

WARRANT FOR MARTENS ISSUED, SENSATIONAL EVIDENCE IS FOUND

Self-Styled Ambassador of the Russian Soviet Government to the United States Will Be Deported as Soon as He Can Be Arrested by United States.

Called Real Leader of the Communists

Martens and His Staff Have Been Occupying a Suite of Rooms in a Washington Hotel, but the "Ambassador" Has Suddenly Decamped.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—A warrant for the arrest and deportation of Ludwig C. A. Martens, self-styled ambassador of the Russian soviet government, has been ordered executed by the department of justice.

Martens, regarded, officials said, as the real leader of the communist party in the United States, was said to be in Washington. His arrest was expected soon.

Determination of the government to take Martens into custody was definitely made after all evidence which had a bearing on activities of the Russian soviet bureau in New York had been assembled by Assistant Attorney General Garvan.

While officials would not disclose the nature of the evidence, they said some of it promised to be sensational.

Martens came to Washington nearly a week ago from New York and with his secretary and other assistants has occupied a suite at a local hotel.

NO SPEEDY DEPORTATION. Because of slowness in examining the radical suspects.

New York, Jan. 7.—Hearings in the case of more than 500 reds held at Ellis Island on deportation proceedings began to-day before immigration inspectors.

They were examined singly and asked whether they were members of the communist party and whether they believed in the overthrow of the government of the United States by violence.

Byron H. Uhl, acting commissioner at the island, estimated that the force of inspectors could complete from 30 to 40 hearings daily, unless the extremists prove resistant and interpose technical objections.

Speedy completion of deportation preliminaries is not expected. When deportation is ordered an alien can try to bring his case before the courts by habeas corpus proceedings.

Many of those arrested in recent raids are likely to be released on bail soon.

Sixteen persons sent to Ellis Island as the result of recent raids have been released by the immigration authorities.

In some cases they were found to be citizens and in others it developed that there had been improper identification in making the arrests.

DEMOCRATS RUSHING IN For the Great Jackson Day Banquet in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—Democrats from all parts of the country continued to arrive in Washington to-day to attend to-morrow the Jackson day banquet, the famous quadrennial event of the Democratic party, when speakers considered of presidential "timber" discuss public questions.

Although the banquet is supposed to be a side issue to the meeting of the Democratic national committee for the selection of the time and place for the national convention, main interest centers in it. A letter from President Wilson, announced as important, will be read and an address by William Jennings Bryan will be delivered at that time.

It was estimated that 1,500 Democrats would attend the banquet, which will be held in two sections. The same speakers will address both groups, with prospects of the oratory extending until late into the night.

GOING TO HAMBURG. The Mongolia Is the Second Ship from United States Since War.

New York, Jan. 7.—The American steamship Mongolia, sailing to-day for Hamburg, has on board 825 passengers and a general cargo. Eight hundred of the passengers, booked for third-class passage, were made up of many nationalities, including Germans, Poles, Austrians, Hungarians and Czech-Slovaks.

The vessel is the second ported from an American port to Hamburg with passengers since the close of the war.

SOVIET CENTERS IN GLASGOW. Are Said to Be Backed by American Communists.

THREE RAIDS MADE ON THE SINN FEIN Headquarters in Dublin Office of Irish Parliament and New Ireland Assurance Co. Entered.

Dublin, Jan. 7.—Sinn Fein headquarters in this city were raided this morning by a big force of police and soldiers. There was a similar raid on the offices of the Irish Parliament and those of the New Ireland Assurance society.

Eighty soldiers armed with rifles with fixed bayonets carried out the raid on the Assurance society's offices. The men wearing trench helmets, came up in motor lorries to the offices, where it is reported one arrest was made. Michael Staines, Sinn Fein member of Parliament, is the chairman of the company.

Large crowds assembled and watched the proceedings in front of the society's offices. There was a similar gathering before the Sinn Fein headquarters, where 50 soldiers, accompanied by police, conducted the search.

DEMAND FOR EX-KAISER JAN. 15. Allies Call Is Expected to Reach The Hague on That Date.

Amerongen, Tuesday, Jan. 6.—Allied demands for the extradition of former Emperor William of Germany, in which it is known America will not participate, are expected at The Hague about Jan. 15.

Recent press dispatches have stated Count Hohenlohn might surrender, rather than embarrass The Netherlands government, but it is authoritatively reported he will rely on the protection of Holland and he is not to be taken to the allies' hands. Only the erstwhile kaiser and his closest advisers know definitely his plan, but unless he changes his mind, it is learned, he is determined to settle down to life at Doorn, where his house is being readied to completion.

More workmen were sent from here to Doorn yesterday.

15 POUNDS OF BONES FOUND AT BLUEBEARDS Henri Landru Is Accused of Slaughtering a Number of Women and Destroying Their Bodies.

Paris, Jan. 7.—Police officials investigating charges against Henri Landru, the alleged "bluebeard," who is accused of slaughtering a number of women and destroying their bodies, claim to have found about 15 pounds of human bones in a house where Landru lived.

Among the bones was a skull in a good state of preservation. Some of the bones had been cut with a saw. It is said the saw with which the work was done has been found.

Inquiry as to the alleged operations of Landru's wife, says the Evening Post, shows she was a "devoted accomplice" of her husband and "knew everything he did." It is also charged that children aided in disposing of property secured by the crime in the course of his alleged crimes.

FIUME QUESTION MONDAY. Will Be Discussed by Premiers and Foreign Ministers at Paris.

Paris, Jan. 7.—Fiume will be the only question discussed at the conference of premiers and foreign ministers to be held next Monday, according to information emanating from semi-official quarters.

Premiers Lloyd George and Nitti are expected to arrive in Paris Saturday evening and it is said the former desired the Turkish question taken up on Monday, at which time the British would seek to carry their point in having the transfer of the Turkish government to Asia Minor decided upon. It is understood, however, that Premier Clemenceau has informed the British and Italian leaders he would be unable to commence discussion of the Turkish question on the eve of the resignation of his cabinet and amidst the excitement of the French presidential election. The Turkish question, therefore, has been postponed until later, but the Adriatic problem will come up immediately.

AMERICA LEADS IN COTTON. Manufactures More Cotton Yarn and Consumes More Raw Cotton.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—The United States manufactures more raw cotton yarn and consumes more raw cotton than any other country in the world, the tariff commission announced to-day in reporting results of a special investigation.

More than 99 per cent of cotton yarns required for domestic industry produced in the United States, the report said, and imports of cotton yarn are mainly supplemental. Some changes in tariff duties were recommended by the commission.

BANKERS DISAGREE. On Interest Rates on Bank Balances—Another Conference Jan. 23.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—A second conference of representatives of clearing house associations and federal reserve board officials will be held in Chicago on Jan. 23, when another effort will be made to reach an agreement on the question of interest rates on bank balances. At the conference here yesterday the bankers failed to reach a decision.

Call to National Banks. Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—The comptroller of the currency to-day issued a call for the condition of all national banks at the close of business on Wednesday, Dec. 31.

U.S. WILL NOT PARTICIPATE During Exchange of Ratifications of Peace Treaty

ANNOUNCE DECISION AT PARIS TO-DAY Signing of Peace Protocol Will Precede the Exchange

Paris, Jan. 7.—Representatives of the United States, it has been decided, will not be present during the exchange of ratifications of the peace treaty of Versailles, which is still set for Jan. 10, but may be put over if all the details have not been completed by that date.

Signing of the peace protocol will precede the exchange of ratifications by a few minutes.

REPUBLICANS IN CONTROL. Have Large Working Majorities in New York Legislature.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 7.—The 1920 session of the New York legislature convened to-day. The assembly organized by re-electing Thaddeus C. Sweet of Oswego speaker for a seventh time.

The Republicans have large working majorities in both houses. There are 29 Republicans and 21 Democrats in the Senate, one seat being vacant. In the assembly the Republicans have 110 members, the Democrats 35 and the Socialists 5. The assembly has two women members, Dr. Elizabeth Van Rigelte, Democrat, of Schenectady, and Miss Marguerite L. Smith, Republican, of New York.

Theodore Roosevelt, jr., also took his seat in the assembly to-day. His distinguished father entered public office as an assemblyman 38 years ago.

REFLOATED, LITTLE DAMAGE. Colonial Line Steamer Lexington Puts Back to New York.

New York, Jan. 7.—The Colonial line steamer Lexington, from Providence to New York with passengers and cargo, which went ashore off Larchmont early to-day, has been refloated and is on her way to dock here. Officials of the Colonial line said that wireless advices from the captain indicated that the ship was not seriously damaged.

POULTRY SHOW OPENS. Many Exhibits in St. Albans—High Priced Birds Shown.

St. Albans, Jan. 7.—There are 62 exhibitors at the 23d show of the Vermont State Poultry association, which opened at city hall yesterday. There are about 1,000 birds, including exhibitors from Vermont, New Hampshire and New York. The largest exhibitor is Frank L. Nutting of Brandon, who has a string of 32 buff rocks. The next largest is Frank W. Sault of St. Albans, with 51 Rhode Island reds and light Brahms bantams.

Among the birds exhibited is a $1,000 buff Wyandotte, owned by J. J. Danter of North Clarendon, and a $500 buff rock pullet owned by Mr. Nutting, which took the $100 cup and all special at the Boston show last week.

D. P. Shove of Fall River is judge. George W. Buswell and George H. Wood of Montpelier are judges. J. Webster of Northfield are the Washington county exhibitors at the show.

WAS WASHED OVERBOARD. Chief Wireless Operator Bergis of the French Steamer Mattona.

New York, Jan. 7.—The French steamer Mattona arrived here from Naples to-day reporting the loss of Chief Wireless Operator Bergis, who disappeared during the height of last Monday's storm. He is believed to have been washed overboard.

Mario Bianchi, an attendant at the state institution at Waterbury, is having a brief furlough at his home in this city yesterday.

Mario Zanoni and William Grearin, the former employed in a garage and the latter at the Miller's Falls Tool works, Miller's Falls, Mass., during the past three months, motored to their home in this city yesterday.

Mial Mercedes Sennett, niece of the nationally famed comedian, Mack Sennett, has returned to a boarding school in Danville, P. Q., having been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. O. N. Granger, of Summer street, during the holiday vacation.

BRITISH POUND $3.88. Franc Will Be Stabilized at Rate of 11 to a Dollar.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—The British pound will be computed at $3.85 in American money by the war department in making January disbursements, it was announced to-day. The franc will be "stabilized" for this month at 11 to a dollar and the Italian lire at 13.

40th Anniversary of Geological Survey. The 40th annual report of the United States geological survey, department of the interior, just made public, compares the present scope of the work with that of the work done during the first year of this organization. The growth of the survey is suggested by a comparison of the appropriations for the present year, which comprise items amounting to $1,437,745, with the total appropriation of $106,000 for the first year, 1879-80. During the 40 years the number of employees has been increased from 39 to 567.

A RICH DRAFT DODGER CAUGHT Grover Bergdoll Found in Hiding in Box Seat in His Mother's Home

ELUDED GOVERNMENT TWO YEARS Man's Mother, a Wealthy Philadelphia Woman, Also Under Arrest

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—Grover Bergdoll, one of the two brothers accused of draft dodging and who have been sought by the police for the last two years, was arrested in his mother's home here to-day.

Detectives broke into the house by the front and rear entrances. They found Grover Bergdoll wrapped in a blanket, hiding in a box seat.

The search for the Bergdolls took the federal agents all over the country. Grover got away in a high powered motor car and reports reached the city that he was seen in various sections of the west. He sent impudent messages written on postcards to the authorities. Once he was seen in Mexico and again in Cuba. He was provided with a large sum of money. His mother, Mrs. Emma Bergdoll, is the widow of a wealthy brewer.

Although born in this country, the Bergdolls were of German descent and declared they would never fight against Germany. Mrs. Bergdoll was arrested several times on the charge of obstructing the draft.

Later Mrs. Bergdoll was arrested, charged with obstructing justice. With a revolver she had kept the officers at bay for several hours. An officer of the department of justice said Bergdoll probably would be turned over to the military authorities.

LIVES BUT TWO HOURS AFTER SEEING HUSBAND Woman Arrived in New York by a Steamer and Was Greeted by Boston Man After Seven Years' Separation.

New York, Jan. 7.—After waiting seven years to see his family, Israel Mirsky of Boston went aboard the steamship La Horraine last night to greet his wife and children, who had come from Poland, only to learn that his wife was dying. She lived but two hours after seeing her husband, who had come to America from Poland before the war to make a home for her and his two daughters.

A-I CANADIAN LIQUOR. Shipment Worth $11,500 and Packed in Hay Car Was Seized.

Boston Point, N. Y., Jan. 7.—What is probably the biggest seizure of contraband liquor yet made was consumed here last evening when $11,500 worth of A-No. 1 Canadian liquors was taken from a railroad car camouflaged as filled with hay. The weight of the contraband something more than hay. The seizure was made by customs officials, H. S. Ladd, deputy collector in charge, and B. E. Flanagan, inspector.

Five hundred cases were found in the alleged carload of hay, 6,000 bottles in all. It was consigned to a point in New Jersey. It is now reposing in the United States warehouse at this port. All the well known Canadian brands are in the seizure.

REDUCE DEPOSIT WITH STATE. American Fidelity Co. Given Permission After Hearing.

A hearing took place before Judge F. J. Fish this morning, in which the American Fidelity company asked permission to reduce their deposit with the state treasurer. Evidence tending to show that there was a larger deposit than the company reported, safeguarded its patrons was introduced, after which the company was given permission to reduce deposits with the treasurer about $60,000. They did carry about $282,000 with the state treasurer. V. A. Julliard, representing the United States, was present, and his request was granted, and did not affect this matter, it was not under consideration.

PREVENTS TREE CUTTING. Injunction Restrains Operations by Bertha M. Johnson and Others.

Judge F. M. Butler has signed a temporary injunction in the case of George W. Wallis, administrator in the estate of Eliza Bennett, vs. Bertha M. Johnson and others. The injunction restrains the defendants from cutting timber on certain lands in Payston and directs the return of logs to the property.

TALK OF THE TOWN. Three new students were admitted to Goddard academy yesterday, Mrs. Milton Leonard of Ivoryton, Conn., to the sophomore class, Albert Buckard of South Hadley Falls, Mass., and Cyril Russell of Portsmouth, N. H., to the senior class. The evening school reopened last evening with a large attendance and the classes will meet regularly on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

Joe Leahy, coach at Goddard seminary, has returned from Pittsburg, Mass., where he has been spending part of his vacation. During his vacation he played several games of basketball with fast teams in western New York and also with the New York A. A. and with the Jerome club of Wehaken, N. J. This afternoon the Goddard squad will resume heavy practice in preparation for the game to be played with Colby academy next Saturday night on the Goddard court.

The Tufts musical club which entertained Monday evening at Goddard seminary a large audience and on Sunday evening many people at the Universalist church with a sacred concert, left here yesterday afternoon for Montpelier, where they will sing, assisted by Arthur Spitzer, violinist, and accompanied by Mrs. E. J. Batchelder. Mrs. Hovey was formerly solo contralto under the direction of Nelson Coffin.

John Arioli received word yesterday afternoon from John Berini, stating that his left eye was to be removed to-day at the Royal Victoria hospital in Montreal. This is the result of a slight accident which happened at the Cook & Watkins depot square shed on Monday, Dec. 29. Berini, employed as a stonecutter, had a piece of copper wire on a stone, cutting it with a chisel and hammer. The severed piece flew and struck his eye. At the first examination by Dr. D. C. Jarvis, it was feared that the injury would necessitate the removal of the eye, but not until every available means to prevent it had been used, and danger to his right eye was threatened, was the operation submitted to.

ONE SLIGHTLY HURT IN BIG EXPLOSION Approximately 1,000 Pounds of Powder Blew Up at DuPont Plant at Fairchance, Pa.

Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 7.—Approximately 1,000 pounds of powder, stored in the truck shed of the DuPont Powder company plant at Fairchance, six miles from Uniontown, exploded early to-day and destroyed the building. There were only four men working in the vicinity when the blast occurred. One, an engineer, was slightly injured. The cause of the explosion has not been determined.

A $7,500,000 THEATRE. To Be Erected on Fifth Avenue in New York.

New York, Jan. 7.—Fifth avenue, New York's historic thoroughfare, will be graced by a $7,500,000 theatre and office building at 57th street, according to plans made public to-day. The new building will be 11 stories in height, with a tower in the center rising an additional 10 stories.

The theatre will be small, seating about 800 persons, and it is proposed to use it for elaborate productions with tickets at high prices. The building will occupy the site of the residence of the late William C. Whitney, former secretary of the navy.

GIVEN FOUR YEARS' TERM. For Stealing Blankets, Saddles, Etc., from Horses held at Rickford.

St. Albans, Jan. 7.—Willard Furness of Rickford was arraigned before Judge N. N. Post in city court yesterday, charged with grand larceny. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve not less than four nor more than five years in the state prison. Furness was convicted of stealing blankets, saddles and other articles from teams left in horse sheds at Rickford.

Otis Ward of Rickford, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was sentenced to pass the remainder of his minority in the industrial school. This sentence was given in the discretion of the court, as Ward had just passed the age of 16 years.

IN THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CASE OF H. D. BOLLES AND OTHERS AGAINST THE CITY OF MONTPELIER, THE ORDER OF COUNTY COURT WAS VACATED AND THE CASE REMANDED TO THE SUPREME COURT.

In the Washington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

COURT DENIED RE-ARGUMENT In Case of John L. Spaulding, Adm., vs. Mutual Life Ins. Co.

AWARDED $489.84 TO THE PLAINTIFF Large Number of Opinions Were Handed Down in Supreme Court

Several Washington county decisions were handed down in Vermont supreme court to-day, the second day of the January term, after which the court began this afternoon the hearing of the arguments in the Rutland county case of E. L. T. Jones as administrator of Thomas T. Jones, deceased, vs. Mary A. Williams and the Ludlow Savings Bank & Trust company.

The first of the Washington county decisions was in the case of John L. Spaulding, administrator of the estate of O. M. Jones, late of Warren, vs. the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York. Attorney John W. Gordon's motion for a reargument was denied and the decision in the case, which was announced the last term of court and then stayed pending this motion for a reargument, was ordered entered on the docket. The decision was judgment reversed and judgment for the sum of $489.84 for the plaintiff without costs. The verdict in the lower court was $3,150 for the plaintiff.

In A. T. Davis vs. Union Meeting House society, et al, decree was affirmed and cause remanded. This case was over the right of way beside a meeting house in Marshfield.

Judgment was reversed and cause remanded in the case of Angelo Ambrosia vs. N. Pelaggi & Co., a case appealed from Barre city court. In Lucia E. George vs. the estate of Asa G. Dutton, decree was affirmed and certified to probate court. This suit was over the interest in a Cabot store and involved signatures on notes.

In the Washington county case of H. C. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners on street work on Guernsey street.

In the Bennington county case of H. D. Bolles and others against the city of Montpelier, the order of county court was vacated and the case remanded to the supreme court. This case was over the assessment of damage by commissioners