Clemenceau Says We Left Europe In a Snarl

AFTER MINGLING OUR BLOOD WITH ALLIES

Ex-premier Declares We Ought To Stand Against Germany

New York, Nov. 22 (By the Associated Press)—Georges Clemenceau to-day prepared to rest after having delivered in his first address in the United States, a warning to Americans that German militarists were preparing for another war.

In this address, spoken in the Metropolitan opera house last night before an immense audience, the war premier of France eyed what he termed friendly criticisms of the United States for its post-war attitude, declaring that after mixing its blood with that of the allies, it had stepped out of international affairs, leaving Europe in a snarl.

He urged Americans to renew conversations with France and Great Britain, to present a united front to Germany and show that the terms of the Versailles treaty, including the payment of reparations, must be carried out. He did not attempt to indicate how America should gain take up her hand in international affairs, but said that he might speak of the league of nations as a practical vehicle.

The next address which the Tiger will make in his American tour will be in Boston. He leaves for that city to-morrow morning. About the only item remaining on his official New York appointment list is a review of the 106th infantry in Brooklyn this afternoon.

REPUDIATES COURT SYSTEM

DeValera Says British Establishments Are Infringement

ON INDEPENDENCE OF IRISH PEOPLE

Proclamation Declares the Courts Are Hereby Suppressed

Dublin, Nov. 22. (By the Associated Press)—A republican proclamation, issued and signed by Eamon De Valera, as president, and P. J. Rutledge, as minister for home affairs, accuses the provisional government of "pursuing rebellion against the republic, endeavoring to re-establish the old British courts and trying to set up a system of district courts in 26 counties to supersede republican courts."

"Whereas these British courts, whether in their old form or their new disguise, are illegal usurpation of authority, infringement of the sovereign independence of the Irish people and a danger to the republic," the proclamation says, "it is decreed by the government of the republic that all British courts purporting to exercise jurisdiction within the territory of the republic, whether known by the name kings court or district court, are hereby suppressed."

The proclamation declares that anyone taking any part in such courts without the sanction of the republican government will be deemed an enemy of the republic.

ALL FIVE DISCHARGED

After Trial on Charge of Assaulting Mrs. Mary Raab.

Malden, Mass., Nov. 22.—The trial of five members of a Melrose house party on charges of assaulting Mrs. Mary O'Leary Raab, which has developed references to the killing some months ago of Patrolman James Preston of Wakefield and to Clarence W. Loud of Melrose, who was acquitted of that crime, ended yesterday with the discharge of all five defendants. Judge W. W. Stover, in his decision holding them not guilty, made no reference to the Preston murder or to Loud. Mrs. Raab alleged that she was beaten and thrown into the street at night because she knew too much about the Preston case.

In rebuttal testimony yesterday, she said that Loud was one of those at the party, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dow; that on the evening of Sept. 1, Loud, the Dows and herself went to a shooting gallery at Nahant and, while handling a gun there, Loud remarked to Mrs. Dow: "Well, kitten, we've bumped one off. Watch me hit this bull's eye."

When she answered, "Yes," to a question from her counsel whether Mrs. Dow ever told her anything about the Preston murder, the subject was ruled out as being irrelevant.

NORWICH UNIVERSITY.

Robert A. Elwood of Atlantic City Spoke to Students.

Northfield, Nov. 22.—Every foreigner who enters this country with the intention of living here should be compelled to acquire a reading and writing knowledge of the American language, according to Robert A. Elwood, pastor of the famous Boardwalk church in Atlantic City, N. J., who addressed the cadet corps of Norwich university here yesterday. Within a year after his arrival he should be required to file his first papers, and if he cannot or will not do so, he should be ordered from the country. The newspapers printed in his native language should be taken from him and replaced by the American newspaper. Such treatment applied to the foreign population of the United States would constitute a great step in the production of greater intelligence throughout the country.

More stringent laws governing compulsory education in this country, for foreign and native children alike, was also advocated by Mr. Elwood, who is a prominent place in America, may be exterminated. Compulsory military training in all schools, for the physical value that it yields if for nothing else, was also urged.

Successful candidates for the Norwich university drill team which will give exhibitions during the winter were announced to-day.

TRY SALTS IF KIDNEYS ACHE

Says Backache often means you have been eating too much meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. An excess of meat may form uric acid, which overworks the kidneys and they become sort of paralyzed and clogged. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water seals and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink. Drink lots of soft water.—adv.

Receipts: Butter, 53,955 pounds; cheese, 613 boxes; eggs, 1687 cases; same day last year, butter, 84,330 pounds; cheese, 2879 boxes; eggs, 1371 cases.

Dairy Market Briefs.

Milk—The New England November price on milk is eight and one-half cents per quart delivered in Boston. This price is the same as prevailed in October. The New York November price for class one (milk for fluid consumption) remains the same as for October, $2.90 per cent. of three per cent. milk in the 200-mile zone.

Cream—On account of the prevailing high prices for butter the price of cream during the first part of the month advanced to a point which caused a slight curtailment in consumption. Just at the present, however, the supply of cream is shortening up. This will help the situation considerably.

Butter—The middle of November shows easier conditions on all the markets. The receipts of butter have increased steadily, and the gradual advance in prices has caused a decrease in consumptive demand. The high prices have attracted offerings of foreign butter.

Henry Ford's Advice.

Henry Ford is a fairly frequent visitor in New England, for business, or pleasure. Business brought him, either the past week. In Boston he attracted notice by advising young men to spend money and gain experience and by announcing that he was going to spend some money there himself—to build a deep-water terminal for the handling of his export business. Mr. Ford's remarks on spending are reported to have been fortified by his reference to himself as a man who did not begin to make money until he was 40.

Perhaps Mr. Ford's ideas were elaborated by an ingenious reporter. In Mr. Ford's Detroit plant the workmen are encouraged—by interest rates higher than normal—to save money. Perhaps Mr. Ford was giving advice only applicable to geniuses like himself. Or, perhaps, he was seeking to hearten those who desire to make money and have reached 40 without attaining their aim.—Springfield Republican.

Are You the Man Who "Never Reads Advertisements?"

Some men, who are neither blind nor illiterate, claim sincerely that they "never read advertisements."

Yet, if you could investigate, in each case you would find that the man who "never reads advertisements" used an advertised tooth paste or shaving cream or soap. If he owns an automobile it will be an advertised car. If you ask his opinion of any automobile he will reply in words that might have been lifted bodily from an advertisement of that automobile.

Advertising has formed his opinions to a great degree. He may have received his information through others who obtained their knowledge from advertising. But it is a fact that no man can escape the effects of advertising even if he does say he "never reads advertisements."

Not one of us ever reasoned out entirely from his own mind that the earth is round. If we had not read it or heard it we would never have known it.

In these days of good, truthful, helpful advertising to say "I never read advertisements" is merely your way of saying, "I don't read all advertisements."
