

COMPLAINTS BY ATHLETES

Of Poor Treatment at the Olympic Games at Antwerp

INVESTIGATION WILL BE ASKED

New England Association of A. A. N. to Take Action

Boston, Sept. 21.—Complaints by athletes who represented the United States at the Antwerp Olympics that their treatment, their assignment to competitions and the handling of funds subscribed for the team were not what they should have been will be investigated by the New England Association of the A. A. N.

In a resolution appointing a committee of investigation, with orders to report to the forthcoming national meeting of the A. A. N. at New Orleans, it was stated that the reports of conditions, if true, would indicate that certain of the officials in charge merit the severest censure from this body and from all lovers of clean sport. The committee is headed by President William Cuddy of the association.

They were instructed also to offer to the national body a resolution that future Olympic teams be supported by the government to the end that this country may be represented in the best possible manner and that the representatives of America be given the official standing which they should have.

CONDITIONS IMPROVING.

Confederation of Labor Has Ordered Workmen to Resume Normal Work.

Rome, Sept. 20.—The Messagero says that the general confederation of labor has ordered the workmen to leave seized plants and resume normal work. The confederation has guaranteed that order will be preserved, the newspaper adds. At a conference with the minister of the interior to-day representatives of the employers and workmen agreed that wage increases should be retroactive to July 15. This, however, does not include salaries for the days the plants were occupied by the employees.

BIG CONCEALED PROFITS.

Revealed By Investigation of Motor Works in Germany.

Berlin, Sept. 21.—A special commission appointed by the former ministry of war to audit the books of the Daimler Motor works has issued a report, which charges the firm with concealing profits exceeding 96,000,000 marks. It is stated that the annual balance sheets of the firm during the four years of war production failed to include more than $1,000,000 marks profit, which is more than tenfold the amount of its capital.

The report states that on the eve of Germany's big spring offensive in 1918 the Daimler Co., which was one of the country's chief suppliers of war materials, threatened to shut down its plant unless the ministry of war awarded it a liberal price and increases. The plant was then placed under military supervision and its director removed from office but, the commission reports, Capt. Gross, who was supposed to supervise the military control, was elected into the company's directorate and entrusted with the management of the plant.

BOLSHEVIKI PLAN WINTER CAMPAIGN

Against the Japanese Troops in Siberia—Civilians Are Fleeing to Vladivostok.

Honolulu, Sept. 21.—Civilians in the Khabarovsk region of Siberia are fleeing to Vladivostok and the mouth of the Amur river because of reports that the bolsheviks are planning a decisive winter campaign against the Japanese troops in Siberia, according to a cablegram received to-day from Tokio.

WRECK WAS BLOWN UP.

The Old Cruiser Yankee Was Menace to Transportation.

New Bedford, Mass., Sept. 21.—The cruiser Yankee, which was wrecked on Hen and Chickens reef in Buzzards bay 12 years ago and which sank and was refloated only to go down again after drifting a few miles, has been finally lost to the navy. Wreckers, who have been trying for several years to remove the hulk of the sunken cruiser as a menace to navigation have blown it up, and timbers of the old Yankee are now scattered on the floor of the bay.

The Yankee, which was formerly the coastwise passenger steamer El Sud, was in transport service during the Spanish-American war and was continued on the naval rolls afterward as a cruiser. She went aground on Hen and Chickens reef during a thick fog on the night of Sept. 23, 1918, and slipped off into deep water.

The navy's attempt to float her, made under the direction of Naval Constructor Washington L. Capps, failed, and private bids were called for. As a result, the first notable use of compressed air for marine salvage in this country was made by John Arbuckle of New York, a sugar refiner. He bought Peary's Arctic ship Roosevelt and made her the headquarters of his operations. After three months work with the compressed air method the Yankee was raised and started in tow for this port.

She ran into a storm during the night, heavy seas thumped her weakened frame and one of the air ports broke. The Yankee went down again, off Dumpling light and, although the Arbuckle wreckers renewed their efforts, and other salvage outfits did their best to bring her to the top, she stayed there 10 years before she was blown to pieces.

PENNANT DASH GETS EXCITING

White Sox Expect to Make It Three Straight From Philadelphia

CLEVELAND HOPES TO DO THE SAME

In Series With Boston—Chicago and Cleveland Meet Thursday

Chicago, Sept. 21.—The White Sox to-day were confident of making it three straight over Philadelphia in their pennant dash, but Manager Gleason was undecided which pitcher to send against the tail-enders, Eddie Cicotte and Claud Williams, early in the season the ace of the local pitching staff, were ready, but there was a possibility that Dick Kerr or one of the youngsters might be chosen. Gleason intimated that Kerr would be saved for the series with Cleveland opening Thursday.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 21.—Boston wound up its series with Cleveland to-day and was the last of the eastern teams to play here this season. Cleveland hoped to make it three straight victories. Coveleskie was Speaker's selection for the box.

FOOT AND MOUTH INQUIRY

Is to Be Conducted By British Ministry of Agriculture.

London, Sept. 21.—Exhaustive experiments in connection with the study of foot and mouth disease are to be conducted, it is announced by the ministry of agriculture, on board obsolete warships fitted up as floating laboratories. The experiments are to be carried out at sea to obviate any risk of the disease spreading from the experimental station. The investigators will include several distinguished foreign scientists and the research may last for years.

The necessity of stamping out the disease, it is officially pointed out, is imperative, if England is to maintain her large cattle exports. The Westminster Gazette is frankly skeptical about the scheme. "It looks like a brilliant idea for spending money ineffectively," it says.

COX SPEAKS ON LEAGUE.

His Theme in His Southern California Speeches.

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 21.—A noon address here yesterday (his first) opened the southern California campaign of Governor Cox. Arriving early from San Francisco and Oakland, he was the central figure of a long entertainment program ending with his departure for Los Angeles, where he spoke last night and to-day.

The league of nations headed the governor's theme for his audiences as sentiment for the league, is said to be unusually strong in this section. The largest throng in this city, and one of the largest in the state was engaged for an address in preference to an outdoor site, because of the governor's throat, which was improved but not sufficiently to be taxed with an outdoor address.

Prior to the meeting the governor was entertained at breakfast and after an informal hotel reception, with a drive about San Diego.

Constantinople, Sept. 20 (By the Associated Press).—General Wrangel's latest cavalry drive against the bolsheviks in South Russia has won him valuable strategic positions on the railway and resulted in the capture of more than 2,000 prisoners and quantities of supplies. It is reported in advices from the Crimea.

The South Russian cavalry, by a sudden dash, surprised the bolsheviks and captured the railway junction in Petro-Pavlovsk, with sections of the line in either direction as well as in the town of Oriakhoff. The Wrangel forces are now menacing Alexandrovsk, on the Dnieper, about 90 miles inland from the sea of Azov.

The Japanese government now has an observer at Sebastopol, General Wrangel's headquarters.

MACSWINEY MAY BE GETTING FOOD

But British Official Denies Knowledge That Such Is Being Done

RELATIVES HAVE FREE ACCESS TO HIM

On the 40th Day of So-Called Fast, MacSwiney Was Much Weaker

London, Sept. 21.—Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork passed a restless night at Brixton prison, according to a bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination league. He had some sleep, but it was quite fitful, and he was very weak this morning, the bulletin stated. This was the 40th day of his hunger strike.

Asked whether MacSwiney was being fed, a home office official said: "Not that we know of, but you must remember his relatives have free access to him."

This is the first time officials have qualified the statement that as far as the government's doctors know, the lord mayor is not receiving nourishment. The prison physician reported to-day that MacSwiney was considerably weaker than he was yesterday.

Underwear for All

For the sort of weather we have, here in New England, it is not practical from a health standpoint to make a sudden switch from summer underwear to winter weights.

Far better—and safer—to have a supply of medium-weight garments that you can wear when the weather takes a sudden cold trend.

You'll find us well supplied with the best makes of medium weight undergarments; good values, too.

Open Monday evening as usual.

PETEE, LISTEN HARD!

When it's your good luck to butt into Buffalo, go to that store on Ellicott Square where the dark haired clerk slips out Camels with both hands—plus a tank of talk on the side!

The thing that tickled me most was his sureness that I was after Camels! As soon as I had my coin on the counter and before I could say a word, he flashed me a package of Camels! When I asked him how he knew I wanted Camels, he took a pull on his laugh stock and soaked me with this:—"Can't tell you, old mayonnaise—I'm dressing!"

After he had waited on several other men who drew their Camels like I did, this salesman said:—"For a fact, most men here smoke Camels. They hit the popular taste! Camels have the right body and the right mildness and the right flavor! They're ALL right!"

And, Pete—he added this without a stutter: The more I see of the world and the more I learn about cigarettes, the more respect I have for Camels and Camels quality! I don't believe a better cigarette could be made at any price!"

And Pete—oh, Pete—listen to this gem:—"And it's an odds on bet I'm a good judge. I've tried 'em all—and my taste is the jury box!"

If that isn't a swell line of Camel talk, I'll sell my shoes! But, Peter, that salesman is right! It's my belief that no cigarette in the world can be favorably compared with Camels—they're so smooth and mellow and delightful!

I'm herewith slipping between the sheets, old book. So, you tell 'em the rest—you're so full of knowledge!

Sincerely
Shorty.
