TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. L. D. Carr and daughter of South Barre are visiting in Brookfield for a few days.

A daughter was born at the Barre City hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jackson of Springfield to-day.

Good selection of marquisette and scrim for curtains. Little Dry Goods Store, Cottage street, off Main street.—adv.

Judge E. L. Scott of the Barre city court went to Chelsea to-day to appear as attorney for a civil suit in Orange county court.

Do your shopping early. Store closed from Friday 6 p. m. to Monday 8 p. m. Little Dry Goods Store, Cottage street, off Main street.—adv.

Mrs. Sarah Higuera and four children of 10 Merchant street left last night for New York City, whence they will sail for Mrs. Higuera's former home in Spain, to make their home.

Mrs. Sarah McCormack arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Long Island, N. Y., to visit for a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Keefe of Upland avenue.

Clarence Geddes, formerly of this city, accompanied Burroughs orchestra of St. Johnsbury to the city yesterday to play at the annual alumni ball at Howland hall. Mr. Geddes plays a violin in the orchestra.

Thomas Carroll of the Carroll Bros. granite firm started yesterday on a few days' vacation, leaving here for New York City, where he will join Jerome Veronisi, who is also spending his vacation in New York.

Regular meeting of Col. J. B. Mead circle, No. 1 Ladies of the G. A. R., will be held Friday afternoon, June 10, in their hall in the Worthen block at 2 o'clock sharp. Refreshments and social hour after meeting.

Alfreda Maze of 95 Quarry street, a native of Spain and a workman in the granite industry, was married yesterday afternoon to Miss Florence Higuera of the A. Tomasi block by Justice of the Peace Earl R. Davis in his office in the Gordon block.

What's your first thought when you hear the fire alarm? It's that little steel box or old wooden trunk, you bet! Why endanger the treasures of a lifetime when you can be relieved of this worry for the small sum of $2.50 a year. Let the Peoples National carry the risk. Their massive vault of cement and steel will take care of you for only $2.50 per year.—adv.

The campaign instituted Tuesday in Washington county for membership in the Washington County Farm Bureau association is meeting with great success. In Waterbury, Tuesday, 90 farmers signed up, while in Duxbury yesterday, 40 more signified their intention of becoming members. It is estimated that 90 per cent of those solicited are enrolling, which is surely very encouraging to those in charge of the solicitation. Every town and village in the county will be visited and it is probable that most of the month will be needed to complete the work and tabulate final returns. The new enrollment is in the nature of a family membership, costing $10 and entitling the entire household to take part in the bureau. With sufficient memberships the county bureau will be able to have association with the state and national bodies and thus enlarge the scope and usefulness of the organization.

PROMINENT RUTLAND MAN.

Wallace C. Clement, Banker, Died Last Evening.

Rutland, June 9.—Wallace Charles Clement died at 6:40 last evening after an illness of three weeks with double pneumonia. He was born in Sherburne May 11, 1855. A part of his young manhood was spent in Illinois. He came to Rutland in 1869, where he had lived ever since. For a year he was engaged in the mercantile business in Center Rutland, a member of the firm of Clement & Son. In 1893 he became president of the Clement bank, which office he held from that time until now. He also had large business interests in Chicago and New York and was a director of the Rutland railroad.

He married Sarah Salome Fish in Illinois in 1857. Five children were born to them, Florence Anna, who died in childhood, Charles Fish, Frederick Percival, Charlotte Howard (Ripley) and Henry W. Clement, the last four surviving their father. The deceased is also survived by two brothers, ex-Governor Percival W. Clement and Waldo P. Clement, nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; one grandchild, Frederick Percival Clement, Jr., was killed in action during the World war.

BARRE'S CHAPTER LARGEST.

Leads State in O. E. S. Membership—Convention at Rutland.

Rutland, June 9.—The 49th annual convention of the grand chapter of Vermont, Order of the Eastern Star, held its first session yesterday afternoon at the Community house with an attendance of about 600 delegates from various parts of the state. Mrs. Abbie Allen of Milton, grand matron, presided. Mrs. Minnie L. Taylor, worthy matron of Phyllis chapter, No. 56, of this city, welcomed the delegates and Mrs. Josie H. Pa of Williston, associate grand matron, responded.

Over 1,000 members have been initiated this year into the order in this state, making a total enrollment of 10,000. There have been seven new chapters instituted, making a total of 86 chapters, Barre having the largest membership in the state.

The Lotus male quartet of Boston sang several selections during the session which were favorably received by the audience. Following the presentation of the national colors the quartet sang, "We Meet Again." The delegates enjoyed a sightseeing trip to various interesting points about the city.

A reception was given last evening by Phyllis chapter to the visiting members. Mrs. Grace Sage Griffith read "Pollyanna," and scored rounds of applause. Rev. George E. Price introduced the Lotus quartet which sang several selections. Mr. and Mrs. George B. MacGregor of this city sang a duet.

Mrs. Phyllis N. Burditt of Springfield, worthy grand warder of the grand chapter, was guest of honor. Mrs. Merris, grand matron of Arizona, is attending the convention. There are many guests from Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Illinois.

Montpelier Commencement Notes.

Miss Hylda Marsh gave a nice art exhibit in the studio at the administration building from 4 to 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Many friends of the students attended it. It was one of the best of recent years, there being a great deal more of the original ideas expressed and less of the copied work. Much oil work and calendar work, as well as placard displays, were shown. Miss Marsh, who came to the school in the middle of the school year, does not return next year. She will go to Massachusetts.

The baseball game between the seminary team and the National Life Insurance team resulted in a victory for the seminary by a score of 7 to 1. The game was fairly well played and Hull, a former twirler for the seminary, who did the work for the National, pitched a good game, while Walker, who was coach for the seminary this season, pitched for the seminary team. Neither of them was touched up to any extent. The features of the game were the unassisted double play by Henson getting Stancilife and Irons of the seminary team and a triple by Edwards which scored a couple of runs.

One of the interesting things in connection with the commencement was the return of Iris Batchelder, a business man in New York, who has accumulated considerable property since he went away from here in 1881 when he was graduated from the school. During the alumni meeting he told the members that when he was walking from five miles north of Worcester to the school that he stopped when two miles from Worcester and threw up a penny to see which way he should turn. The penny said "school" and he came.

He originated the prize debate between the Adelphi and Band societies, giving the prize money for the debates each season.

Only a little business other than the payment of bills took place at the meeting of the city council last evening. Complainants relative to the dog of a Mrs. Holden biting persons appeared. These include D. J. Long, Robert Johnson and G. W. Buley, with the result that Mayor Blanchard told Mrs. Holden that she would have to keep the dog tied up. The council voted to expand the permanent highway on State street and to use reinforced concrete but the matter of whether it would be in extending the present pipe or doing the work across the railroad track was not decided. A letter from the school commissioners complaining that the truancy laws were not enforced to their satisfaction was read and the matter left under consideration. It appears from what was said some of the council thought it pretty late to start cleaning up the schools along this line. The matter of a mother's pension for Mrs. Queenie Roberts was left for the overseer to investigate.

The report of the death of a Baker girl in Petersburg, N. Y., has been received at the secretary of state's office. It appears from the report that she was driving the automobile and Harold, her brother, was riding with her and that the car turned turtle, resulting in her death and Mr. Baker being badly hurt. George Short of Marshfield has reported an accident. George Hart of Stowe has called for an accident blank. Fred D. Smith of Randolph reports that he was approaching a car after there was a team close by which did not have any light and to prevent running into these his machine went off the bank and was tipped over.

W. G. Hastings, state forester, has returned from the northern part of the state, where he has been looking after forestry work, particularly for fire prevention. He has arranged for the construction of a lookout station on the top of Ball mountain in Westmore.

The examinations which the state board of pharmacy were conducting yesterday have been completed.

The $5,000 suit of Claron C. Fuller vs. Leroy Hatch has been filed in county court. It is claimed that Hatch alienated the affections of Fuller's wife away from Fuller.

John Trow of Barre has been appointed administrator of the estate of H. E. Page, late of Plainfield. The will of Norman MacLewy, late of Barre Town, has been proven in court. The will of Frederick E. Burr, late of Barre City, presented and Annie Burr has been appointed special administratrix until the will is proven.

Dr. Thomas L. Uniac, who was captain and manager of the Intercity baseball team at one time and who played with the team three seasons, is visiting in Montpelier.

A. W. Loud, who has contracted for the construction of federal road projects in New Haven and at Sandbar bridge, was in the city yesterday.
