

Old Ivory Bedroom Suite

Dresser Bed 4-6 Chiffonier
 Vanity Dresser—2 Hand Mirrors
 Bench Rocker Stand

This suite is in complete accord with the advanced ideas of the progressive French school of modern designers, in which certain details taken from recognized classics—in this case the Louis XVI style—are combined to form a complete and harmonious composition.

The association of woven cane and old ivory enamel for which the Northern Furniture Company is known wherever furniture is sold, is worked out to the highest advantage in this group.

The Vanity Dresser with Complementary Hand Mirrors or "Cleopatras," is particularly striking. The chest of drawers is of unusual width in furniture of this grade, and will be found most useful to include with whatever other selections you may desire.

Here is something for you to ponder over—when you figure up the time, trouble and expense entailed in doing your own baking, then compare the quality of your own efforts with that to be secured here, there is to be but one conclusion—it doesn't pay to do your own bread baking, and what's more, we are as scrupulously careful as the most particular woman would be in every detail of our bread baking.
