

RANDOLPH

Co-operative Savings and Loan Association Formed.

Information received from Dr. Mrs. H. W. Holden that their daughter, Miss Ramona, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in hospital in Boston on Monday, is recovering with a reasonable hope of recovery.

Mrs. F. A. Hancock, who has been in the east for the last two weeks, left for their home in Morrisville, Friday, going as far as Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. John Manney and their daughter, Mrs. A. K. Hall, went to their home last week, and on their way brought home with them their daughter, Miss Bertha Manney, who is remaining here with her parents for a week's vacation.

Miss L. Granger has finished his week's work in the store of E. A. and accompanied by his mother, C. H. Granger, went Wednesday to Boston.

Miss Barbara Elaine, was born September 4 to Mr. and Mrs. Hart Peck, who live on the Rowell farm.

Miss Mildred Hutchins, dietitian in U. S. Marine hospital, Boston, is spending her vacation here with her mother, Mrs. M. L. Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ferguson of New City were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Lamson for several days last week. Mrs. Lamson is a sister of Mrs. Ferguson.

Miss Russell went to Boston Tuesday to enter Boston University.

Mr. A. B. Holmes of Waban, Mass., is spending his vacation at the Randolph inn for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Church of Worcester, Mass., are spending a few days with Mr. Church's mother, Mrs. H. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Stevens arrived last week from Lawrence, Mass., to spend their vacation at C. C. Stevens' home in Morrisville.

Mr. N. C. Greene's daughter, Miss Margaret, who was a clerk in the mas store last year, is at his home in Morrisville, very ill with typhoid fever.

The Randolph Co-operative Savings and Loan association elected officers on Tuesday evening as follows: President, E. C. Angell, secretary-treasurer, E. Tilton; directors, V. A. Grant, L. Chadwick, J. W. Raymond, E. S. Key, J. W. Lamson, E. A. Hatch and H. Frink. Secretary-Treasurer Tilton will soon go to Burlington to conduct the duties devolving upon his office.

Meetings of the association will be held the first Tuesday evening in the month at a place to be announced later.

The 7th annual Windsor county fair was opened Tuesday with all the flags flying and promise of a big time. The first day was a record breaker. In the afternoon there were motorcycle races, pony classes and saddle horses and the unusually good and varied open-air vaudeville production on the stage in front of the grand stand met with enthusiastic approbation of the large crowd. Wednesday was a grand day and the program was carried out in full with one of the largest crowds in the history of the institution. Thursday was not so good a day as the rain in the afternoon made some of the races wet and heavy. But taking all things into consideration it was a great success in every way and the management deserve much credit for the able manner in which they conducted the fair.

The local Masonic lodge was well represented at the meeting of the Waterbury Masonic lodge at Waterbury Wednesday evening.

B. I. Savage is clerking in W. E. Jones' store.

Miss Evelyn Ferris is having a week's vacation from Chester Dana's. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lamphere and son, Richard, returned Wednesday to their home in Rutland.

Miss Margaret Miller returned on Thursday to the Lake Placid club.

The home circle dinner, held on Wednesday at the Congregational church, was well attended. At the business meeting of the circle, a vote of thanks was given to Miss Mildred Davis of Raleigh, N. C. for her assistance during the summer.

Miss Evelyn Wells, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. L. Martin, has returned to her home.

John Northrop, who has been in Cheyenne, Wyo., has gone on a two years' business trip to Lima, Peru. Mrs. Northrop will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mayo, in Stowe before joining Mr. Northrop in Lima.

Forbes Adams, who accompanied his niece, Barbara Butterfield, to her home in Rutland last week, has returned and resumed his studies at Stowe high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis I. Merritt spent Wednesday with the former's sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Raymond. During the day and evening, several relatives gathered in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt, who were recently married in Burlington and are returning from their honeymoon spent at Highgate Springs, to their home in Keene, N. H. Among the relatives from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ward and Mrs. W. C. Ward, Mrs. George Ward, Mrs. A. B. Ward and daughter, Leona, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Burnham and Mrs. Hobart Folson of Morrisville.

Sunday will be flower Sunday at the Methodist church. Morning service at 10:45 o'clock. The topic will be "Flowers, Messengers of God." Bring your flowers and your friends. Sunday school at 12 m. Evening service at 7:30 o'clock, subject: "Things That Return Not." Midweek service, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Harry A. Pike, graduate optometrist, and eyeglass specialist, will be at Mrs. Sewell Carpenter's Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 21 and 22. Glasses properly fitted.—adv.

EVERYTHING INSURABLE has increased in cost from fifty to three hundred per cent, and the price of labor has increased proportionately.

For full protection see J. W. DILLON

Established 1882. BOLSTER BLOCK, BARRE, VERMONT

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION

The annual reunion of the 4th Vermont regiment, G. A. R., Joseph Aiken, president, will open in Knights of Pythias hall next Tuesday, Sept. 21, at noon. The afternoon will be devoted to business and formal affairs, while in the evening there will be a typical campfire and to this the public are invited.

The dance given in the assembly hall of the Hartford high school for the benefit of the athletic association was very largely attended and a very nice sum was netted for the association.

The impetus of a newly awakened church interest has been manifested already in the increased congregations and Sunday school and in the general atmosphere of sympathy and helpfulness to be encountered on all sides.

Chief among the many improvements is the kindergarten room, which has curtains at the windows and many charming studies of child life in colors by Jessie Wilcox Smith have been hung in groups about the walls, transforming the chapel into what one enthusiastic lad described as a "happy room."

A. G. Woodman, professor of chemistry, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and his brother, George M. Woodman, supervisor of the Boston & Maine tracks of Lowell, Mass., were in town recently, called by the illness of their mother, Mrs. Woodman.

Miss Helen French left Monday for Keene, N. H., where she enters the Keene normal school.

Dennis O'Brien of West Lebanon, who has been ill for several days with pneumonia, died at his home on South Main street Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Lisle Smith recently entertained as her guests Mrs. William Atwill and son, William, Jr., and Miss Sarah Patterson of Carbonate, Ill.

Mrs. Clifford Phillips is entertaining her friend, Miss Mary Liwellyn, of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Newton Blood, who recently left town for Dickinson, S. D., reports the capture of a henhawk of unusual size, its wings being 52 inches from tip to tip.

Miss Mildred Stockwell, who has made her home at E. H. Lock's for the past seven years, has taken a six months' leave of absence from her work at the telephone exchange and gone to her home in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and daughter of Newton, Mass., were recent guests at the Marshland farm.

Paul Kane, who has been spending part of his summer vacation with his uncle at Deep River, Conn., has returned to his home in Quebec.

A surprise party was held at Mrs. George Wood's Tuesday afternoon, when a number of friends of Mrs. Amanda Allen gathered for a social time. Mrs. Allen has been a resident of Quebec for a number of years and is soon to leave and make her future home in Leominster, Mass.

The 7th annual Windsor county fair was opened Tuesday with all the flags flying and promise of a big time. The first day was a record breaker. In the afternoon there were motorcycle races, pony classes and saddle horses and the unusually good and varied open-air vaudeville production on the stage in front of the grand stand met with enthusiastic approbation of the large crowd. Wednesday was a grand day and the program was carried out in full with one of the largest crowds in the history of the institution. Thursday was not so good a day as the rain in the afternoon made some of the races wet and heavy. But taking all things into consideration it was a great success in every way and the management deserve much credit for the able manner in which they conducted the fair.

Miss Margaret Miller returned on Thursday to the Lake Placid club.

The home circle dinner, held on Wednesday at the Congregational church, was well attended. At the business meeting of the circle, a vote of thanks was given to Miss Mildred Davis of Raleigh, N. C. for her assistance during the summer.

Miss Evelyn Wells, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. L. Martin, has returned to her home.

John Northrop, who has been in Cheyenne, Wyo., has gone on a two years' business trip to Lima, Peru. Mrs. Northrop will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mayo, in Stowe before joining Mr. Northrop in Lima.

Forbes Adams, who accompanied his niece, Barbara Butterfield, to her home in Rutland last week, has returned and resumed his studies at Stowe high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis I. Merritt spent Wednesday with the former's sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Raymond. During the day and evening, several relatives gathered in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt, who were recently married in Burlington and are returning from their honeymoon spent at Highgate Springs, to their home in Keene, N. H. Among the relatives from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ward and Mrs. W. C. Ward, Mrs. George Ward, Mrs. A. B. Ward and daughter, Leona, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Burnham and Mrs. Hobart Folson of Morrisville.

Sunday will be flower Sunday at the Methodist church. Morning service at 10:45 o'clock. The topic will be "Flowers, Messengers of God." Bring your flowers and your friends. Sunday school at 12 m. Evening service at 7:30 o'clock, subject: "Things That Return Not." Midweek service, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Harry A. Pike, graduate optometrist, and eyeglass specialist, will be at Mrs. Sewell Carpenter's Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 21 and 22. Glasses properly fitted.—adv.

EVERYTHING INSURABLE has increased in cost from fifty to three hundred per cent, and the price of labor has increased proportionately.

For full protection see J. W. DILLON

Established 1882. BOLSTER BLOCK, BARRE, VERMONT

THE 47TH ANNUAL Dog River Valley Fair

Northfield, Sept. 21, 22, 23

promises to be the largest and best exhibition in all its classes ever seen on its grounds. The management are putting the buildings, grounds and track in first class condition. The railroad gives us reduced rates and stop all trains at the gate.

Everything Indicates a Big Fair

For full protection see J. W. DILLON

Established 1882. BOLSTER BLOCK, BARRE, VERMONT

SOUTH RYEGATE

Funeral of the Late Alexander Dunnett Largely Attended.

The funeral services of Hon. Alexander Dunnett were held at the U. P. church Friday and attended by a very large gathering of friends from many parts of the state. Rev. George Martineau of St. Johnsbury delivered the address. A solo was rendered by Mrs. Ernest Clark of Groton.

Miss Elizabeth Garvin is teaching the Jefferson hill school.

Miss Dorothy Grant and the Misses Mary and Caroline Gibson left Monday morning for New Concord, O., to enter Muskogee college.

Miss Annie R. Beaton went to Pike, N. H., Monday, where she has the eighth grade work in the village school and supervision of the building.

John Riccardio, who committed the assault on Delfo Barbieri last week, was arrested at Athol, Mass., and is now in St. Johnsbury jail awaiting trial. State's Attorney Campbell conducted an examination of witnesses at South Ryegate Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Pearl M. Gibson went to Hartford, Conn., Monday for a few weeks' visit to her friend, Mrs. Herbert Merrett, and her uncle, A. M. Terry.

Mrs. A. R. Bone left Friday afternoon for Iowa, where her parents and several sisters are living. She expects to be gone about two months.

Mrs. Howard Edson and two children of Washington, D. C., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Tewksbury.

Wilbur McLam and Norman Bone returned to Montpelier seminary on Monday.

Mrs. Ella Smith is teaching in the Cochran district this year.

Rev. V. Ziegler of New York preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning and the U. P. church in the evening.

Announcement of the marriage of Harry M. Sanderson and Miss Marion White Tuesday, Sept. 14, have been received and congratulations are in order.

Harry A. Pike, graduate optometrist and eyeglass specialist, will be at Joseph McLam's Thursday, Sept. 23. Eyes thoroughly examined. Glasses properly fitted.—adv.

WATSFIELD

Mrs. George Pierce is in Warren, caring for a relative.

Mrs. Lisle Smith has returned from a three weeks' stay in Connecticut.

Roy Bragg of Randolph is visiting in town.

Mrs. Clarence Richardson of Montpelier is a guest at C. J. Greene's.

Mrs. John Mobius of Montpelier is a guest at John Sanders'.

Miss Helen Worthen of Montpelier is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Sanders.

A. B. Tucker and wife were in Barre Thursday.

The local Masonic lodge was well represented at the meeting of the Waterbury Masonic lodge at Waterbury Wednesday evening.

B. I. Savage is clerking in W. E. Jones' store.

Miss Evelyn Ferris is having a week's vacation from Chester Dana's. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lamphere and son, Richard, returned Wednesday to their home in Rutland.

Miss Margaret Miller returned on Thursday to the Lake Placid club.

The home circle dinner, held on Wednesday at the Congregational church, was well attended. At the business meeting of the circle, a vote of thanks was given to Miss Mildred Davis of Raleigh, N. C. for her assistance during the summer.

Miss Evelyn Wells, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. L. Martin, has returned to her home.

John Northrop, who has been in Cheyenne, Wyo., has gone on a two years' business trip to Lima, Peru. Mrs. Northrop will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mayo, in Stowe before joining Mr. Northrop in Lima.

Forbes Adams, who accompanied his niece, Barbara Butterfield, to her home in Rutland last week, has returned and resumed his studies at Stowe high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis I. Merritt spent Wednesday with the former's sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Raymond. During the day and evening, several relatives gathered in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt, who were recently married in Burlington and are returning from their honeymoon spent at Highgate Springs, to their home in Keene, N. H. Among the relatives from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ward and Mrs. W. C. Ward, Mrs. George Ward, Mrs. A. B. Ward and daughter, Leona, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Burnham and Mrs. Hobart Folson of Morrisville.

Sunday will be flower Sunday at the Methodist church. Morning service at 10:45 o'clock. The topic will be "Flowers, Messengers of God." Bring your flowers and your friends. Sunday school at 12 m. Evening service at 7:30 o'clock, subject: "Things That Return Not." Midweek service, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Harry A. Pike, graduate optometrist, and eyeglass specialist, will be at Mrs. Sewell Carpenter's Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 21 and 22. Glasses properly fitted.—adv.

EVERYTHING INSURABLE has increased in cost from fifty to three hundred per cent, and the price of labor has increased proportionately.

For full protection see J. W. DILLON

STRAFFORD

Forty-eight Strafford women registered and thirty-nine of them appeared at the polls on Tuesday.

Victor G. Bruce and family of Port Henry, N. Y., were recent visitors in town.

Charles Dugar of Worcester, Mass., has been spending a few days with friends here.

Mrs. Elmer Morrill and her guest, Mrs. Gardiner of Boston, are spending several days in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bell and children are visiting relatives in northern Vermont and in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sanborn returned Friday from a trip to New Haven, Conn.

Frank Welch and wife of Ryegate were guests at L. P. Hazelton's for several days recently.

Charles Fox of Springfield spent the week end with his grandmother.

Mrs. Carey and Mrs. Haynes are spending ten days at Holyoke, Mass.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Linton gathered at B. M. hall Tuesday evening to extend their good wishes to the young couple and the evening was much enjoyed by all present. Refreshments were served.

Gertrude Bruce has returned from a two weeks' visit at Wilder.

Miss Carrie Chandler is spending a week on Cape Cod.

Elmer West of Martha's Vineyard is a guest of his brother, Frank West, and is calling on old friends, whom he has not met for many years.

Misses Edith Preston and Lena West have returned to their schools in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Brasselma left on Wednesday for their home in Philadelphia, Pa.

E. H. Udall and wife, Frank Brown and family, H. A. Stickney and family and Milo Sleeper were among those attending Woodstock fair.

R. B. Prescott and wife and Albert Bagley and wife attended Bradford, N. H., fair this week.

Clifford Merrifield has returned to his work in New York after passing about a week with his family.

Byron Eastman is in Plainfield for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gee were in St. Johnsbury Thursday and attended the fair.

Mrs. Julia Nourse of Lymanville, Mass., has been visiting her brother, Philip Bashaw, for a few days.

Lillian Rashaw was the guest of her sister, Erna, in Danville two days this week.

Those from here who attended the fair in St. Johnsbury Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Kibler, Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Stocker, Mr. and Mrs. James Cassidy and W. R. Tibbetts.

Byron Eastman was in Montpelier Monday.

Mrs. Hannah LaFrance is visiting at the home of L. W. LaFrance in Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Leonard and E. W. Whitcomb were in Barre Monday to take Miss Hope Leonard to enter Goddard seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Murray were in Rutland Monday to visit Mrs. Minnie Mattison, who is in the hospital, suffering from a broken hip, caused by a fall on the sidewalk in Fair Haven.

Several ladies from this part of the town qualified and voted at the primaries Tuesday.

School began on south hill Monday, with Hazel Durkee as teacher.

Mrs. P. W. Green and children are again at home after a month's vacation at Lake Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Fish, Mr. Eggleston and J. D. Blackmer were in Randolph Tuesday.

Horace Packard was in town Sunday at the home of Fred Packard.

Church services at Union church were resumed Sunday, Rev. J. P. Marvin being present. Miss Whitney has returned from her vacation and is expected to speak next Sunday.

Mrs. Bort Duletta is working in the home of J. D. Blackmer.

Mrs. Nancy Haskins, who is with her granddaughter, Mrs. John Clarke, near the tale mine, is reported very low.

Mrs. Richard Lyman was at the

STOCKBRIDGE

Mrs. Hannah LaFrance is visiting at the home of L. W. LaFrance in Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Leonard and E. W. Whitcomb were in Barre Monday to take Miss Hope Leonard to enter Goddard seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Murray were in Rutland Monday to visit Mrs. Minnie Mattison, who is in the hospital, suffering from a broken hip, caused by a fall on the sidewalk in Fair Haven.

Several ladies from this part of the town qualified and voted at the primaries Tuesday.

School began on south hill Monday, with Hazel Durkee as teacher.

Mrs. P. W. Green and children are again at home after a month's vacation at Lake Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Fish, Mr. Eggleston and J. D. Blackmer were in Randolph Tuesday.

Horace Packard was in town Sunday at the home of Fred Packard.

Church services at Union church were resumed Sunday, Rev. J. P. Marvin being present. Miss Whitney has returned from her vacation and is expected to speak next Sunday.

Mrs. Bort Duletta is working in the home of J. D. Blackmer.

Mrs. Nancy Haskins, who is with her granddaughter, Mrs. John Clarke, near the tale mine, is reported very low.

Mrs. Richard Lyman was at the

WATERBURY

After learning of the terrible disaster in Wall street much anxiety was felt for Charles C. Warren, jr., whose office is in New York's financial district. It was learned that before the news was received here, his parents had a message from him of the disaster and that he was not in it. Mr. Warren, as previously planned, was expected home this morning for a few days' vacation.

Mrs. Nancy Haskins, who is with her granddaughter, Mrs. John Clarke, near the tale mine, is reported very low.

Mrs. Richard Lyman was at the

WATERBURY

After learning of the terrible disaster in Wall street much anxiety was felt for Charles C. Warren, jr., whose office is in New York's financial district. It was learned that before the news was received here, his parents had a message from him of the disaster and that he was not in it. Mr. Warren, as previously planned, was expected home this morning for a few days' vacation.

Mrs. Nancy Haskins, who is with her granddaughter, Mrs. John Clarke, near the tale mine, is reported very low.

Mrs. Richard Lyman was at the

Mrs. Richard Lyman was at the