CITY CAUCUS TO-NIGHT.

The city caucus at the opera house to-night will have an important bearing on the conduct of Barre's affairs during the next year at least.

The newspaper-reading public will sigh with relief that Harding has parted company with the houseboat Victoria.

The nation which asked the United States to cancel its claims against the allied nations is too ashamed to have that fact known.

One of the signs of a hot summer is the appeal from the public for a removal of the one-cent tax from soda water and ice cream.

The Boston & Maine railroad refuses to abide by a daylight saving schedule in Massachusetts until similar schedules are adopted in the other New England states.

The Lyndon man who ate, at one meal, four hamburger steaks, four allotments of potato, 12 slices of bread with butter, four pieces of pie, four cups of coffee and four glasses of water undoubtedly had in mind the starving millions of children in central Europe and China and other places of the world.

Henry Ford is now committed to a back-to-the-farm movement. Although he failed to get the boys out of the trenches by Christmas he may succeed in getting people to forsake the huddled cities and return to the smaller communities.

It's a pity that a few million of those Chinese eggs which are being shipped to the United States cannot be distributed among the Chinese of North China who are said to be starving at the rate of ten thousand people a day.

The duty imposed on the health officers at the various ports of the United States is increased in large measure by the prevalence of disease in countries of Europe and Asia.

On the evening of the 11th of January a quiet wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Davis of Northfield, the contracting parties being Minnie Rosa Staples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solon F. Staples of this town and Daniel Scott Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Davis, Rev. James R. Sargent performing the ceremony.

Havana, Feb. 10.—Police authorities have closed the plant of the Cuatro Poder, a liberal daily, and seized copies of an edition containing a story that a military uprising had occurred at Matanzas.

some who do not hesitate to delude the public. Taken as a rule, the merchant in the small city or town tells the truth in his advertisements; if he is not truthful by nature he realizes that honesty is the best policy.

However, merchants are not the only persons or firms which advertise in the newspapers and the magazines. There are many classes of business which in later years have turned to the columns of the newspapers and the periodicals to acquaint the public with their wares or their line of goods or their occupation.
