Train No. 18 now gets to town at 8:15—45 minutes later than it used to.

The grand jury of Henderson county investigated that letter and found —!

Extensive alterations and repairs will soon be made in St. James Rectory.

Mrs. W. H. Phillips has returned from a two week's visit to Fruitland.

Rev. R. N. Willcox will leave shortly for the North on a business trip.

H. Patterson has opened a cleaning and pressing establishment in the rock building near the Hotel Gates.

William Freeman, Zirconia, was in town Sunday. Mr. Freeman has resigned his position as ticket agent at Zirconia.

The Hendersonville Mercantile Co. will move next week to Glazener's old stand, next to the Blue Ridge Inn.

Quarterly meeting service will be held at Horse Shoe chapel by Rev. Willson next Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 24th and 25th.

Fifteen or twenty pheasants were seen on the old Bowen property last Tuesday, a most unusual sight in Henderson county.

Mayor Schenck has returned from Greensboro, his old home, where he has been attending the centennial celebration of that town.

J. M. Shepherd, last Tuesday, was 68 years young. Just 47 years ago he left Hendersonville with the old Jordan company, for the war.

Claude Sales, genial and smiling, was in town yesterday, greeting his many friends. Mr. Sales is one of the best posted men, politically, of this county, and his observations of the present campaign are interesting.

W. C. Williams, who was telegraph operator here in 1887, was in town Monday. Mr. Williams says if he had been brought blindfold into Hendersonville, he would have declared it another town than the one he left in '87. He says the changes have been marvelous.

Every farmer who can should take advantage of the course in butter making and closely related subjects at the farm of Jonathan Case at Dana, October 26th to 30th. The North Carolina Department of Agriculture and the U. S. Department of Agriculture will co-operate in conducting this course, and it will be a rare opportunity for those interested in the butter making industry.

Heavy Hauling
Wood of All Kinds

See us if you have any hauling to be done, or if you need any wood for the winter.

We didn't do it!

Who write the letter?
Air you registered?

Claude Brown's in Charlotte. Letter writing is in disfavor in Hendersonville, thank you.

Mrs. S. F. Wheeler left for Columbia last Thursday.

United States Simmons at the court house next Monday.

J. H. Williams, Uree, was in town Sunday.

The town is some quiet after court week and its big crowd.

J. E. Allen was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday.

Miss Rosa Fred, of the Bee Hive, made a short visit to Brevard last week.

Of course you will hear Senator Simmons at the court house next Monday.

Go to the Bryan Club meeting, Thursday night. Over J. O. Williams' store.

There's climates and climates but little old Hendersonville is in a class to itself.

You can get the Hustler for the next fourteen months for only one dollar, in advance.

The Star Dray and Wood Co. have a great big six-horse power portable engine

All members of the Carpenter's Union are requested to be at their hall next Saturday night. Important business to be transacted.

The Christmas Hustler—out about December 1st—will be just the thing to send your out-of-town friends. Order it early.

Charlie Hefner, who has been in the employ of Hunter's Pharmacy, left last week for New Smyrna, Fla., where he will work for the winter. Charlie has many friends here who hope he will do well and return to us in the Spring.

TAX NOTICE

This is to give notice that the State and county taxes for the year 1908 are now due and must be paid at once in order to meet the necessary expenses of conducting public affairs.

Respectfully,
C. E. BROOKS

At Tryon, Tuesday night, Oct. 27

At The Methodist Church.

Rev. J. W. Moore, pastor of the Methodist church, last Sunday began a series of special sermons of a highly important character. His morning discourse was to children, and the little folks turned out in large numbers, and were evidently deeply impressed. The talk to "fathers and mothers" was heard by a large and deeply interested congregation at the evening hour. Next Sunday morning the sermon will be to husbands and wives, and at night to young ladies and young men.

Few pastors have ever more completely moved the hearts of their people in a year's time than has this consecrated and eloquent preacher, and as the annual conference approaches our Methodist friends become more anxious for his return to this charge for another year. Such men as Mr. Moore are always in demand, but it is to be hoped the Hendersonville church will have his services for another year.

Ohio for Bryan

Mr. H. Patterson has returned from Ohio, where he says the sentiment is all for Bryan. Speaking of the Great Commoner's appearance in Cincinnati, when he spoke to 8,000 people in the Music Hall, Mr. Patterson says the people simply went wild. "It is interesting to note," remarked Mr. Patterson, "that Taft, when he spoke in the same place, had an audience not half as large as that which listened to Bryan." And Cincinnati is the home town of Judge Taft.

Civil Court Jurors.

First week.
J. W. Ward, J. B. Morris, Elley Maxwell, W. V. Jones, G. W. Weese, W. A. Prior, J. F. Jones, R. M. Prior, B. A. Merrell, W. G. Gullick, T. C. Israel, Levy Ledford, S. Y. Souther, N. J. Beddingfield, A. F. Coggin, R. E. Ward, W. W. Guice, J. C. Orr, R. C. Stepp, J. T. Jones, R. K. Orr, J. A. J. Shipman, F. M. Huggins, J. P. Capps.

Second week.
S. A. Johnson, A. B. Prestwood, J. K. Jones, R. B. Hipp, A. G. Williams, Jesse A. Maxwell, W. C. Moore, S. J. Pittillo, J. T. Staton, W. A. Slatery, T. E. Pittillo, C. C. Huggins, J. J. Osteen, T. G. Dill, D. B. McKillop, J. P. Corver, Leander Drake, W. A. King.

Cocke Guest of Bryan Club.

Hon. W. J. Cocke will be the guest of the Bryan Club at Fletcher tonight (Thursday) and the Club intend to entertain him royally. The Bryan Club of Fletcher is composed of DEMOCRATS—witness their contribution given in last week's paper of $19.75 to the National Campaign fund.

The Hotel Gates.

Mr. A. A. Gates is now in the city and has assumed active management of his big hotel here. The house is being thoroughly renovated, steam heat will be put into all those sunshine rooms in the southern portion of the building, and all arrangements are being made to keep the hotel open for the winter.

Mr. who so satisfactorily and efficiently filled the position of steward two years ago, has returned with Mr. Gates and is again at the head of that department.

Bryan Safe.

A careful poll of the various counties of the State indicates 50,000 majority for Bryan and Kitchin. Besides, the election of Bryan is confidently predicted. In Chicago lately the betting was three to one in favor of the Nebraskan. National Democratic Chairman Mack declares that a tidal wave of democracy is going to sweep the country on Nov. 3rd. Tammany Hall has gotten on the Bryan band wagon and loosened its purse strings to the tune of $15,000. All of which is significant.

Foot Washing.

There will be sacrament and foot washing at Mount Christle church on the first Sunday in November. All are invited to attend.

Honor Roll.

The following constitute the roll of honor of Gerton school for regular attendance.
Carrie Wall, Ruth Merrell, Ernest Merrell, Luther Sinclair, Claud Wall, Roy Oates, Luther Oates, Sue Sinclair, Myrtle Belle, Scott Freeman, Robert Carl, Harry Tommy and Rollie Oats, Bell Grant, Harry and John Sumner, Robert Merrell, Eva and Myrtle Merrell.
The first six named have not missed a day.
