

WELLS RIVER

Golf Tournament Ends With Hutchins Winner.

In the third round of the Grafton-Orange tournament, Rev. Donald Fraser was eliminated by Dr. A. B. Woodman with one up. Playing to a tie on the 17th hole Rev. Fraser lost the 18th by one stroke. In the semi-finals played on Saturday last, Learned D. Smith eliminated M. F. Buck with three up and two to go. Sam Hutchins won from Dr. Woodman by three up. A great deal of interest has been shown in golf this summer. The course is in the best shape it has been for several years, and the outlook for the 1922 season is extremely bright.

Last week Tuesday a Ford, owned by Wilson Beattie, smashed into the fence in front of the Baldwin residence while making the sharp turn. The driver of the car claimed that the steering gear did not work. Neither the men nor women in the car were hurt although several lengths of iron fence were smashed and the front of the car damaged.

Mr. Lowe, who has been employed by the Adams Paper Co. since the war, left with his mother for her home in England last Wednesday, sailing from Montreal on Saturday, the 30th. A farewell party was given to him and his mother on the Tuesday preceding at Hale's tavern. We are all sorry to lose Mr. Lowe but cannot but feel that spring will find him back in the U. S.

Bert Symes and brother, who left last week for the hunting grounds of northern New Hampshire in a house on wheels, was towed home from Wing road on Monday, due to a broken crank shaft. The Symes boys have made, in their spare time, a small house which they placed on an Overland truck chassis. The house was equipped with folding beds, kerosene stove for cooking, a wood stove for heat and all the other small comforts. They expect to be able to start once more in a short time.

The rent recently vacated by Kilburn Powers in the postoffice block has been re-rented to R. E. Powers who moved into same on Monday. His rent, in turn, on South Main street has been let to Carlos McAllister, which still leaves the village without a rent and placing every rent at a premium.

Barre Opera House 4 DAYS Starting Monday, Nov. 7 2 SHOWS DAILY Matinee 2.15 P. M. Evening 8.15 P. M. Wm. Fox presents the most appealing story ever told "OVER THE HILL" From the poems of Will Carleton Scenario by Paul H. Sloane Directed by Harry Millarde A Story That Will Leave You Better for Having Seen It

Direct from a year's run in New York William Fox presents The wonder play of the century OVER The HILL From the poems of Will Carleton Scenario by Paul H. Sloane Directed by Harry Millarde An Open Letter from William Fox In presenting "Over the Hill" for the consideration of exhibitors and motion picture patrons the world over, I am performing a task which affords me a delight wholly unalloyed. Will Carleton, upon whose poems this production is based, is known as the "Farm Poet." He sang of the homely things of life—the things with which you and I are intimately familiar. Nor has any poet ever revealed a keener knowledge of the inner workings of the hearts and minds of just Plain Folks. In "Over the Hill" and its companion poems he touched upon the same subject which caused Aeschylus to break the heart of his father, David, King of Israel, and which evoked from King Lear his immortal plaint, "How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child." It is a subject which will wrest song from the poets of all the generations yet to come. I have watched the development of "Over the Hill" from the moment the first scene was written. I have watched it throughout the months it has been in course of production. It represents a labor of love. In it I take a pride which has never been exceeded—or even equalled—in all the years Fox Film Corporation has been issuing pictures. "Over the Hill" is a picture that will live as long as the homely virtues continue to exist. It will live as long as love of a mother for her bairns. Dedicated to all the mothers and fathers in the world, it will do its share toward making the world a better place in which to live. (signed) WILLIAM FOX Prices: Matinee 30c Night 35, 50c No higher.
