STILLMAN HAS MORE EVIDENCE

To Present In His Fight to Secure Divorce from Anne Stillman

SECRET HEARINGS ARE BEING HELD

Several French-Canadians Have Been Called to Testify

New York, May 4.—James A. Stillman, who yesterday resigned the presidency of the National City bank, today resumed, in the first of a series of secret hearings, his fight for divorce from Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman.

It was said at the outset of the hearing to-day, which is being held before Referee Daniel J. Gleason in the rooms of the Bar association that the presentation of evidence would require at least three days. Several French-Canadians from Three Rivers, Quebec, site of the Stillman summer camp, were here for the hearing. In this connection it was said that Mr. Stillman would produce testimony to support his contention that his wife is the mother of a male child by her former Indian servant and guide, Fred Beauvais. In addition, it was reported further charges of alleged misconduct would be preferred against Mrs. Stillman.

It was announced that witnesses summoned by counsel for Mrs. Stillman in her counter charges of infidelity would be called to testify at a later hearing.

At a Mothers' Meeting

The wife of a noted New York divine said to her listeners, "Watch carefully your daughter's physical development. Mothers should keep their daughters well informed as to matters pertaining to health, and should see that nature is assisted, if necessary, to perform its offices."

Irregularities and pain are warning symptoms of some trouble, and mothers may depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to correct them and restore the system to a healthy, normal condition.—Adv.

LANDIS WILL NOT COMMENT

On Report He Is to Resign As United States Judge

FOLLOWING REPORT ON BILL IN SENATE

Making It Illegal for a Federal Judge to Accept Another Paid Job

Chicago, May 4.—The action of the Senate judiciary committee at Washington in indorsing last Monday a bill drawn by Senator Dial of South Carolina, making it illegal for a Federal judge to accept any other position of pecuniary profit, aroused again today the reports of the resignation of Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, who accepted the post last winter of high commissioner of baseball at $42,500 a year.

"Have I got to be denying these reports every week," asked the judge when the report was brought to his attention.

"Then it is not true," he was asked.

"I will not be quoted on the subject," the judge answered. "When I get ready to take action in the matter I will take you into my confidence."

Last winter, when impeachment charges were filed against Judge Landis by Representative Welby of Ohio, whose term has since expired, the judge said, "They will never impeach me."

"If both houses of Congress by a majority resolution express disapproval at my attempt to benefit 10,000,000 people who have a wholehearted interest in baseball, I will send my resignation as a federal judge to Washington by telegram," the jurist said then.

A Compromise.

"How did Bob Hunter come out of his dilemma in regard to those two girls?"

"He decided to love the poor one and marry the rich one."—Boston Transcript.
