A hawk was killed at the Hack farm in Orwell Saturday which measured four feet and one inch from tip to tip of its wings.

Rev. H. Sumner Mitchell was installed as minister of the First Congregational society (Unitarian) in Burlington Tuesday evening.

Dr. B. H. Stone, director of the laboratory of hygiene at Burlington, is in the Mary Fletcher hospital, critically ill, following a shock which he suffered Monday.

Miss Sophie Villemain, Winoski's oldest resident, observed her 92d anniversary Saturday night, 150 relatives and friends gathered to do her honor. There was a banquet, a program and dance, Miss Villemain dancing a fox trot at the reception.

The Roberts & Schaefer company, a firm of engineers in Chicago, has registered with the Vermont secretary of state as a foreign corporation doing business in Montpelier. They are working on the National Life Insurance company's new building.

During Saturday night 836 in a pocketbook and two gold watches were stolen from the Melrose hospital in Brattleboro and Mark Crawshaw of Providence, R. I., who had been in order there for a month, is missing. The money belonged to a student nurse and the watches to patients.

Hiram Davis, deputy commissioner of weights and measures, has returned to Montpelier after a trip for inspection of railway track scales. The roads inspected were the Boston & Maine, St. Johnsbury and Lake Champlain and Central Vermont. One set of scales at St. Albans was condemned and sealed.

John L. Berry of Andover, Mass., who had been a patient in the Melrose hospital in Brattleboro a year, with a broken back, was discharged Oct. 24. Mr. Berry, an employe of the Champlain Realty company, fell at Bondville where he was at work and broke his back. He was strapped to a board at the hospital for nearly eight months but for the past four months has been about.

Ethan E. Carr, for over 25 years a conductor on the St. Johnsbury & Lake Champlain railroad and a member of Chamberlain post, No. 1, G. A. R., died Saturday, aged 80 years. He was born in Walden, Sept. 11, 1841, and married April 10, 1874, Mrs. Esther Pierce of Danville. Their married life was spent in St. Johnsbury. His wife survives him. He had held many offices in Chamberlain post and was also a member of Passumpsic lodge of Masons.

The Judith Lyford Woman's club of Cabot has filed with the secretary of state notice of an amendment to its constitution by which the purpose of the organization will be to promote and aid educational interests of the town by assisting in the support of the public library, the furnishing of a reading room, and the lending of financial support where it is deemed advisable, to aid charitable interests by furnishing a room for Red Cross work, and to make the club known as an educational and charitable institution.

William Woodbury of Rutland is in the Proctor hospital with a fractured skull and no expectation to live; Paul Spicer of Benson is also in the hospital with bad bruises and George McCurdy, the third victim of an automobile accident which happened near Proctor Monday, has a broken ankle and injured eye. The cause of the accident is unknown. Woodbury, a veteran of the World war, was driving a Spicer wagon on the seat with him and McCurdy alone on the back seat. The car, which was traveling a straight course at not more than 20 miles an hour, according to one of the party, suddenly left the road, went into a ditch and then hit a tree, throwing Woodbury and Spicer onto the control board and McCurdy from the machine.

Vermont Automobile Accidents. Automobile accidents were reported to the secretary of state by William Thynne of Burlington, who struck a team loaded with furniture on Pearl street in Burlington last Monday; H. B. McNeil of Ludlow, who states that his wife and daughter were run into while driving a wagon last Sunday evening; Jesse H. Laselle of St. Albans bay, whose Ford was into the ditch and turned over on Monday, and W. W. Rowe, whose car was struck in the rear in front of the Rochester inn last Monday night by a car driven by Charles E. Manley of Braintree.

Ernest Blaine of East Bethel was in a collision with Arthur J. St. Antoine of Burlington at the foot of Johnny's hill in St. Albans on last Monday evening, according to a report received at the secretary of state's office. Mr. Blaine's car was damaged in the front left wheel and one steering knuckle and Mr. St. Antoine's lost one steering knuckle and was damaged in one rear fender.

A patent locking device on the steering wheel was said to have caused an accident on Sunday, in which a car driven by Miss Gladys Farwell of Rutland went over a bank, turning the car over on its side. The front wheels were left free when the steering lock became loose and the car headed across the road. Mrs. F. S. Farwell suffered a broken wrist and the car was damaged to the extent of $25.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles Conquered or Money Back

For 40 years, said Dr. Carey, I have been practicing Marshroot for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price, on the money back if dissatisfied plan.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health. Watch the symptoms. If you have speckled feet, itching of the eyes, puffy eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, headache or dizziness, you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot right away.

NOTE—Dr. Daniel G. Carey was a practicing physician for many years and his great prescription, Marshroot, aided thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription in both liquid and tablet form at all reliable pharmacists and country grocers. Keep in mind the name, Dr. Carey's Marshroot, and you will not be misled.
