormitory for the college. Mr. Marsh has charge of the Woodsville office.

Phil Van Dyke, wife and daughter, are spending several weeks with his mother and brothers in Boston.

Dr. A. B. Woodman spent Christmas day with six people at Lisbon, N. H.

Mrs. L. D. Smith gave a party to 32 little girls in the church vestry on Tuesday afternoon.

Henry Munsell of Springfield spent the holidays with his father, Dr. W. H. Munsell.

Carl Marsh arrived home Wednesday afternoon from Hanover, N. H., where he has been overseeing the building of a dormitory for the college. Mr. Marsh has charge of the Woodsville office.

Phil Van Dyke, wife and daughter, are spending several weeks with his mother and brothers in Boston.

Dr. A. B. Woodman spent Christmas day with six people at Lisbon, N. H.

Mrs. L. D. Smith gave a party to 32 little girls in the church vestry on Tuesday afternoon.

Henry Munsell of Springfield spent the holidays with his father, Dr. W. H. Munsell.

Carl Marsh arrived home Wednesday afternoon from Hanover, N. H., where he has been overseeing the building of a dormitory for the college. Mr. Marsh has charge of the Woodsville office.

Phil Van Dyke, wife and daughter, are spending several weeks with his mother and brothers in Boston.

Dr. A. B. Woodman spent Christmas day with six people at Lisbon, N. H.

Mrs. L. D. Smith gave a party to 32 little girls in the church vestry on Tuesday afternoon.