The body of Mary Ellen Hamel, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hamel, did not arrive in Barre this morning from Newport, R. I., as expected, but will come late today. The funeral will be held at St. Monica's church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the body will be placed in the vault at Elmwood cemetery. Edward Murphy, the 12-year-old son of David Murphy of Williamstown, who was accidentally shot in the neck by his older brother, William, Thursday afternoon, was reported to-day to be doing well at the City hospital following the removal of the bullet from back of the ear. The wound with which the wound was inflicted was a 22-calibre rifle instead of revolver, as stated in yesterday's paper. Now that the granite arch bridge on South Main street has been completed and accepted by the city, work is being rushed on the grading and filling in of the street approaching either end. In order to facilitate this work it has been deemed advisable to close the street to all traffic and beginning to-day and continuing all next week, South Main street from Ayers street to the city hall will be closed and traffic will be diverted via Ayers street entirely. Osmar Dodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Dodge of Elm street, had the privilege on Thanksgiving day of listening to a concert over a wireless telephone which he has installed in his home. The young man was unable to determine definitely where the musical sounds came from but he was of the belief that it was from somewhere in Massachusetts. He interpreted four different selections, but he could tell the name of only the last one, "Alcoholic Blues."

NORTHFIELD

Mrs. W. J. Fiske, who has been quite seriously ill, is slowly gaining, although still confined to her bed. Misses Thelma Donahue and Mildred McCarthy are visiting in Boston and vicinity. They will visit the former's sister, Mrs. Eugene Kingston, in Quincy, Mass., before their return home. C. Vergani of Woodville, N. H., who, with his son, Philip Vergani, recently conducted a fruit store in Northfield, was a recent visitor in town. James Holland of New York City was at his home in town over Thanksgiving. Miss Ellen Mead has given up her tenement on the corner of Main and South streets and gone to Post Mills to remain with her sister, Mrs. L. B. Allen, during the winter. Miss Mead's mother, with whom she lived, was buried last week. George Davis went to New York to spend Thanksgiving with his father, N. R. Davis, who is employed there. The Red Cross drive for membership is progressing rapidly in Northfield, as reported by all working on it. Last year the amount given in Northfield was $275 and it is hoped to swell the amount $100. Forty per cent of the money goes to the local branch to be used for humane work of some sort. Mrs. Ladd E. Morse is president of the local branch. Miss Roberta Davis, who teaches in Jeffersonville, and is at her home in Northfield, attended the district rally for Vermont conference girls in Montpelier recently. A daughter, Margaret, was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spear, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Ryan.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Bernard L. Hayward of Amherst, Mass., now in the employ of the Massachusetts Agricultural college as teamster, was at home with his parents for Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. George Marr had for holiday guests Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Farrington and two children of Cabot and James and Elmore Marr from the U. V. M., Burlington. The Farrington family came in their car with no special difficulty. Leon Webster and his wife and daughter, Lucile, of East Montpelier came in their Ford Thursday to spend the day with W. P. Briggs and family.

The granite business of William B. Jones and company is about down for a time on account of lack of orders. Rev. Charles E. Walsh and A. M. Goodrich were in Brookfield yesterday to attend the funeral of H. F. Groat, who lived in town for a time on south hill and moved from here to Brookfield. All the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hayward were with them for Thanksgiving, the count being 27, including husbands and wives. Hugh L. Seaver, rural carrier from Randolph, was in town last Thursday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Seaver.

The Bachelor Girls gave a very successful dance in grange hall last evening, the 26th, which was attended by about 30 couples, some coming from Randolph, Barre, South Barre and Graniteville. Norris & Sutor's orchestra of Graniteville, all pupils of Landi's school of music of Barre, made their appearance here and were able to give a very good account of themselves.

This organization has been practicing for several months but has been playing in public but a short time and has been well received. It is made up Karl Norris, pianist; Harold Sutor, violinist; Harold Carey, drums and traps, and Leonard Melver, cornetist, the last named being from Barre. At intermission a fine chicken-pie supper was served at the inn.

Pictures. Pictures. Where? Sunday at the Congregational church at 7:30. Subject, "Turkey and the Great War." Everybody welcome. A collection just to defray expenses. Service in the

Can Smuggling Be Stopped?

Many are disposed to blame the customs officers because the flowing of intoxicating liquors into this country from Canada is not stopped. They are doing the best they can. The Barton Monitor that is near the border and customs officials, says the force needs to be ten times as large to effectively cope with the evil. Did you ever stop to think that no additional officers have been assigned to this duty? Why? Because there is no money to pay for such work. When Congress meets to appropriate money enough to patrol the border, then there will be something done. As it is, the officials had all they could do before the smuggling of liquors commenced.—Morrisville Messenger.

The Explanation.

Returning home from a carnival the other night a Glenwood avenue man was jubilant because he had won prizes at several of the stands. "I got four boxes of candy, two kewpie dolls, seven stickpins and a chicken," he told his wife. "Did you wear your sporty hat?" "Yes." "And that suit with the big checks?" "Why certainly." "And that loud tie?" "Yes. But what's the difference?" "That accounts for the winning of all those prizes. I'll bet a cookie the stand keepers thought you were a caper connected with the outfit.—Youngstown Telegram.
